

HEALTH NOTES

There are at present two cases of diphtheria. There are a great many cases of sore throat which can easily develop into diphtheria unless properly cared for.

The cause of our trouble for the last six months has been due to gross carelessness. We have been too generous in wanting to share our troubles with our neighbors. Keep your neighbors away if any of your household is sick.

INSPECTOR.

No electric lights to-morrow.

Victor, the seven-year old son of Frank Lenden, died on Monday, of diphtheria.

Adin Westcoat and family started for Ohio, early this week, where he has a good position.

Mrs. H. R. Monfort and her younger son have gone to South Carolina, for a visit.

The "Home Players" are planning to give another play on Feb. 17th. Details next week.

The War Relief Fund Committee will meet next Tuesday, at 2 p. m., with Mrs. L. H. Parkhurst.

Mr. W. H. Swallow was taken to Hahneman Hospital, Philadelphia, on Monday, for treatment.

The electric light plant will be shut down all day to-morrow, to complete connections with their new boiler.

Mrs. Geishaker is reported as slightly better. She and her sister having been very ill. Mrs. White has had to act as housekeeper and nurse, while herself suffering from lagrippe.

An enjoyable party was given to Mrs. G. N. Lyman, last week Friday evening, accompanied by a very acceptable present, in honor of her twenty-five years of continuous service as Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist C. E. Society.

A report reached us, Thursday, of the death of Mr. A. W. Cooper, for some years a well-known resident here. It is stated that, being infirm from age, he was admitted to an Old Man's Home, in the city, where he remained but two weeks. We do not know that he had any relatives.

There will be an impressive memorial service to-morrow, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Baptist Church, held by the High School classmates of Willis Lintner, whose death occurred Jan. 13th. Comrades of the Boy Scouts, of which he was a popular member, will also participate.

The Nescochague Camp Fire Girls of Hammonton have already sold one hundred little recipe booklets, and are now taking orders for a second hundred. These come in a series of seven—"Candy," "Sandwiches," "Salads," "Cake-Maker," "Desserts," "Dainty Luncheons," and "Ten-Minute Recipes"; but may be purchased separately, at ten cents each. Phone orders to 836, or write to Miss Ethel M. Packard, Sec'y.

Three Fires.

Within a half-hour after invited guests had left Dr. A. G. Lewis' newly-fitted-up suite of offices, on Cherry Street, fire broke out about midnight last Friday night; and but for the timely passing-by of a local pastor and several his flock, going home from a party, nothing but cladders would have been left to mark the spot. They rang the big bell, and firemen were soon on the job with water and chemicals, and soon had the fire out. The Doctor's fine library was badly damaged, much of it ruined. How the fire started is yet a mystery, though it looked as if a cigarette stub had been carelessly thrown onto the rug.

Another alarm sounded a few hours later, at ten o'clock, Saturday morning. This alarm came first to the down-town company, from Rocco DeMarco's, four miles out, on Pine Road. It was but a "smoker," and no help needed.

Miss Forman's Domestic Science Class

The Atlantic County Vocational Board of Education will open its second annual six weeks course in Domestic Science, under the direction of Miss Frances Forman. This course will begin, in all probability, during the week of February 19th. Although the location of the classes has not yet been determined, it is a good thing for those who expect to attend to enroll with Mr. McDougall, the Vocational Instructor. He is in his office, over Ranere's garage, every afternoon, and on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, for the purpose of holding classes, and will be pleased to receive enrollments at any time. Decide at once to join the class. Tell your friends, and enroll now, so as to help Miss Forman make her plans.

Statistics for Nineteen-Sixteen

Following is a very much condensed report, taken from an itemized statement furnished us by the Secretary of the Board of Health: Marriages, 53; births, 162; Deaths, 80; Communicable disease, 120; receipts, $1088.50; expenditures, $1720.25.

The extra expenditures were for quarantine officers, anti-toxine, and the lung-motor.

