NO. 20

ELVINS & ROBERTS

Being now in the hurry and rush of Spring business, you will pardon us if we do not present much that is new. We merely wish to assure you that we are still doing business at the old stand.

We meet the receipt cut in the price of Cottoleone. Having had the honor of introducing this excellent article to the trade in this vicinity, we propose our imitators shall not lead us on this or any other article. Price until further notice, 13 cents per pound.

We reduce the price of Wood Fibre Palls to 35 cents, making them by far the cheapest and best water pall for the money now on the market. No fraud about these goods, a first-class article in every way. No hoops to drop off, does not soak water, therefore always light, and almost no end to the wear.

Have you tried Snider's Catsup? If not, why not? "It leads the procession." Large bottle, 25 cents.

Full weight Milk certainly should be a leader also. 12 cents per can. Try a can, and if it is not what we claim for it, bring it back.

Please remember that we are the sole agents for Mapes' Complete Manures for all crops, and we aim to keep the stock as complete as the rapidly increasing sales of these most popular and reliable fertilizers will permit. Prices on application.

Garden Seeds.

A full line now in stock. Small seeds in large papers, warranted fresh and genuine, 30 cents dozen papers. Also Peas, Beans, Sweet Corn, Clover, Timothy, Red Top, Orchard, and Lawn Grass Seeds. All at bottom figures.

Seed Potatoes are here, in all the leading varieties, viz.: Holton County (Maine), Rose, Beauty of Hebron, Early Ohio, Rose Seedling, etc., etc. Prices, $1.25 up.

You will pardon us for again calling your attention to the very important item of Berry Baskets, when we assure you that, according to the present outlook as to demand, prices will be much higher. We therefore strongly urge placing orders at once. Prices we are quoting now hold good for this month only.

Let us have your order now for Gilt Crates. Hardly prepared yet to quote prices, but you can depend upon getting them from us when needed, at prices that will be right.

Agents for Bissell Plows, which we carry in stock, in all sizes.

DID YOU EVER

Stop to think what a fine piece of mechanism your watch is? and that you are injuring it by letting it run too long without having it cleaned and oiled?

A watch is injured more in one month, when running dirty, than in a year's time when properly cleaned and oiled.

Why neglect to have it cleaned, when you can get it done, and guaranteed, for One Dollar?

AT DUDLEY'S,

HAMMONTON, N. J.

Our World's Fair Letter.

CHICAGO, May 13, 1893.

AN HOUR IN THE ALPS.

The journey there was a peculiar one. The fare was fifty cents, the time about two minutes. We landed on the summit of a mountain 7,700 feet high; and there, spread out before us like a beautiful panorama, lay the spot for which we had longed, of which we had dreamed, but which we had hardly expected ever to see. To the North and West, over the lower hills, France bounded our horizon, with the beautiful Lake Thuri between, nestled among the hills, a crystal gem in a setting of green. To the right two high mountains greet the eye. Between them a green valley, down which a precipitous stream tumbles, and on each side rich meadows and vineyards stretch back to the mountains, dotted here and there with a rustic farm house or villa. To the left, away in the distance, magnificent falls pour from the mountains, and we can almost hear their hollow roar. On the South, the lofty Jungfrau pierces the sky at an altitude of fourteen thousand five hundred feet.

Its summit crowned with perpetual snow and standing so stiff and still, frowns on us coldly. But we smile, and rather prefer it to the sultry air of Jackson Park. The atmosphere has a blue tint altogether its own; and chariot clouds of mist, rising from a canon here, or rolling down the mountain side there, give the picture a dreamy expression that speaks of rest. But we are recalled to ourselves by the scene at our feet. Here a path is worn down the side of the peak to the edge of a cliff, over which we look down hundreds of feet to the valley below, where cattle and sheep are grazing. Steps cut in the stone lead down to a green meadow, where a group of herdsmen are smoking and spinning their yarns. Down another slope, hidden from view by the beetling crag over which we look, lies that interesting old town, Berne, which gives its name to this part of the Alps. Here, crossing the rocks on which we stand, grow soft mosses and lichens in the crannies, at our side a rhododendron in full bloom; there in the sand are some plants with a blossom quite like our common little dandelion. We long to pluck a posy for a reminder of the visit, but it is forbidden. After all, we are in the dominions of the World's Columbian Exposition, and guards abound on every hand. This panorama was painted by three celebrated Swiss artists, Eugene Burnaud, Baud-Bovy, and F. Furet. They, with twenty-five helpers, were nearly two years in painting it. The canvas has a surface of more than thirty thousand square feet, and it required three thousand pounds of paint to cover it. In France it was received with great admiration and delight; and the cross of the Legion of Honor was presented to the artists.

