Mrs. Henry T. Pressey, whose death we mentioned last week, was buried in Greenmount Cemetery on Saturday. She was 82 yrs. old; death caused by apoplexy. The family came here in the early sixties, was well and favorably known. A number of stalwart sons are among those who mourn her departure.

Elvin Kendall was placed under arrest, Tuesday, under two charges,—running a car without a license, and taking it without the owner's permission. The car belonged to A. J. Milliken, and young Kendall is said to have gone to Bellevue Garage and represented that he had orders to get the car. He is under bail to appear at Court.

A very hearty reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. Everett van Drigh, on Wednesday evening, by members and friends of the First M. E. Church. A. L. Jackson was master of ceremonies, while his wife ably received and introduced. There were speeches of welcome—by W. R. Tilton for the Sunday School, by Rev. Marple for the Presbyterian Church, good words by retiring Pastor W. L. Shaw; and a brotherly letter from Pastor Cusworth of the Baptist Church, who was out of town. Others had their say, and then the new Pastor responded in a manner that made everybody a friend. There were fully a hundred and twenty-five present; and the good fellowship went up another notch after refreshments and a social hour.

Three Days Chautauqua.

The subject has again been bro't up; and those interested in it are asked to express themselves at a meeting called for the purpose, in Civic Club room, next Tuesday evening, 20th.

Miss Smith, of the well-known Scorer Lyceum Bureau, has conversed with many of our town's people in regard to a three days festival, some time in June. There would be afternoon and evening sessions, in a hall, and the contract price would be $290, plus one-half of all receipts over $350. This means, the difference between these two amounts would go to the local committee for hall rent, piano, etc. Tickets to sell for one dollar.

Every one is asked to attend the meeting and express themselves.

Sewer Assessments.

In view of the fact that there has seemed to be some doubt with regard to the manner in which information as to individual sewer assessments might be obtained, the Commission begs to state that such information can be had from any member of the Sewer Assessment Commission, on application, as has been possible at any time since the official report was filed at May's Landing. All property-owners who have already requested this information have been promptly and willingly advised.

For general information, it may be added that the total cost of the sewer system was $108,870.55. Amount assessed against property-owners, approximately, $55,000,—the Town bearing the remainder.

P.S. Since the above was in type, the Commissioners have decided to place in the Treasurer's office a list of the property owners and the amount of each man's assessment, which may be consulted by anyone.—Ed.

The Baptist Men's Bible Class will conduct a "New England Supper" next week Saturday eve. Tickets, twenty-five cents, for sale by members.

Mr. E. J. Woolley, one of Hammonton's highly esteemed citizens, was congratulated, on Thursday, he having reached the ripe age of ninety-one years. He came here in June, 1866, and is still active, mentally and physically. His son Dion came down from the city to spend the day.

Presbyterian Annual Meeting.

At a well attended congregational meeting, when many new members attested the growth of the congregation, the First Presbyterian Church of Hammonton closed its year last week Thursday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society provided a fine supper.

Reports from the various societies showed a very successful year's work. The benevolences of the Church totalled nearly $500.

C. Stuart Whiffen was re-elected to the Session; Wm. Doerfel and Chas. Miller were re-elected, and Wm. Crawford and Preston Brown elected to the Board of Trustees.

Twenty-seven members signed their names, others were added since, and thirty or more will cooperate with Session and Trustees in an every member campaign.

Members are being received each Sabbath, and the outlook for the year is encouraging. M.

TIMELY NOTICE.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:

Reference to the Sewer Assessments is important to property owners.

Do they know that under the law the Commissioners who made the assessments are not required to notify the persons assessed of the amount they have to pay?

Do they know that the report of the Commissioners is on file only at the County Clerk's office at May's Landing, and that if they desire to know their assessment in time to make appeal, if necessary, they should lose no time in finding out the amount? It may surprise them.

The day for making appeal against assessments is Saturday, May 1st; the place, the County Court, May's Landing.