Six Weeks Course in Agriculture

For the farmers of the district who have been unable to attend the regular sessions of Vocational Schools, it has been decided to again hold a course of six weeks duration. This period will be divided into units of two weeks each. The first week will be devoted to pruning, grafting, budding, soils and soil requirements, varieties and truck rotation. The second and third weeks will be spent on plant food and fertilizers, including calculating and mixing. The fourth and fifth weeks will be devoted to the study of insects and diseases, spray materials and spraying machinery. During the sixth week, thinning, picking and harvesting, and hot-bed work will be the main topics. The sessions will be held at a time most convenient to the farmers, and for about one to two hours per day. Kindly let the Vocational School Instructor know your intention. Enroll, and give him an idea of what is desired.

Town Council Meeting.

Every City Father was in his seat at Wednesday evening's session of Town Council.

Finance Committee recommended paying the six claims for chickens killed by dogs, aggregating $961.75. This was paid out of a dog fund of $1381.41.

Ben. Foglietto offered to pay the taxes and costs on a ten acre lot belonging to the Town, on Ninth Street, between Second and Third Roads. Referred to Committee.

T. B. Delker was granted lease of Park refreshment stand.

Property Committee recommended new doors, blinds and locks at Park Hall; also, erection of loft for storing; also posting of signs offering twenty-five dollars reward for information to convict parties doing damage at Park. Committee will ascertain cost, and report.

John Birdall was released from his bid on fire apparatus. Clerk and Committee will proceed to prepare new specifications, and re-advertise for bids.

Bills paid as follows:

Town Purposes	700.00
Highways	18.01
Fire Department	36.75
Post	118.09
Board of Health	68.70
Power	8.18
Street Lights	248.76
Tax, on floating debt	202.21

Andrew Vasella was granted a renewal of pool-room license, in the Baker building.

Citizens having voted to extend Packard Street, Mr. Rider asked that the Town proceed to lay out same to Fairview. Solicitor will see how the matter stands.

Slaking Fund Commission reported receipts as $15,013.

Clerk reported Bellevue contract signed by State Commissioner of Public Roads.

Bank Bros.

Bank Bros.

A Sale of White Goods

Buy now, while prices are low. You will not be able to duplicate these values.

Waists Reduced to $1

Including all waists on hand, of veil and lawn, plaid and striped voiles, embroidery and lace trimmed. Sizes 36 to 46

Reduced to $2.50

Waists of Georgette crepe and striped pongee; were $3.50 and $3.75

Reduced to 75 cents

One lot of white voile and lawn waists

Muslin Underwear at a Great Saving.

Combination (corset and drawers) reduced to 39 cents

Combination (corset and drawers) reduced to 75 cents; were $1 and $1.25

Combination (corset and drawers) reduced to $1; were $1.50

Night Gowns at 50 cents

Of cambric and muslin, embroidery and lace trimmed

Night Gowns special at 65 cents

Of fine cambric, embroidered with silk, and lace trimmed.

Night Gowns at 75 cts and 85 cts

Of cambric, nicely trimmed

Night Gowns at $1

Of longcloth and nainsook and flowered crepe.

Night Gowns at $1.25 and $2

Of fine quality nainsook and cambric—trimmed with fine lace and embroidery.

Princess Slips reduced to 75 c.

Were $1 and $1.25

Petticoats at 50 cts and 75 cts

Lace and embroidery trimmed

Petticoats at $1 and $1.25

Of nainsook and embroidery, with fine embroidery ruffles

Petticoats at $1.50,

Of nainsook, trimmed with very neat embroidery

Drawers at 25 c and 50 c

Of nainsook, trimmed with very neat embroidery.

Envelope Chemise at 48 c and 50 c

Nicely trimmed; cambric and muslin

Envelope Chemise at 75 c, 95 c, $1 and $1.25.

Of nainsook and cambric, nicely trimmed with lace.

CORSETS

Models to suit all figures. You will find a complete stock to choose from.

American Lady Corset at $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3

Nemo Corsets, $3.50, $4, and $5

Corset special at 50 cents

Table Damask at very low prices

25 cents per yard for fine table linens, 58 inches wide

Table Linens at 35 cents per yard, 58 in.

Table Linens at 60 c and 75 c pr yard

Linen Table Covers special, $1.50 and $2

Table Covers of Austrian Linen, special at $2.50, $3, and $4.

Table Covers and Napkins at $5 for set of genuine Austrian linen.

Coats and Suits for Women and Misses at greatly reduced prices.

Come and take advantage of the values offered.

BANK - BROTHERS' - STORE

D. N. HURLEY
Express, Hauling
and Moving
Local Phone 867
Second and Vine Sts.
Hammonton, N. J.

Girls Wanted

At the Hosiery Mill
To learn Looping and Knitting.
Learners paid $6.00 per week.

Headquarters for the Finest Quality of Beef, Veal, Lamb, Mutton, Pork, and Burk's Specialties.
Calves' Liver and Sweet Breads, fresh killed on our premises.

RUSSO BROS. CASH MARKET

Where Quality and Economy Meet.

Walter J. Vernier
PLUMBING & HEATING
Contractor
Registered
Hammonton, N. J.
Local Phone 904

NOTICE.

Taxes and Sewer Rents not paid on or before February 1st will be recorded in the County Clerk's office as a first lien, with additional costs.

A. B. DAVIS, Collector.

PULPIT TOPICS

GOD'S SHEPHERDING CARE.

God's Shepherd Care. The text was from Psalm 23: 2: "He leadeth me..."

David in this psalm is giving the world the benefit of his experience. He is not transferring. Each of us has to leave his own. Still the experience of others does tell upon us as an education and a stimulus.

It will be quite in order to remark in passing that the church has suffered a definite loss because of the diminished habit of requiring the children to memorize select portions of Scripture. Both at home and in the Sabbath school we who are now adults were obliged to familiarize ourselves with the psalm in the most precise manner of the vine grower, but it offers to the vine a support to which its tendrils can attach themselves and so brings to it just that touch of encouragement that makes it easier for it to grow, and to grow up.

It is in the service of this kind that our psalm has been rendered to the glory of God and the edification of his people. It is a kind of melody—this Psalm is—in which the saints of all ages have been fostering the longings of the heart in the presence of God while rehearsing in their thought the music in which David sang forth his experience of quietude and assurance.

This psalm possesses a quality that indicates that it was the product of mature years. Time is an element in the ripening of souls as certainly as it is that of the fruit. The boy Samuel ministered in the priest's office, but it is a "rose" that was "scented" in his little boy. Fresh is life's flesh, life's fire, life's soul.

It is precisely the use of such omniscience that is scripturally offered into the hands of the young. The Lord is willing to praise Him, so He is willing to convert man's failures into an account of His perfecting work. The substance of the psalm is a statement which I should have highlighted to make had not Jesus said of a certain woman, "For whom will I forgive the same, the seven, or the one?"

The method by which the Lord led him, David does not specify. Facts point to him more than the explanation of facts. The Lord is the joy of feeling that he was led by clouding that enjoyment with troubled queries as to the machinery of divine guidance. In the years, he put simple construction upon profound truths and thought of the matter in so childlike a way as to liken the matter to a shepherd guiding his flock. "This made of it a pleasant and comforting thing to his heart."

That in what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

That is what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

issued disastrously, and not perhaps out of love to the Lord, but out of the feeling that life is too complicated a thing to be left to the whims of a man to leave his own. Still the experience of others does tell upon us as an education and a stimulus. The world is today a better and a more hopeful world because of the twenty-third Psalm. It answers somewhat the purpose that the training of the vine, it does not precisely make the vine grow, but it offers to the vine a support to which its tendrils can attach themselves and so brings to it just that touch of encouragement that makes it easier for it to grow, and to grow up.

As this whole situation has framed itself before me with greater and greater clarity, it has become increasingly strange to me that we do not stand more in awe of the unknown years into which we are day by day entering, and that we are not more appalled by the mystery of the future, and that, as we morning by morning resume the journey of life, we do not have more of that sense of tremendous hesitancy which possesses the lone traveler on a desolate and uncharted path.

