"It was down in Virginia," says a veteran in The Lewiston Journal. "I was placed on guard over a barn and was taking it easy when a lieutenant came along, probably to see what his guard was doing. I ought to have saluted him, but I didn't. Soon I saw a large, nice looking man coming toward me. He wore a nice uniform, and I noticed as he approached that he wore a lieutenant's straps. I wasn't going to pay any further attention to him, but when he came quite near to me I saw that there were two stars inside those straps. I jumped up and presented arms as quickly as I could, for I saw that it was Major-General Hancock.
'Never mind that for me,' said he,
with a wave of his hand. 'I don't care anything about it, but always do it for the little fellows.' He passed on. I suppose the lieutenant had reported me, and he came down to see about it."

There has been a sixty per cent. diminution of fires in New Hampshire since the insurance companies withdrew from that state. Does this prove that insurance increases combustibility?

Some portion of the general hostility to Chinese immigration is due to the fact that the Chinaman is the only male party whose labor comes in direct and continual competition with the work of women. The avenues of honest self-support for women are few and narrow enough without having the sex crowded out of the kitchen, laundry, nursery, &c., by male celestials.

No appetite, low spirits, headache, flatulency, sleeplessness, languor constipation--are these, are any of them among your ailments? If so try Dr.
Walker's Vinegar Bitters, and tell your sick friend its effect; this is the only advertisement of the medicine requires. It has spread from house to house, from village to village, and all over the land in this way.

An English paper says that the Hindoos are again complaining about the poor quality of idols furnished them by the Birmingham manufacturers. It seems that these manufacturers have been producing such ugly styles of idols that even the most religious Hindoo can't worship them with any fervor.
Moreover, they are made out of cross-grained knotty wood, and are painted with cheap mineral paint which in hot weather comes off when the devotees kiss them. The Hindoo is very patient, but it does rile him when the paint of a high priced god sticks to his lips. If Birmingham does not manufacture better idols, there may be a religious revolution in India.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.
It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.
It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation--only Iron medicines do.
It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.
The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

SCIENTIFIC.

An interesting description has been given of the building of one of the wooden houses of Finland, such as those recently visited and slept in by the czar and Czarina. A substantial frame of oak is first raised several feet above the ground...

Applaud paper is likely to become of great use in many ways. In this sheet it is useful for wrapping silks or other fabrics that need protection from moisture...

The experiments at Paris which have succeeded in transmitting electrical power a distance of three or four miles with a loss of only 50 per cent...

It seems that from a scientific point of view, perfectly clean hands are an after the most important thing...

There are charcoal works at Grand Rapids, Mich., which consume 40,000 cords of wood yearly, and at which even the smoke is utilized and manufactured into chemicals...

During the last two years the Nature reports, several Celtic tumuli in the district of Geinberg, in Upper Austria, have been opened and found to contain valuable relics of prehistoric times...

Some of the designs among a collection illustrative of the Mohawk and architecture of Western India on exhibition in Edinburgh has evoked this comment: "In construction like the Hindu dome is a lesson. The maxima of its architects that 'an arch never sleeps' made them discard the radiating voussoirs and employ a vault which, though nearly pyramidal in section, can be ornamented in a great variety of styles and which, if at all large, looks to the eye like more or less arched."

Printed matter may be copied on any paper of an absorbent nature by dipping the surface with a weak solution of acetate of iron and pressing in an ordinary copying press. Old writing may also be copied on paper, if wet with a weak solution of sulphate of iron, mixed with a small solution of sugar syrup.

HORSE NOTES.

A. J. Casatt's Rica, aged, is entered for the Rockaway steeplechase meeting...

There is talk of building a race track at Ashland, Pa., and starting a jockey club.

Walter M. Greene, Treasurer of the Narragansett Park Association, died at Narragansett, R. I., on January 5.