The second week of the Exposition has been very satisfactory to the management. Attendance is increasing as the weather becomes warmer. The number of visitors for the first three days of this week was equal to that of the last five days of last week, and nearly double that of corresponding days of the Centennial Exposition. The State buildings are nearing completion, and one by one are being dedicated.

To one unacquainted with the grand proportions of the Exposition, and their way of doing business, the rapidity with which the work is executed is marvelous. In the morning there may be a wet, dismal looking spot, covered with debris, and in the evening it will be a level, green sward, with blooming flowers sending forth their sweet perfumes.

Quite a commotion was created one day this week by a boy who was ordered by a guard to forego the pleasure of his cigarette, dropping it into a box of excelsior. Very soon a tiny wreath of blue smoke was curling upward and a guard turned in a fire alarm, which soon bro't out the whole department. In the meantime, the guard had be thought himself of the hand extinguishers, and about the time of the arrival of an engine the fire was out. People intending to visit the Fair need fear no danger from fire. With the presence of so many guards everywhere, day and night, and a fire department so complete and efficient in every way, a serious fire is not probable. ADAM ANTINE.

PAINT! PAINT!

THE HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half-gallon;
nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.

And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hammonton Paint Works.

SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1893.

We will still furnish the Republican and the Weekly Post one year for One Dollar and Twenty five cents. Such of our readers as desire to take advantage of this offer must pay up all arrearages to date, plus the $1.25.

Mr. Messrs. Watkins and Nicholson were driving toward the station last Saturday, and when opposite J. Clem. Brown's residence their horse stumbled and fell, and was not able to rise. Our home veterinarian, Wm. H. Burgess, was called upon and given charge of the case. After a time he succeeded in getting the patient into Mr. Brown's barn, and found that she had dislocated an ankle joint, but hopes for full restoration. The mare would be a difficult one to replace, being a good driver, apt in all farm work, fearless, and excellent under the saddle.

As early as 1795 a company was formed to carry coal from Schuylkill County, Pa., to Philadelphia. An ark was freighted and taken to that city. It remained a heap of black stones, exciting the curiosity and jeers of the idle and knowing ones, as a monument of the supposed folly of those whom it was thought exposed their ignorance by attempting to apply these blocks of stone to any useful purpose.

Kansas best sugar industry has become very important. In addition to her sorghum sugar factories, she has two best sugar factories now running under very favorable conditions, and the owners are enthusiastic over the prospects. The State is now considering the propriety of giving one dollar per ton on the beets grown in the State. That will make her, in time, the great sugar making State of the Union.

"Capital is afraid to invest in new factories, either of cane or beet sugar, until the attitude of the party in power is defined," says the American Agriculturist. That professed free-trade party is responsible for this paralyzing fear, the results of which will be seen ere long.

Very flattering to American pride was the trunk admission of Vice-Admiral Hopkins, of the British Navy, that our unfinished cruiser New York is superior to his own magnificent flagship, the Blake. The patriotic Americans have naturally been of this opinion all along, but it was not expected that the visiting Englishmen would agree with them so readily.

With taxed tea, coffee and sugar, and their wages reduced by European competition under free trade, the workmen are likely to be somewhat backward in cheering the Democracy in 1896—that is, if the Democracy keeps its promise to the people and brings about such a state of affairs.

To owe is human; to pay up is divine.

We are glad indeed to be able to say that Albert H. Simons is apparently recovering from the injuries received last week Friday. Prof. Keene, of Philadelphia, a surgical specialist, assisted Dr. North in the operations necessary, and a professional nurse has charge of the patient.

The natural reaction caused alarming symptoms, with fears of a fatal result, on Tuesday, but good care and a vigorous constitution prevailed, and he rallied. As we go to press, it is said that "Al" is quite comfortable this (Friday) morning." The doctors say that recovery is far from certain; but every day makes friends more hopeful, especially when even slightly more favorable indications are noted. May all fears be soon dissipated, by full restoration.

AT BLACK'S.

Butter is much lower in price, and is A 1 in quality.

We have plenty of fresh country Eggs.

A good Canned Salmon, 15 cents per can.

Oil Sardines, 5 cents per box.

Wire Mosquito Netting, in all widths.

All kinds of Seed Beans, with especial mention of the old-time Horticultural Pole Bean. Also, Henderson's Bush Lima.

Black's General Store.

Improvements are going on—
Col. Seely has added a piazza to the front of his house, and repainted.
Keep your dog tied loose; the flower thieves are still around, at night.

Adam Heiser has enclosed his piazza with wire netting. Keep out, skouts.

Mrs. Agitz has rebuilt the house that was burned on Eleventh St.—Walter Andrews did the work.

Mrs. Fehranbach, of Philadelphia, has been here, visiting her cousin, Mrs.
Geppert. L. E.

A PLEA FOR THE BIRDS.

You call them thieves and pillagers, but they are the winged wardens of your fauna...

Mon little know, says a learned ornithologist, the most ignorant and lowest judge as regards birds, costs them...

Robin Redbreast plucks through the moist earth to catch the cowardly earthworm...

The blackbird, the oriole, the blue-jay, the starling, and the robin are the guardian angels of the gardens...

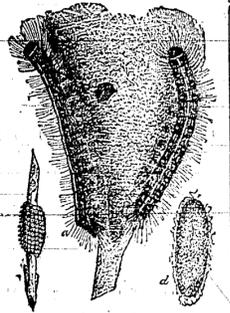

We see the gay, billowing butterflies hovering over the flowers and can scarcely understand how they can find and eternal creature can be transformed into a thing so repulsive as a crawling worm...

Tarantula, an Arachnid.

The classification of insects is an important study; for the arachnids or spiders, who spread their filmy webs to catch the many bees and flies...

For the bed, unless in a large room, I would never have the pretty wing-like curtains now in vogue, because such tend to dwarf a room...

Tent Caterpillar.

All these mysterious changes and varying forms in different and even varying forms in different and even varying forms in different and even...

THEATER ON WHEELS.

Mexican Enterprise to the Road During the World's Fair. Mexican invention will furnish one of the most fantastic and attractive of the side-shows at the Exposition...

FANCY WORK.

Corners, whether mental or otherwise, whether hard projecting ones or awkward receding ones, are troublesome things. Metaphorically, the projecting ones belong to the aggressive folk...

This theater is to be erected at the corner of 35th street and Everett avenue. It is to be a grand panoramic spectacular performance illustrative of Mexican life and customs from the time of the Aztecs and the Montezumas down to the present day...

Let us, as my habit, weave a fanciful scheme of decoration around it. I would cover the walls with a soft turquoise paper of intricate pattern...

THE WISDOM OF FOOLS.

Folly, in the abstract, has been denounced alike by Scripture and ancient heathen ages. 'If I wish to look at a fool,' says Seneca, 'I have not far to look...'

The term fool is often misapplied. Thus, Charles the Simple was considered a fool, and many clever sayings of fools are still in existence.

Charles the Simple had a jester named Jean, who one morning tried his master's nerves by rubbing...

At the interesting point. 'Are you going to receive bulletins from the foot-ball game?' asked a caller. 'Yes, sir,' replied the editor: 'we shall put out a bulletin every time a man gets killed...'

The ones who got locked up. Gotham Citizen: 'That was horrible murder last night. Have you looked up the man who committed it?' Policeman: 'No, but we've looked up twenty people who saw it...'

A desirable work. 'Carton has written a story that'll make your hair curl,' said Mason. 'Get it for me, for goodness sake!' said Mrs. M. 'I'll save me from burning my fingers off with the tongue...'

How it differed out. Jack Center: 'I don't see why you keep on long in suspense, Clara. Can't you say 'Yes' or 'No' right out?' Clara Harks: 'Oh, you just wait until we're married, and you'll find I can speak out quick enough...'

From the cyclone section. Little Miss (who has been to the circus): 'Uacle John, did you ever see 'Cactus in the Air?'' Uncle Wycleb (from the West): 'No, my dear, but I've seen houses an' barns in th' air many a time...'

One that balks fractions. Wilkins: 'Before you strike a man you should know his name.' Bilkins: 'Fool! I have a better rule than that.' Wilkins: 'What is it, pray?' Bilkins: 'See that he is smaller than you...'

A late literary production. 'Have you anything new?' asked a customer of a recently engaged clerk in a Chicago book-store. 'I'll see,' replied the young man, as he swept his eye over the shelves. 'Yes, my dear, but I've seen houses an' barns in th' air many a time...'

BUDGET OF FUN.

Where the Pain Came In—The Only Proper Thing to Say—An Embarrassing Question. 'What do you say to a tramp after dinner?' asked Walker, anxious for a walk. 'Nothing, I unchain the dog...'

A new industry. 'Jones put his parrot in the cage with his owl the other day.' 'What was the result?' 'He got enough feathers for a new feather-bed...'

His masterpiece. 'See—(which of Mr. Carroll's poems do you think evinces the boldest flight of the imagination?)' He: 'That in which he refers to himself as a poet...'
