HAMMONTON, N. J.

NOW is the time and HERE is the place to purchase your fruit jars. Having secured a large lot at an extremely low price we wish to give our customers the advantage of it. We can furnish all sizes, viz., wide mouth pints, quarts, and half gallon, all A 1 Mason improved and the lowest price we venture to say ever quoted to the people of the vicinity. Read carefully and compare with others. We think our figures will be interesting.

Pints at 48c. per dozen.

Quarts at 55c. per dozen.

Half galls. at 80c. per dozen.

Extra rubbers, extra tops, constantly in stock. Jelly glasses with and without covers, tin cans, sealing wax, wax strings, in fact, every thing needed in the line.

"GERMEA" the latest production for a breakfast food. You have very likely heard something concerning it before this meets your eye, but want to say, this is the place to find it. Try a package,—15c. each.

We have another new cracker we would like to say a word about—not that they need pushing as once tried they will sell for themselves, but just to give you the name so you will know what to enquire for, viz., Cream Lunch Biscuit, and they are certainly the cream of the cracker family. Put up in very attractive packages, 1 pound each, and sell at 8c. Remember the price. Others are asking 9, 10 and 12 cents for goods we think are no better.

Graham Flakes are delicious for a light lunch, also simple and easily digested for invalids. We offer a splendid article at 15c., regularly 16c.

Old Gold Granulated Corn Meal is conceded to be the finest article for "johnny cake" of any thing of its kind. When you tire of white flour try Old Gold, 2c. per pound. Many others get 2½c.

We now have a stock of Fresh Ground White Corn Meal, the demand for which is steadily increasing. Many prefer it to the yellow. 2½c. per pound.

Soda Crackers at 7c. we know is a ridiculous price for A 1 goods. First-class stock in every way. Equal to any thing we have sold at 8c. or even more. Try them, we warrant them to please.

Another lot of Beck's Breakfast Flakes just arrived, making the third lot of three cases each since their introduction by us a short time since. For a healthful and economical breakfast dish are unexcelled, 10c. per package.

Spring Cloths Pins are quite an improvement over the old fashioned kind. These fit any size line, do not split and hold the clothes firmly. Try a dozen when you need. We venture to say you'll use no other. 10c. per doz.

A pretty wedding took place in the Baptist Church last evening, June 1st, when Miss Ada Virginia, daughter of Mr. Maryin Eastwood Garrett, was united in marriage to Mr. Gilbert Henry Moore. Rev. H. A. Griesemer officiated. The bridesmaids and ushers went down the side aisle from the lecture room, and marched up the center aisle and met the bride leaning on her father's arm, then returned and formed a semi-circle in front of the pulpit, where the ceremony was performed. The bride was dressed in pure white satin, en train, the full veil fastened with a spray of orange blossoms. The maid of honor was Miss M. Louise Garrett, sister of the bride; William G. Moore, brother of the groom, was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Garrett, Miss Bessie H. Braddock, Miss Minnie A. Moore, Miss May Clement of Philadelphia, and Miss Gertrude Smith of Hammonton. They were all dressed in white, and carried bouquets of LaFrance roses. The ushers were Marvin E. The church was tastefully decorated with pink and white flowers, with a bouquet on the arm of each pew along the centre aisle. A reception followed, at the residence of the bride's father, after which the newly wedded couple left on an extended wedding tour.

The Summer Excursion Book of the Pennsylvania R. R. for 1894 is out, and presents an unusually meritorious appearance. Great care has been exercised in its compilation, the technical information being especially reliable. The great variety of routes suggested, the exhaustive schedules of rates, the graphic descriptions of about four hundred places, the explanatory maps and the illustrations, make the volume exceedingly valuable and almost indispensable to those contemplating summer touring. A nominal charge of ten cents is placed on each copy, which can be obtained on application to ticket agents or the General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Phila. Ten cents extra will be charged for mailing.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1894.

We have associated with us,
the publishing and printing business,
our two sons, Lewis A. and William O.
Hoyt.—The firm is known as "Hoyt & Sons." From this date, and until further notice, all business connected with the South Jersey Republican and job printing office will be conducted under the above name.

"Law," our eldest son, after serving
several years in the best printing houses
of Philadelphia, and is thoroughly posted in the business. He resigned a good position to accept our proposition here.
"Will" has been a faithful student in this office for over three years, and is qualified to do whatever falls to his share in the business.

We shall continue in charge of the editorial department, and as business managers. With this change, the "old reliable" Republican office will be better fitted than ever before to fill orders for work in its line, and the new firm will spare no pains to please every patron.

OWEN B. HOYT.

Last Saturday was cloudy and cool. Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday were decidedly warm, with a thunder shower Tuesday night. Wednesday, cloudy and cool,—mercury down to 60
in the evening. Thursday, warmed up a considerable, but very agreeable. Friday, cool, bright.

Wednesday's daily papers stated that President Cleveland had sent to the Senate the name of John T. French as postmaster of Hamonton. The commission will probably reach Mr. F.
in time for him to take charge of the office at the expiration of Mr. Elvins' term, July 1st.

The general State School law
has been radically changed, this year.
We haven't studied it very carefully,
but it is clear that the Trustees of Hamonton schools are legislated out of office, and the voters will be required
to elect a new board of nine members, their term to commence July 1st. All contracts made by the present board—
with teachers or others—will require endorsement by the new board. We have a number of copies of the new law,
with a general circular of information,
for distribution. Every voter should study it. Call and get a copy.

not prove serious.

The people had better settle once

of constitutional provision, the question of appropriating public money for sectarian schools. Stamp the life out of the heresy wherever it appears.

The New York and New Jersey bridge bill was signed by the President last week, thus clearing the way for a magnificent improvement which will greatly facilitate the commerce of New York. In relation to the erection of a pier in the river, concerning which objection was raised when the original bill was passed, it is provided that any such pier must have the approval of the Secretary of War. There is little doubt that the bridge will now be built, and when completed it will be one of the wonders of the age.

The testimony before the Lexow Committee, which is investigating official corruption in New York, shows that blackmail and extortion has been carried on by the police for years and millions have been taken from the victims.

On account of a quarrel between A. P. A. men and Catholics, the Omaha authorities decided to discharge policemen belonging to either faction.

An imperial decree has been issued in Russia compelling a soldier to fight a duel if adjudged necessary by a court of honor.

Twenty-eight Jersey City Democratic officials were discharged by the Street and Water Board and these vacancies were at once filled by Republican appointments.

A SMALL DOCTOR BILL.—Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure any ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it, and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. 50 cent bottles for sale by A. W. Cochran, druggist.

Unbelief, in distinction from disbelief, is but confession of inquiry where honest inquiry might learn the truth. "Agnostic" is but the Greek for "Ignoramus."

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any mind; the other, they haven't any business.

One reason why it is often difficult to find a runaway team is that the horses usually take the traces with them.

A valuable prehistoric find has been unearthed in a mound at Egau, S. D. A tomb has been uncovered lined with cement. In the tomb's compartments were twenty-two male skeletons, averaging eight feet in height. A rude altar and many bronze utensils were found.

A child's mind is a piece of white paper on which anything may be written. Don't blot it.

It is not hard for a man to mind his own business, but it is the monotony which he can't stand.

There is one quart of misery to every pint of happiness, yet some men never order less than a quart.

We often sympathize with a dog when we think of the man who owns it.

A man who puts off his enjoyment too long will find it mislaid by the time he gets to it.

HE KNEW ITS WORTH.—Dr. J. M. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass County, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine for the past thirty-five years. On the 28th of May while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he bought a 25 cent bottle, two doses from which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by Cochran, druggist.