J. D. Ripley will sell his entire stock of trotters in the spring. Phil Thompson, record 2:10 1/2 is among the lot.

Suffolk Point Breeze, Belmont and Gentlemen's Driving Courses should each give a free-for-all purse for pacers to saddle at their coming spring meetings.

A pacing mare, said to be very fast, sired by Pyron, son of Scott's Hatoga, dam by Billy Bashaw, has been purchased by a Boston man in Wisconsin for $1750.

G. E. Deleblanc, of Brookville, has addressed a circular to the trotting horse breeders of the western section of the State, with a view to the formation of an association.

Knappack McCarthy has shipped his stock from Lexington, Ky., to Chicago. In the string are Richhill, Mambrino, Sparkle, Marlowe, Felix, Belle F., Mattie H. and Otto K.

A revival of winter trotting and racing is coming in the South. Jacksonville, Fla., and Charleston, S. C., are already in the field, and Tarboro, N. C., is agitating the organization of a winter season.

Samuel Scott the breeder of Scott's Hatoga, Scott's Chief, Maria Scott, Duck, Tyrone, Bay Girl and a number of trotters and pacers, died at New Philadelphia, O., on January 26, at the age of 70 years.

The entries for the spring meeting of the St. Louis fair races are as follows: The Carriage Builders' stakes is for two three-year-olds, over three-quarters of a mile, and has sixty-seven subscribers. J. S. Clark has three nominations; S. S. Brown, three; the Palo Alto, two; W. L. Cassidy, two; Chinn & Morgan, two; R. C. Pate, one; and the Santa Anita stables, four; P. G. Cocks and J. E. Corrihan, five each; Ed Corrigan, seven.

Hyde & Belman, of Brooklyn, have purchased the Prospect Park Fair Grounds on Long Island for $20,000. It is rumored that it may be devoted to running purposes. The Engman estate holds a lease of the property until November next.

The Jockey Club of Mexico will hold its spring meeting April 25 and May 2. The program is a novel one, and covers a wide range, including thoroughbreds, crossbreds, trotters with single horse, form, and weight unrestricted, etc.

The black colt Sharpshooter, foaled 1884, by Longfellow, dam Selous, by War Dance, out of Monomahia, by Melbourne, Jr., property of Captain William Cottrell, recently fell and his back being broken was exercised at the Bascobe Company, Me.

J. H. Hubbard, agent for Commodore N. W. Kittson, of the Erdemheim Stud, has sold to W. J. Fitzpatrick the rights in the horse Marie (1884), by Reform, out of Marie, and to M. Yeckels, the colt c. Brushwood (1884), by Imp, Woodlands, dam Nemesis.

The following were elected officers of the New York Driving Club recently: President, David Boyer; Vice President, N. L. Huntington; Treasurer, A. De Cordova; Secretary, Thomas L. Watts; Executive Committee, Stephen F. Knappack, Nathan Strong, Charles H. Raymond, J. H. Miller and David Scott.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

Our opinion of a man is likely to be determined by his opinion of us. We find our hands often, but still unmade ones a good deal often.

That laughter costs too much which is purchased by the sacrifice of decency. The most beautiful thing in human life is attainment to a resemblance of the Divine.

Make but few explanations; the character that cannot defend itself is not worth vindicating.

Let us first attend to the earth far north, in their graves glorious and heaven immortal.

Crosses grow anchors; bear as thou shouldst thy cross, and that cross becomes an anchor too.

One truly Christian life will do more to prove the divine origin of Christianity than many believe.

Time with all its celebrity moves slowly on to him whose whole enjoyment it is to watch its flight.

When a man speaks the truth you may count pretty surely that he possesses other most virtues.

The saints are best matured in solitude; character is best formed in the stormy billows of the world.

No jest can be quite so bitter as that one which runs laughingly along on the edge of an ugly truth.

The number of a man is the number of things that he loves and blesses, that he is loved and blessed by.

Death should not be considered an evil when we long for it in the excess of our sorrows or our joys.

We know what to do with our joys, but we know not what to do with our sorrows or with our hardships.

