"Just wait my brave lad, one moment, I pray. Manhood Town lies where? Can you tell the way?"
 "Oh, by toiling and trying we reach that land, A bit with the head, a bit with the hand! 'Tis by climbing up the steep hill work, 'Tis by keeping out of the wide street shirk, 'Tis by always taking the weak one's part, 'Tis by giving the mother a happy heart, 'Tis by keeping bad thoughts and actions down—Oh, that is the way to Manhood Town!"

To the People of Hammonton.

It may not be known to some that there is a mutual life insurance company (not a short term order) in Hammonton, of seventeen years' existence, which pays death benefits of $1,000 and $2,000, as well as sick benefits, and is known as the "Artisans' Order of Mutual Protection." Unlike other mutual insurance associations, you pay your dues in this quarterly, thus rendering the payments easy. There are no assessments, as in some other associations. All males between the ages of 18 and 50 years are eligible.

The death burial fund is not deposited in the hands of any one individual but is held in trust by the Recorders of the various local assemblies, who are placed under heavy bonds for the faithful performance of their duties. All applicants must undergo medical examination. By paying the dues quarterly, each member knows in advance the amount due by him. This sum is never changed, and he bears no assessments. The initiation fee is $5, of which $3 must accompany the application. The dues (payable quarterly in advance, in January, April, July, and October) on $1,000 and $2,000 payable at death, and sick benefits, are graded as follows:

	On $1000	$2000
18 and 30 yrs. when admitted	$3.00	$5.75
30 and 35 yrs.	3.75	6.25
35 and 40 yrs.	4.50	6.75
40 and 45 yrs.	4.50	7.75
45 and 50 yrs.	5.25	9.25

Members of the higher class may at any time reduce their death benefits, and those of the lower class may change to the higher, by passing an examination and paying the required sum.

Bear in mind, this is not a new association, but one chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania, in 1875; and an assembly has been in operation in Hammonton for a year.

Our object in calling your attention to the above is for the purpose of inviting all of our citizens to attend a meeting on Thursday evening, Feb. 25th, 1892, at 7 o'clock, in Mechanics' Hall (over Muldock's), when capable speakers will be present to give full information and answer inquiries.

The advantages of this association are: 1. It is an old established order, of seventeen years, and its officers are all capable and efficient. 2. Its funds are in the hands of the Recorders of the many local assemblies, thus avoiding all risks of loss by accumulation of money in the hands of any one individual. 3. The easy quarterly payments are not oppressive. 4. You are never assessed, nor are your dues increased. 5. We already have a working assembly in Hammonton, over a year old. 6. You receive sick benefits while living, and your family will receive $1000 or $2000 at death. 7. It is also a fraternal order. Do not forget to be present at the next meeting. All are invited, and welcome. The following are officers of our local Hammonton Assembly:

Master Artisan, D. S. Cunningham.
 Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Waas.
 Inspector, Wayland DePuy.
 Recorder, A. B. Davis.
 Cashier, Joseph H. Garton.
 Trustees, Dr. J. A. Waas, Justin S. Thayer, P. H. Jacobs.

 One bottle of Paster Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured an entire year's suffering from nervous debility, and secured me a good night's sleep.

My wife has taken six bottles of Paster Koenig's Nerve Tonic; she has had no return of the fits, and I think this remedy has had the desired effect. I cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering from that dreadful malady, "Epilepsy."

 About a year ago I noticed my right hand constantly shaking. I tried different medicines but they all had no effect. I then used three or four bottles of Paster Koenig's Nerve Tonic and my hand ceased to shake and I found myself gaining every day. I think this medicine is one of the greatest remedies.

LESSON ANALYSIS.
I. GOD'S MESSAGE SENT.

1. By Human Agents:
Thou and Jeremiah (19).

This word came unto Jeremiah from the Lord (Jer. 36: 1).

Baruch wrote... all the words of the Lord (Jer. 36: 4).

He spake from the mouth of his holy prophets (Luk. 1: 70).

Men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Ghost (2 Pet. 1: 21).

