H. E. BOWLER M. D., Editor & Prop'r. H. C. DORR, Associate Editor. HAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J. SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1879.

The Camp Meeting at Pleasant Grove near Bridgeton, N. J. will open August 20.

The Camden Board of Freeholders have determined to build an addition to the county poor-house, to better accommodate the inmates.

Our Washington letters are always good; but to-day's letter is more than usually so. The writer gives a vivid picture of the Bourbon Democracy especially of the southern wing, and we commend it to the careful perusal of our readers.

The intense desire of the Democrats and Greenbackers in Congress to get into general legislation precipitated upon the two Houses several thousand new bills, and after some months of incessant strife they lie still.

According to the expectation of nearly every one, the Marshall's bill was vetoed by the President. The grounds on which the veto is based are the same as usual, the bill being an arrogant attempt of the Democratic majority to coerce the Executive, and obtain by compulsion that which they could not secure by due course of law.

Congress Adjourned. Congress adjourned its extra session, after a three months and a half effort to make political capital for the Bourbon and rebel brigades.

The Peabody Hotel, 250 South 9th Street, Philadelphia, is kept on the European plan. Rooms from 25 cents to $50. The tables are well and abundantly supplied, and paying for what is called. It is strictly a temperance house, centrally and conveniently located, and is liberally patronized.

The Philadelphia Journal and Science of Health offers its sixty-third volume with variety of themes which must please every reader. It has a sketch and excellent portrait of Dean Stanley; a seasonal article entitled "The course of the summer evenings are well described; two supported organs of Phrenology; the poem entitled "The Innocent Boy," by Mrs. E. Oakes Smith. Making a Home, is an article which fathers and mothers generally should read with care.

The Maine Platform.

The Maine Republican platform declares the United States to be a Nation and not a Confederacy; that it is the duty of the National Government to protect its citizens and the ballot, and that all attempts to in any way coerce the President are revolutionary.

The liquor dealers of East Jersey have organized an association, under the title of the Citizens' Protective Association.

The Jersey City Board of Education on Monday night abolished the City Normal School and refused to make any reduction in the salaries of teachers.

The Republicans of Maine have nominated D. F. Davis for Governor. Senator Blaine delivered a stirring speech at the convention.

A stranger passed through Osego county, N. Y., recently, who stated that he had journeyed in the saddle all the way from Nevada, and was seeking his home in Bennington county, Vt., which he had not visited in thirty years.

BRIDGETON, N. J.

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, offering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. No assessment of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usual, had, nothing can be offered more favorable to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insured on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one-third of the rates charged by stock companies, on such risks—the other two-thirds taken by agents, being a profit accruing to stockholders, or consumed in the expenses of the companies.

The guarantee fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five per cent. only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would yet be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home. No assessment having ever been made, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than

One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars

The losses by lightning.

Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per year to the members, are paid without extra charge, and extended so as to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.
