NO. 19

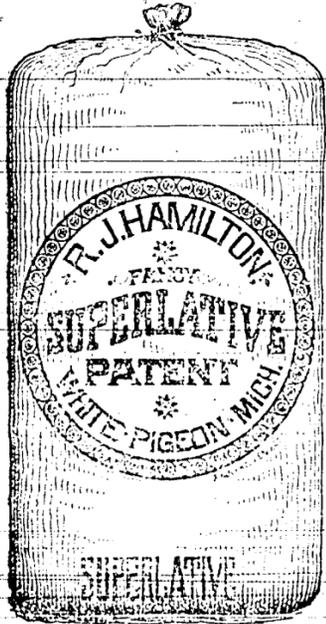

ELVINS & ROBERTS HAMMONTON, N. J.

Too busy to make many changes in our adv. this week.

One thing we want you to know, however,— we whittle two cents more from the price of Butter,— viz: 25 cents per pound. Quality as usual,— the finest that can be purchased.

FLOUR.

Our remarks concerning this staple were of such a general character, last week, that we desire to make special mention of a few of our best brands, in order that you may become acquainted with them.

This we regard as our best Winter wheat Flour. Made from the best A 1 hard wheat, ground in the region where grown.

To those who prefer Winter wheat Flour, we do not hesitate to recommend this brand. Every barrel is warranted. $4.75 per barrel.

Diploma.

This is one of our special brands, and for bread making exclusively is without exception the finest flour now on this market. Let us have your order for at least one barrel. If it fails to meet the requirements, we will gladly exchange or refund the purchase money. We quote $4.75.

Royal.

This is another special and exclusive brand of ours, and for general family use is unexcelled. Being a properly blended flour, it is adapted not only for bread making, but for cakes, pies, and fancy pastry of all kinds. In short, it is all that could be asked in the flour line. We quote $5.

"Morning Glory" and "Gilt Edge," at $3.75 and $4.25, respectively, are either of them good family flour, and go with our full guarantee.

Oil Cloth and Matting.

We offer you this week some very neat patterns in matting, and considering the recent advance in price, these goods at our prices are bargains. We quote at 18 cents per yard.

Floor Oil Cloths, all widths and styles. Prices range from 25 to 70 cents per yard. When in need would be pleased to show them.

The Straw Hat season has arrived, and we have the goods in sufficient variety, both in price and in style to please the most fastidious. Men's, Boys' & Children's Hats from 7 cents up.

The great Egg Producer— In 2, 5, and 12½ pound bags.

Try it, and you'll be surprised at the result.

Beck's Breakfast Flakes are 10 c. per package.

BROKE AND OUT OF WORK.

When I was working steady,
Had a pocket full of tin,
Why, I was a staunch "reformer,"
Helped to usher Grover in;
And I argued that "Protection"
Was a robber and a bluff,
And the Democratic party
And low Tariff were the stuff;
So I voted and I waited
For the change I now would shrink,
And it came so very different
That I'm broke and out of work.

I had dreamed we would work wonders,
And my dreams had reached the pitch
When the rich would become paupers
And the paupers become rich.
But, how sad is the awakening,
As I now recall the day,
When I, like the "base Indian,"
Blindly threw a pearl away;
For "Protection" is a jewel
Where unbounded riches lurk;
And I realize it keenly
Now I'm broke and out of work.

And how a fellow's feelings
Get the better of him when
He thinks of how uncertain
Are the promises of men.
Here was I with plenty money,
Plenty work and happy mind,
Yet I listened to the theories,
And the "Tariff-bunkers" grinned.
But the sting my conscience gives me,
For the debts I cannot shrink,
Will be soothed at next election,
Though I'm broke and out of work.

The Coxe "army" absurdity is heralded by some people who know no better as a labor movement. Hugh O'Donnell, the leader, who was with the army on its march to Washington as a newspaper correspondent, says that instead of representing the labor classes "it is altogether a hopeless, helpless, pitiable crew, with the chief of fakirs and bombasts for a leader."

The Knights of Labor have discovered how disagreeable it is to have a Sovereign who lacks judgment.

It is a pity that Congressman Wilson did not have his tariff bill with him when he visited the Kentucky salt mines; it needs salt very badly.

