First the people had to go down to Trenton by thousands to prevent the legislature from handing New Jersey over to the race track fraternity. And then the Governor had to exercise his extreme constitutional prerogative to prevent the legislature from handing New Jersey over to the gigantic Reading combine. Now wouldn't it be a good idea for the people to elect a legislature that will not need to be fought and obstructed and prevented? Wouldn't it be just as well to elect a moral, sensible and honest legislature?—Elizabeth Journal.

Among the many striking facts about the new Tariff which have been unearthed by Governor McKinley we find this: In Woonsocket, R. I., ground which a year ago produced a ton of hay to the acre now produces a ton of yarn to the square foot. Is it any wonder that Rhode Island votes for Protection?

According to the Iron Age of April 14, wire nails now sell in Pittsburgh for 1.65 cents per pound, in factory lots. This is, perhaps, the lowest price on record. The duty on wire nails is 2 cents per pound: how much is the "tax"?

Now that a trust has been formed among the great rubber dealers, it will be in order for some Free-Trade editor, who knows about as much of the Tariff as a cat does of Sunday, to suggest that it was all on account of the McKinley bill. Crude rubber is on the free list.

James Agnew who was swept away in the Johnstown flood and whose family mourned him as dead has just been reunited to them in Tennessee, whither they moved after the great deluge.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Canaan, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spraker, Catawba, O., had two large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at any Drug Store.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists.

Nerve Tonic
The Rev. A. Knobel, of above place, writes: I have suffered a great deal, and whenever I now feel a nervous attack coming I have recourse to Pastor Koehnig's Nerve Tonic and feel relieved. I think a great deal of it and would rather be without bread than without the Tonic.

Better Than the Best Doctor.
MARGUERITE GRAY, Pa., December, 1900.
I don't think it my duty to say that I was troubled for ten years by the best doctors in Pennsylvania, but never got any relief until I took Pastor Koehnig's Nerve Tonic. I am cured of my nervous troubles; have never had the slightest symptoms of those spells since I commenced taking the first bottle.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Rev. Pastor Koehnig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., whose name and name compared under his direction by the

NO. XVII.
We do not want cheapness. It costs too much. Every "cheap coat" represents a certain amount of misery and suffering. The merchant who buys "cheap" clothes for himself or family decreases the purchasing power of his own customers. The manufacturer who buys only "cheap" raw material and necessities of life would lessen the market for his own goods.
Nor is there any inconsistency in deprecating "cheapness" and at the same time favoring low prices. There is a reasonable limit that is desirable, but to go beyond which is suicidal.
The laborer and capitalist should each have a reasonable return for his labor and risk. Each is dependent on the other.
The wonderful progress and prosperity of the United States is due to its splendid home market, the purchasing power of which depends on high wages.
The making of "cheap" things means starvation wages and no purchasing power. Nothing is cheap when we have nothing with which to buy.
Producers of one article are consumers of another, and to cripple one is to equally affect the other. We must have good fair prices if we would keep up our standard of work.
The Free-Traders cry for "cheapness" is a delusion. The "cheap loaf" becomes stale for want of a buyer.
We have no use for "cheapness" in this country of high wages, good living, comfortable homes, happy firesides and general prosperity.
In China they have more simon pure cheapness than anywhere else in the world. It might be a good thing to ship a few shipments of our American specialties of cheapness over there. It would be a sure cure for their maudlin "Americanism."
"The prohibitive duties we lay on all articles of foreign manufacture which produce revenue to us to establish at home, with the patriotic determination of every good citizen to use no foreign article which can be made within ourselves, without regard to differences in price, secure us against a reliance upon foreign dependency."—From a letter of Thomas Jefferson to Jean Baystate Say.
It is not often that we can agree with Grover Cleveland, but he spoke the truth the other day when he said: "A review of Thomas Jefferson's expressions cannot fail to be improving and profitable to the Democracy of the present day." The Free Trade Democracy of 1892 can indeed learn much from the Jeffersonian Democracy of 1800. We wonder whether Mr. Cleveland ever studied the life of Jefferson.
An unwilling witness gives the most valuable evidence. Here is the Charleston News and Courier raising its voice for the American mill, factory, and workshop and the American dollars which pay for the labor:
"Every mill and factory and workshop that is built and successfully operated in the South, means one step more in the direction of our industrial independence. Every new wheel that is set to turning means employment for another pair of hands now idle or engaged in unskilled and scarcely remunerative labor. Every dollar's worth of goods manufactured at home means a dollar kept at home to develop our own part of the continent, instead of being sent off to develop some other part."
Exactly as we stated; there isn't a Democratic paper in this state that doesn't fearlessly say, now, that Mr. Abbott did just the right thing and wrote just the right kind of a veto message. Even the few Democratic papers that foolishly expressed their own views and unobscuredly upheld the legislature for passing the bill, even these are greatly pleased that Mr. Abbott killed it. And had he signed it the voice of the whole Democratic press would have been for Mr. Abbott. What a beautiful object lesson in harmony on the surface? —Elizabeth Journal.
In discussing the naval bill, Jerry Shipman expressed the opinion that this country did not need a navy.

