

The Republican.

(Entered as second-class matter.)

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1891.

Why I Am a Protectionist.

Because Protection steadily enlarges the home market for farm products. England buys the world's surplus wheat. She demands "a big loaf for Europe." Accordingly she shuts her market from every source and usually is able to dictate unprofitable prices for American grain.

When our exportable surplus is large, prices are rarely good; when small, always; so that, strangely, a deficient yield is sometimes good luck for the farmer.

Well paid wage earners are generous consumers. Protection alone, insures American labor against European pauper wages.

When, under Protection, American industries shall employ bread-eaters sufficient to nearly consume American exports, then the farmer will no longer sell his grain at cost of production or less. He will escape the competition of the ryot and the serf. His industry will be profitable—his calling honored and truly independent.—Lyman H. Casey, U. S. Senator from North Dakota.

I am a Protectionist because I am an American. We should have free trade among ourselves because we honor one flag and are citizens of a common country. But the man who builds no houses here, who pays no taxes here, who does nothing to contribute to our growth and to our prosperity; but who lives abroad beyond the ocean, whence he desires to bring his products, either farm or manufactory, into this great American market in competition with ours—he should pay for the privilege; and when he has paid for the privilege we will cover the money into the treasury of the United States, and with it we will cancel our obligations and carry on the concerns of government. And I would do this in the name of patriotism and my country, because I believe it right.—J. W. Perkins, ex-Congressman from Kansas.

Something for Nothing.

(The following appeared as an editorial in the Youth's Companion of July 9th. We copy it by special request.)

"One hundred dollars for forty dollars!"

"Fifty dollars in six months, or one hundred dollars in seven months!"

"Average cost has been about fifty-five dollars to receive one hundred dollars!"

These announcements are taken from the advertisements of different "condomium orders." The theatre programme from which we copy them contains the advertisements of sixteen such "orders," "fraternities," and societies.

The promises made by these "orders" are much alike. They are exactly alike in one respect—they cannot be kept.

The member pays five dollars upon joining, an assessment now and then, and at the end of a year he is entitled to one hundred dollars.

How happy we all might be—if money could make us happy—were such a rapid overturn of capital possible! Eighty to one hundred or more per cent in a year! When the rate is so big it does not pay to reckon it too closely.

If you ask one of the managers of an order of this sort how it can afford to pay so much, he will tell you, probably, that it comes from "sales." That is, John Junkins will fall to pay his assessments, and what he has already paid in goes to increase the amount due to Thomas Bodwell, who keeps up his payments.

Thus those to whom the promises are kept profit by the losses of others.

It is simply impossible for an order of this sort not to be a swindle. Money lends in this country, on "good security," for an average of not more than six per cent, probably much less. A positive promise of five per cent is more than a conservative savings-bank will make.

Beware, then, the delusions and false promises of these orders. Either you will make profit out of the misfortunes of others, or they will make out of your misfortunes. Or, what is more likely than either, you will all lose your money when the "orders" burst up—as they will.

Orders given by Postmaster General Wannamaker will result in a complete re-organization of the Post Office Department by Aug. 1st.

The Earl of Gosford, a member of the British House of Lords, has purchased an entire section of land (640 acres) near Bakersfield, Kern county, Cal., and has begun to plant it with grape vines, peaches and pears.

Major McKinley will open his campaign in the middle of August. He will, at the same time, open the way for Republican success.

To the Sleepless.

After having expended one thousand dollars for various medicines, and with various doctors, and growing worse all the while, I considered my case incurable. I was induced to try Dr. Dime's Dyspepsia Pills. After their use for six weeks I can eat meat without distress, a thing that has not occurred before for years. I believe I am cured, and yet it seems too good to be true. Have no doubt, but that much of the sleeplessness people complain of is caused by indigestion.

J. W. DIXIE, Centre Market, Newark, N. J.

The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning. You are taking the first step into a wrong position. You need nerve tonic, and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great nerve tonic and alterative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the liver and kidneys resume their normal healthy condition. Healthy action. Try a bottle. Price, 50 cents, at any drug store.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having been placed in his house by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. He has the motive and a desire to relieve human suffering. I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt—German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Write by mail by addressing with stamp (naming this paper) W. A. NOYES, 230 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Wm. Bernhouse returned, Saturday evening, from a visit with her mother.

Mrs. W. B. Matthews spent a week or more at her father's, in Pleasantville.

Fred. Whitmore will have a very handsome bed of poppies when they are in full bloom.

Adam Fogt has opened a tobacco and confectionery store in the barber shop building.

Mrs. Phoebe Seymour expects to start on Wednesday next for Dakota, her future home.

The National Encampment of the G. A. R. is to be held in Detroit on August 14th to 18th.

Harry Rutherford reports having a "handy time" in the mountains of western New York.

C. Howard Wilson and family spent yesterday and Thursday with Philadelphia friends.

William C. Hay is to build a hotel at Winslow Junction. Mr. Bernhouse has the contract.

The bob time has set in.—The procession of Italian berry-pickers is moving toward the depot.

Mr. S. S. Lake owns eight town lots on Orchard Street, and is about to build a fine residence thereon.

On Tuesday afternoon, as the down-express on the Camden & Atlantic Railroad approached Hammononton station, an unknown man walked deliberately onto the track, and stood there.

He was seen by Chas. Kane, engineer of the train, and John Dwyer, his fireman; the bell was rung and the whistle blew an alarm.

Chas. F. Jones was in the act of lowering the safety gates, and shouted to the man; Mr. Timmerman, station-agent, heard the alarm and rushed from his office in time to add his voice in warning. Of course, all this occurred in an instant of time, for the train was coming at terrific speed (the run from Camden to Atlantic is made in sixty-six minutes); but the man stood still until the locomotive struck him, and hurled him forward at least seventy-five feet, and a little to one side.

The body was removed to Undertaker Valentine's rooms, and the proper officers notified. Wednesday morning, Dr. James, County Physician, and Coroner Vescoat came up on the train and an inquest was held, with a jury composed of Messrs. Aitken, Jackson, Cook, Cochran, Hixford, Maloney, Moore, Rickards, Wingfield, Saxton and Dilkes.

It was found that the man was a berry picker employed by P. Havers, name unknown, a resident of Philadelphia; and both legs and one hip-bone broken, one arm broken in two places, his head crushed,—death was probably instantaneous. Seven witnesses were examined, and the jury found a verdict that death was caused by an accident, for which the Railroad Company was in no wise to blame. The evidence indicated that it was a case of suicide.

Varied and perplexing are the problems submitted to our farmers for solution. Not the least important of these is the ice question; and upon this the doctors disagree. Last Saturday, in their dispatch from Boston, Rice & Holway said of our berries: "Ice saved them." On the same day, Bigelow telegraphed: "some wet and soft, too near the ice. No ice in ours, please,—takes off two to three cents a quart on fancy berries." Now, to what necessities shipping by freight, and experience has taught the Union that their fruit may get to Boston in time for market, or several hours later. Again, Patch & Roberts telegraphed:—"Would come in better order and sell better if you would use ice." On Wednesday, Tuttle said:—"Don't ship any more by express; we never receive; can't get express." Now, what would you do? The Union returned to the refrigerator system on Wednesday morning.

About half past six o'clock on Sunday morning, 12th inst., Mr. Fowler caught three boys in the act of forcibly entering one of his buildings, at the Park, wherea were ice cream, fruit, etc. The boys were recognized as a young Walter, "Reddy" Johnson, and an Italian, name not given us,—ages about twelve to fourteen years. As the place had been raided before, warrants were placed in Constable Baranowski's hands, who waited until he could find them all at once, and on Tuesday last deposited them in the cooler, where they kept their lively until the next day, when Squire Pressey committed them to May's Landfill. They will go to the Reformatory School, probably.

We have heard a proposition to divide the old Central school-house and cart half of it to Rosedale, where a school is much needed. It is strongly intimated that if a building was provided, the parents in that vicinity would pay the running expenses for one term, and take the risk of having their money refunded by popular vote next Spring. There are children who would attend school at Rosedale who are compelled to walk several miles every day to the Central or Magnolia; and some cannot attend because of the distance.

A wholesale jail delivery was frustrated by Sheriff Lacey and deputy one day last week. Every arrangement had been made by the prisoners, and if the discovery had been delayed ten minutes longer the jail would have been vacated. The attempt was made through a small window in the attic. Two of the men had broken the window open, and were about to go through when the deputy (who had just been warned by another prisoner) appeared and persuaded them by a revolving argument to abandon the scheme.

Walter Vaughn, for several years brakeman on the Hammononton accommodation train, has been appointed Assistant Station Agent and Conductor at Federal Street, Camden. A faithful servant rewarded.

Charlie D. Jacobs, assistant in the Bank, has resigned that position, to take effect Sept. 1st, having secured a situation in a Philadelphia printing office. This leaves an opening for some worthy young man.

Having bought all of A. S. Gay's cows—all extra fine stock—I offer them for sale or exchange during next week, at my place in Folsom. Any one desiring information concerning them may ask Mr. Gay. JOS. ECKHART.

The Methodist and Presbyterian congregations united last Sunday evening, in the new church, Mr. Rindall preaching. To-morrow, Mr. Cline will be out of town, and the congregations will again unite, in the Presbyterian Church in the morning; Methodist in the evening.

Mrs. Sheldon, the American woman who six months ago started out to take up the exploration of Africa where Mr. Stanley left off, has returned to England a sadder and wiser woman. She would have saved herself much trouble and expense had she been wise before she started.

President Harrison and Secretary Noble were classmates at the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. They were firm friends, and remained so until both fell in love with Carrie Scott, daughter of the proprietor of a neighboring seminary, and now the mistress of the White House.

The Italian portion of the congregation, represented by Mr. Domenico D. Defao, presented St. Joseph's Church with a handsome life-size statue of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel," which was blessed on that festival, July 16th, by the Rev. Father Isolari, of Philadelphia, who also preached a sermon in the Italian language.
