

South-Jersey Republican

Orville E. Hoyt, Publisher.

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

VOL. 28.

HAMMONTON, N. J., AUGUST 9, 1890.

NO. 32

CARL W. COOK, Jeweler and Optician.

A FULL LINE OF

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry,
And Optical Goods.

Prompt and Careful Attention Given to all kinds of Repairing.

It is at C. E. HALL'S

That you will find what you want to go to housekeeping with,
for he keeps

COOK and PARLOR STOVES,
HARDWARE and TINWARE,
FURNITURE, CARPETS and OIL CLOTHS.

Stove-pipe in all shapes and sizes. Stove repairs got to order at short notice. Job-work of all kinds promptly attended to.
Goods delivered to all parts of the town.

C. E. HALL, cor. Bellevue and Central Aves.

GEORGE ELVINS DEALER IN

Groceries, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes

Flour, Feed, Fertilizers,
Agricultural Implements, etc., etc
N. B.—Superior Family Flour a Specialty.

Edwin Jones.

DEALER IN

ALL KINDS OF
Fresh & Salt Meats

Butter, Eggs, Lard, etc.

Wagons run through the Town and vicinity.

The Philadelphia weekly Press and the Republican, both one year for $1.25, cash.

From Breckewidge, Col.

July 9th, 1890.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN,

Since my last, I have got my old riding pony from the ranch, seventeen miles below, where he has been kept for me, and have made several trips to mountain heights of 13,000 feet. Yesterday I was nearly 14,000 feet above Hammonton. Mountain peaks and stieris (saw teeth) surrounded me; bare rocky points and uneven ridges projecting into and above the clouds. A thunder shower came over us while up there, and several fearful flashes of lightning and terrific peals of thunder occurred. We had no place of shelter. I had my gossamer water-proof, which came into good use, and I rode it out on Billy. My companion had nothing but his ordinary clothes, and was on foot. He was a mountaineer, accustomed to clambering over the sharp slide rocks that, breaking from the mountain sides, tumble and slide to the plain or, perchance, have been stopped by others that preceded them, until the bare mountain sides, when not too precipitous are covered with them. Sometimes cloud-bursts occur on the mountain-tops, and then a deluge of water sweeps these loose rocks far out on the plain. There was not a great amount of rainfall in the shower of yesterday, but it seemed unusually fearful. We seemed to be in the midst of the lightning, and the thunder was uncommonly loud and followed almost instantly the blinding flash. The dark grim peaks looked wierd and awe inspiring, as though they might be torts or breastworks of the gods, from behind which they were discharging their immense artillery at each other, or us poor mortals below. No wonder that men ignorant of electric force should attribute its natural action to the anger of their gods. The storm passed by, when one of the grandest of sights was presented. Far down below me appeared a most beautiful rainbow. The colors seemed intensified by the rareness of the atmosphere; and there, on the mountain side, the whole bow far down below me glowed in unsurpassed intensity in all the colors of the spectrum. I stopped and looked with delight at the wonderful exhibition nature spread out before me. How different my emotions from what they were a few minutes before, when I seemed amid the lightning. Then, I was surrounded by the exhibition of fearful power, now, I was presented with an exhibition of magnificence and beauty. Well might man, ignorant of the laws of refraction of light, and its decomposition into colors by the raindrops, exclaim: "There is the pledge of the gods that no harm shall befall us. Fear not any longer. Their anger is appeased. There stands the pledge of their love."

A few days ago, a party of ladies and gentlemen, went to the top of "Baldy," 14,300 feet high, and situated just south-east of our town. While on its very top, a snow squall came on them and the wind blew a gale, and they had need of all the wraps they took with them. That it would be cold there was to be expected; but a strange phenomenon occurred not down in the programme. They were in the midst of the cloud, and they heard a buzzing sound as of bees, and a prickling sensation on their heads as though pins innumerable were sticking in them. One woman declared there was a bee in her bonnet and took it off to find it. On putting their hands to their heads their hair was found to be standing on end. By putting their hands up they heard the "raps"—snapping sounds from each finger tip. A setter dog was with them and he was affected the same way. He would paw at the bees around his head and his hair stood out straight. He seemed as much astonished as the people. It was found that by lying prostrate on the ground the prickling sensation ceased, but they had but to raise a hand when the "raps" would come at every finger-end. Some were considerably frightened. They realized at last that they were in the midst of a cloud charged with electricity, positive or negative to them, and they were exchanging their electricity with it. No ill effects resulted, except slight headaches to several. I have heard miners say that they have been in such clouds with picks on their backs, when flashes of light and tongues of fire would run from one man's pick to another's, and would frighten them most to death, but harming no one. Wonderful and awe-inspiring power! but man, god-like man, is finding out its ways and taming it to his will. He is making it carry his messages and do his menial labor. Yours, &c.

A. J. KING.

Secretary Blaire spent last Saturday, Sunday, and Monday with President Harrison, at Cape May Point, where he was greatly honored and shown marked attention on all sides.

A law-suit is now pending in Omaha, between Mrs. Cleveland and the heirs of the Folsom estate.

The President will attend the Grand Army parade in Boston, next Tuesday, and will be the guest of Gov. Brackett, of Massachusetts.

The Long Branch Record, which is reputed to be the Senator's home organ, says Senator Blodgett will not be a candidate for re-election.

A. J. SMITH, NOTARY PUBLIC AND Conveyancer.

Deeds, Mortgages, Agreements, Bills of Sale, and other papers executed in a neat, careful and correct manner.

Hammonton, N. J.

D. F. Lawson, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER Hammonton, N. J.

Plans, Specifications, and Estimates furnished
JOBGING promptly attended to.

If You Have

CONSUMPTION, COUGH OR COLD
BRONCHITIS, Throat Affection
SCROFULA, Wasting of Flesh

Or any Disease where the Throat and Lungs are Impaired, Lack of Strength or Drowsiness, you can be relieved and cured by

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL

With Hypophosphites,
PALATABLE AS MILK.

Ask for Scott's Emulsion, and it is so plain and so effective, that you will accept a substitute.

