PROSPECTUS FOR 1892.
First Class Family Magazine
FOR ONLY
$3.00 per annum.

LIPPINCOTT'S Magazine.
An illustrated Monthly of Popular Literature.

At the beginning of the present year Lippincott's Magazine entered on a new series, at a reduced price, with the distinctive purpose of presenting such a variety of reading matter—for the most part light and entertaining, yet of real literary merit—as should commend it to the general mass of cultivated persons, and ensure it a welcome in many American homes. Devoting a large proportion of its space to fiction, in which short stories are made a noticeable feature, and to sketches illustrative of social life and manners, it has included in its list of subjects such articles of science, especially natural history, popularly treated, travel and adventure at home and abroad, field sports and angling, and, occasionally, political, historical and educational topics susceptible of fresh and lively discussion. The serial stories published during the year have been marked by a peculiar originality, and have met with a warm reception; while the general attractiveness of the magazine has gained for it a cordial approval and a greatly increased circulation.

The conductors of the magazine hope not only to maintain its reputation, but to enhance and extend it by constant improvement in the same direction. Their arrangements for the coming year embrace a larger number than ever before of contributions of a popular character.

A serial story entitled "STEPHEN HILL" which some peculiar and striking phases of American life are vividly and dramatically treated, will begin in the January number and run through six months.

The Editorial departments will maintain their present standard of acknowledged excellence, and the illustrations will be of a higher character than any that have hitherto appeared in the magazine.