II. BY VERBAL STATEMENT:
They told all the words in the ears of the king (20).

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel (Mat. 16: 13).

He whom God hath anointed, speaketh the words of God (John 3: 8).

Stand and speak... all the words of this life (Aek. 5: 20).

Cornelius... was warned... to hear words from the Lord (Acts 10: 22).

III. BY WRITTEN RECORD:
The king charged Baruch to fetch the roll... And Jehudi read it (21).

I will write upon the tables the words (Exod. 34: 1).

Write thus these words (Exod. 34: 27).

He opened the book, and found... where it was written (Ez. 1: 17).

Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable (2 Tim. 3: 16).

I. GOD'S MESSAGE SPURNED.

1. Worldly Ease Enjoyed:
The king eat... and there was a fire burning before him (22).

Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire (Isa. 44: 16).

Take wine, eat, drink, be merry (Luk. 12: 19).

Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die (1 Cor. 15: 32).

II. GOD'S MESSAGES DESPISED:
The king cut it... and cast it into the fire (23).

They rebelled against the words of God (Psa. 107: 11).

They despised all my reproof (Prov. 1: 30).

They made light of it, and went their ways (Matt. 22: 5).

VII. GOD'S ANGER BRAVED:
They were not afraid, nor rent their garments (24).

Who is the Lord, that I should harken unto his voice (Isa. 5: 2).

The God... of Israel, which thou hast defied (Isa. 37: 45).

Your words have been stout against me (Mal. 3: 13).

IV. WISE COUNSEL REJECTED:
But he would not hear them (25).

Behold, hitherto thou hast not hearkened (Exod. 7: 16).

I spake unto you, and ye hearkened not (Deut. 1: 43).

They said, We will not hearken (Jer. 6: 17).

V. GOD'S MESSAGE PERPETRATED.

I. Prophets Called:
That the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah (27).

The Lord had raised up prophets in Babylon (Jer. 29: 15).

Behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men (Mat. 23: 24).

He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets (Eph. 4: 1).

II. Truth Perpetrated:
Write in it all the former words (28).

I will write... the words that were on the first tables (Exod. 34: 1).

One jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law (Mat. 5: 18).

The word of God, which liveth and abideth (1 Pet. 1: 23).

III. GOD'S WRATH INCURRED.

I. Sinfulness known:
Thus saith the Lord: Thou hast despised my word (29).

The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great (Gen. 6: 5).

Secure your sins will find you out (Eccl. 10: 1).

FANCY WORK.

It is with pleasure that we are able to give our readers this week an article from a foreign exchange, regarding a new material suitable for fancy work.

As we have no space for the entire article, we can give only a portion of it in this issue.

A material that can be used both for needle work and painting, and that promises a change that will be appreciated by skillful fingers from the well-known groups of fancy work, is nothing more or less than chambray silk.

Lather is a material which does not at first sight promise much; although the old proverb, "There is nothing like leather," is remembered by all, still no picture conjured up in not reassuring.

The hard unyielding skin that bears rough usage so valiantly, is hardly the fabric to select for delicate and difficult embroidery, or one that is likely to permit itself to be fashioned into ornamental articles by girls destitute of a workman's tools, and without the technical training of a special trade.

But the chambray leather that we recommend differs from the leather used for saddlery, shoes, portmanteaus, and book-binding. It is as soft as a glove, though of thicker texture, and bought in small skins, either of a natural color or dyed in various tones, and it can be cut in any shape.

Verse 20.—"They told all the words in the ears of the king." (1) Stinging words; (2) Faithful messengers; (3) An obedient king.

Verse 21.—"Jehudi read it in the ears of the king." (1) The roll; (2) The reader; (3) The record; (4) The result.

Verse 22.—"The king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire." (1) A message from God; (2) An insult given to the king—(1) God's word sent; (2) God's word spurned.

Verse 23.—"Thus were not afraid." (1) God's word spurned; (2) Man's fear banished.