Sold by all Druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, N. Y.

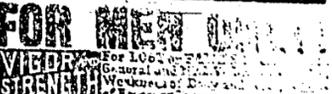

To cure Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation, Malaria, Liver Complaints, take the safe and certain remedy,

SMITH'S BILE BEANS

Use the SMALL Size (40 Little Beans to the bottle). THEY ARE THE MOST CONVENIENT. Suitable for all Ages. Price of either size, 25c. per Bottle.

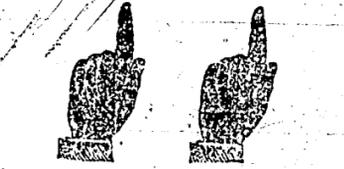

KISSING AT 7-17-70 PHOTOGRAPHY
ABSOLUTELY UNFAILING. LITHO TRAYS. STAMPS. ST. LOUIS MO.

FOR MEN
VIGOR
STRENGTH
ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

This half-column belongs to
E. Stockwell, Esq., who will have something to say, next week, about
Pianos, Organs,
Sewing Machines, etc.

COAL YARD

Having stocked my yard for the winter with the best grades of

LEHIGH COAL

I am prepared to furnish it in large or small quantities, at shortest notice, and as low as any.

Your patronage solicited.

W. H. Bernshouse.
Office in Wm. Bernshouse's office.
Yard opposite the Saw Mill.

WEBSTER

THE BEST INVESTMENT
For the Family, School, or Professional Library.

Has been for years Standard Authority in the Government Printing Office and U. S. Supreme Court.

It is highly recommended by 38 State Sup'ts of Schools and the leading College Presidents.

Nearly all the School Books published in this country are based upon Webster, as attested by the leading School Book Publishers.

3000 more Words and nearly 2000 more Engravings than any other American Dictionary.

SPECIMEN TESTIMONIALS.

The New York World says: Webster is the most universally conceded to be the best.

The Boston Globe says: Webster is the acknowledged standard in lexicography.

The Atlanta Constitution says: Webster has long been the standard authority in our office.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: Webster's Unabridged has always been the standard. The New Orleans Times Democrat says: Webster is standard authority in our office. The New York Tribune says: It is recognized as the most useful existing "word-book" of the English language all over the world. Sold by all Bookellers. Pamphlet free. S. C. MERRIAM & CO., Pub'rs, Springfield, Mass.

MARIANO RODRIGUEZ

A New Name Appropriate to Adorn a New Drama.

An Unknown Island Discovered by an Argentine Revenue Cutter and an Assistant Marine Found and Sent Back to His Spanish Home.

San Jose, the capital of Costa Rica, furnishes authentic news of a nature to warrant a more implicit faith in the truth of the famous legend of Robinson Crusoe. It is to the effect that in a recent cruise from the coast of Patagonia to the port of Santa Cruz, the Argentine revenue cutter San Juan sighted and came to anchor off an island hitherto unknown, fifty miles from shore, some miles long by one mile wide, abounding in trees and ferns, and a high tide with a rocky, almost perpendicular coast line, extremely tedious of ascent. In the interior, however, it was found to be well wooded and the captain of the cutter reports having encountered in his wanderings a number of wild animals and thousands of birds. A number of clear, sparkling, fresh-water springs were seen. Besides one of these a human footprint was discovered. A search of the vicinity led to the finding of a man's foot on the ground, close by the beach. It was perfectly devoid of clothing, but a snow-white beard and hair reached nearly to his knees.

When first awakened this modern Robinson Crusoe found himself encircled and acted like a wild man, but, being captured, soon recovered his speech. He was a native of Spain, he said, forty-eight years old and gave his name as Mariano Rodriguez. He had shipped from Montevideo in 1880 in an American schooner from New York, bound around the Horn. A violent storm had dashed the vessel upon the rocks, and he alone of all the crew had succeeded in gaining shore in safety. No other survivors had been sighted since the day he landed until the San Juan came. He had lived on raw shell fish and birds' eggs, which were obtained in abundance, but his sufferings from exposure to the weather, at times variable and bitter cold, had been terrible and almost unbearable. The island has been named 'Isla de Rodriguez,' after this Robinson Crusoe Rodriguez was sent back to Spain a few days ago at the expense of the government of Costa Rica. Congress will be asked at its coming session to vote a gold medal to the captain of the San Juan for having discovered the island, and rescued its solitary shipwrecked occupant.

On the train left from the south bound, says a New York Sun, writer, the conductor came into the smoking-car with the cry of "Tickets, please!" and as there was only one fresh passenger he directed directly up to him. This new arrival was from the farm and in nothing of a hurry. "What's up?" he asked, as the conductor halted before him. "Ticket, sir!" "Yes, is she on time?" "Going right to Cincinnati?" "Yes; ticket, if you please." "I had a ticket, but—Say, how's wheat looking along the line?" "Give me your ticket."

"Wonder where I put it? Been much rate between here and Hamilton this month? Fellow was telling me yesterday that he never—"

"I'm in a great hurry, sir!" exclaimed the conductor. "Shoo! Haven't got any hay out at the other end of the line, have you? I got caught once in the same way. Bill had to work like niggers to beat a thunder-storm."

"Have you got a ticket?" "Of course." "Then hand it over at once. I can't fool away my time here!" "Shoo! Well, here's the ticket, and I want a receipt for it. Fellow in such a hurry as you are might die suddenly. Lands! but what a bird man you'd make for a week or two! Never had one who was in a hurry. Say, if you one—"

The toy that pleases children the most are nearly as old as humanity itself. Egyptian scholars have revealed that in the time of Sesostris the children had balls covered with leather; tiny crochets that opened and shut the mouth; articles made of wood and puppets that became as lively as a wind on the pulling a string. In the tombs of the early Christians there have been found tops, hoops, pretty earthenware materials, etc. An ancient Greek invented a wooden dove that rose in the air.