We can probably most of us revert to some day by even some moment of great clarity, it has become increasingly strange to me that we do not stand more in awe of the unknown years into which we are day by day entering, and that we are not more appalled by the mystery of the future, and that, as we morning by morning resume the journey of life, we do not have more of that sense of tremendous hesitancy which possesses the lone traveler on a desolate and uncharted path.

It is precisely the use of such omniscience that is scripturally offered into the hands of the young. The Lord is willing to praise Him, so He is willing to convert man's failures into an account of His perfecting work. The substance of the psalm is a statement which I should have highlighted to make had not Jesus said of a certain woman, "For whom will I forgive the same, the seven, or the one?"

That in what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

That is what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

That in what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

That in what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

That in what we would like to pay for being led. It is exceedingly expensive. All of God's gifts are more or less expensive, and some of them are so expensive that we can only have them if we are willing to pay the price we get the use of God's omniscience and are in condition to conduct our lives in the presence of Him. What has been but in God's view of what is going to be. In that way our life goes solitary based and braided into the lines and so incorporated in them that some other better man's life will not have to be expended in undoing and doing over what our life has done badly and blunderingly.

The Light That Cheers

FOR the quiet circle of the reading table, there's nothing quite so cheery as an oil lamp.

A good kerosene lamp, burning a good kerosene, diffuses a soft glowing light that is easier on the eyes, and kinder to the surroundings.

There are many good oil lamps, one of the best of which is the Rayo. There is one good kerosene about which you can always be sure—Aladdin Security Oil.

ALADDIN SECURITY OIL. A carefully refined kerosene produced by the Standard Oil Company's (New Jersey) refineries, it will not smoke, smell, or burn unevenly.

Ask for it by name when your grocer's boy comes for your oil can.

We recommend the following oil-consuming devices as the best: New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves and Water Heaters, Perfection Smokeless Oil Heaters, Rayo Lamps and Lanterns.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (New Jersey) Newark New Jersey

NEWSPAPER LEAGUE TOPIC For January 25, 1917. WHOLE-HEARTED CHRISTIANS. John 15: 11.

A half and half life is an altogether unsatisfactory life. It has not the peace of the one, nor the joy of the other, and because of that which is to come.

No man can serve two masters. We must choose definitely between the love of the world and the love of God, and the love of God is the only one that will last.

He that is in the world, but is not of the world, shall keep his love to the Father, and the love of the Father shall be in him, and he shall have access to the Father through the Son.

Whoever abides in Him, shall not be judged. For he has kept His commandments, and he shall not see death.

For the love of the world, the love of the flesh, and the love of the devil, shall be in him, and he shall be judged.

Bread, Butter and Jam Letters

Personal Letters from Our Readers Telling How They Have Supplemented Their Home Income.

No. 7 (The Kiltler in the Sun). M Y TWO daughters are graduate nurses, have more work than they can do and so have been able to supplement our bread and butter. Knowing how hard their work was being to be, and wishing to prevent, if possible, the inevitable breakdown that must come sooner or later to the doctor's course, I decided to make their home a veritable place of health, a true retreat for the nervous and overworked.

THEY ran I had working that thing out. It was a very job I can do more interesting, and I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

It was a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one. I was found that I could be comfortable as well as a very profitable one.

them out, groping under fog and violet and rain and bracken. She looked at the strange room. She had seen it before. She had seen it before. She had seen it before.

"You are aware, madam," snarled the judge, biting the end of his quill-pen and looking particularly satirical. "That your evidence incriminates you?"

"She shook her head." "No," she said. "The fact of jewelry," began the judge, pondering.

"The jewelry was mine—every piece," she said. "I am—I was—Lord Whigham's." "Considering," he said, "it is impossible to convey the intonation of those two words 'was' nor the sensation that the evidence carries, it is not to be given out till the 20th."