Some of the Republican Senators have been a little rattled lately over the vexatious complications that confronted them. They are sometimes, in their gloomier moments, inclined to feel quite pessimistic. But there is no occasion for despondency or doubt. Contemplating the situation from a standpoint outside the whirling and contending elements that surround it, we are able to see clearly that the record made up to this date by the Republican majority will bear the closest public scrutiny. If the Legislature should adjourn to-day, the record as it stands would be a proud and noble monument to the fidelity of the party to the great trust reposed in it by the people. In both houses the majority has been held well in hand; moderation has governed, and reform has been the controlling principle. Let them stand right there; keep cool; preserve their courteous respect for each other's rights, and all will be well. State Gazette.

A DAIRYMAN'S OPINION.—There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. As if the Democrats in Congress were not already sufficiently divided upon the tariff and silver questions, a new division is apparent over the repeal of the tax on State bank currency.

It is much easier to organize a trust than to trust the parties who organize.

A POPULAR REMEDY.—The promptness and certainty of its cure have made the Chamberlain Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 c. bottles for sale by Cochran, druggist.

The advantage of bicycling, long ago admitted, grows apace. Philadelphia authorities last season adopted the use of the wheel in their Park department, and elsewhere it is a matter of record that much time has been saved, and otherwise almost impossible results secured, by using the wheel. Boston intends, as usual, being at the front in all matters pertaining to expediting important business, and the Park Commissioners of the city have voted to adopt the bicycle for the use of the park policemen. An order for a full equipment of the famous Columbus was placed with the Pope Manufacturing Company last week. — Boston Post.

SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1894.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Samuel Little, of Folsom, was clearing an apple tree of worms' nests. To reach one on a branch, she was compelled to cross over onto land of August Shultz. While there, Shultz came, and words led to blows, Mrs. L. being so badly injured as to need medical aid. The parties disagreed as to who struck the first blow, but Justice Atkinson held Shultz for trial, charged with assault and battery.

Wish we could show each reader the "Book of the Fair." To see it is to want it. Part XIII has reached us, with twelve more to come. Altogether, it will form one of the very finest and most valuable books ever published. Every page excites admiration, and many of its full-page engravings would grace a costly frame. Don't think we are extravagant in our praise; we cannot exaggerate its merits. Published by the Bancroft Company, Auditorium Building, Chicago.

Greenmont Cemetery Association have the water works in operation, from which any lot can be properly watered. Each lot owner, whether residing here or elsewhere, is requested to contribute two dollars, — the amount thus raised will pay a man for caring for these lots one year. To be a little more explicit, contributing lot owners who set out plants, sow grass, etc., will have the same properly cared for. For those out of town, the Association will purchase and set plants, sow grass seed, etc., at cost.

Last Saturday evening Mr. C. H. Wilson was returning home on the P. & A. C. Road. Just this side of Cedar Brook station, a large stone came crashing through the car window, striking Mr. W. fairly in the face. For a time it was feared that he was seriously injured, but soon regained consciousness, under care of his wife and friends who were on the train. Reaching home, his physician was called, and found his face cut, near his right eye, by flying glass, and badly bruised. The train was stopped and backed to the station, but of course the miscreant had fled, and no one there knew anything about it. On Monday, a railroad detective was working on the case, but we hear of no new developments.

The old Board of Freeholders met at May's Landing, Tuesday, to close up the year's business. The financial report was received and ordered printed in the Republican and four other county papers.

On Wednesday, the new Board met, and had a decidedly lively session. M. L. Jackson was re-elected Director; A. B. Endicott, Co. Collector; Joseph Thompson, Solicitor.

The Director appointed the following standing committees:
Finance, Barton, Shaver, Souders.
Public Buildings, Bowen, Shaver, and Irving.
Bridges, Irving, Dukes, Price.
Alms-houses, Townsend, Irving, Barton.
Relieve of Prisoners, Sutton, Saal, and Dinkenspel.
Library, Bowen, Krause, and Dinkenspel.

Letters not called for, letters in the Hammonton Post-Office, on Saturday, May 12th, 1894:

A POINTER FOR TRAVELERS.—While Mr. T. J. Hickey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drugstore to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by Cochran, druggist.

Mr. Cleveland says he is too busy to go fishing. Wonder what he is doing? Surely nursing the children can't keep him so busy.
