To Young Men.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope, Price 6cts.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radica-lure of Sexual Weakness, or Sterility, induced by Self-Love, Involuntary Ejaculation, Impotency, Nervous Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally; Concupiscence, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVER-
WELL M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Love may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, primarily and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Fifty Years Ago.

A GRANDMOTHER'S DREAM.
I sit within myingle-nook,
So did and gray, I know;
I close my eyes and backward look;
Tis fifty years ago—
Ere youth has fled, or hope is dead,
And life's sands running low.
The Christmas bells are chiming sweet
(Tis fifty years ago),
There comes the fall of fairy feet
Across the trackless snow;
And hearts beat high, to pleasures nigh,
Just fifty years ago.

MAXWELL.

Mr. Editor.—

In whatever guise hypocrisy may seek to allure, whether religiously or politically, its odious flavor is always discovered sooner or later. The New York Weekly Witness, in its issue of Feb. 14th, says editorially, that if to Hayes could be nominated for the Presidency

he would be the best candidate, he has so admirably fulfilled the expectations of his friends, and no other candidate prominently mentioned would prove so satisfactory in office. This the editor means to be absolutely true, if by this he means that Republicans are satisfied; or, if he means the mob Legislature he sanctioned in Louisiana, and other Southern outlawry, or the Democracy—North or South, he knows it is false, for he cannot have forgotten the Potter Committee, or the ways they have tried to oust him. Neither can the Witness mean that the friends of justice or law, or either party, are satisfied; for he has acted on the principle that the Witness and Democratic usually proclaim, viz.: that all the burlbery of Republicans, white or black, and all the outlawry of any Southern State or States cannot be interfered with by the Federal Government, though the blacks are tortured and oppressed till they flee in thousands and tens of thousands from their usurers, naked, starving, and worn down as galley slaves. What does it amount to but hypocrisy when the Witness, or any other paper puts on such a show of sympathy for the colored people, and yet upholds the party and principles that defy the Federal Government to put down anarchy and outlawry, in its worst forms? Now can fail to see the hypocrisy as to the nomination of Hayes, if that could be a possibility, by the Republican party, for said
Witness well knows it would be a huge defeat;
and to defeat that party covertly and with a seeming show of smoothness, if it can, or otherwise, if necessary, is its aim. In speaking of the now prominent candidates, Grant, Blaine
and Sherman, it objects, in the same editorial,
them all, and says that Sherman is not particularly in love with civil service reform, and that Mr. Blaine is too much given to the "triumphal pyrotechnics," and "brilliant, but transient tricks for effect," and his personal record is not quite invulnerable. It was plain enough to be seen that the pyrotechnics of Senator Blaine, in illuminating the villainy of the Fusion Democracy in Maine, was as disastrous to the Witness as to the Jeff D. Gordon himself. But the justice, the firm patriotic manership of Mr. Blaine and his conditors for the rights of the people, and their victory, is the so called pyrotechnics that so charmed the Witness.

On the Democratic nominees talked of, the Witness says Horatio Seymour or Senator Bayard would give a very fair administration.

This beats all for truth and honesty, if personal record is called in question. Mr. Seymour's personal record during the rebellion, an' is especially in the mob riots of New York City, when citizens were murdered, colored & plumbers burnt,

and the Federal Government defied, Seymour

Gov. stood up and addressed the rioters as his friends, telling them that if they would go home he would see that the draft was resisted and their aims accomplished.

This was, of course, all proper, and even the little tricks in complicity with Tammany were all right, we suppose, if they were not "brilliant and for effect." As for the column so spate-fully buried at Mr. Blaine, we would like to have the editor prove, if he can, anything vile in its aim. In speaking of the now prominent candidates, Grant, Blaine

and Sherman, it objects, in the same editorial,
them all, and says that Sherman is not particularly in love with civil service reform, and

The Republican.

Sou Grapes.

The May's Landing Peculiar man feels very, very bad—feels sore and injured and sick at the stomach, and in fact suffers under such a complication of ills that it has affected the customary sweetness of his disposition, and has preyed upon his mind until he has vented his overcharged feelings in some very elaborately gotten up articles in his "offical" (?) sheet. We will air one or two of them for the amusement of four readers. Here is one of them, and we will say at the beginning, by way of parenthesis, that it is incomplete in every particular, a lie of enormous dimensions.

The Record has a larger circulation than three of the papers published so far to establish the man in this country. Comment is unnecessary. Gov. McClellan's attention is particularly called to this point."

We have no doubt our readers will take as a good job aimed at over-educated persons. At any rate we do, for the circulation of the Record has been a source of much amusement for a long time to a great many citizens of this country, and particularly the printers. "Circulation" is good, but "circulation" after all three of the papers in question is a great deal better. We imagine on the way it is put that he must allow the three papers combined a circulation of something like 250 copies, perhaps 300.

The Republican in Philadelphia achieved a great victory at the late municipal election, notwithstanding the boasted independent voters. The Select Council will stand 20 Republians to 5 Democrats, and the Common Council 72 Republicans to 12 Democrats.

