DID YOU EVER

Stop to think what a fine piece of mechanism your watch is?—and that you are injuring it by letting it run too long without having it cleaned and oiled?

A watch is injured more in one month, when running dirty, than in a year's time when properly cleaned and oiled.

Why neglect to have it cleaned, when you can get it done, and guaranteed, for One Dollar?

AT DUDLEY'S,
HAMMONTON, N. J.

ELVINS & ROBERTS.

Flour.

The Flour market has advanced from 15 to 25 cents per barrel, first hands; but having secured a large stock before the advance, we still hold our price at old figures, thereby giving our customers the advantage.

We quote from $4.50 for good Family to $5.50 for Best Bleached Spring and Winter Wheat mixed—under our special brand "Royal," and for all baking purposes is certainly well worthy its name.

Feed.

We have always a full stock of all kinds of Feed.

While the market price on some kinds has advanced considerably, yet at the prices we are now quoting you will find us very low,—if anything, a little under the wholesale prices now prevailing.

Fertilizers.

We strongly advise placing orders for Fertilizers EARLY, especially for Dried and ground Fish Guano, which is exceedingly scarce. We have secured all we can, and are prepared to take orders; but the supply being very limited, "the first come first served." Order what you will want, NOW.

Mapes' Complete Manures for all crops are still popular. Our orders are now in for these goods, and they will be ready for delivery about March 1st, when we will be pleased to quote prices.

Berry Baskets.

We are now prepared to take your order for Quart and Pint Berry Baskets, for which, in view of the recent action of Commission Merchants in several of our markets, we anticipate unusual demand.

Place your orders early, as later they may be hard to get.

Agricultural Implements.

Can furnish anything and everything in the line, from a Corn Cutter to a Mowing Machine.

We are agents for the "Bissell" South Bend Plows.

Canned Goods.

Tomatoes and Corn especially, are also advancing. We quote at only a trifle above old figures:

Corn, 10, 12, and 15 cents.
"Peerless" Tomatoes at 11 cents are a bargain. Other good brands at 10 c.
"Bear" brand Salmon at 16 c. is cheap.
Fresh Mackerel (in one pound tins) is good eating, and at 12 cents per can is cheaper than mackerel in the salt.

Shoes.

A nice line of Women's and Misses' Shoes now in stock. We quote only one style as a sample.—Woman's Dongola Button at $1.25. We think it the best shoe for the price now on the market.

We have others, costing more money, which will give the wearer no better service.

Outing Flannels.

For Spring are beginning to arrive. Some of them are beauties, and at the uniform price of 10 cents per yard are very popular. Call and see them.

Garden and Field Seeds.

Will be here shortly.

Seed Potatoes.

It may seem a little premature to mention Seed Potatoes before the snow is gone; but we just want to remind you that the time will be here soon, when there will be a sharp demand for them. We shall have them in all the best varieties, at prices as low as the present condition of the market will warrant.
Don't buy until you get our fig. res.

Washington Letter.

From our regular Correspondent.
Washington, March 20, 1893.

A secret conference of Democratic Senators was held at the residence of one of their number within the last forty-eight hours, and it may prove the first step towards a war between the President and the Senate as bitter and relentless as that which was a part of President Andrew Johnson's administration. The most notable thing about the secret conference was the absence of such pronounced opponents of the administration as Senators Hill, Murphy and Pugh. Although absent, these Senators are in sympathy with the objects of the conference, and it is believed that they kept away purposely, in order that certain Senators disposed to be conservative might be induced to attend. What was stated to have been the immediate cause of the calling of the conference was the notice served upon Senators by Mr. Cleveland that Congressional influence would not count on applications for office unless the bearer was otherwise satisfactory to the appointing power. That was the last straw. "This man intends to humiliate us and break down our power at home," said indignant Democratic Senators to each other, "and unless we intend to retire at the end of our terms we must fight." A majority favored sending Mr. C. word in unmistakable language that unless he would agree to allow the Senators to exercise their old time privilege of controlling, when acting in concert with the Representatives from their respective States, they proposed to make war on him by rejecting his nominations to office. The few who are in the secret are anxiously waiting to see which side, if either, will first show the white feather. If Mr. Cleveland does, it will be the first time he has allowed himself to be whipped without a fight.