Love mankind with all your souls, and you will feel no difficulty in using patience, forbearance and forgiveness.

It is Colton who says that "men will tell of his Stirling when he is fighting for it, die for it, anything but—live for it."

There is no advantage to be gained in murmuring or complaining at our lot in life and grieving over our hard experience.

No matter how purely and grandly we live to-day, there is no denying that we may live more purely, more grandly to-morrow.

Honor is the basis of character, and character is the basis of all true success; therefore esteem truth above all other possessions.

A debt is a very stubborn thing and always succeeds in having its own way. The more you attempt to contract it the larger it gets.

If a man is honest he does not need to tell of his Stirling when he is fighting for it, die for it, anything but—live for it.

A celebrated philosopher used to say: "The favors of Fortune are like a steep rock—only those who are clinging to it will reach the summit."

There are men who no more grasp the truth they seem to hold than a sparrow grasps the message through the electric wire on which it perches.

TALK ABOUT REPTILES.

How Some Fortell the Weather—Peccant Harities of the Chameleon.

Recently in Boston, before the Parker Memorial science class, Mr. Gurnall talked about "Reptiles and Batrachians." He brought to the class-room a variety of specimens, and very courteously answered the multitude of questions, thereby destroying some of the popular opinions concerning the animals of which he has made a special study.

Let us first attend to the earth far north, in their graves glorious and heaven immortal.

A HINT TO WIVES.

They are Advised to Dress to Please Their Husbands.

Many married women lose all pride of personal appearance when in the privacy of their own homes. The husband goes on and dresses just as he did before marriage, and the matter of dress has ceased to be a matter of consideration, thereby destroying some of the illusions that we must have to make life enjoyable.

At the Gate.

Ab, love, I see your husband's light already shining like a star. I had so much to tell to-night. I wish you were twice as far!

Honor is the basis of character, and character is the basis of all true success; therefore esteem truth above all other possessions.

A debt is a very stubborn thing and always succeeds in having its own way. The more you attempt to contract it the larger it gets.

A celebrated philosopher used to say: "The favors of Fortune are like a steep rock—only those who are clinging to it will reach the summit."

There are men who no more grasp the truth they seem to hold than a sparrow grasps the message through the electric wire on which it perches.

Why, if it ain't my little lass!

I glanced up to see that man in all the glory of his brass buttoned blue suit, beaming at me from under a huge umbrella.

Let us first attend to the earth far north, in their graves glorious and heaven immortal.

Crosses grow anchors; bear as thou shouldst thy cross, and that cross becomes an anchor too.

One truly Christian life will do more to prove the divine origin of Christianity than many believe.

Time with all its celebrity moves slowly on to him whose whole enjoyment it is to watch its flight.

When a man speaks the truth you may count pretty surely that he possesses other most virtues.

The saints are best matured in solitude; character is best formed in the stormy billows of the world.

No jest can be quite so bitter as that one which runs laughingly along on the edge of an ugly truth.

The number of a man is the number of things that he loves and blesses, that he is loved and blessed by.

Death should not be considered an evil when we long for it in the excess of our sorrows or our joys.

We know what to do with our joys, but we know not what to do with our sorrows or with our hardships.

Love mankind with all your souls, and you will feel no difficulty in using patience, forbearance and forgiveness.

It is Colton who says that "men will tell of his Stirling when he is fighting for it, die for it, anything but—live for it."

There is no advantage to be gained in murmuring or complaining at our lot in life and grieving over our hard experience.

No matter how purely and grandly we live to-day, there is no denying that we may live more purely, more grandly to-morrow.

THE BRAZILIAN GENTLEMAN.

How the Nobles of Dom Pedro's Court Enjoy Their Dignity.

A writer says: the emperor and Court have gone to Petropolis, and with them have gone the barons and counts and gentlemen of fortune whose palaces stand so thick in Botofogo.

Let us first attend to the earth far north, in their graves glorious and heaven immortal.