The Decolite Stationers. A paragraph in a Washington paper informs us that "in official circles the ladies' toilets are attracting more attention than the statesmanship of the latter's husband." But decolite politics are not worn for the purpose of attracting undue notice, and low-necked statesmanship shivers in the face of a breezy investigation.—Pioneer Press.

Nobody will use other people's experience, nor have any of his own, till it is too late to use it.

HARD-WORKED CLERKS. FULFILL YOUR PROMISES.

The value of a Good Reputation to Young Business Men.

There is no lesson the young business man needs to learn more thoroughly than the value of good reputation and good credit. These cannot be won and kept by false pretenses of any kind, but must be earned by a strict observance of contracts, agreements and promises. The man whose word is "as good as his bond" is the man who has inspired confidence in himself by always doing that which he has promised to do. He is also, as a rule, cautious about contracting obligations, chary about making promises that he may not be able to fulfill. If too prodigal in the latter respect one cannot hope to keep faith in all things. A man who is or intends to be honest sometimes loses credit and reputation simply because he is too hopeful. Counting with too great confidence on uncertainties, he makes promises that he cannot fulfill because of the failure of the event on which they were based. He is, therefore, untariffly firm the date for the payment of a debt, and finds too late something has gone wrong, so that he cannot meet his obligation. Such an accident may happen to any man. Upon the way in which he meets the accident, his trouble depends how his reputation shall stand afterwards. If he can fulfill his promise at any personal sacrifice he should do so; failing that, he should endeavor to keep his word by borrowing elsewhere the money for the time for the final discharge of his obligation. But if he cannot do either he should go as soon as possible to his creditor and secure an extension by frankly telling him the state of affairs, and by renewing in kind of breaking his promise. The one essential to do is to keep good faith, or come as near to it as possible. The worst possible course is to run until his creditor begins to put up with excuses, and long overdue. It is too late then for explanations or renewals. His credit is gone, his reputation is broken down. His after promises are distrusted, though they may be grudgingly accepted. He may slip up on an obligation and keep his word, but there will remain the lingering feeling of distrust born of one failure to keep faith or to explain in advance the reasons why it could not be kept. No arrangement of any kind should be held sacred, and thus good reputation, which is of slow growth, may be gradually built up, for he who keeps his word at all times becomes respected and is trusted. The young man must learn the early in life his responsibility to himself and to others. He is to make his reputation by what he says and does, and at the outset should have a high regard for truth, which carries with it honesty and integrity. A promise, complete fulfillment of all engagements, should not allow a careless habit in money matters to grow upon him, but should pay all his bills promptly. There is an implicit promise to pay at the end of the month, or when the bill may be presented, even though there is no engagement to do so made in so many words, and it is good practice to keep these implied as well as all other promises with scrupulous care. You must not leave the reputation of your name, whose value is calculated by measured by money, beside developing useful habits and keeping one free from oppressive and grinding debts.—Baltimore Sun.

The clerk engaged in addressing the pension envelopes encounter some very queer ideas. One man, while copying addresses from the vouchers, had the right honorable commissioner at Washington address abbreviations every name must be written out in full—there are no labor-saving devices in the pension department. So the nimble fingers form such queer combinations as Nechtshaezzer, Monkheimer, Epaphrodittus Epimachus de Mauschrausch, Jane Turnpuss, Ullysess Grant, Scheller de Boul, Nils G. Uter, or more melancholy yet: Hypellie Gravelot, and a score of others equally peculiar and outlandish. What the great clerk, playfully asked, "What's the name?" "The name," he replied, "is acquainted with many female pension clerks, or they might have given him several pointers upon this much-quoted interrogation. "These girls by the way, are nearly all well educated and refined in manner, but, as Mrs. Parsons would say, somewhat 'repetitious' in circumstances. They are a better grade than the average clerk, and the majority have eagerly seized these positions as offering more respectability than other work in the office. Four out of five are dressed in black, and the few who tell us its own story. It cannot be said that they are contented with their lot, for this is scarcely true, yet they know if they fail out of the ranks there are plenty who stand ready to take their places. So they are contented, and occasionally leave the office as they see the army of ignorant men in the offices across the hall who are smoking in the corridors and leering at the girls as they pass.

Perfumed Linon. Everything is perfumed save the handkerchief. Custom stamps a scented handkerchief as vulgar. If you wish you may have a particularly fresh, wholesome, and scented handkerchief, buy one of those lavender bags now in the market. They are filled with the crushed lavender flowers, and the pungent odor will last much longer than perfume sachet. One can not imagine the task it is to prepare these bags for the market. In conversation with a girl who does this work she said that when at work she is forced to cover her neck completely, wear gloves, cover her ears, and wear a headpiece that covers the forehead, the ears, and the neck, causing unlimited discomfort. But one-half the world must have the luxurious appointments of the toilet—the other half must prepare them.

The Commers of the Lakes. The inland mariner, representing an aggregate capital of $33,000,000 has carried during the season now at its close, 102,000,000 bushels of grain from Chicago, 10,000,000 bushels from Duluth, 6,700,000 tons of iron ore from the Lake Superior mines to the blast furnaces, and brought back 2,200,000 tons of coal from Buffalo, and 2,000,000 tons of oil. It has brought into Chicago 450,000 tons of general merchandise, valued at $50,000,000, and carried away 525,000 tons, valued at $10,500,000. These figures, vast as they are, represent only the business of the inland mariner between Lake Erie and Lakes Michigan and Superior. The great lumber trade, and the local trade of the five great lakes, each representing a traffic of many millions dollars, are not included.

Tax richest people are those whose treasures can not be burned up or stolen. Tax richest people are those whose treasures can not be burned up or stolen. Tax richest people are those whose treasures can not be burned up or stolen. Tax richest people are those whose treasures can not be burned up or stolen.

There is no political alchemy by which you can get golden conduct out of leaden instincts.

CORRALED THE BRIDE.

The Strange Wedding of Big Charlie and Meetuse Nance.

The Border Wedding—A Bonancer With a Rope Lassos the "Belle of the Sage Brush" at Big Horn Basin—The Twain Were One.