Secretary Hoke Smith is ambitious of becoming known to fame as a headman. In addition to accepting the resignation of General Baum, Commissioner of Pensions, in advance of the appointment of his successor—an unusual proceeding—he has asked for the resignation of all the division chiefs in the General Land Office. That's going at a much more rapid pace than the rest of the Cabinet have yet struck.

Republican officials seem to enjoy the confidence of this administration to a marked extent. For two days last week the War and Navy Departments were in charge of Assistant Secretaries Grant and Soley, respectively, while Secretaries Lamont and Herbert were out of the city.

Uncle Jerry Rusk has been taking advantage of his vacation to do a little sight seeing in Washington, which he never had an opportunity to do during the four years he was Secretary of Agriculture. Although his office was within stone's throw of the Washington monument, he never enjoyed the view from the top until since he was promoted to be a private citizen.

The administration is trying to be very mysterious about its policy towards Hawaii, but it can be stated on good authority that it has had two separate and distinct policies within a week. The first of last week, ex-Congressman Blount, of Georgia, who while he was chairman of the House committee on Foreign Affairs was an outspoken opponent of annexation, was started for Hawaii with authority and instructions to repudiate the protectorate established by Minister Stevens, and to haul down the American flag, in order to see whether the provisional government was strong enough to stand alone while negotiating with this Government. Later information was received by the administration, to the effect that Great Britain's officials were prepared, the moment the protection of the United States was officially withdrawn, to restore the deposed Queen to the throne under a British protectorate. A cabinet meeting was at once called, and its members made the fact very plain to the President that if he allowed Great Britain to get peaceable control of Hawaii his administration would be denounced from the Atlantic to the Pacific for such an un-American policy. So an entire set of new instructions was prepared and sent by telegraph to intercept Mr. Blount at San Francisco. In these new instructions he was told to recognize the existing protectorate while he scours Hawaii for reasons against annexation. As he sails from San Francisco to day or to-morrow, his instructions cannot again be changed, even if the administration should take another somersault.

Every train that goes out of Washington is loaded with disappointed office seekers, but as every train which arrives is also loaded with office seekers, there is little or no diminution in the crowd which daily besieges the White House and the Departments. HARRY.

The Long Island Railroad Company has informed all its employes that the mere fact that a man drinks will be considered by the company sufficient reason for his discharge. The division superintendent of the Illinois Central, in company with a policeman, visited the saloons and gambling dens of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and the next morning a number of the employes of his road who were found to be habitues of these places were discharged.

Queen Liliuokalani, of the Sandwich Islands, is an earnest patron of temperance reform. She pays the license fee for a coffee-house opened in her capital city recently, by Women's Temperance Union, and has banished all wines and spirituous liquors from her table and receptions.

We have the facilities for almost any kind of Job Printing; We know how to use our material and machinery, and guarantee satisfaction to every reasonable patron.

PAINT! PAINT!
—THE—
HAMMONTON.
When you buy the Hamonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half gallon, nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hamonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.
If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hamonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hamonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.
One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades, —the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $3 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should want to pay a high price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at

The Republican
[Entered as second class under No. 1000]
SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1893.
From facts which have come to light
since the adjournment of the legislature, it transpires that the controlling majority of that body was a more unscrupulous gang of politicians than was generally supposed. It is fully asserted by men who were in position to know, that important bills were looked up in member's desks, or held by committee, waiting for a heavy pecuniary consideration with which to grease the wheels of legislation, and when interested parties inquired as to why their measures were not heard from, they were coolly informed that it would take a certain sum of money to bring the bills out of their retirement. Never before had this infamous system of legislative brokerage been carried to anything like the same extent and it is to be hoped that the like will never be known again. So far as honesty of purpose and a genuine regard for the interests of the people were concerned, the legislature might as well have been taken indiscriminately from among the inmates of the State Prison.
—W. J. Press.

The arbitrators between the United States and Great Britain, in the Behring Sea controversy, met at Paris on Thursday. All evidence was presented, printed, some time ago, and the representatives of both countries are making their arguments.
The "yellows" in peach trees is often supposed to exist when the difficulty is really the lice at the roots of the trees. So said Prof. Smith at the recent farmers' meeting.