"HOW TO GROW RICHER." Many years ago there were few better known characters than Mr. S. Brooks, the wealthy and eccentric banker. Of "Sam Brooke" innumerable stories were told, illustrative of his acuteness of eye and sagacity.

"You're talking through your hat, officer," said Steele, irritably. "The chief—a young girl—escaped in a motor car." "Kind of her to hand you the awg?" observed Bob.

"You'd best keep your mouth shut, son," I warn you. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

"Whigham hid his white face in his shaking hands. The witness kept his self-control by a huge effort and went steadily on. "Since my marriage I have been good. My husband is ill—don't want my own property. I wouldn't ask my father for it. I— I prayed for you, and I mean to do it. Put out yer hands." "Don't be a fool!" "Fool, am I? Well, so about that. It was a scuffle at first. The constables, allow, attack Steele's chin, a scuffling blow, he thrust the man aside. Bob believed and sprang in, the handcuffs whirling, to descend on Steele's head with stunning violence.

CARROTS AND MARIAN

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

ATBE you believe this, maybe not, it does not change a fact that a certain woman, who was a very good woman, was a very good woman. She was a very good woman.

DANCE and be graceful, is the happy slogan of the present times and it might, too, be said, "be youthful" for there is nothing so conducive to beauty and health and youthfulness as the enthusiasm and vivacity that is created by the artful pastime. This new fad is very interesting from the point of view that it is not to disturb the morals of the general public, but on the other hand to create a true appreciation of the beautiful and beautifying art. It is true that a season or so ago dancing of the "popular" style was so much the rage that at times it was feared that some means would have to be taken to quell its further popularity. All sorts of objections were offered, whereby it was supposed the cause of upsetting the sacredness of the home, that "vice" and "other" vices of the "damned" which to the sorrow of the kiddies, etc. Undoubtedly, this was quite true; to a great extent, however, the fad gradually died out and now while "vice" and "vice" are still an affair of every other day or so. One very reasonable objection to the dancing was crowded rooms in which the participants were obliged to dance. Invariably the dance halls were so overcrowded that the participants were obliged to dance in a very cramped space. This was a most unfortunate situation, because of the warm, muggy air. One got ample exercise, but it was not the kind of exercise that is so beneficial to the body as the dancing. It was the over-crowding and cramped kind such as could be obtained only under such circumstances. The result was that after a short time the dance enthusiasts were pale, haggard and looking like objects of humanity. Eventually both men and women realized that the only way to retain or regain their original health was to dance in a dancing hall or to indulge in it on rare occasions. So the day of "popular" dancing is over and now it is replaced by the dance that is really an art, or beautiful exercise and a healthy winter contentment.

This new dance is the dance that is so well performed, it does not hamper the body, mind or feet with the burden of clothes or consciousness of their presence, but leaves the body free to move as it will to the rhythm of the music. Classic dances and the ballet are interesting, the fair sex at the present time. Why are there no more delightful or fascinating pastimes than this? It is little wonder that the popularity of this dance grows apace rapidly. Classic dances made up of one or two dances are being formed, thus giving all an equal opportunity to enter into this delightful course. Especially enthusiastic are the young folk for here is an occasion when they can give way to the spirit of youth and enjoy themselves to their hearts' content.

THE technique of the classic dance is a serious study, yet there are many elementary attitudes that may be perfected with practice, which will in a short time prove wonderfully helpful in acquiring graceful poses and a controlled balance, these being the foundation of elegant carriage. Many of the participants in classic dancing are "old" and "young" alike. It is not an affair of every other day or so. One very reasonable objection to the dancing was crowded rooms in which the participants were obliged to dance. Invariably the dance halls were so overcrowded that the participants were obliged to dance in a very cramped space. This was a most unfortunate situation, because of the warm, muggy air. One got ample exercise, but it was not the kind of exercise that is so beneficial to the body as the dancing. It was the over-crowding and cramped kind such as could be obtained only under such circumstances. The result was that after a short time the dance enthusiasts were pale, haggard and looking like objects of humanity. Eventually both men and women realized that the only way to retain or regain their original health was to dance in a dancing hall or to indulge in it on rare occasions. So the day of "popular" dancing is over and now it is replaced by the dance that is really an art, or beautiful exercise and a healthy winter contentment.