"Ploa for stories have not all been used, as some people assert," remarked W. A. Jennings, of Wyoming, in the Colorado one evening. "A friend of mine," he continued, "who lives out in the cattle country of the Big Horn basin was a witness in 1885 to one of the most remarkable weddings of which I have ever heard. At that time a few settlers had gathered in and formed the nucleus of what is now a prosperous farming region, but the sway of the cowboy was undisputed. The first wedding in that section on Owl Creek was that of Big Charlie and Meetuse Nance, a native sage-brush belle. The bride and groom came seventy-five miles on horseback to the spot, and in exactly the same fashion. When within a few miles of the squire's home they met that official, surrounded by half a dozen cowboys. Then the bride got restive and nervous, declaring that she wouldn't marry any man on earth. But the judge, the cowboys and the groom were equal to the occasion. At a short distance stood a corral.

"Take her over to the corral, boys, and put her in," said his honor. "As Meetuse Nance heard this order she made a wild break for the hills; but her days of freedom were over. She was quickly run down, and amid a volley of feminine sage-brush eloquence the delighted boys started on a lope for the corral. Reaching this, Nance leaped from her bronk and started like a scared deer for some adjacent brush; but it was no go. However, she fought vigorously, and his honor ordered: "Hobble her, boys." The boys work in ecstasies. A pair of rawhide hobbles were stripped from a cayuse's neck, and their twigs adjusted about the sturdy ankles of the struggling bride. She was taken into the corral, and his honor, mounting the fence, bade the groom take his place by her side, and catch on to her hand. This done, his honor assumed the look of dignified importance called for by the occasion, and said:

"Big Charlie and Meetuse Nance, you come inter this corral again. I now pronounce you a couple. Big Charlie, unuhoble your wife."

"But this big Charlie found it difficult to do, and it was not until one of the cowboys had gently cast his lariet over his newly made wife that her husband was able to turn the lady loose. Then the justice called his boys together, and saying: "Come on, boys, we hain't got no business here, now," led them away. One of the boys loped back, and the happy couple were busy unpacking their camping outfit, and the honeymoon had evidently begun."—Philadelphia Press.

A Boy's Composition on Girls. Girls are very stuck up and dignified in their manner and behave themselves. They think more of dress than anything, and like to play with dolls and rags. They cry if they see a cow in the far distance, and are afraid of guns. They stay at home all the time and go to church on Sunday. They are always making fun, and making fun of boys' hands, and they say how "dirty." They can't play marbles, patty them, poor things. They make fun of boys and then turn round and love them. I don't believe they ever killed a cat or anything. They look up every night and say, ain't the moon lovely? That is one thing I have not told, and that is they always know their lessons better than boys.—Louisville Industrial School Gem.

Man's Lot Deprived of Woman. If there were no woman, men would have no object in life; their mistresses would cease to interest them; they wouldn't care a Chinaman whether their collars were ironed well or not; they would have nobody to nurse them when they had the toothache, or to keep them from believing they were going to die when an old-fashioned stomach-ache had its grip upon them. There would be nobody to make ice cream for, and no small edition of fish and blood to hug. There would be nobody to fight against being kissed and then to smuggle up to a coat sleeve and take to it as naturally as a cat does cream. Most important of all, there would be nobody to write against, to complain of and to love with all your heart and soul. Without woman men would never get to heaven, and without them they never have a taste of the other place on earth. So, when the bells are ringing in 1890, if Tom has any sense whatever, he'll put his arm round the woman he loves, and wonder, as she does, what in the world he'd do without her.—Philadelphia Times.

Terrible suffering is reported among the poorer people in Japan, owing to the failure of the rice crop.

HOUSEHOLD.

OMELETTES—Eggs, three; milk, half pint; flour, 2 tablespoons; salt to taste. Beat the yolks and whites of the eggs separately and add the whites last, stirring lightly. Bake in a moderate oven.

PIANO CASE POLISH—Olive-oil applied with cotton or Canton flannel rag and afterwards rubbed with dry dandel and a good polish for a piano case. We have read that one part olive oil and two parts vinegar is also good.

TO TAKE OUT SPOTS.—The yellow stain made by the oil used on sewing machines can be removed if before washing in soap the spot is rubbed carefully with a bit of cloth wet with ammonia.

COFFEE CAKES.—A cupful of butter, half a cupful of sugar, a cupful of molasses, a teaspoonful of saleratus dissolved in a cupful of strong coffee, a nutmeg, a teaspoonful of cloves, cinnamon, five cupfuls of flour, and a cupful of chopped raisins.

HERRING SALAD—Put into a salad bowl the crisp leaves of a head of lettuce; remove the skin and bone from two smoked herrings; shred them fine and add to the lettuce; pour over the salad a little dressing and garnish with hard-boiled eggs.

PANSNIPS.—Boil until tender, scrape, cut lengthwise, and put into a saucepan with three tablespoonfuls of butter, a little pepper and salt, and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley. Shake until the mixture boils, take up the pieces carefully, and pour the butter over.

MUSTARD CABBAGE—Chop half a head of cabbage fine; put on to boil, a cupful of vinegar, a cupful of sugar, seven-tablespoonfuls of milk, two of mustard, and one each of pepper and salt, add a broken egg, stir the mixture well; then pour the whole over a cabbage and serve.

INK STAINS.—Ink stains on mahogany furniture will disappear if treated as follows: Put six drops of nitro into a teaspoonful of water, and touch the stained part with a feather dipped in the mixture. Immediately after this, rub with a soft cloth and cold water to prevent mark.

To take iron rust out of white goods, pour a teaspoonful of boiling water; stretch the goods tightly across the top of it; then pour on a little of the solution of oxalic acid dissolved in water, and rub with the moist finger. Rinse out with water. If it does not come out, repeat the dip it down into the hot water and rub again.

To take out machine grease use rain water and soda. To remove oil and varnish from silk try benzine, ether and soap very cautiously. To take out paint mix equal parts of ammonia and turpentine. Saturate the spot two or three times, then wash out in soapuds. Put on the machine be rubbed out with woolen goods after it has dried.