The New York Republican Convention, at Utica, on Wednesday, passed a resolution instructing delegates to work and vote for Grant at the Chicago Convention. An amendment was offered to put the name of Blaine in the place of Grant's, but it was defeated by a vote of 217 to 180.

Cincinnati has been selected as the place for holding the National Democratic Convention, and June 22d is the date fixed upon. This leaves the Democrats four months in which to get out of their dilemma, in regard to how they can shake off Mr. Tilden and yet stand some little chance of carrying the great State of New-York.

The Blaine boom is steady on the increase all over the country while the third termists—extreme quiet—dropping off some seen. The prospects are that the West will go nearly solid for Blaine and the hope is generally strong in view that the Chicago Convention will decide to place James G. Blaine as the head of our next Presidential ticket.

Much Republican enthusiasm up and boast that they will get more John Kelly men than they will lose Republicans if the third term carries. It may note the "signs of the times" they will find that if they expect to elect a Republican President next fall through the votes of Democrats, who are leaning on a broken record, —Satirista Saratogianus.

Senators Edmunds and Thurman had a bright little picture of arms the other day. In executive session Thurman was quietly listening and smirking when Edmunds objected to the confirmation of a certain Ohio nomine. Thurman, putting aside his cigar and springing to his feet, said: "Mr. President, I had not intended to say a single word upon this matter, but the Senator from Vermont has thrown a brick at an Ohio man, and I must resent that." Mr. Edmunds, with assumed seriousness, retorted, "You can't throw a brick in any direction these days without striking an Ohio man."

Though the Convention at Utica voted to instruct delegates to go for Grant, yet we think many voted for him for the sake of peace, and to avoid what might be taken for a useless opposition to the leading men in the Convention; but we don't believe the delegates at Chicago will be controlled as easily. They will vote for the man who will unite the Republican party. Grant's nomination would most certainly produce a division among Republicans and take thousands of voters from the party, which, if not given to the Democracy, would not be given at all. All these votes can be secured for Blaine, and for another man, unless it be Senator Edmunds of Vermont. —The "third term" alone, would deprive the Republican party of enough votes to defeat the ticket, and there are many voters who will not vote for Grant for other reasons. The large mass of German voters will not support him; if we may judge from the outspoken utterances in the German papers. Then why let a few men attempt to control the convention and compel delegates to vote for a man who cannot secure the united vote of the party. Let us have unity of action, and let the Chicago Convention give us a man that will unite the party and we shall come off victorious.

grand and gallant leader of the Republican party—James G. Blaine. Our country, crowned by the vast and marvellous achievements of its first century, asks for a man worthy of her past and prophetic of her future; asks for a man who has the audacity of genius; asks for a man who has the grandest combination of heart, conscience and brain the world over saw. That man is James G. Blaine. For the Republican hosts, led by this intrepid man, there can be no such thing as defeat. This is a grand year—a year filled with the recollections of the Revolution; filled with proud and tender memories of the sacred past; filled with legends of liberty—a year in which the sons of freedom will drink from the fountain of enthusiasm—a year in which the people call for the man who has preserved in Congress what their soldiers won upon the field—a year in which they call for the man who has torn from the throat of treason the tongue of shander; the man who has snatched the mask of Democracy from the hideous face of rebellion; the man who, like the intellectual athlete, has stood in the arena of debate challenging all comers, and who up to the present moment is a total stranger to defeat. Like an armed warrior; like a plumed knight, James G. Blaine marched down the halls of the American Congress and threw his shining lance full and fair against the brazen forehead of every traitor to his country and every malinger of his fair reputation. For the Republican party to desert that gallant man now is as though an army should desert their general upon the field of battle. James G. Blaine is now and has been for years the liveliest living thread manufacturer in the world, the most brilliant and most low-priced manufacturer of blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a most valuable medicine, and is known to be the best. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, purifies the system, and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease can make a greater improvement in a short time than by the use of this medicine, which will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mineral waters, which are sold as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. Theodore Parker, of Boston, has sent a communication to the Record in which he says: "We will air one or two of them for the amusement of four readers. Here is one of them, and we will say at the beginning, by way of parenthesis, that it is incomplete in every particular, a lie of enormous dimensions.

The appointment by Governor McClellan of Garret Ackerson, Jr., of Hackensack, to fill the vacant place of Judge Advocate General, it is said was made to patch up the feud between the Governor and Senator Cooper.

Samuel Semple, Sr., of Mt. Holly, is the oldest living thread manufacturer in the world, the most brilliant and most low-priced manufacturer of blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. Review.—The subject of a truck train on the N. J. R. from Pleasantville to Atlantic City during the coming season is being agitated.

The lecture of Rev. Dr. Hanlon, on Wednesday evening, at the M. E. Church, will be followed by a very appropriate audience. Parts of his lecture were highly interesting, but much of it could have been omitted without any detriment.

The house on West Railroad Ave., recently vacated by Mr. M. R. Morse, is now occupied by the family of Capt. Chas. Lovell, from East River.

A letter received from Edwin Gould states him to be in good health and spirits. He thinks he will like the place very much.