Verse 24.—"He would not hear them." (1) Warning; (2) Rebellion.—(1) Wise entreaty; (2) Stubborn resistance.

Verse 25.—"The Lord hid them." (1) Man's sin; (2) God hid them.—(1) God's servants in peril; (2) God's servants in safety.

Verse 26.—"Take thee again another roll, and write." (1) The lost record; (2) The renewed record.—(1) Scripture destroyed; (2) Scripture preserved.

Verse 31.—"I will punish him and his seed." (1) The written word destroyed; (2) The written word established.—(1) The record buried; (2) The reckoning assured.

"They hearkened not." (1) God's appeal; (2) Man's deafness.

LESSON BIBLE READING.
GOD'S WORD MISSED.

Rejected by the worldly-wise (Jer. 8: 8, 9).

Copied by the evil (2 Cor. 3: 17). Destroyed by the scornful (Jer. 36: 22-25).

Stumbled at by the disobedient (1 Pet. 2: 8).

Victimized by tradition (Mark 7: 9-13). Added to or taken from (Reb. 22: 18, 19).

Neglected or disobeyed (Matt. 13: 19, 21).

LESSON SUBROUNDINGS.

INTERVENING EVENTS.—Prophecy and history are joined together in chapters 32-35, though the arrangement is chronological. Chapters 32-34 are specifically connected with the close of Zedekiah's reign, while Jeremiah was in prison. The predictions include both the fall of Jerusalem and the return of captivity.—The first part of the siege of Jerusalem, the earlier part of the siege of Jerusalem, the latter part (Jer. 34: 8-22) refers to a promise of freedom to Hebrew slaves, made during the siege, but broken when the Babylonians withdrew for a time (Chap. 35).

Chapters 35-39 contain incidents of Jehoiakim, containing an incident showing the fidelity of the Rechabites, who had taken refuge in Jerusalem, which the prophet uses to point a lesson for Judah's prophets, and the writing of Jeremiah's prophecies by Baruch (Jer. 36: 1-4), and of a command to Baruch to read the words of the Lord to the people (Jer. 36: 5-8).

Baruch read the words of the Lord to the king, and the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire (23).

They rebelled against the words of God (Psa. 107: 11).

They despised all my reproof (Prov. 1: 30).

They made light of it, and went their ways (Matt. 22: 5).

VII. GOD'S ANGER BRAVED:

Who is the Lord, that I should harken unto his voice (Isa. 5: 2).

The God... of Israel, which thou hast defied (Isa. 37: 45).

Your words have been stout against me (Mal. 3: 13).

Verse 25.—"The Lord hid them." (1) Man's sin; (2) God hid them.—(1) God's servants in peril; (2) God's servants in safety.

Verse 26.—"Take thee again another roll, and write." (1) The lost record; (2) The renewed record.—(1) Scripture destroyed; (2) Scripture preserved.

Verse 31.—"I will punish him and his seed." (1) The written word destroyed; (2) The written word established.—(1) The record buried; (2) The reckoning assured.

"They hearkened not." (1) God's appeal; (2) Man's deafness.

LESSON BIBLE READING.
GOD'S WORD MISSED.

Rejected by the worldly-wise (Jer. 8: 8, 9).

Copied by the evil (2 Cor. 3: 17). Destroyed by the scornful (Jer. 36: 22-25).

Stumbled at by the disobedient (1 Pet. 2: 8).

Victimized by tradition (Mark 7: 9-13). Added to or taken from (Reb. 22: 18, 19).

Neglected or disobeyed (Matt. 13: 19, 21).

LESSON SUBROUNDINGS.

INTERVENING EVENTS.—Prophecy and history are joined together in chapters 32-35, though the arrangement is chronological. Chapters 32-34 are specifically connected with the close of Zedekiah's reign, while Jeremiah was in prison. The predictions include both the fall of Jerusalem and the return of captivity.—The first part of the siege of Jerusalem, the earlier part of the siege of Jerusalem, the latter part (Jer. 34: 8-22) refers to a promise of freedom to Hebrew slaves, made during the siege, but broken when the Babylonians withdrew for a time (Chap. 35).