There will never be honest elections through the country until reputable citizens act up to their conviction that the contractor, pretorator, or conscious beneficiary of a fraud on a ballot box is an infamous scoundrel no more to be tolerated in decent society than the professional burglar. So long as good society throws open its doors to men who are responsible for corruption of the ballot, that crime of all crimes will go on. And it is only a question of time—not a long time—when it will destroy free government if it is not suppressed.

The Supreme Court of New Jersey on Friday last rendered a decision declaring unconstitutional, null and void the general law for the taxation of railroad and canal property, passed in 1884, under which the bulk of the revenues of the state have since been raised. The Comptroller, in consequence of this decision, refused any further warrants upon the Treasury.

The bill to place Fitz John Porter on the retired list of the army passed the House on Friday afternoon by a vote of 172 to 113.

John J. Gough, the famous lecturer and temperance advocate, died last week Thursday, in Philadelphia. Monday evening previous he was struck down by apoplexy or paralysis (doctors do not agree about it) in the midst of a lecture. He seemed to rally for a day or two, but finally sank rapidly to the close. He was 68 years old.

Gen. B. Butler predicts that President Cleveland will not be re-nominated. "No defensive campaign" he shouted the Magnumps in 1881. "No defensive Administration" is the stern reply of all honest citizens to-day.

In a Kansas town an enterprising wet goods merchant is coining money by selling "Jeffersonian Simplicity" by the flag or bottle.

If Mr. Morison will persist in poking the tariff elephant with his free-trade stick he must not blame the intellect animal if the stick gets broken and the splinters fly in his face.

Slowly, but with a certain tread, the truth of the protective theory is advancing into the South, and splitting the cocoon of the Democrat. Industry, education and individual interest are menacing the Bourbon hierarchy on the right and left.

Political forecasts that fail to make account of the labor organizations may prove a delusion.

Out of 7,000,000 trade dollars that are out among the people ought to be collected into standard dollars, or better ones.

We have noticed with approval that the minority party in a city or town is always in favor of ignoring politics in local elections.

The President has many prerogatives, but they do not include the gratuitous blackening of a man's character under the sinister name of "suspension for cause."

Protection may be a curse, but our workingmen don't want 50,000 strong and demand to be fed from the public pocket.

The colored clergy of Galveston won't take part in the Moody and Sankey revival meetings, because separate meetings for colored people are held. They say they can't join in the meetings until it has been proven to them that there are two heavens—one for white souls and one for black souls.

Every little while some old Mormon polygamist goes down to Mexico and after viewing the land comes back and tells the "Saints" what a beautiful place it would be for them down there. This is all very well as far as it goes, but what the country wants to know is why they don't all go to Mexico, without talking so much about it.

Pensions are drawn by 10,039 persons in New Jersey, which furnished 76,814 men during the civil war.

Now, the Mormon apostle who was recently convicted of bigamy in Salt Lake City, was thirty-five years ago a local preacher in Burlington County.

Eighty hogs that were impounded in a Kansas snow bank for nearly two weeks, needed a few days ago, little the work for their experience, so the owner reports.

Silent Sounds.

You do not hear? Unto me... The sweet low sound comes ceaselessly... And floating, floods the earth and sky...

A MEAN ADVANTAGE.

A sunny band, almost hidden by a white straw hat, was thrust into the open window of the parlor of Dr. Pritchard...

"I am so glad that I love you," said Nora simply, the great, sweet eyes shining like golden-brown stars for joy.

quizzical twinkle in his handsome eyes.

"I have always felt you have your own way, Nora; but to do so now, would be to wreck my own ambition and your life-long happiness."

Summer as Sea.

"The dark but in the distant eastern sky, The chill gray light of early dawn is breaking; Night's twinkling luminaries fade to high; You floory cloud an orient haze is taking Now the long night's dark glow has nearly its end. Scarce is the breeze the slumbering ocean blushing; A rosy hue the waking East is flushing. Where seem the waters with the sky to blend."
