SOWING DELICATE SEEDS.

Many flower seeds are so small that it will not do to cover deep enough to prevent drying out when sown where the sun and wind can reach them. The richer the soil the less liability to failure from these causes but it is often better to start in pots or boxes. For a small packet of seeds take a four inch pot and fill it with very rich mellow soil, pat it down quite firmly with the bottom of another pot, water well and sow the seed evenly over the surface and cover according to the size of the seed, just barely enough to cover for small seed and a little more for larger, using only very fine earth for covering, then pat down again and cover with a pane of glass and set in a warm place where the sun will not shine on it (light is not necessary till the plants come up). Watch it very carefully and whenever the surface gets nearly dry water by dipping the fingers in warm water and allowing it to drip gently on the seed pot or use a very fine sprinkler if one is at hand. As soon as the plants begin to come up they must be placed in the light or they will grow up tall and weak. Keeping them very wet will also produce the same effect and the glass must not be kept too close after they are up or they may damp off. In a few days transplant, giving them more room or if convenient put each plant singly in small pots and in any case it is better to do this before planting out. For larger lots of seed a shallow box may be used treating in same way except that a brick is more convenient for firming the soil.

When planted out of doors it is often best to shade a little till they get established and a little hen manure put under them when planting, so it will not touch the roots, but where they will reach it when they begin to grow, often proves decidedly beneficial.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.—Twenty-five cents will buy a box of Tutt's Pills. They will restore the functions of the liver, stomach and bowels. If these organs act well a long and happy life is assured. Make the investment.

Five dead bodies have been recovered from the Rich Hill, Mo., mine where the explosion occurred last week, fifteen men are believed to be still buried in the shaft and twenty three have been so badly burned that many of them will die.

Pleuro-pneumonia has broken out in the Southern part of the state. A herd of infected cattle were killed at Salem, this week.

TOWN COUNCIL.

There is much said about what the Council do, and don't do. There are some things that ought to be done,—things that the old Council neglected entirely,—and while the new members were not pledged to these things, probably they will see the necessity for a reform, and if it is in their power, and not prohibited by our Charter, we have no doubt there will be a change for the better. The particular reform we ask for, is of the weather. We have great faith in the Town Council and good weather, and so have provided a good supply of Spring goods, such as

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure every-thing?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe it. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, there was no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the stomach, causes head-ache, or produces constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dizziness, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, not only cures in a minute, like all other medicinal medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by one the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The particles then become finer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active, in consequence the effect is usually rapid and marked. The eyes begin to see to brighter, the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular and if a nursing mother, abundant nutriment is applied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

WHEN THEY HAD CALLED THE APOSTLES...

And when they had called the apostles, they said unto them (Acts 7: 59).

And he said unto them (Acts 8: 3).

And he said unto them (Acts 10: 37).

They rebelled against the words of God (Acts 10: 41).

They despised all my reproof (Prov. 1: 30).

They would not come (Matt. 22: 3).

Ye will not come to me, that ye may have life (John 6: 54).

Behold your house is left unto you desolate (Matt. 23: 38).

Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel (Ps. 2: 9).

He... shall suddenly be broken, and will not remain (Prov. 22: 1).

And the door was shut (Matt. 25: 10).

He found no place of repentance (Heb. 12: 17).

1. "All these things shall come upon this generation." (1) Accumulated penalty; (2) Aggravated condemnation.

2. "How often would I have gathered thy children together..." (1) The Lord's loving-kindness; (2) The Lord's patience; (3) The Lord's disappointment.

3. "Ye refuse to be left unto you desolate..." (1) His holiness departed; (2) His glories gone; (3) His hopes dimmed; (4) Itsaviour given.

LESSON BIBLE READING.

Uncovered before God (Isa. 29: 15, 16; Matt. 22: 17, 18).

Paraded before men (Isa. 2: 5, 16; 25: 2).

Zealously make converts (Matt. 23: 15).

Scrupulous in small matters (Matt. 23: 23, 24).

Careful of appearances (Matt. 23: 25-28).

Boasts of superior virtue (Matt. 23: 29-36).

To be shunned (Luke 12: 1; 1 Pet. 4: 1).

Punished (Matt. 24: 50, 51).

Illustrated (Isa. 4: 3, 5; Heb. 11: 4; 1 John 3: 12; Absalom, 2 Sam. 15: 7-10; Judas, Matt. 26: 49; Ananias and Sapphira, Acts 5: 1-8; Simon, Acts 8: 13, 18, 19).

LESSON SURROUNDINGS.