Between the Compound Oxygen Treatment of Diseases and that by the use of Drugs? It is an important question.
Drugs are taken into the stomach. For this reason their action is not direct.
Compound Oxygen is taken into the lungs, and therefore, comes immediately into contact with and is absorbed into the blood.
Drugs, being generally poisons, act by causing a disturbance to the body.
Compound Oxygen, being composed of the elements of the air, and acting upon the blood, is not open to this objection.
But, however it may act,
it has certainly cured many cases of chronic disease,
in which drugs have failed.
This is the point of greatest interest to all chronic sufferers. To all such we say:
Send for our book of 200
pages—sent free. Read for yourselves how Compound Oxygen is how it acts, and above all, what it has accomplished.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.
The constant drop of water
Wears away the hardest stone;
The constant gnaw of Towhee
Destroys the toughest bone;
The constant cooling lover
Carries off the blushing maid;
And the constant advertiser
Is the one who gets the trade.
No un-called-for letters.
Good Friday, next week.
Palm Sunday, to-morrow.
Council meeting Monday evening
next.
D. Whitman Jacobs has gone to Albany, N. Y.

Our crocus beds are showing their brilliant coloring.
Henry Stockwell is at home for the Easter vacation.

A sprayer is as much a necessity
on a Hamonton farm as a plow.
Miss Annie L. Hoyt spent the week with her brother, in the city.
Mrs. Geo. H. Perkins, of Atlantic City, is boarding with Mrs. Carlaw.

day.
The Republicans are again in control of the city council of Atlantic City.
John Friedley has been sick for six weeks, and has very little hope of recovery.
"Uncle Mike" Boyer has bought Whitman Jacobs' horse, light wagon, and road-cart.
Notice the peculiar co-incidence of names of the new M. E. pastors at Atlantic City.
High Harbor City Catholics are building a parochial residence opposite the new church.

Last Sunday was Mr. James J.
Horton's eighty-third birthday. Friends gathered at his residence on Saturday, to tender congratulations.

The Post Office scramble is on, full head. An old Democrat says it resembles two dogs fighting for a bone,

it.—the third party in this case is an old

A TRIP TO JUPITER'S MOONLET

EXTRACTED FROM "AERIAL" OR A VOYAGE TO OTHER WORLDS.

When we were passing through the atmosphere, the lightest of the children of the Sun—the great planet Jupiter, we came near one of the moonlets that roll around his equator...

It was to a moonlet of Jupiter that we now approached. A tiny world. An English county would more than contain its whole surface. London would more than have covered it...

At length we held a consultation on our plain. More time had been spent here than we could well spare on our voyage through the wonders of the solar system...

The Collecting Mania. A most violent fad is that of collecting. Collecting no matter what it is, is a collection made...

How wonderful and glorious are these works! Here in this little world, where everything is small on its surface, what glories are manifested!

THE CLIFF DWELLERS

A few miles above Montezuma's castle on the Appalachee bank of the creek, a few hundred feet above the surrounding country...

The rim is crowned with the fallen walls of an ancient ruin more than a hundred feet long. Far down the mountain-side, below the level of the water in the crater...

There were two points at which it would have been lost but for the driver's presence of mind. The driver's presence of mind was the only thing that saved us from a certain death...

The cliff dwellers were evidently far in advance of the useful arts of any tribe which have existed north of Mexico...

The Empress of China has recently been endeavoring to give an impetus to the manufacture of silk in that country by starting a silk-weaving department of her own...

A FAMOUS STAGE DRIVER.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

Art builds on sand. Foolish fear doubles danger. Knavery is the worst trade.

Exclusive society subsists where there is no one to exclude. Good teaches us good things by our own hands.

There is no pride like that of a beggar grown rich. It costs more to revenge wrongs than to suffer them.

A man who knows how to wait knows how to get even. People who work for the devil never get any vacation.

A captain of militia is known by the company he keeps. A "whisky straight" is decided to be an uneducated devil.

The strong man is a spider and the weak man is his fly. The works of pride and human passion change and fall.