Chapters 35-39 contain incidents of Jehoiakim, containing an incident showing the fidelity of the Rechabites, who had taken refuge in Jerusalem, which the prophet uses to point a lesson for Judah's prophets, and the writing of Jeremiah's prophecies by Baruch (Jer. 36: 1-4), and of a command to Baruch to read the words of the Lord to the people (Jer. 36: 5-8).

Baruch read the words of the Lord to the king, and the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire (23).

They rebelled against the words of God (Psa. 107: 11).

They despised all my reproof (Prov. 1: 30).

They made light of it, and went their ways (Matt. 22: 5).

VII. GOD'S ANGER BRAVED:
They were not afraid, nor rent their garments (24).

Who is the Lord, that I should harken unto his voice (Isa. 5: 2).

The God... of Israel, which thou hast defied (Isa. 37: 45).

Your words have been stout against me (Mal. 3: 13).

IV. WISE COUNSEL REJECTED:
But he would not hear them (25).

Behold, hitherto thou hast not hearkened (Exod. 7: 16).

I spake unto you, and ye hearkened not (Deut. 1: 43).

They said, We will not hearken (Jer. 6: 17).

V. GOD'S MESSAGE PERPETRATED.

I. Prophets Called:
That the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah (27).

The Lord had raised up prophets in Babylon (Jer. 29: 15).

Behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men (Mat. 23: 24).

He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets (Eph. 4: 1).

II. Truth Perpetrated:
Write in it all the former words (28).

I will write... the words that were on the first tables (Exod. 34: 1).

One jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law (Mat. 5: 18).

The word of God, which liveth and abideth (1 Pet. 1: 23).

III. GOD'S WRATH INCURRED.

I. Sinfulness known:
Thus saith the Lord: Thou hast despised my word (29).

The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great (Gen. 6: 5).

Secure your sins will find you out (Eccl. 10: 1).

LESSON IN SWIMMING.

The first thing to be done is to learn to duck without minding it. Hold your breath and put your head under water several times whenever you bathe.

You may probably struggle a bit at first, but the ducking will become less disagreeable, until it is almost a pleasure to go under water nearly or quite as often.

Of course the bather need not make a martyr of himself by spending his whole time in the practice of ducking. He may splash about as much as he likes. Some acquire the necessary indifference to being under water at once. When it is acquired, let the bather select a place where the water is just deep enough for him to sit upon the bottom with head and shoulders out of the water. Then let him take a full breath, distending the lungs, and placing his arms by his side, lie down on his back on the bottom. If unsuccessful, partially expel the air from the lungs and try again. And having found out by actual experiment how easy it is to lie down on your back under water, go holding your breath, pull yourself in toward the shore, hand over hand, not letting your feet touch bottom on any account until your breath runs out or you run around. No matter whether you go under or not, no matter whether you keep yourself right side up, or not, go right on hauling yourself toward the shore, hand over hand, till your feet touch bottom.

There was a heavy snowfall, Tuesday, throughout England, traffic being greatly impeded and telegraphic communication cut off.

A delegation favorable to the reappointment of Judge Alfred Hugg visited Governor Abbot at Trenton, on Tuesday. A number of petitions from Gloucester and Camden people were also received. It is said that Hugg's reappointment is assured.

party candidates for Common Council, with a few exceptions.

They Are Famous.
Camden, N. Y., Sept. 26, 1890.
Having suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for several years, and having tried many eminent doctors without success, I was reluctantly induced to try Dr.
Dean's Dyspepsia Pills. I obtained speedy relief, and after a few months
I am cured. After such an experience, how can I praise them too highly? They ought to become famous, and gratitude prompts me to do all in my power to make them so.

Remarkable Rescue.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her.
Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her great delight found herself benefited from the first dose.
She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free bottles of this Great Discovery at any Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity! Having despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Little they realize that it is not too late to improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she pours out her riches; fail to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required.—We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how. Free. All are unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free-
