Prof. R. E. Salisbury, late Principal, has prepared and handed to the Board of Education a complete list of the pupils who attended in any of the Hammonton Schools during the past two years, with their class standing at the close of the last term; also a copy of the independent course of study in use in our schools, and a list of the textbooks adopted. This document represents a large amount of work which the Board did not and could not require, and will prove of great value to Supervising Principal Krebs, and also to the Board.

While in Topeka last March, E. T. Barber, a prominent newspaper man of La Cygne, Kan., was taken with cholera morbus very severely. The night clerk at the hotel where he was stopping happened to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and gave him three doses, which relieved him and he thinks saved his life. Every family should keep this remedy in their home at all times. No one can tell how soon it may be needed. It costs but a trifle, and may be the means of saving much suffering and perhaps the life of some member of the family. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1895.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

No pleasanter event has occurred in Hammoncton than the impromptu celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Woolley, which took place at their Bellevue Ave. home last Saturday afternoon, June 29th. Fifty years before, Elliot J. Woolley and Eleanor P. Pay were married by Rev. J. A. Nash, Pastor of the Baptist Church in Watertown, N. Y., and among all who were present on that occasion, only one beside the bride and groom now survives, and she, a sister, Mrs. Louisa Woolley Goodrich, now of Hamilton, N. Y., was present and participated in the festivities. There were also present the children of Mr. and Mrs. Woolley, all of whom are married: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gould, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis and children, of Hammoncton; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Woolley and children, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Gould's son Albert was unable to be present owing to his approaching graduation at the Boston High School. Aside from his absence, all the living descendants were present, and to add to the joyousness of this pleasant family reunion, many friends called to offer congratulations and tokens of esteem. Letters, telegrams, and presents came from all parts of the country, from Maine to California.

From two until five o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Woolley received their friends. The reception room was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers; the bride and groom being seated beneath a bower, and to all appearances were still young in heart, spirit and mind, even though Father Time had bestowed upon them the silver threads that are always so highly esteemed and honored. Before many of the guests arrived, Mr. Gould read the following verses, sent by Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Dana, of Radnor, Penna., former Hammonctonians, well known to our older inhabitants:

TO MR. & MRS. E. J. WOOLLEY.
Fiftieth Anniversary of their Marriage.
June 29th, 1845.
Fifty years! How the time rolls along—
One half a century to eternity gone,
Fifty winters have flown down the air
And shaken the golden threads in your hair.
But the heart, I ween, is as warm as of yore,
Tho' the roses have faded, there's love still in store.

I know not the coronet worn that hour,
Whether rubies and diamonds, or tiny flowers;
But no crown so fit on this day to wear
As the diadem of gold that's wrought in your hair.

Talking together 'up life's rugged steep,
Where sunshine and shadows alternately creep,
An olive branch came in its happy gleam,
And then still another child there were three.

Enough of the bitter of life has been given,
To appreciate the good and kind dealing of Heaven;

Forth! much sickness has been in your way
Each link in the chain is unbroken to-day.
Could we be with you, and your joys share,
And congratulate now this long-wedded pair,
Not every young head that orange flowers hold

Will have its silver anniversary with the gold.

We wish you a honeymoon 'til life's end,
And your pathway adorned with many a friend,
And then still another child there were three,
May life and health, and with joys not a few,
May friends meet again with diamonds to crown you.

Following this, Mr. Gould read a poem written by Mrs. Orville E. Moore, formerly of Hammoncton, now residing in Boston:

TO MR. & MRS. E. J. WOOLLEY.
Turn back the pages of life's book—
And read an idyl of the past—
A song of love—a story sweet—
A golden glimpse of long ago.
Backward turn the flight of time,
Listen to a wedding chime
Sweetly ringing through the air,
Welcome to a bride so fair.
Lovely was that lovely June,
Sweet the songs of birds in tune,
Bright the roses all in bloom,
Happy bride and happy groom.
Fifty years! It now doth seem
Like some far-off fairy dream.
Keep the spell and do not break,
The sweetest dream that awoke!
For birds and bees were all in tune
In that lovely time;
With the roses all in bloom,
Happy bride and happy groom!
Fifty years! no time nor tide
Waits for groom nor waits for bride;
Onward down the restless river,
O'er the waves their barque must quiver.
Long ago, yes, long ago!
Years have fled both swift and slow—
Swiftly in love's shining light,
Slowly thro' dark sorrow's night.
Something there beyond our ken
That keeps alive the souls of men
While all else dies and fades away
As the flow'rs that bloomed that day
So long ago, and the birds in tune
That sang in that lovely June.
All are vanished—the song, the bloom,
Yet still thro' love the bride and groom,
Tho' the rounded tale, with flash of youth
Bears marks of time and trace of truth.

Dispensed by wisdom, gained by care
In the many changes, dark and fair
Of the fifty years' wedded life,
Shared together by husband and wife,
With all the blessings that have come to you
From one that deemeth most good and true,
'Tis a path that for the weary there is rest,
A Trust in a Power that knoweth best,
A Golden Promise of a life to be
After the voyage of a life on sea.
There on the sands of the other shore
To meet the loved ones gone before,
Where as the garment is laid aside,
In that morning Land and sea-roads divide,
Dear friends, may joy be with you there,
Many blessings and gifts, both sweet and rare,
May the smiling faces of dear ones be shed
Their love-light on the hours of your Golden Wedding.

There were innumerable letters of congratulation from relatives and friends who found it impossible to be present. Shortly after two o'clock friends began calling, and after congratulations were over were served with ice cream, cake and lemonade by Misses A. Gertrude Baker, Etta Hall, and Marie Setley. Among the many who called were:

Miss Ellen M. Woolley, Philadelphia; Mrs. Malvina Kanouse-Dean, Rahway, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fiedler and daughter; Mrs. Sarah A. Hood; Jennie Simons; Misses Anna and Emma Presey; Mrs. Wayland DePuy and daughter; Mrs. Mary Morrill and daughter Emily; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Coles, of Camden; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rutherford and daughter; Mrs. Jessie Moore; Mrs. Chas. Laver and daughter Lizzy; Mrs. J. B. Small; William L. Black; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jackson; C. F. Cooney; Mrs. George King; Jas. I. Horton and daughter Ellen; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Bassett; Mrs. Frank and daughter Emma; Mrs. M. M. Beverage; Mrs. S. B. Bernhouse; Mrs. Wm. H. Burgess; Mrs. B. A. Drown; Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Valentine; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Bowler; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Drayner; Mrs. M. O. Setley; Mr. Albert Setley; Mrs. Lido Miller; Mrs. Jennie B. French; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Barry; Mr. and Mrs. S. Tilton; Mrs. E. S. Peckard; Mrs. Mary Laver; Mr. F. H. Brown; Mrs. F. E. Roberts; Mrs. Wm. D. Pecker, of Trenton; and many others.

The presents were numerous and beautiful. The ladies of the Iron Hall presented the bride with a handsome rattan rocking chair, with appropriate remarks by Mrs. Beverage. Mr. Woolley responded briefly.

A handsome picture of Mr. Gould's cottage at Pleasant Beach, Maine, where Mr. and Mrs. Woolley spent the summer of 1894, from W. E. and Mrs. Emma Harding, Worcester, Mass. Silver toothpick holder, from Asher P. Pay, Huron, South Dakota. Souvenir spoon, Dr. Geo. R. Shadle. Decorated comb and brush tray, Mr. and Mrs. Coles. Longfellow's poem, "The Day is Done," illustrated, Mrs. S. B. Harding, Worcester, Mass. "Daisies," Mrs. O. E. Moore. Golden pin cushion, Mrs. C. H. Wilson. Bottle of Colgate, Mrs. A. G. Baker. Handkerchiefs, Miss Hannah Fellow, Phila. Handkerchiefs, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hill. Tea set, Albert Gould. Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Knapp, $5 in gold. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, $5 in gold. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Woolley, $5 in gold. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dean and Dion Dean, $1 in gold. Mr. S. A. Gould, $9 in gold. Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Valentine and Mrs. Hood, flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, flowers. Misses Presey, wedgwood pitcher and flowers. P. H. Brown, gold coin. Miss Helen M. Woolley, Mrs. S. M. Burkwater, Mrs. Louisa Goodrich, and B. D. Pay and wife, Mankato, Minn., each gold coin. M. L. Jackson and wife, set gold tea spoons. Mrs. E. Darling, gold coin. F. E. Roberts and wife, sachet bag and gold coin. Mrs. G. M. Crowell, jewel basket. Mrs. J. B. Small, water pitcher. Mrs. C. H. Wilson and wife, rustic flower stand. Mrs. H. T. Presey, flowers. Mrs. Arlitz and daughter Emma, a gold handled umbrella. Mrs. C. E. Hall, thread.