The present lesson forms the conclusion of the public discourses in the temple.

The intervening discourses are given by him in a private or social order.

After the parable of the wedding feast a new attack was made upon our Lord (Matt. 23: 15-22) by two classes, opposed to each other, but united in their hostility to the Pharisees and the Herodians.

The Sadducees next came (Matt. 22: 23-33) with a hypothetical question respecting the resurrection, and they were met in their turn by a lawyer, who, as ex-ponent of the Jewish law, representing the Pharisees, evidently a man of moral earnestness, put the final question, "Temple taxes" (Matt. 22: 34-40), and in reply, our Lord, by a question which the questioner confessed (Matt. 12: 32, 33). Our Lord now puts a counter-question (Matt. 22: 41-46) respecting the person of the Messiah—a question which the Pharisees would recognize as of importance, but which they could not answer.

This ended the conflicts. But the discourse recorded in the following chapter, to which Mark and Luke make but brief reference, evidently followed immediately. Some portions of it, however, resemble scenes placed earlier in the history by Luke. Matthew's report begins with a description of the scribes and Pharisees (Matt. 23: 57), followed by a notice of their hostility (vs. 8, 12). Seven (or eight) woes are pronounced against the scribes and Pharisees for their hypocrisy (vs. 13-36). One of these is the subject of the present chapter, and is placed in the margin of the Revised Version. The lesson begins with the sixth denunciation; or the seventh, reckoning verse 1.

The place, as before, was in one of the porches of the temple; the time, Tuesday, the twelfth of Nisan (April 4, ear of Rome 787, - A. D. 30).

Mrs. Stowe and Her Cal.

When I was 8 years of age I had a favorite cat of whom I was very fond.

Puss was attacked with fits and in her paroxysms flew round the top of the wall, jumped on to our heads and scratched and tumbled up our hair in a frightful way.

My father shot her, and when she was cold and dead my mother buried her under a tree.

Finally, when I was 12, I was shot by her in my bed and got my brother to dig a grave and set up a flat stone for a monument. Then I went to my other mother, and she said to me to write me an "epithet" to put on the stone. She wrote:

"Here lies poor Kit, who had a fit. And she was killed with a gun. Her race was run."

I pasted this upon the stone and was comforted.

A PEARLVILLE VENDOR.—Tommy is getting crozier and crozier every day. She spanked me twice yesterday.

Sissy—So she did me, and hard, too. "I'll hit you now we can get even with her."

"How?"

"Let's promise each other never to marry, and then she'll never be a grandmother. Won't that be fun?"

FARM NOTES.

THE SOIL FOR FRUIT.—The idea that fruit can best be raised on a shallow soil has become so prevalent that many fruit growers are neglecting the preference when they have the choice between that and one that is deep and rich.

A number of the cows were fed for one week on a ration reduced to one-quarter length, the week following the same corn fodder cut into lengths, and the week following they were furnished fodder cut into one-inch lengths. Care was taken that each animal received just what previous experience had shown it would "eat up clean."

The cows were fed night and morning as usual, but before feeding the next day the residue in the mangers was carefully weighed. The result of these experiments is shown in tabular form as follows:

One-cow trial with: Feed, Wt. Waste, Length of Cut, lbs., lbs., lbs., One inch, 40, 120, 30, Two inches, 40, 120, 30.

Professor Shelton offers the following explanation of the above results: "As ordinarily prepared, the blades of the corn plant are the only part having nutritive value. The stalk portion and the husks are, for the most part, indigestible, tasteless, woody fibre. When fodder is cut into very short lengths, the nutritive portion is lost, and the greater lengths were used. The additional advantage in the use of the longer lengths is the great saving of power required to cut a heavy weight of fodder to a very considerable item, not likely to be lost sight of."

A GOOD WORD FOR THE SPARROWS.—The sparrow is not guilty of half the deprecations that are laid to him. They come to the very thresholds of your dwellings to pick up insects and vermin. They are not ordinary scavengers, but more than compensate for the grain they eat. Insects in our gardens and orchards, and in our farms are constantly appearing in our view. They are not ordinary scavengers, but more than compensate for the grain they eat. Insects in our gardens and orchards, and in our farms are constantly appearing in our view.

[Entered as second class matter.]
HAMMONONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J.
SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1886.

Some of the country roads in Sussex county are said to be still impassable.
Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster, ex-Attorney General of the United States, died on Wednesday, aged 72 years.

Senators Hale, Manderson and Blodget began their investigation of the irregularities in the Philadelphia Postoffice Tuesday.