No man is stronger than the weak spot in his character. Remember that woman is most perfect when most womanly.

Earth has nothing more tender than a pious woman's heart. Learn to explain thy doctrine by thy life.

Flesh without a thorn is not human. Kindness out of season destroys power. An ounce of action is worth a pound of talk.

Happiness doesn't always ride in a carriage. Blessed are the sorrowful who carry a heavy cross.

Eye-manners need the support of the manners in other respects. A soul occupied with great ideas best performs small duties.

A bath is oftentimes a great moralizer. A man will get fat quicker on paid-for board.

Zest without knowledge is fire without light. Virtue and happiness are mother and daughter.

If a family has no skeleton, gossip will give it one. It is almost as difficult to stay there as to get there.

Give a friend in private and praise him in public. Wise men make more opportunities than they find.

Solitude cannot use to write because it causes us to think. One can stop when he ascends, but not when he descends.

Friendship is a shield that blunts the date of adversity. Before a man has begun to think a woman has begun to talk.

Every vice has a cloak, and creeps in under the name of virtue. Man's grand fault is and remains that he has so many small ones.

Women need not look at those dead to them to know their moods. The robe of love is sometimes heavier than that of all the virtues.

The happiness of the great is to be able to make others happy. Small faults indulged are little thieves that live in greater ones.

A good deed is better than gold, but not nearly so negotiable. He is king who fears nothing. He is a king who desires nothing.

WHAT DANDELIONS DO.

There surely is a gold mine somewhere. Down beneath the dandelion seedling in every place you pass.

But you think their yellow heads are only a common weed. You are just a little mistaken. You may have a mine under your feet.

It is the dandelion's will. At the winter days no by. Of the noble dandelion seedling and heard beneath last summer's sky.

But if you fall to hear them. It is a sign they are all dead. About your feet are the children of the dandelion.

MY NAUGHTIEST DAY. HELEN WATERBURY. Just when it began to be the naughtiest day of my life I have never been quite sure.

That morning the reading lesson in the fourth chapter of the Epistle was given over to make sure that I had seen my devotion.

Both looking fast to the door. I was high June. Eddie drew me into the toilet house. There was our council chamber and favorite place for playing under shelter.

With a common impulse to get away from the supernatural and out into the beautiful human world that we understood and loved.

Eddie drew me into the toilet house. There was our council chamber and favorite place for playing under shelter. "What is it?" I asked in an urgent whisper.

"About the sun?" pursued Eddie. "About the sun?" I asked. "About the sun?" I asked.

"Well, now," said Eddie, his forehead wrinkling wildly in the air and his freckled nose wiggling like a rabbit's.

"Hold on!" he cried, dashing out. I did hold on, but I had lost my head. Seeing the mischievous little thing in the doorway, and with the sound of his voice gave a frightened leap.

WHY DANDELIONS DO.

There surely is a gold mine somewhere. Down beneath the dandelion seedling in every place you pass.

But you think their yellow heads are only a common weed. You are just a little mistaken. You may have a mine under your feet.

It is the dandelion's will. At the winter days no by. Of the noble dandelion seedling and heard beneath last summer's sky.

But if you fall to hear them. It is a sign they are all dead. About your feet are the children of the dandelion.

MY NAUGHTIEST DAY. HELEN WATERBURY. Just when it began to be the naughtiest day of my life I have never been quite sure.

That morning the reading lesson in the fourth chapter of the Epistle was given over to make sure that I had seen my devotion.

Both looking fast to the door. I was high June. Eddie drew me into the toilet house. There was our council chamber and favorite place for playing under shelter.

With a common impulse to get away from the supernatural and out into the beautiful human world that we understood and loved.

Eddie drew me into the toilet house. There was our council chamber and favorite place for playing under shelter. "What is it?" I asked in an urgent whisper.

"About the sun?" pursued Eddie. "About the sun?" I asked. "About the sun?" I asked.

"Well, now," said Eddie, his forehead wrinkling wildly in the air and his freckled nose wiggling like a rabbit's.

"Hold on!" he cried, dashing out. I did hold on, but I had lost my head. Seeing the mischievous little thing in the doorway, and with the sound of his voice gave a frightened leap.