CHOCOLATE BLANC MANGE—Bakers' chocolate, one-half of a package, Cox's gelatine, one-half box; sugar, Smith's vanilla, one tablespoonful; milk, one quart. Soak the gelatine in a little water; grate or scrape fine the chocolate, boil it in the milk in a farina kettle two hours, then add the gelatine and sugar and cook ten minutes more; add a cupful of vanilla, one tablespoonful; vanilla; strain through the colander; milk will rise on top. Serve when solid, with cream or sauce.

To Remove Mildew or Stains From White Cloth.—Mix a tablespoonful of chloride of lime in half a pint of water and let it stand half an hour. Dip the cloth in, wet thoroughly, and spread in the sun. Repeat this until entirely out, then wash thoroughly and rinse, and the time will not injure the cloth. To keep the cloth ever bright without washing, the lime will not. Yellowed or unbleached clothes may be bleached in the same way.

MALAGA CAKE—Two cupfuls of sugar and half a cupful of butter beat to a cream; add half a cupful of sweet milk; mix three cupfuls of flour with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; beat the whites of seven eggs to a froth; stir all together; add flavor with lemon; bake in a shallow pan. Whites of three eggs beaten with sugar and cream; save out enough for the top of the cake; add a coffee-cupful of seeded and chopped raisins and two teaspoonfuls of lemon extract; spread between the cake.

CHOCOLATE CORN STARCH.—Milk, 1 quart; eggs, 2; corn starch, 2 tablespoonfuls; sugar, a large half cupful; chocolate, one-half cupful. Boil the milk in a vessel set in water, add the sugar and corn starch—dissolved in a little milk; boil five or ten minutes, then add the yolks of the eggs, well beaten, and mixed with a little milk, stirring all the time for two or three minutes, now turn out into the moulding dish. Now, have the rest of the sugar and milk and the chocolate all dissolved and well mixed together, heated and pour it over the preparation; now add the whites of the eggs, well beaten, with a little sugar by spruing it over the top, set it in the oven ten minutes. Serve cold, without sauce.

PREACHING AND PRACTICE.—Mr. Weatly, I presume, sir, will join our next forestry association? "Mr. Richmond—Most gladly, sir. The way our virgin forests are being destroyed is a shame—no outrage. John put a few more logs on the grate."

The BRUTE—Miss Cassy Corda—You've broken my heart. "Tom Blunt—Oh, well; accidents will happen."

Why did you leave your place?" "Oh, for a variety of reasons! Look here, Diana! you've set this illy bulb

DIANA'S LOVE STORY.

I often told Adam that our home on the Bald Mountain was exactly like living on a solitary island out at sea. We were all surrounded with floating wreaths of fog, which looked for all the world like white-capped waves.

For weeks at a time nobody came near us, but I do not mind. The doctors had told Adam that the restoration of his health depended on his living for a few years at this high altitude, and what sort of a sister should I have been to let him stay alone in the little brown cabin, where the smoke from the charcoal pits ascended night and day, as if the place were an extinct volcano, and never had left off belching fire and smoke?

We took turns, Adam and I, like a Vigilance committee. I worked all day in the little stone-walled garden trying to make the rose bushes and hollyhocks believe they were down in some sheltered valley, and singing about my little odds and ends of housework; and when the sunset died away on Bald crag, and the whip-poor-will began to sing below us, Adam, who had slept all day, sallied out to the charcoal pits to keep his lonely vigil—for we were poor people, and had to earn our living as best we could.

And all went very smoothly until old Uncle Pomp, the colored man, announced his intention of abandoning the charcoal business. "He's gettin' old," said Uncle Pomp. "I ain't a'ter nothin' but a bald eagle nor yet a lizard, but to lip-a-top of de mountain no longer. It's too desprit lonesome for ole Pomp!"

"But think what it is for us," reasoned Adam. "You's young folks," obstinately uttered Uncle Pomp. "Pings is altogether different wid yous."

So we were left alone, which made matters pretty hard for Adam. Nobody cared to come up Bald mountain if they could possibly make a livelihood anywhere else.

But one evening, just as I was getting ready to take a chicken sandwich and a put of tea to the charcoal pit for Adam's supper, a tall, red-shirted man came swinging up the stony path toward our gate.

"Heard you wanted help up this way," said he, taking off his cap and inclining his head not ungracefully. My heart leaped within me. "Oh," cried I, "we do!"

"What sort of work is it?" he said, looking curiously around him. "There don't seem to be much chance for farming up here, and I haven't seen any mill machinery nor shafts for ore."

"Tending the charcoal pit," I explained. "Sit down and rest a little, and I will show you where my brother is. Will you have a drink of tea and a sandwich?"

He drank eagerly; he ate as if he had not tasted food for a week. I watched him the while. He was dark, strong-framed, sinister-looking, with a close shaved face, yet I felt no sentiment of fear or aversion to him. "Now," he said at last, "I am ready."

"Can you board him, Dip?" said Adam. "Why not? He'd be a much pleasanter boarder than Uncle Pomp, I'm sure," said I, laughing. "See those beautiful red hills he has transplanted so carefully into my garden that they haven't drooped a leaf! See the funny little turds he brought from Black brook for my aquarium. Oh, by the way, no one has told me his name."

"It is rather an unusual one—John Smith," Adam answered. "What brought him on top of Bald mountain?"

"He was out of work, and heard that I needed a hand up here. He is very bright and intelligent and has traveled a good deal. I rather like the fellow."

John Smith remained a month with us. He did a great deal more than his share of the work. "The spirit isn't over strong," he said, nodding toward Adam, "and he ought to be favored. He shall be, as long as I am here."

It was in the spring of the year, and John Smith helped me with my little flower garden. He brought home rare birds' eggs for my collection; he evinced a knowledge of plants that quite surprised me on one occasion when we unexpectedly came across a rare orchid in the woods. "I should think you would be a good gardener, John," said I. "I was a gardener once. I had charge of a house full of Jamaica flowers, and looked after a forcing house for early peaches that brought $1 apiece in market."