Atlantic Times.—An editor of a comic newspaper has been telling along in Oceanville that it is against the law to fish in any part of the ocean. It is against the law to fish in any part of the ocean.

Mr. Richard Steelman, of Steelsville, suffered some severe injuries a short time since by falling from a loaded wagon and being run over. Some fears have been expressed for his complete recovery.

Mr. Horace Walker, of Worcester, Mass., brother-in-law of Mr. G. Valentine, and a prominent business man in that city, has been spending a few days in Hammonton.

We stated a few weeks ago that the price of the Atlantic Standard was to be $1.00 a copy.

This is in error. The Standard is to be $1.00 a copy, and the Times is to be $1.00 a copy.

Quinton's Improvement, in the section of the Grand Depot, is to be $1.00 a copy.

The President and other officers and Directors of the "Old Reliable," with a number of invited guests, including a number of representatives of the press, made a quiet visit to the Standard office yesterday.

Mr. W. D. Packer, of Pleasantville, turned out to be a very good boy.

He says: "I repeat the statute requiring the publication of the laws is made by an overruled people." Very pretty sentiment isn't it? How about that "odium publication law" requiring that all sheriff's ads be printed in the paper published at the County seat as well as in the paper itself? And an execis will be given by Rev. L. Kirby, of Woodbury.

The grapes are awfully sour but it seems they are eaten as a sort of a relish.

That sounds very coming, as it does from one who has been examining every possible resource to obtain for his paper, and the hope is generally strong in view that the Chicago Convention will decide to place James G. Blaine as the head of our next Presidential ticket.

Much Republican enthusiasm up and boast that they will get more John Kelly men than they will lose Republicans if the third term carries. Mr. Edmunds, with assumed seriousness, retorted, "You can't throw a brick in any direction these days without striking an Ohio man."

Though the Convention at Utica voted to instruct delegates to go for Grant, yet we think many voted for him for the sake of peace, and to avoid what might be taken for a useless opposition to the leading men in the Convention; but we don't believe the delegates at Chicago will be controlled as easily. They will vote for the man who will unite the Republican party. Grant's nomination would most certainly produce a division among Republicans and take thousands of voters from the party, which, if not given to the Democracy, would not be given at all. All these votes can be secured for Blaine, and for another man, unless it be Senator Edmunds of Vermont. —The "third term" alone, would deprive the Republican party of enough votes to defeat the ticket, and there are many voters who will not vote for Grant for other reasons. The large mass of German voters will not support him; if we may judge from the outspoken utterances in the German papers. Then why let a few men attempt to control the convention and compel delegates to vote for a man who cannot secure the united vote of the party.

Let us have unity of action, and let the Chicago Convention give us a man that will unite the party and we shall come off victorious.

The appointment by Governor McClellan of Garret Ackerson, Jr., of Hackensack, to fill the vacant place of Judge Advocate General, it is said was made to patch up the feud between the Governor and Senator Cooper.

Samuel Semple, Sr., of Mt. Holly, is the oldest living thread manufacturer in the world, the most brilliant and most low-priced manufacturer of blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a most valuable medicine, and is known to be the best. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, purifies the system, and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease can make a greater improvement in a short time than by the use of this medicine, which will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mineral waters, which are sold as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. Mr. W. D. Packer, of Pleasantville, turned out to be a very good boy.

He says: "I repeat the statute requiring the publication of the laws is made by an overruled people." Very pretty sentiment isn't it? How about that "odium publication law" requiring that all sheriff's ads be printed in the paper published at the County seat as well as in the paper itself?

That sounds very coming, as it does from one who has been examining every possible resource to obtain for his paper, and the hope is generally strong in view that the Chicago Convention will decide to place James G. Blaine as the head of our next Presidential ticket.

Much Republican enthusiasm up and boast that they will get more John Kelly men than they will lose Republicans if the third term carries. It may note the "signs of the times" they will find that if they expect to elect a Republican President next fall through the votes of Democrats, who are leaning on a broken record, —Satirista Saratogianus.

Senators Edmunds and Thurman had a bright little picture of arms the other day. In executive session Thurman was quietly listening and smirking when Edmunds objected to the confirmation of a certain Ohio nomine. Thurman, putting aside his cigar and springing to his feet, said: "Mr. President, I had not intended to say a single word upon this matter, but the Senator from Vermont has thrown a brick at an Ohio man, and I must resent that." Mr. Edmunds, with assumed seriousness, retorted, "You can't throw a brick in any direction these days without striking an Ohio man."

Insurance.

CUMBERLAND MUTUAL
Fire Insurance Company.

BRIDGETON, N. J.

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, offering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. The proportion of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usually had, nothing can be offered more favorable to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insuree on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty-five cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one third of the lowest rates charged by stock companies, on such risks—the other two thirds taken by stock companies being a profit so ruin to stockholders, or consumed in expenses of the company.

The guaranteed fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five percent only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would yet be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home. No assessment having ever been made, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than

One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

The Losses by Lightning.

Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per year to each member, are paid without extra charge, and extended so as to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.