The Republican State Convention met at Trenton, on Wednesday, W. J. Sewell, John I. Blair, George Halsey and G. A. Hobar were elected national delegates-at-large. Resolutions were adopted commending the McKinley bill, honest money and President Harrison's administration.
The cornerstone of the Grant monument, to be erected over the tomb of the dead general in Riverside Park, New York, was laid with impressive ceremonies, on Wednesday. President Harrison presided and made a short address. Chas. W. Depuy delivered a brilliant oration.
The Grand Central Theatre, the Times Annex, No. 810 Sanson Street, and numbers 122, 124, and 126 South Eighth Street, were totally destroyed by fire, Wednesday evening, resulting in a loss of $757,500. More than 100 persons were injured in getting out of the theatre. Sixty-two of the injured were cared for in the Pennsylvania, Jefferson, and Hahnemann hospitals. The insurance on the burned buildings amounted to less than one-half of the total loss.
Six of the performers are missing, and it is feared they have perished.
According to the will of the late William Astor, of New York, his son, John Jacob, will be the ultimate heir to the bulk of the millionaire's fortune, his share amounting to about $60,000,000. Each of the daughters is bequeathed $2,000,000 exclusive of their marriage portions.
The New Drug Store.
I would respectfully announce to my friends, and the public in general, that "Crowell's Pharmacy" is now open for business. The rooms have been newly fitted up for the purpose, and are stocked with a complete line of fresh drugs, chemicals, and all the popular patent medicines. I have engaged the services of a registered Pharmacist, as an assistant, a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, who is thoroughly competent to deal with the many complex questions which arise when compounding Physicians' Prescriptions, of which work we make a specialty, guaranteeing absolute purity and freshness in the material used and accuracy in their preparation. I am also prepared to furnish Ointments, Brashes, Perfumery, and Toilet Articles of all kinds. Come in and inspect my stock. I know I can please you; but if I fail in that, eat at least asop you kind and polite attention. We hope by our united efforts, to secure at least a part of your patronage.

PAINT! PAINT!
HAMMONTON.
When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half-gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.
If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost $3 cents for the extra gallon.
One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 50 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at

Those who attend the Baptist prayer-meeting, on Thursday evenings, are richly repaid. Pastor Eldridge is giving a series of "talks" on the book of Luke, which are intensely interesting and very instructive.
A committee from our Grand Army Post expects to go to Washington, next week, to make arrangements for entertainment for fifty or more who expect to attend the National Encampment next September.

If every one could make live animals as easily as Zeero, there would be no use for butchers. When he wants a nice rabbit pie, all he has to do is to call on a gentleman's hat, or else break open an empty bottle. Don't miss seeing him, May 14th.
Beginning to-morrow, May 1st, the evening services in the Presbyterian Church will begin at 7:30,—a half-hour later than heretofore. As the other Churches are in the habit of depending upon the bell, they will doubtless begin service at the same time.
Mr. C. A. Church, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was in town this week (speaking of the setting out of fruit-trees on his mother's property, First Road and Tenth Street. Mr. C. has a few acres in that neighborhood, and expects to make a home there, in time.
The following is said, by a Paris physician, to be a sure cure for diphtheria: Spray the throat and nostrils freely with a solution of hydrogen peroxide. In a few moments after this painless operation, the membranous growth, which causes death, can be easily removed. It is certainly worth a trial.—N. Y. Herald.
A policy holder in the "Delaware Home and Mule Insurance Company," of Trenton, has received a notice which conveys the information that a receiver has been appointed for said Company. This usually means that the business is to be closed up. As a number of our readers have their live-stock insured in that company, it might be well for them to make further inquiry.
Prof. Charles A. Mintzer was a resident of Hampton for about thirty years. On Sunday, 17th inst., he was taken suddenly ill with apoplexy, and lingered just one week,—died Sunday last, 24th inst., aged 73 years. Mr. M. was an eminent musician in Philadelphia, and taught pupils on piano and violin after moving to Hampton; but increasing deafness has sadly interfered with his profession for many years. Funeral services were held in St. Joseph's Church, on Wednesday.
Examination for teachers' certificates, on Friday and Saturday, May 6th and 7th, at Egg Harbor City. The questions for branches required exclusively for first-grade certificates will be used on Saturday only,—all others on Friday. Applicants presenting county certificates of any grade, issued since April 11, 1889, will have such certificates accepted in lieu of an examination in the branches covered, except Theory and Practice, History of Education, and School Laws,—provided the general average is at least 85, and the special average in each branch does not fall below 70. No third grades will be examined at this time.