It is expected that a copy of the assessment list will be available here for property owners' inspection, early next week, if the writer can secure it by that time. Meantime, it should be clearly understood that no appeal can be made, or hearing had, on any matter in connection with the assessment, after Saturday week. It seems a pity that a full copy of the report, plans of plots, and lists of individual assessments, was not placed in the hands of the Town Clerk for convenient reference by persons assessed; and further, that notice was not sent to each person of the amount of his assessment. I know the law does not require this, strangely enough, but it is not likely that it forbids it.

Yours truly,
J. A. BORDAN.

"A MEADOW LARK"

By Anne Rish

Today at quiet Seaside Park, betwixt the bay and sea, the piping of a meadow lark recalled my youth to me...

It was a crude and stunted strain, an imitation trite, repeated over and over again with evident delight...

Two notes complete, with half a third, and neither rich nor strong, yet rarely has my heart been stirred so deeply by a song...

Like some long-lost recovered phrase it set my fancy free and took me back to boyhood's days beyond the rolling sea...

On Scottish soil I stood again, a liddle herding ky, while hurock's notes like golden Edin came pouring from the sky...

I saw the magic songster soar far up into the blue, until ascending more and more he vanished from my view...

But tho' departed from my sight, on tireless wings sustained and still as brilliant and as bright, his liquid lark remained...

BILLY SUNDAY, in one of his ringing sermons, pays this eloquent tribute to Life Insurance:

"I don't look like a man who would die very quickly, do I? I have as good a physique as you ever looked at. I wouldn't trade with any man I know. A lot of you fellows are stronger than I, but I have as good a physique as you ever looked at. I have been preaching at this pace for fourteen years, and I have stood it, although I begin to feel myself falling a little bit. But I may die, and on that 'may' that possibility, I carry thousands and thousands of dollars of life insurance. I don't believe that a man does right to himself, his wife or his children, if he doesn't provide for them with life insurance, so that when he is gone they will not be thrown on the charity of the world. And next to my faith in God, if I should die to-night, that which would give me the most comfort would be the knowledge that I have in a safety deposit vault in Chicago, life insurance papers, paid for up to date, and my wife could cash them in and she and the babies could listen to the wolves howl for a good many years. I don't expect to die soon. I may die, and on that 'may' I carry thousands and thousands of dollars in life insurance."

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1915

Just fifty years ago last Wednesday night (April 14th, 1865), the Senior Editor sat, with others, in a darkened room at Fairfax Court House, Virginia, awaiting the attack of Col. John Mosby's guerrillas, which was threatened.

Everything was quiet except the tick of the telegraph instrument, when the operator sprang from his seat with an exclamation which caused some of us to hasten to his side with impatient questions. In a moment he read to us the words which had been passing over the wire from Washington: "President Lincoln was shot at nine o'clock to-night at Ford's Theatre, supposedly by John Wilkes Booth." Perhaps you may imagine the sensation caused by these words.

In the morning came word of the President's death and of the assassin's escape. Troops were sent out in every direction, covering all that part of the country, resulting, as history records, in the capture and death of the fugitive.

But to some of us, the memory of that night will ever remain.

After considering the subject for several weeks, Council's Light Committee recommended certain changes to the system, which were adopted by that body, and agreed to by the Company. The Solicitor is placing these changes in the contract.

New electric lights will be placed as follows:
On Pine Road, from Main to Union, 15 incandescents.
Thirteenth Street, from First Rd. to Second Rd., 17 incandescents.
Washington St., from Orchard to Thirteenth, 1 flaming arc and 7 incandescents.
Third Street, from Orchard to Fairview Ave., 1 flaming arc and 8 incandescents.
Walnut Street, from Third to Fourth, 10 incandescents.
Chestnut Street, from Thirteenth, 3 incandescents.
Egg Harbor Road, from Maple St. to Park, 6 incandescents.
Chestnut Road, south from Twelfth to Eleventh, 10 incandescents.
Orchard St., from West End Ave. to Madison, 5 incandescents.
Grand St., between Twelfth and Orchard Sts., 1 incandescent.
Madison Ave., between Orchard and Pleasant Sts., 1 incandescent.
Grand St., south of Twelfth to Hasbrouck Ave., 2 incandescents.
Corner of Bellevue and Main Road, 1 flaming arc.
Fairview Ave., from Third St. to West Jersey Railroad, 1 flaming arc and 2 incandescents.