"Why did you leave your place?" "Oh, for a variety of reasons! Look here, Diana! you've set this illy bulb

DIANA'S LOVE STORY.

I often told Adam that our home on the Bald Mountain was exactly like living on a solitary island out at sea. We were all surrounded with floating wreaths of fog, which looked for all the world like white-capped waves.

For weeks at a time nobody came near us, but I do not mind. The doctors had told Adam that the restoration of his health depended on his living for a few years at this high altitude, and what sort of a sister should I have been to let him stay alone in the little brown cabin, where the smoke from the charcoal pits ascended night and day, as if the place were an extinct volcano, and never had left off belching fire and smoke?

We took turns, Adam and I, like a Vigilance committee. I worked all day in the little stone-walled garden trying to make the rose bushes and hollyhocks believe they were down in some sheltered valley, and singing about my little odds and ends of housework; and when the sunset died away on Bald crag, and the whip-poor-will began to sing below us, Adam, who had slept all day, sallied out to the charcoal pits to keep his lonely vigil—for we were poor people, and had to earn our living as best we could.

And all went very smoothly until old Uncle Pomp, the colored man, announced his intention of abandoning the charcoal business. "He's gettin' old," said Uncle Pomp. "I ain't a'ter nothin' but a bald eagle nor yet a lizard, but to lip-a-top of de mountain no longer. It's too desprit lonesome for ole Pomp!"

"But think what it is for us," reasoned Adam. "You's young folks," obstinately uttered Uncle Pomp. "Pings is altogether different wid yous."

So we were left alone, which made matters pretty hard for Adam. Nobody cared to come up Bald mountain if they could possibly make a livelihood anywhere else.

But one evening, just as I was getting ready to take a chicken sandwich and a put of tea to the charcoal pit for Adam's supper, a tall, red-shirted man came swinging up the stony path toward our gate.

"Heard you wanted help up this way," said he, taking off his cap and inclining his head not ungracefully. My heart leaped within me. "Oh," cried I, "we do!"

"What sort of work is it?" he said, looking curiously around him. "There don't seem to be much chance for farming up here, and I haven't seen any mill machinery nor shafts for ore."

"Tending the charcoal pit," I explained. "Sit down and rest a little, and I will show you where my brother is. Will you have a drink of tea and a sandwich?"

He drank eagerly; he ate as if he had not tasted food for a week. I watched him the while. He was dark, strong-framed, sinister-looking, with a close shaved face, yet I felt no sentiment of fear or aversion to him. "Now," he said at last, "I am ready."

"Can you board him, Dip?" said Adam. "Why not? He'd be a much pleasanter boarder than Uncle Pomp, I'm sure," said I, laughing. "See those beautiful red hills he has transplanted so carefully into my garden that they haven't drooped a leaf! See the funny little turds he brought from Black brook for my aquarium. Oh, by the way, no one has told me his name."

"It is rather an unusual one—John Smith," Adam answered. "What brought him on top of Bald mountain?"

"He was out of work, and heard that I needed a hand up here. He is very bright and intelligent and has traveled a good deal. I rather like the fellow."

John Smith remained a month with us. He did a great deal more than his share of the work. "The spirit isn't over strong," he said, nodding toward Adam, "and he ought to be favored. He shall be, as long as I am here."

It was in the spring of the year, and John Smith helped me with my little flower garden. He brought home rare birds' eggs for my collection; he evinced a knowledge of plants that quite surprised me on one occasion when we unexpectedly came across a rare orchid in the woods. "I should think you would be a good gardener, John," said I. "I was a gardener once. I had charge of a house full of Jamaica flowers, and looked after a forcing house for early peaches that brought $1 apiece in market."

"Why did you leave your place?" "Oh, for a variety of reasons! Look here, Diana! you've set this illy bulb

DIANA'S LOVE STORY.

I often told Adam that our home on the Bald Mountain was exactly like living on a solitary island out at sea. We were all surrounded with floating wreaths of fog, which looked for all the world like white-capped waves.

For weeks at a time nobody came near us, but I do not mind. The doctors had told Adam that the restoration of his health depended on his living for a few years at this high altitude, and what sort of a sister should I have been to let him stay alone in the little brown cabin, where the smoke from the charcoal pits ascended night and day, as if the place were an extinct volcano, and never had left off belching fire and smoke?

We took turns, Adam and I, like a Vigilance committee. I worked all day in the little stone-walled garden trying to make the rose bushes and hollyhocks believe they were down in some sheltered valley, and singing about my little odds and ends of housework; and when the sunset died away on Bald crag, and the whip-poor-will began to sing below us, Adam, who had slept all day, sallied out to the charcoal pits to keep his lonely vigil—for we were poor people, and had to earn our living as best we could.

And all went very smoothly until old Uncle Pomp, the colored man, announced his intention of abandoning the charcoal business. "He's gettin' old," said Uncle Pomp. "I ain't a'ter nothin' but a bald eagle nor yet a lizard, but to lip-a-top of de mountain no longer. It's too desprit lonesome for ole Pomp!"

"But think what it is for us," reasoned Adam. "You's young folks," obstinately uttered Uncle Pomp. "Pings is altogether different wid yous."

So we were left alone, which made matters pretty hard for Adam. Nobody cared to come up Bald mountain if they could possibly make a livelihood anywhere else.

But one evening, just as I was getting ready to take a chicken sandwich and a put of tea to the charcoal pit for Adam's supper, a tall, red-shirted man came swinging up the stony path toward our gate.

"Heard you wanted help up this way," said he, taking off his cap and inclining his head not ungracefully. My heart leaped within me. "Oh," cried I, "we do!"

"What sort of work is it?" he said, looking curiously around him. "There don't seem to be much chance for farming up here, and I haven't seen any mill machinery nor shafts for ore."

"Tending the charcoal pit," I explained. "Sit down and rest a little, and I will show you where my brother is. Will you have a drink of tea and a sandwich?"

