Short Tariff Sermons.

NO. XXIII.

Our American Policy of Protection was inaugurated by farmers for the special benefit of farmers. The First Congress which framed the first Tariff, was composed for the most part of farmers, and it was signed by a farmer President—George Washington.

These men felt the need of Protection in order to create a home market for their products. They had all the farmers they wanted, but were suffering for a non agricultural population to buy what they raised. They could not sell their wheat and vegetables to one another.

From the first our Tariff system has depended for its maintenance in every election on farmers' votes. They remembered how wretched they were when all were agriculturists and how Protection brought them relief exactly as the farmers of the first Tariff predicted. So nothing has ever been able to wean the American farmer from his love for Washington's and Hamilton's, and Jefferson's and Madison's Protective Policy. And the Free-Trade "reformer" is unable to do so to-day.

Farmers see the land of Virginia, which has few factories, selling on the average at about $11 an acre, while the poorer land of Pennsylvania, with many factories, brings $49 an acre.

In Mississippi, devoted exclusively to agriculture, land sells for less than six dollars an acre, but brings $42 in sterile, but manufacturing, Massachusetts.

The average in Georgia, where mills are almost unknown, is between $4 and $5 per acre; but in New Jersey, with all its swamps and clay beds, the average value of land is $65.

So the farmers continue, and will continue, to vote for Protection and against Free-Trade, because they do not want to vote away one-half the value of their farms. And who can blame them for it?—American Economist.

Nothing is so distressing and ominous in the lives of men as their aimlessness.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a stalwart Republican press. The Republican who helps to support a Democratic journal, to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers, is untrue to the Republican cause.

Unanimously subscribed to by the National Republican League.

[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1892.

Our Terms.—Our subscription price to all within the county is One Dollar per year, if paid in advance. If not paid within the first six months, $1.25 per year, invariably. To subscribers outside of this county always $1.25 in advance—as we are compelled to wrap papers and prepay postage.

The National Republican Convention has been in session, at Minneapolis, Minn., since Tuesday; but, up to the hour of going to press, no ballot has been taken on nominations. President Harrison will no doubt be nominated on the first ballot. There is a strong opposition, but they are not able to concentrate their strength upon any one man. The Harrison men, however, have more than enough pledged votes to nominate their man. Probably, before this is read, the telegraph will announce the result.

The country was taken by surprise by the sudden resignation of Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, Secretary of state. The why or wherefore we cannot learn. Rumors are rife, to the effect that President Harrison and the Secretary could not agree upon a certain diplomatic question; again, that the President had taken certain State business into his own hands, thus offending the Secretary; another, that Mrs. Blaine is ambitious, and persuaded her husband to resign, that he might be free to accept a nomination for President. But these are only rumors. All the dear people know about it is contained in these few lines, the full text of the resignation and its acceptance, both dated June 11th:

"I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1889. The condition of public business in the Department of State justifies me in requesting that my resignation be accepted immediately. The reply is as follows: "Your letter of this date tendering your resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted."

Attorney General Stockton has gone into court and obtained from the Chancellor a preliminary injunction to restrain the New Jersey Central Railroad Company from operating under the lease made last Winter.—The bill filed by the Attorney General declares there is no authority in the law for such a lease and the statutes prevent it. The bill sets out that the Port Reading is being used as a mere cover of the combination of the New Jersey Central with the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company to control the price of coal. The bill further states that the lease was made without the consent of the stockholders. The advocates of the deal say a perpetual engineer would have no practical effect, but that is the very question involved.

The Democratic majority in Congress have been in session since December, yet no effort has been made to repeal the McKinley bill. Isn't this one of the strange things in politics, in the face of the fact that the Democratic party assured the country two years ago that its first duty and first pleasure, if given control of the House, would be to wipe out the hated bill. How is this neglect or refusal explained? Then on the other hand observe carefully that no Republican has been quoted as excusing or apologizing for its passage; but they have justified its enactment, and dare the Democratic majority in the House to repeal it. See the difference and study it.

An improved machine for the manufacture of tin plate has been invented by Samuel Y. Buckman of Philadelphia. This machine, it is claimed, will turn out in the same time a product five times as great as that turned out by the old method. The question that naturally suggests itself is: What incentive would Mr. Buckman have had to make his invention had not the McKinley Tariff made the manufacture of tin plate in the United States possible?

Building Lot for Sale.—The vacant lot on Grove Street, between the residences of Miss Bodine and Mrs. Giddings, is offered for sale by W. H. SEELY, Hamonton.

Early Harvest Blackberry plants for sale by GEO. W. ELVINS.

There is a somewhat general idea in this country that the McKinley Tariff bill will be repealed before long, or at all events be so much modified that the sting will be taken out of those clauses most objectionable to British manufacturers; and it is for this reason that the hopes of the Democrats for the approaching Presidential election are so largely shared in this country.—London Engineering, April 8.

Nature imitates herself. A grain thrown into good ground brings forth fruit; a principle thrown into a good mind brings forth fruit. Everything is created and conducted by the same master; the root, the branch, the fruits—the principles, the consequences.

The talk in Democratic circles continues to be about the scheme to freeze out Senator McPherson in the late State convention, and how the man who planned the expert trick was himself landed on the ice so thin that he almost broke through and disappeared.

Please take particular notice of our latest combination offer.—The South Jersey Republican and the New York Weekly Tribune, both one year for $1.25 cash in advance. We have a few sample copies of the Tribune, for those who are not acquainted with it. We know of no way in which you can secure so much good reading for so little money.