The following lamps will be removed and discontinued:
On Third Street from Orchard to Fairview Ave., 6 gas lamps and 1 enclosed arc.
On French St., north of Third St., 1 gas lamp.
On Washington St., 4 gas lamps.
On Orchard St., from West End Ave. to Madison, 3 gas lamps.
Corner Second and Fairview, 1 gas lamp.
On Thirteenth St., between Egg Harbor Road and Washington Street, 1 gas lamp.
Corner Bellevue Ave. and Main Road, 1 all-night incandescent and 2 midnight incandescents.

The Company will have to expend several thousands of dollars, including ten miles of wire, and the throwing away of gas lamps, etc.

Still referring to the nuisance of dumped waste upon open lots about town, we call attention to the following ordinance, which was passed in November, 1895, and should be enforced:

"It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to throw or dump any garbage of any kind, or any broken glass, earthen ware, tin cans, or old iron, on the open lots, or along the streets, roads or highways of this town.

"Any person or person violating this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, to be sued and recovered by the Town of Hammonton in an action of debt."

A wrong impression was given on the start-off, that sewer frontage would cost the property owners but thirty-five cents per foot. There was no foundation for this, and as a result, the Commission are having all kinds of trouble. Do not be too ready to criticize. They are bound by law to do certain things, without regard to what they would prefer to do.

"Town Improvement Night," at the School House, last Monday evening, brought out many good individual ideas as to desirable things, including a public library, and caused some discussion. Other things faded into forgetfulness, however, when a speaker introduced the sewerage question, which developed into a pretty lively exchange.

Hammonton will have no trouble in placing its sewer bonds. A Philadelphia party stood ready, Wednesday evening, to take the entire series of one hundred and eighty dollars.

Remember that the County Board of Agriculture, and Local Grand are to have a joint meeting next Friday evening, 23rd inst., in Civic Club room. This is important.

If you are interested in the Chautauqua, attend the meeting next Tuesday evening. Three hundred and fifty tickets pledged will pay all expenses.

The new tax maps, just completed, are now being inspected by the State. They are the finest pieces of work that we ever saw.

Board of Trade asked Council to co-operate in a week of "clean-up and beautify," the last week in April. Voted, to authorize committee to run two wagons, three days, to carry away rubbish, tin cans, etc.

Civic Club asked that action be taken in regard to the waste paper nuisance on vacant lots near the Raleigh. Committee authorized to act in the matter, as a town ordinance strictly forbids dumping of rubbish on vacant lots or along the streets.

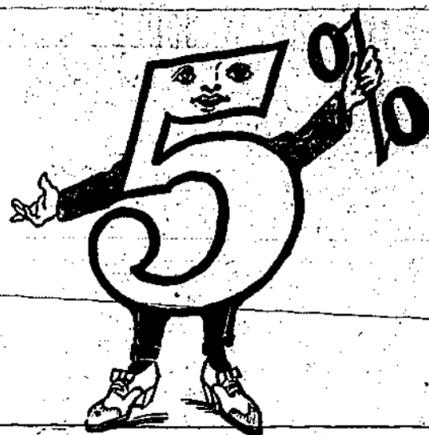

Applications for inn and tavern licenses were received from Pinto's Hotel, Hotel Union, Hotel Columbia, Hammonton Hotel, Central (D'Giacomo's) Hotel, Fairview Inn, Raleigh-in-the-Pines. For bottles' licenses: Chas Penza and B. Foglietta. Referred to Committee for investigation.

Edward H. White was elected member of the Board of Health. Permission was asked, by both Turner and Rauler, to place gasoline tanks under the sidewalks. Committee ordered to investigate and report.

Payne & Gray again asked that Town drain their property. As they had stopped up the ditches, there will be nothing doing. Property Committee wishing to improve the Park, will make a definite report at future meeting. Adjourned at twelve o'clock.