He drank eagerly; he ate as if he had not tasted food for a week. I watched him the while. He was dark, strong-framed, sinister-looking, with a close shaved face, yet I felt no sentiment of fear or aversion to him. "Now," he said at last, "I am ready."

"Can you board him, Dip?" said Adam. "Why not? He'd be a much pleasanter boarder than Uncle Pomp, I'm sure," said I, laughing. "See those beautiful red hills he has transplanted so carefully into my garden that they haven't drooped a leaf! See the funny little turds he brought from Black brook for my aquarium. Oh, by the way, no one has told me his name."

"It is rather an unusual one—John Smith," Adam answered. "What brought him on top of Bald mountain?"

"He was out of work, and heard that I needed a hand up here. He is very bright and intelligent and has traveled a good deal. I rather like the fellow."

John Smith remained a month with us. He did a great deal more than his share of the work. "The spirit isn't over strong," he said, nodding toward Adam, "and he ought to be favored. He shall be, as long as I am here."

It was in the spring of the year, and John Smith helped me with my little flower garden. He brought home rare birds' eggs for my collection; he evinced a knowledge of plants that quite surprised me on one occasion when we unexpectedly came across a rare orchid in the woods. "I should think you would be a good gardener, John," said I. "I was a gardener once. I had charge of a house full of Jamaica flowers, and looked after a forcing house for early peaches that brought $1 apiece in market."

"Why did you leave your place?" "Oh, for a variety of reasons! Look here, Diana! you've set this illy bulb

DIANA'S LOVE STORY.

I often told Adam that our home on the Bald Mountain was exactly like living on a solitary island out at sea. We were all surrounded with floating wreaths of fog, which looked for all the world like white-capped waves.

For weeks at a time nobody came near us, but I do not mind. The doctors had told Adam that the restoration of his health depended on his living for a few years at this high altitude, and what sort of a sister should I have been to let him stay alone in the little brown cabin, where the smoke from the charcoal pits ascended night and day, as if the place were an extinct volcano, and never had left off belching fire and smoke?

We took turns, Adam and I, like a Vigilance committee. I worked all day in the little stone-walled garden trying to make the rose bushes and hollyhocks believe they were down in some sheltered valley, and singing about my little odds and ends of housework; and when the sunset died away on Bald crag, and the whip-poor-will began to sing below us, Adam, who had slept all day, sallied out to the charcoal pits to keep his lonely vigil—for we were poor people, and had to earn our living as best we could.

And all went very smoothly until old Uncle Pomp, the colored man, announced his intention of abandoning the charcoal business. "He's gettin' old," said Uncle Pomp. "I ain't a'ter nothin' but a bald eagle nor yet a lizard, but to lip-a-top of de mountain no longer. It's too desprit lonesome for ole Pomp!"

"But think what it is for us," reasoned Adam. "You's young folks," obstinately uttered Uncle Pomp. "Pings is altogether different wid yous."

So we were left alone, which made matters pretty hard for Adam. Nobody cared to come up Bald mountain if they could possibly make a livelihood anywhere else.

But one evening, just as I was getting ready to take a chicken sandwich and a put of tea to the charcoal pit for Adam's supper, a tall, red-shirted man came swinging up the stony path toward our gate.

"Heard you wanted help up this way," said he, taking off his cap and inclining his head not ungracefully. My heart leaped within me. "Oh," cried I, "we do!"

"What sort of work is it?" he said, looking curiously around him. "There don't seem to be much chance for farming up here, and I haven't seen any mill machinery nor shafts for ore."

"Tending the charcoal pit," I explained. "Sit down and rest a little, and I will show you where my brother is. Will you have a drink of tea and a sandwich?"

He drank eagerly; he ate as if he had not tasted food for a week. I watched him the while. He was dark, strong-framed, sinister-looking, with a close shaved face, yet I felt no sentiment of fear or aversion to him. "Now," he said at last, "I am ready."

"Can you board him, Dip?" said Adam. "Why not? He'd be a much pleasanter boarder than Uncle Pomp, I'm sure," said I, laughing. "See those beautiful red hills he has transplanted so carefully into my garden that they haven't drooped a leaf! See the funny little turds he brought from Black brook for my aquarium. Oh, by the way, no one has told me his name."

"It is rather an unusual one—John Smith," Adam answered. "What brought

New Store! New Goods!

We have torn out and remodelled our Store, and now we have more room and much better facilities for displaying our goods, and for satisfactorily serving our customers.

CLOTHING For Men & Boys.

Suits for the little ones as low as $1.25— Norfolk jackets; better at $2. Knee Pants at 50, 63, and 75 cents per pair. Boys' Long Pants, 50 cents (reduced from 55 cents), and $1.25 and $1.75. Men Coats at $2.50—worth more, but we bought them down, so as to give our customers the benefit.

STRAW HATS

That must be seen to be appreciated, as the prices are in harmony with the tier.

All these goods are down to hard-pan prices. Come and see for yourselves.

In Groceries

Our prices are correspondingly low. We are selling Wm. Penn Sugar Corn four cans for 25 cts. Baker's Corn at 8 and 10 cts. An excellent variety of Table Peaches at 10 cents. Green Peas at 10 and 12 cents per can, etc., etc.

P.S. TILTON & SON, Wm. Bernshouse's Lumb'r Yard

For all kinds of Lumber, Mill-work, Window-glass, Brick, Lime, Cement, Plaster, Hair, Lath, etc. Light Fire Woods For Summer use.

Berry Crates & Chests Cedar Shingles.

We have just received our Spring stock of goods.

Can furnish very nice Pennsylvania Hemlock At Bottom Prices. Manufacture our own Flooring. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Our specialty, this Spring, will be full frame orders.

The Davidge Fertilizer Co. Fertilizers the Best?

They are all that is claimed for them. They never deceive the farmer. They supply the land with all essential properties, adding to its permanent value.

They are complete manures. They restore exhausted soils. They make no weeds. They are great crop producers. They are made from purest fertilizing materials.

They contain pure acid, potash, and animal matter. They are, in short, RELIABLE.

E. J. WOOLLEY, Agent, Hammonton, N. J.

The Republican.