PAINT! PAINT!
HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at St. Mark's Church, Trinity Sunday, June 12th. Early Communion at 7:30 A. M. Morning Prayer, Litany, and Sermon by the Rector, at 10:30. Sunday School at 3:00 P. M. Evensong and Sermon by the Rev. Gilbert R. Underhill, at 7:30.

Every time it rains we are reminded of the resolution adopted at last town meeting, instructing Council to enforce the law compelling property owners to keep sidewalks in repair. We do not know that one person has been notified, but many sidewalks are needing repairs.

Now is an excellent time to lay that cross-walk on our business street, midway between Second and Railroad Avenues. It would be a boon to every lady in town, and an accommodation for all. And, while about it, make it three feet wide, so that two persons can pass each other.

Wednesday evening, a fourteen months old child of Dominico Bosk, Main Road and Fairview, pulled a cup of coffee from the table, the boiling hot liquid running down his face, neck and body, scalding him terribly. Dr. Crowell was called and did his best, but the little fellow died on Thursday night.

Sometime after midnight, last Monday morning, during a rain-storm, the moon suddenly shone through a rift in the clouds, producing that rare phenomenon, a distinct lunar rainbow. It might have been called the ghost of a rainbow, being absolutely devoid of color, a form without substance. Did you see it?

As advertised, the old Central School buildings were sold on Tuesday afternoon, at public auction. There was but one bid, and the property was "knocked down" to the Hammonton Enterprise Association, for $100. We have heard some faint rumor that the Board of Trustees, because they did not obey the instructions of an annual general meeting, and sell the buildings to this corporation; but the Board took legal advice, to avoid possible trouble in the future, and the result is finally the same.

The literary contest by members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, has elicited a great deal of interest. The League was divided into two companies. Mr. Wm. Cunningham was chosen leader of No. 1; Miss Lottie Chinn leader of No. 2. The first programme was given last week Friday evening, and showed much thought and talent. On Monday evening the other side gave their programme, which proved to be very popular and pleasing. No. 2 scored many more points on their entertainment, but No. 1 gained a much larger number of new members. From reports, it looks much like a tie. The result was doubtless announced last evening (too late for publication) at the reception at the parsonage. The decorations on both evenings were very handsome,—the feature on Monday eve being a large Maltese cross, the emblem of the League. The centre was composed of magnolias and water-lilies, surrounded by roses and pinks. The programmes consisted of instrumental and vocal music, orations, recitations, and original poems,—these last creating much interest.

BROWN. At Hammonton, N. J., June 10th, 1892, Frank L., son of J. M. and Emma Brown, in the 15th year of his age.

For seven years a faithful scholar in my Sunday School, I feel I know him well; and through all sickness and sorrow he ever saw God's hand sending the rod, to train and fit him for a better world. He was always trying to be ready, in case his call should come suddenly; but it did not, for he suffered five months, yet never complained. When I asked him if he was ready to go, he answered "Yes." A favorite text of his was: "Not as I will, but as thou wilt." His favorite hymn contains this verse:

And if, ere this glad year has drawn to a close,
Some loved one among us in death shall repose, Grant, Lord, that the spirit in Heaven
In the bosom of Jesus, where all shall be well.
M. M. PASSMUIR.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity! Having despised the lot of many, as they look back on lost, foregone, or lost opportunities. Life is passing! Reach out. Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she pours out her riches; fail to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least, a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of wit, All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our work-

A FAMILY PAPER WHICH IS Clean and Unsensational,
And Just the Paper
For the American Home.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and near at home news is covered with a routine carefulness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.
The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.
The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.
In politics, The Press knows no other master than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is insubordinate to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to fo-ter, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issues, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.

tunities, Real Estate, etc., may be inserted in The Press

Prospectus for 1892.
It has not been our custom to issue a prospectus. A NEWSPAPER can never tell beforehand just what subjects will be discussed. We hold ourselves in readiness, however, with our well-trained editorial force, and our large staff of special contributors, to treat any subject which may present itself during the year. Our plans for 1892 contemplate an enlargement of our news department, a perfecting of the other departments, and the bringing up of the entire paper to a still higher standard of efficiency.

PREMIUMS.
The National Baptist is offering a line of most attractive premiums. For example, communion services, organs and hymn-books, valuable books of reference and general information, fountain pens. One of its most attractive offers is the one offering to the new subscriber and to the person securing the new name, each a volume of Prof. Drummond's famous addresses, attractively bound in white and gold.

AGENTS
Are wanted in every Church, to canvass for new names. Liberal commissions are offered.
Past experience has shown that a goodly number of new names can be quickly gathered by a good agent.
THE PRICE
Is $2 per year, in advance. Send for copies, which will be cheerfully sent. Address all communications to Mrs. Newmother—"My baby is the dearest, sweetest, cunningest, smartest, brightest, quietest, neatest, darlingest, loveliest, best natured, healthiest, prettiest baby in all the world." Chorus of a million or more—"So's mine."

"I have heard of the courage of a man's convictions," said the prisoner at the bar "but it seems to me that the more times I get convicted the less courage I have."

The earmarks of a determined fight inside the Democratic party to beat the election of Leon Abbett to the U. S.
Senate can be distinctly seen by any observer.

He who resolved to conquer or die is seldom conquered; such noble despair perishes with difficulty.

two maple trees growing about fifteen feet apart. At the height of fifty feet one of them makes a sharp angle, growing solidly into the other so that their identity above that point is entirely lost.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.
Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent
