A Letter from London.

Editor of South Jersey Republican:

Remaining in Glasgow, the metropolis of Scotland, something over a week, I had time to see it pretty thoroughly. The Scotch are social people and very kind to strangers. Glasgow contains many things of interest, among which is the great Cathedral, built upon the site of an old church erected in the sixth century. The present edifice, 319 feet long, 93 feet broad and in every way magnificent, was consecrated in 1182. While strolling through I realized the difference between an old country and a new one, like ours. The city of Glasgow has a hazy, smoky appearance, owing to the large manufacturing interests. The University cost $2,250,000, and of course has a massive appearance.

Saturday we went out to the old town of Peebles, on the Tweed. The scenery around this old town, of some four thousand inhabitants, is very beautiful; but what most attracted me was "Wiedpath Castle," called before Cromwell's time "Peebles Castle." It dates back to the tenth century. Its walls are eleven feet thick. I went into the banquet hall, the dungeon, and up long winding stairs to the balcony, where we had a splendid view of the Tweed, winding placidly along through meadows of deepest green. By reading, I learn that Peebles was the birth-place of the Chambers, and of Mungo Park, the African traveler.

On Tuesday June 21st, taking seats in the cars for Manchester, we were soon flying along the valley, through the tunneled hills, and by half ruined castles. The English have fine railways, but their cars are neither as comfortable, convenient, nor handsome as ours. American cars are being introduced; and they are going to import our traction cars, —and so the English imitate us.

Manchester is an important city; boasting of the finest town hall in the world. We were shown through some very fine old libraries, and the old church where Ann Lee, the founder of the Shakers, disturbed a religious meeting, for which she was arrested, tried and imprisoned. The Vegetarian Society gave Elder Evans a reception. He has eaten no flesh nor fowl nor butter for fifty years. —It was a very pleasant gathering.

We are now, July 7th, in London. I have already visited Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, House of Parliament, Tower of London, British Museum and the American Exhibition. The latter is a "sell," half American, half English (the lion's half of course), with Buffalo Bill's "Wild West" to keep up the excitement.

London numbers over 4,000,000, and is too big to try to describe. Wealth and poverty, rags and royalty, exist almost side by side. The few are rich, the masses poor. Yesterday I went with the doctor into the House of Parliament, and heard Mr. Bradlaugh make a speech on the necessity of converting the 12,000,000 acres of uncultivated land in England, the most of which is owned by lords, and kept for parks and hunting grounds.

The London papers, which I think are prosy and dull compared to the Philadelphia Press and other American papers, state that the south of England is suffering from drouth.

London is just sobering down after the jubilee. J. A. BURROUGHS.

News was received at San Francisco of the loss of 800 Juggernaut pilgrims, in a storm, in the Bay of Bengal.

AN HONEST QUAKER writes from Floy, Ala., "Dr. Tut: Respected Sir: Having taken thy pill I find they have done me good. They are a great blessing, and thou wilt surely have thy reward." W. H. ELROD.

A little fellow told his mother that a mulesse kitten was one that he could maul and tease.

Mark Twain is sojourning in New York City.

A man in Kansas, Harvey County, proposes to bring suit against the Santa Fe Railroad Company on the ground that they run their trains so slow the cars shade his corn and keep it from growing as fast as it otherwise would. In Cloud County, the railroad companies threaten suits against the farmer if he plants corn within half a mile of the track. Falling cornstalks have already maimed several brakemen who were on top of the cars as they passed under the shade of the stalks. —Western Lics.

We should never have believed that it was hot enough out west to hatch chickens if the Chicago papers hadn't said so.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appetite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BEELEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a loss of condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive success. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improved digestion." Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1887.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Council meeting this evening.

An apprentice wanted at the REPUBLICAN office.

Messrs. Jones & Lawson have Theo. Watt's house at enclosed.

Robert E. Thomas is moving into his new home, on East Third St.

Ralph Jones is spending this week with his father, at Atlantic City.

The apple and pear crop in this vicinity will fall very far short of last year's.

Gen. Biggs started, on Monday, for a fishing trip to old Barnegat and vicinity.

Mr. P. S. Tilton, wife and daughter, are recreating in Bath and South Pulteney, N. Y.

Mr. D. Colwell has sold his pea crop, at a price in advance of that received last year.

Born, on Wednesday, July 20th, 1887, PEARL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Johnson.

