The connections with the New Jersey Dola Rar Bag are being pushed rapthe Delaware bay, are completion. The road is finished idy to completion, : work is being made on the pier at the latter place. This is to be an extensive job. It is to be a "slip." as it is termed, or a pier in two prongs, extending into deep water, between which the steamer is to run to the track. . By this means it can he snéely in the dock; and not be disturbed the heaviest sea. A mud machine is digging out the harbor, and ajpile driver is placing the piliog in pasition. The pites tro from 40 to 60 feat, as the depth a water may require. riree sre being built for the route, one of whioh $t 0$ be called "Jay Gould," will be among the finest engines ever buill. Lt is to be nicsle plated, and whi rua the Long Brach Mr Gould is also having buith at Jonkith N. 5., twontp-fivo passenger and one hundred freight cars. Half of the latter nre finished, and are nicels ventila, ed, for carrying fruit. Some of the passenger cars to be put on the route when completed will be magnificent; Work on'the-Masseg'send is-beins pushed-rap idly, ond Mr. Gould desire日lt finished by Soptember. The Chesapeake têromlnas Fill be ar "Llerring Pond." instead of at Rook Hall. This Herring Pond is a most attractive spot, and could be, and perkapo will be, made an attruclive resorb.

Attempts to form Granges of tha Order of Patrons of Husbandry among the farmers of New England have proved almont total failures. Only one giange is maid to have been formed, and that is in GreenGiold, Mans.
It is said that the nation pays $$ 100$,000,000 for bread yearly, $$ 200,060,000$ for tobaceo, and $8000,000,000$ for liquors, to say nothing of the other nareotics. there was a henvy amoll in the sea during the storm the other lay. Junkins mnyn there aro heavy swelly in tho seu there overy duy.
Poverty puta a fearful strain on a man's honesty. Tho poor man wha lives an honest lifo is enitled to more ordit than tho man of woalth. This is wrong. If any distinc ion is to be made in the treatment o ciminalis, we would favor teniency to the poor-and ${ }^{2}$-severity to the rich. The one may have been driven to the commission of crime by cruel want; the other has no reasonable equse. As "Poor Richard sayg, "It is hard to make an empty sack stand upright." This deecribes the con dition of a paor man-perfectly-A - An-enyty stomach, -a starving-family $=$ a forlorn_garret or cellar, are serious obstacles to per-