The ninety-four Democratic members of the House who voted against the bill to pension Mrs. General Logan will probably explain that they did so as a rebuttal to Senator Ingalls. The explanation would be regarded as silly, but not more so than their action.

In the U. S. Senate the pending amendments upon the bill authorizing the purchase of Government bonds were withdrawn and a substitute was passed declaring that the provision of the Sundry Civil bill of 1881, conferring authority upon the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase bonds with the surplus, was an act of permanent legal effect.

Thousands of friends all over the land have read with deep regret of the destruction by fire of Hon. William Walter Phelps' beautiful home at Teaneck, N. J. It was a dear delightful place - a fine old low-storied Dutch mansion whose pleasant associations had saved it from going places to a more stately edifice and around which had been built extensions and corridors and galleries that made it altogether the most unique, spacious and winsome residence that could be found within a hundred miles of New York. It was always open and ever hospitable. Its numbered rooms were filled with the finest works of art which taste could gather.
The fitting center of a great estate which was cultivated with the best intelligence, it had the air of supreme comfort and refined elegance. A more imposing structure may rise upon its site, but the many gems collected with so much care and judgment can not be replaced.

Mr. EDITOR: - In a recent number of the Philadelphia Press was a report of a "terrible fatality in the Sheltering Arms" - a home for infants, in Philadelphia, - "from whooping cough."
This is an institution similar to the one founded by Miss Dr. S. S. Nivison, at her Sanitary Home, at Summit Grove Place, about a mile above Hammononton station; and like her's, the Sheltering Arms was conducted under the auspices of the Episcopalians; and like it, received children from any and all sources. - In February, the whooping cough broke out among the little ones at the "Sheltering Arms." Out of thirty-two babes in the institution, only four were reported spared from the epidemic, and in one of these the cough was discovered. The Press had not a word of adverse criticism on the lady physician in charge or on the two physicians summoned to her assistance.
The case is so perfectly like that of Dr.
Nivison (only in the latter case the epidemic was measles, which was contracted by one of the little ones before admission, but did not manifest itself for a day or two after) that we are impelled in justice to speak of it. The fatality in the two cases was about the same.

PORTRAITS.
Having been very successful in the practice of the art-science (Photography),
I have opened at the above place to continue my business and to introduce the latest inventions in the art. - Cold, leaky sky lights, hand-rests, and sitting for even so short a time as one second, is not necessary.

The time-honored chestnut, "how look a little pleasanter," is heard no more.
The photograph is taken in the twentieth part of a second, while the operator is talking to the sitter, therefore the expression is natural.

Prices -
Cabinets, ordinary finish, $2.50 per doz.
Cabinets, enameled (never before introduced in this town), $3.00 per doz.
Pictures, only 75 cents per doz.

Pictures made either in the day time or evening, by this new method.

CHESNUTS - Yes, out-of-door views I still make, as before, but with this difference, - they are farther than ever! I have purchased very expensive lenses for this purpose, and as "seeing is believing," call and see the work. Prices as follows: - 4x2 1/2, 50 cts. for first view, and 25 cts. for each one thereafter. 8x10, $1.00 for first view, and 50 cents each thereafter.

THE NEW YORK Mail and Express

The Advocate of the Best Interests of the Home—The Enemy of the Saloon.
The Friend of American Labor.
The Favorite Newspaper of People of Refined Tastes Everywhere.

For many years the daily edition of the New York MAIL AND EXPRESS has been recognized as the leading afternoon paper of the tribune, with its weekly edition has been THE FAVORITE HOME PAPER in thousands of families in every State in the Union. It has attained its great popularity and influence by its enterprising in the collection of news, the purity of its tone, and the ability and courage of its advocacy of the right on all questions of public interest.
FROM 1858 the MAIL AND EXPRESS will be a better paper than ever, and, as a clean, interesting, instructive

Home Newspaper,

it seeks comparison with any other in the country. It is one of the LARGEST PAPERS PUBLISHED anywhere, and spares neither labor nor expense to secure for its readers the very best in all departments of newspaper literature.

OUR POLITICS.

We believe the Republican party to be the true instrument of POLITICAL PROGRESS of the American people; and holding that the most important of its principles is the best guarantee of the national welfare, we shall support them with all our might; but we shall always treat opposing parties with consideration and fair play.

AGAINST THE SALOON.

The MAIL AND EXPRESS is the recognized leading journal of the country in the great Anti-Saloon Republicanism movement. It believes that the liquor traffic as it exists to-day in the United States is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in politics, the ally of anarchy, a school of crime, and with its avowed purpose of seeking to corruptly control elections and legislation, is a menace to the public welfare and deserves the condemnation of all good men.