Mr. J. M. Brown, of Old Hammonton, lost an infant child on Tuesday last, aged about two months.

Mrs. Ryan and daughter, of Springfield, Mass., mother and sister of Mr. J. P. Ryan, are spending the summer with him.

Many of the hitching posts about town have weeded of their arduous duties, and are leaning over in all sorts of picturesque positions.

Brown Bread.—One pint of sweet milk, same of sour milk, one-half cup of molasses, two tea-spoons of soda, four cups Indian meal, one cup rye.

Stockwell has added largely to stock this week,—seasonable dry goods, notions, etc. Call and see them, for we can't name half. Prices are down.

We have several communications which we had not time to use this week. We may publish them in our next; or the writers may call and withdraw them.

The Union did not issue their Bulletin on Monday. Saturday and Sunday storms so damaged the telegraph lines that no dispatches were received here until Monday afternoon.

Both Loan Associations hold monthly meetings next week,—Monday evening, the Workingmen's; Thursday evening, the Hammoncton. It saves time if all who can will pay their dues during the day.

Will Burgess took a short walk, Thursday morning, the first time he has been out. Many friends met and congratulated him on his prospective recovery from what seemed likely, for a time, to be fatal illness.

The Baptist, Presbyterian, and Methodist Sunday Schools have completed arrangements for an excursion to Atlantic City, over the Reading Road, on Friday, August 12th. Round-trip ticket,—adult, 60 cents; child, 30 cts.

Doughnuts.—One cup of sugar, two eggs, three tea-spoons of melted butter, one cup sweet milk, two tea-spoons of cream tartar, one tea-spoon of soda, one of salt; add a nutmeg. Knead all together and fry in hot lard.

Sunday evening, while Mr. Elam Stockwell and family were at church, an unknown party entered the house and store, but were evidently so worried by the dog's noise that they departed empty-handed, leaving a lighted lamp and open door as evidence of their ill-timed call.

Poison Ivy.—When the skin is not seriously affected, it may be bathed freely with spirits of nitro or extract of witch hazel; but in severe cases, the liquor of the sub-acetate of lead (one part, to three parts of rose-water) should be applied every hour or two, allowing the solution to dry on.

ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED.

The Pictures contained in this book could not be reproduced for less than $12,000.00.

This is a most fascinating book to the public. It is examined everything that in any way affects the problem of life, or sets conditions upon success in any part of our country, or upon any business or profession. Young men and women beginning life will find the book of great value, and it infuses fresh life into older persons. There never has been in the history of literature a book published with the scope and objects of this work, so the agent will have no competition whatever. The book reveals the unqualified praise of every one who examines it.

It is a Grand Book for Travellers.

Because the population of the U. S. are not satisfied with their present conditions; nearly all can be benefited in their present calling by the additional light which will be thrown upon it by reading this book; it will be seen in a flash that a new field there is for this work. It sells itself to all. Men and women agents can make from $100 to $500 a month easily. We give instructions to every person with this book to become a most successful Agent. Expense is no hindrance, as we give Special Terms, and Pay Freight Charges. Remember, we give you the exclusive sale of this book in every territory assigned for you. Agents are given the Illustrated Circulars, containing full particulars. Special Agents, etc., sent free to all. Address immediately.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Smith's Tonic Syrup

FEVER and AGUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Scrofulous affections.

By J. H. ALLEN'S WIFE, Miss HOLLY
Spent a last season amid the whirl of fashion at Saratoga, and takes of it full, flirtations, low neck dressing, pug dogs, etc., in her inimitable, mirth-provoking style. The book is profusely illustrated by GERRIE, the renowned artist of "Pack." Will sell immensely. Price $2.50. Knight Agents Wanted. Address HUBBARD BROTHERS, Publishers, Philadelphia.

Farms & Residences
In Hammonton,
Placed in our hands
For Sale.

A very desirably located lot, 50x150 feet, on Bellevue Ave, near the Presbyterian Church. Cheap, for cash.

Also, two nice lots on French Street, near Horton,—just the place for a residence. Price is low. These three are the property of J. C. BROWNING.

The Lewis Hoyt farm, on Main Road,—5 acres, 8-room house, very convenient, splendid location, cheap.

Thirty acres near R.R. station, 4000 pear trees, 1200 apple trees, and other fruit, two fine building sites. Easy terms.

The Capt. J. C. Almy place,—Twenty acres on Bellevue Ave., large house, barn, sheds, etc. Part of the land can be divided into building lots, and will be in demand. This would prove a good investment.

The William Colwell farm, 14 acres, on Third Street—runs to the C. & A. Railroad. Ten acres in pears, balance in other fruits. An eight-room house, good barn, shop, sheds, hotbeds, etc. Paid a good profit last year, and is increasing in value.

For particulars, inquire at the REPUBLICAN Office.

The Bakely farm, corner First Road and Tenth St. Nineteen acres, good house. Price very low, as the owner is a widow, and too far advanced in years to manage the farm.

Mrs. John A. Logan is suffering acutely from her injuries, which were serious, but she is recovering.

Jay Gould has been defrauded of $1,000,000 on purchases of ties for his railroads.

YOU can be cured
of RHEUMATISM by using
RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

It is not a cure-all. It cures nothing but Rheumatism, but it is a safe and sure cure for that disease. Thousands who have been cured will testify to its reliability.

MR. G. R. TRUMAN, of 1211 N. 12th St., Philada., wrote four months since he had been cured by the Russian Rheumatism Cure (waiting to see whether it would not return), saying he was bedridden with the disease, and thought he would lose his reason from the agony he had to endure; and inside of two weeks he was cured by this remedy, although he had his home physician, and used other remedies without result, previous to trying this Russian remedy.

MR. CHAS. A. COX, American and Morris St., Phila., said: "My wife was bedridden, and her condition made me despair. Doctors and everything else failed. The Russian Rheumatism Cure cured her in one week."

New York Tribune.

While the NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE is the most expensive publication of its class in the United States, nevertheless its price is now fixed at $1 a year, the semi-weekly at $2; in both cases an extra copy with a club of ten.

The campaign just closed found the country in the trough of the political waves. The Republican managers have made the best struggle they could against a majority in a few states they have been aided by the inspiring presence of a great leader whose speeches have awakened the only enthusiasm anywhere shown. The result of the campaign is gratifying. Its gist is an inspiration; the Democratic losses are a plain guide to popular drift. From this time forward a course will be followed of the advancing wave of 1888, which, if we all do our duty, will sweep our way to Washington the masquerades now in possession, the foes of protection, equality and patriotic government. It is now the duty of all earnest and experienced workers to bend their energies toward united and hearty work for 1888. The party is to be consolidated, cheered and rallied. To this work the Tribune pledges its zealous efforts.

The Tribune offers for 1887 several excellent premiums, including THE TRIBUNE.

Book of Open Air Sports,
A work compiled by the Tribune, especially for the young men of the United States. It is a thorough statement of the present status of athletic amusement in America, with suggestions to beginners, the rules of every important game, records of noted contests, and achievements of American champions. The book will contain about 150 illustrations. Chapters are provided on Archery, Base ball with record of wonderful playing and League and Association contests, and instructions how to carry a ball; Court Tennis, Lawn Tennis, Football, Cricket, Lacrosse, Basket, Horseman's, Cross Country Hunting; Yachting, with a discussion of Sloop and Cutter, and instructions how to design, build, and sail a boat; Rowing, Canoeing, Fishing, Trapping, Swimming, Hunting with shot gun and rifle, and Camping out. Winter Sports, Bicycling, Amateur Photography, and a few minor sports.

Among the contributors are: Wm. Blake, Maurice Thompson, Capt. Jacob A. Auzer, Cavalry Instructor at West Point, David Kirby, Thomas Clapham, Gen. Geo. W. Winstate, Prof. Geo. Goldie, Director of the New York Athletic Club; and a large number of private gentlemen known to every sportsman. The book contains facts concerning the wild game and hunting grounds of their several localities. No book of this character has ever been put into print in America. It is sufficiently elementary to be a "Boy's Own Book," and answer all the purposes of our manly youth, and yet also meet the demands of adults. Will be ready for delivery in Oct. Octavo, 500 pages. Retail price, $2.50. Terms, postage paid; with Weekly, one year, $2.50; with Semi-weekly, 1 year, $3.50; with Daily, $10.00. Only to be had in connection with yearly subscriptions to the TRIBUNE.

Also "Blunt's Rifle Practice," a book for every hunter and National Guardsman; a fine Waltham watch; the low-price Waterbury Watch; the two Unabridged Dictionaries; Woods' Medicine, Hygiene and Surgery Illustrated; and Young's Concordance of the Bible.

Sample copy, giving terms is sent free. Order by postal card.