There were also many kind acts and words which assured Mr. and Mrs. W. that they have won a warm and affectionate spot in the hearts of all Hammonctonians. Coming here when the town was but a hamlet, they are counted among the workers who made it what it is; and though their life has been a quiet one, and much confined to their own home, we believe we voice the sentiments of all who know them that the town has many times felt the good of their influence, and is better for their being a part of it. It is the wish of their many friends that Providence will spare them yet many years.

A Household Treasure.
Dr. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house, and his family has always found the very best relief for the use; that he would not be without it if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Croft's pharmacy.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and pulls out the hair without pain. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. 25 cents per box, at Croft's pharmacy.

The Assessors are completing their work as rapidly as possible. It is rumored that, in taking the census, they do not find the population as large as in 1890; and some people are intimating that the figures of five years ago
were made larger than facts warranted.
Bear in mind that the previous one was the census of the United States, taken in the height of berry season, when our fields were alive with pickers from abroad. The enumerator was instructed to include every one who would not be counted elsewhere, and did so. This year it is a State census and only those are counted who reside here. This will no doubt make a difference of several hundred, and both counts will be correct. Ten years ago, the State census gave us 2925.

The Epworth League's Grove Social, last Friday evening, was a pronounced success. The pretty grove was lighted by electricity generated at the hosiery factory, and innumerable Chinese lanterns. There was a large attendance from this and neighboring towns, and the sale of refreshments was beyond expectation. The entertainment and the social features were alike enjoyed by the visitors, and doubtless the management are equally well pleased with the net proceeds.

Did You Ever

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now, and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy, troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use. Large bottles only 50 cents, at Croft's.

While at Peekskill, N. Y., Mr. J. A. Scrivea, a prominent manufacturer of New York City, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Such good results were obtained from its use that he sent back to the druggist from whom he had obtained it for two bottles more of the same. When you have a cough or cold give this preparation a fair trial, and like Mr. Scrivea you'll want it again when in need of such a medicine. Is a remedy of great worth and merit. 25 and 50 cent bottles sold by druggists.

What do you think of our entry list?

The racing at the Park on the Fourth will undoubtedly be the finest ever seen in this vicinity.

W. W. Trott, Y. M. C. A., Philadelphia, is entered for the handicap. He will probably be scratch man.

Howard Nester, who is also expected to ride, won the championship of Philadelphia, at the S. E. W. meet at Toga, last Saturday, his time being the fastest of the day, 2.22 and a fraction.

In spite of the fears of some, we expect to see our boys hold their own.

Prizes are now on exhibition in Croft's window.

Look for fast time and broken track records on the Fourth. Already the half has been dropped to 1:12 by Ed. Cordery, while practicing.

That Italian who last week made complaint of disorderly house against a fellow countryman, and proved himself a blackmailer, was himself charged with assault and battery before the week was done, and is yet a fugitive. Constable Bernshouse found him living with his family over a barn, had some difficulty in finding him at all, and while waiting for him to follow down stairs, lost his man. The fellow had crawled out of a sliding trap door, dropped to the ground, and escaped through the fields in the darkness. Probably a good ride.

I have two little grandchildren who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhea Remedy, and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel trouble. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach. One-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty four hours I was out of bed and doing my housework. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by druggists.