In brief, all who are interested in their homes a HIGHER-CLASS NEWSPAPER of national scope, broad views, clean pages and corrosive, yet kindly, criticisms on all questions of general and public interest will not be disappointed in the MAIL AND EXPRESS, and we respectfully solicit their influence and support.

The Tribune for 1888

GREATLY ENLARGED.
Much the Biggest of all the
New York Weeklies.

Greater Variety of Contents, New Presses, New Type, and New Appliances.

At the Head of the Republican Press.

The New York Weekly Tribune will be enlarged on or before the 1st of January, 1888, by the addition of four to eight more pages of actual reading matter [an increase of size of great expense to the Tribune, but without expense to the subscriber.]
A complete re-arrangement and inserting presses will be put into the Tribune's press room in November and December; and the extra sheet will be folded into its place in the main sheet before it comes from the press. The enlarged Tribune will be the biggest and best of all the New York weeklies, and the new machinery will print it, in the enlarged form, at the rate of seventy two thousand copies a per hour.

New features and a greater variety of contents will be added to the Tribune during the coming year.
Readers will be given nearly half more for their money than ever before.

Penalties for the old laws, especially Service
Penalties, are being vigorously, agitated in the Tribune;
much space is given in every issue to this subject.
Better protection to Farmers under the tariff;
the salvation of the country from the curse of interper-son, and the rescue of the national government from the hands of the rebel brigades; these, and all the other live issues of the day are receiving aggressive, earnest and loyal treatment in the Tribune.

The Tribune does not attempt to supersede the local State and County press. But in the great Presidential conflict now at hand, every able, Republican, old soldier, farmer, and temperance man, should have his local paper and the New York Tribune.

Subscription Rates.—Weekly, $1 a year; extra copy with every five. Semi-Weekly, $2 a year; extra copy with every five. Daily, $5.50 per year. Sunday Tribune, $1.50. New subscribers receive the paper until Jan. 1, 1888. Remits always by draft, check, express, or postal money order, or registered letter.

Premiums.—(1) The New York Tribune's History of the United States and Back: Atlas of the World, 1880, 254 pages, 50 maps, 20 colored diagrams, price 40 cents; to subscribers, 20 cents; post that premium of the year—a fascinating running account of the history of the country, with a great variety of statistical and general information. (2) Household Pocket Knife; subscriber's name and picture of his choice for President on the handle; and for descriptive circular.
Price at retail, $1.75; two other styles for less money. (3)
Popular Picture Gallery; 100—100 pictures, including the new officers of the U. S. A., Mr. Blaine, Senator Ervins and Hancock, "Return of the Mayflower," "Christ before Pilate," and "Children writing to Santa Claus,"—sent for circular. (4) Waltham Watch; expansion balance movement; stem winder, stem set, seven jewels, nickel case, thoroughly reliable and an excellent watch; with the weekly Tribune one year, $7.50. (5) Tribune's "Book of Open Air Sports."
(6) Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. (7) Wood's "Household Medicine." These premiums cannot be described in full here. Send for circular.

Secretary Weeks, of the American Protective Tariff League, insists that the Republicans in Congress should prepare a Revenue bill, and says that with few changes the Randall bill would be acceptable to the manufacturing interests.

The House passed the bill granting an annual pension of $2000 to the widow of General Logan and the bill increasing to the same amount the pension of the widow of General Francis P. Blair.

Best Home Paper in America

This is not brag.
It is a plain statement of honest fact.

Ordinarily, the weekly issue of a daily paper is esteemed to be merely a digest of the week's news, suited alone for rural readers.

This is not true in reference to the Weekly Press.

It is specially edited by a trained corps of writers selected for the purpose of making the best paper.

It is adapted to the improvement and enjoyment of both sexes, of all ages, of every family whether a resident of the city, village, or country.

Not a word of crime or impure suggestion in any part of the paper.

It is an old paper, and carries its age
and reputation equally well.

Now we are seeking a new and larger circle of readers. As an inducement to this end, the Weekly Press in connection with any four dollar magazine in America will be sent for the single subscription price of such magazine.

Or, on application, we will make a special combination of any two or more periodicals published in America, either weekly or monthly, in conjunction with the Weekly Press, at such low rate as will be equivalent to a year's subscription to the Weekly Press free for one year.

We make this exceptional proposition in order that the Weekly Press may go on trial in a million households for an entire year.