THE FRIGATE PELICAN is a story of a great height above the water and from that elevation pounces down on fish, especially preferring the poor, persecuted flying fish for its prey. It is a bird of prey, it need not be a grand place, nor be furnished with extravagance. It is in the spirit that pervades, and the harmony and happiness found there, and the common interests, that make home a happy place.

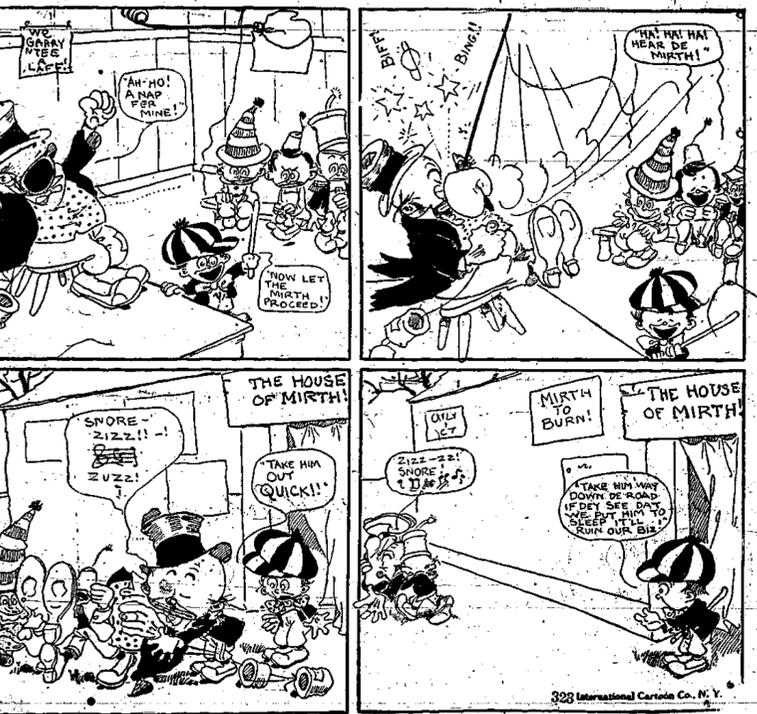

THE FRIGATE PELICAN is a story of a great height above the water and from that elevation pounces down on fish, especially preferring the poor, persecuted flying fish for its prey. It is a bird of prey, it need not be a grand place, nor be furnished with extravagance. It is in the spirit that pervades, and the harmony and happiness found there, and the common interests, that make home a happy place.

THE FRIGATE PELICAN is a story of a great height above the water and from that elevation pounces down on fish, especially preferring the poor, persecuted flying fish for its prey. It is a bird of prey, it need not be a grand place, nor be furnished with extravagance. It is in the spirit that pervades, and the harmony and happiness found there, and the common interests, that make home a happy place.

THE FRIGATE PELICAN is a story of a great height above the water and from that elevation pounces down on fish, especially preferring the poor, persecuted flying fish for its prey. It is a bird of prey, it need not be a grand place, nor be furnished with extravagance. It is in the spirit that pervades, and the harmony and happiness found there, and the common interests, that make home a happy place.

THE HOUSE OF MIRTH

323 International Cartoon Co., N. Y.

MY REVIVAL AND While the others talked about me in school-time I found my eyes upon me sometimes, as if trying to see and trying to solve my mystery. As the weeks wore on my unpopularity increased and the discipline of the school became difficult. There were signs of insubordination. There were clear when I issued a command or a reproof; my explanations were challenged; feet were scraped on the floor audaciously and with a union of sentiment which appalled and angered me. Consistent with my attitude I kept my eyes on the girls which I felt to be gradually wearing like an impending doom. At last my eyes fell on my privacy and coldly faced the mood. At this distance I still had courage. I was "clear" and that alone saved me until Horace came to the rescue. Miss Hostetter had always walked with the children; I never did, I preferred to stay at the school-house until the end of the day. The first day was peaceful, order prevailed itself and I went to my boarding place well satisfied, but before the end of the week I found myself the subject of scrutiny and criticism. I learned, too, that I had a rival. I was unfortunate in my predecessor. The praise of that predecessor were already sounding in my ears—praise for months past until my heart grew sick with jealousy. This paragon was "all right," "just lovely," "too sweet for anything," she "knew everything." One day her photograph was brought to school to show to me, and afterward, during school hours, passed in rapid admiration, and reluctantly handed back to its proud and triumphant owner. It was the picture of a woman—of forty, that is, the picture of a woman who was a woman and a woman was probably forty, but I never heard her age discussed or even alluded to by the children. She was beautiful, with a delicate and fragile beauty, and her hair was almost white, "just like silver silk," one girl exclaimed with admiration. She had a certain quiet neighborhood from a broader life in the city for a rest, and had been content into taking the school. She had a certain quiet neighborhood from a broader life in the city for a rest, and had been content into taking the school.

WIT AND HUMOR

WIT AND HUMOR A country hotel proprietor, glancing out of a rear window, saw his new water chasing a chicken about the yard. "What have you in that bowl?" demanded the hotel man, referring to a vessel he was hugging. "Mushrooms," responded the new water. "There's a gentleman that wants chicken smothered with mushrooms, and I'm trying to smother him, sir!" Mrs. Smith—I hear Mr. Weeds is going to marry a farmer and live in the country. "Mrs. Jones—Well, she ought to make a good farmer's wife." Mrs. Smith—I don't see why. She has always lived in town. "There's a sixth matrimonial venture she evidently knows all about husbandry. For some reason the Sunday School class had become intensely interested in Methuselah, and the urgent request the teacher related all the authentic information recorded in the Bible about that amazing man, also various anecdotes gleaned from less reliable sources. In conclusion she said—Now, is that all? Are there any further questions you would like to ask about Methuselah?" "I'd like to know," said the most interested youngster of the lot, "where all his birthday presents are buried."

Possibilities of a Roast of Meat

Possibilities of a Roast of Meat In roasting meat, a half to two table-spoons of fat should be poured over the meat before it is put in the oven. The fat should be poured over the meat before it is put in the oven. The fat should be poured over the meat before it is put in the oven.

A Cheap Fuel

A Cheap Fuel A vigorous coal or wood can be produced by a combination of oil and water. The oil should be mixed with the water in a ratio of one part of oil to ten parts of water. The mixture should be used as a fuel for stoves and furnaces.

A WONDERFUL YEAR

To the Policy-holding Owners of the Prudential Insurance Company of America :

During 1916 your Company issued OVER FIVE HUNDRED AND NINETY-ONE AND ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLARS of paid-for life insurance at the lowest expense rate in your Company's history. This is the largest year's business ever paid for by The Prudential. The gain in insurance in force was $283,000,000.

Although your Company is but forty-one years old, you are now the holders of 15,000,000 policies, representing a total insurance in force of OVER THREE BILLION DOLLARS.

Since your Company was organized it has paid to its policyholders the great sum of $428,000,000, including more than $28,750,000 not called for in any way by the policy contracts. The 1916 payments to policyholders were over $47,278,000.

This wonderful growth and these remarkable figures reflect anew the confidence the insuring public has in The Prudential, and are a reinforcement of its aims, its achievements, and its service.

Horace A. Snyder
President

The Prudential
Insurance Company of America

Incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey
Home Office, Newark, N. J. Branch Offices in All Leading Cities

PRICE REDUCTIONS!

Before taking an inventory of stock, we have decided to make a general reduction in prices.

Winter-Weight Caps,--

Men's $1.25 Caps reduced to $1.00; $1.00 to 75 cts.
75 c. to 50 cts.

Men's Hats,--

Reduced from $2.50 to $1.75; $2.00 to $1.50;
$1.50 to $1.00.

Flannel Shirts,--

All sizes, at greatly reduced prices.

Sweaters,--

Sizes, 34 to 44; these prices are also slaughtered.

Ladies' High-Top Shoes,--

From $3.50 to $8.00. If in need of them, come early while they last, as they are at the old price.

Every article in this store is a bargain, considering the market conditions of to-day.

Monfort's Shoe Store

Remember us

FOR

Anything
ELECTRICAL

ROYAL ELECTRIC CO.

Hammonton

E. L. Jackson

From a Comfy Bed to an Icy Room B-U-R-R

Makes one shiver to think of it

It's hard enough under ordinary conditions to crawl from under those nice warm covers, but to have to dress in a room when the thermometer is down around "freezo"—shivers and shakes—B-U-R-R. Don't do it. What's the use when it's so easy to make that room warm and comfortable?

GET A

Vulcan Odorless Gas Heater

Have it connected to your gas jet. Then 10 minutes before getting-up-time, jump out of bed, light the heater, pull down the windows and crawl back in bed. Lay there in comfort for 10 minutes. By that time your room's as warm as toast. Sounds good don't it? Call at our office and let us show you this wonderful heater.

Hammonton Gas Co.

A. H. Phillips Co.

Fire Insurance

MONEY

FOR

MORTGAGE LOANS

Bartlett Building, - Atlantic City

Lakeview Greenhouses

Central Ave., Hammonton.

Large assortment of
Palms, House Plants,
Cut Flowers,
Funeral Designs

In fresh flowers, wax or metal

WATKIS & NICHOLSON

Florists and Landscape Gardeners.

Local Phone 121. Bell 1-10

Advertising

Brings Business

L. FERRARA

Late of New York City

First Class Shoe Making and Repairing

High Class Work
at Satisfactory Price

Rubber Heels a Specialty

One Trial will make you a Customer

L. FERRARA

211 Bellevue Ave.

Next to Palace Theatre

Hammonton, New Jersey

Bell Phone 122-7

Annette Kellerman.

Palace Theatre

- SPECIAL -

To-day, Matinee,
and Night

'Yellow Menace'

Third episode

Red Feather Feature
in five acts,

"The Place Beyond the Wind"

Featuring

MISS DOROTHY PHILLIPS

Mutt and Jeff Comedy

Tuesday,--

Continuation of

"Liberty"

And other features.

Special, Wednesday, Jan. 31st

Annette Kellerman

The most perfect woman in

'A Neptunes Daughter'

In eight acts.

Benefit "Loyal Order of Moose,"
Hammonton Lodge, No. 357.

Admission, 25 cents.

This picture has never been shown before at such a low admission.

Miss Kellerman is the star of "The Daughter of the Gods," played at the
Chestnut Street Opera House.

Thursday,--

"Miss Billie Burke"

In "Glorious Romance."

Don't fail to see her.

JAMES PALMER, Mgr.

Seasonable Items

at Elvins' Store

Arsenate of Lead

Hose for Spraying

Nozzle and Sprayer Fixtures

Sulphur

Blue Stone

Paris Green

Field Spray Pumps

Plows, Harrows, Cultivators

Small Garden Tools

The Ford car makes its appeal to you in appearance as well as for service. Large radiator and enclosed fan, streamline hood, crown fenders, entire black finish, nickel trimmings, — up-to-date in all requirements for handsome appearance—and serving the people the world over as a money-saving, time-saving, labor-saving utility. It is surely your necessity. The Ford car is just as useful on the farm as it is in the city; just as necessary to the business man as it is to the professional man. More necessary to every man than ever before. Low purchase price and very economical to operate and maintain. Why not investigate? Touring Car, $360; Runabout, $345; Coupelet, $505; Town Car, $595; Sedan, $645.—f. o. b. Detroit.

Order your car now, to insure prompt delivery.

When you buy a Ford car you also buy Ford service.

We carry a complete line of parts for repairing Ford automobiles, and can do your work in first-class manner, promptly, and at a moderate fair price.

BELLEVUE GARAGE, Inc.

E. A. CORDERY, President.