Entered as second-class matter. SATURDAY, AUG. 9, 1890.

Miss Abbie Rice, of Waterford, has brought suit against Miss Flora Marshall, of the same place, teacher at Bates Mills, for $300 damages for the "mental and physical pain" caused by an alleged bite of Miss M.'s dog.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Post Office at Hammonton, N. J., Saturday, Aug. 9th, 1890. Mrs. Hannah Hammon. Mrs. J. J. Hammon. Mrs. M. J. Hammon. Mrs. Wm. Wilson.

An Italian couple came to Squire Jacobs to be married, recently. The interpreter said: "This man was married in Italy, but his wife won't come to this country, so he wants to marry this woman."

We heard a man speaking the other day, of Atlantic City, and calling attention to the difficulty of obtaining a drink of water. It is a noteworthy fact that it is almost an impossibility to find a glass of drinking water, notwithstanding their boasted water works.

It is said that Gen. E. Burd Grubb will be appointed Minister to Spain. The election in Salt Lake City, Utah, resulted in a Mormon defeat. Delegate Caine will be succeeded in Congress by an anti-Mormon.

Some of the Democratic organs are talking about defeating Speaker Reed for re-election to Congress. This shows that talk, always cheap, is cheaper now than ever.

It is at least amusing, if not ridiculous, to read editorials in the great dailies, condemning (and rightly, too) lotteries and the newspapers which advertise them. Look in those same papers, and you will find them swarming with additival and advertisements of quack doctors? The beam is in the other fellow's eye.

The statement of Major Raymond, U. S. Engineer, that it is his purpose to remove Wind-mill Island this year, to a depth of eight feet below low-water mark, will be cheering news to those who have hoped to see vigorous steps taken for removing the obstructions in the Delaware which interfere so largely with the commerce of both Camden and Philadelphia.

Customs and internal revenue receipts for July and August promise to be $10,000,000 more than in the same months in the last fiscal year. For July alone the advance was $5,700,000, so that the year will start with a balance in favor of the Treasury one-fourth as large as the reduction likely to be made by the McKinley tariff during the current fiscal year.

Coal, $4.30 per long ton; butter, 20 cents a pound; rib-roast, 14 cents; rib steak, 10; sirloin, 18; round, 14; rump 16; stewing pieces, 4 to 10 cents; milk, 6 cents per quart; ice, 15 lbs. a day, 50 cents per week. These are Windland prices, as given by a correspondent.

Here's what a Cincinnati man ordered for his dinner, at an eating house: iced claims, a pint of beer, dish of ice cream, large slice of watermelon, cup of coffee, and a cigarette.

Silence is said to be safe; yet a great deal of trouble comes from the still. The teakettle sings only one song, but it sings it well.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her.

A druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found relief, which settled on her lungs; she continued its use, and after taking ten bottles found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles at George Elvins' store. Large bottles 50 cts. and $1.

Insurance, viz: fire, tornado, life and accident; also, real estate. WM. RUTHERFORD, Hammonton.

That handsome residence on the Lake, known as the Frank Records property, is for sale at a very low price, and on the easiest terms one can ask. For particulars, inquire at the REPUBLICAN office.

Building lots for sale—some of the best located in town for the least amount of money. WM. COLWELL.

A Twenty Acre Farm for sale or rent, at Locust Station. Fine 13-room house and out-buildings, a good farm, clear. Start at once. Terms to suit. D. FITZPATRICK, 810 South Tenth St., Philadelphia.

Blacklin's Africa Salve, the best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by George Elvins.

For Sale.—A sixty-acre farm, 1 1/2 miles from Elwood station. About thirty acres have been cleared and tilled. Inquire of WM. BERNHOUSE, Hammonton, N. J.

Executors Sale. Will be sold at public sale, on the premises of the late Ann Bakely, deceased, on First Road, Hammonton, on Thursday, Aug. 21st, 1890.

The personal property of said deceased, consisting of household goods, furniture, clothing, with various other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale to commence at two (2) o'clock in the afternoon, sharp. JESSE THREAT, Auctioneer, July 27th, 1890.

H. FIEDLER, Manufacturer of CIGARS. Dealer in Tobacco, Cigars, Confectionery, HAMMONTON, N. J.

"Seeing is Believing." And the best lamp ever made, like Alexander's, is the "Rochester" lamp. It is a lamp of the future, and is the only lamp that is safe, reliable, and economical. It is the only lamp that is safe, reliable, and economical.

And with it there is no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Miss R. M. Bodine, TEACHER OF Piano and Organ. Tenders her services to the people of Hammonton and vicinity. Terms reasonable.

S. E. BROWN & Co. OUR 5 & 10 Ct. Counters will be of interest to purchasers, as we have placed a good many higher-priced goods on these counters to close out the stock. Look at them!

J. S. THAYER, Contractor & Builder. Hammonton, N. J. Plans, Specifications, and Estimates furnished. Jobbing promptly attended to.

Lumber for Sale. Also, First and Second Quality Shingles. Furnished and Repaired. Shop on Vine Street, near Union Hall. Charges Reasonable. P.O. Box 53.

"The Rochester." And with it there is no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

The People's Bank of Hammonton, N. J. Authorized Capital, $50,000. Paid in, $30,000. Surplus, $3500.

R. J. BYRNES, President. M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't. W. R. TILTON, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: R. J. Byrnes, M. L. Jackson, George Elvins, Edm. Stockwell, G. F. Saxton, C. F. Osgood, Z. U. Matthews, F. S. Tilton, A. J. Smith, J. C. Anderson.

Certificates of Deposit issued, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum if held six months, and 3 per cent if held one year.

Discount days—Tuesday and Friday of each week.

A. J. KING, Resident Lawyer, Master in Chancery, Notary Public, Real Estate and Insurance Agent. Insures in No. 1 companies, and at the lowest rates. Personal attention given to all business.

You take No Chance in using the Hammonton Paint. For every gallon is GUARANTEED!

Any one wishing to experiment with Paint is asked to do so at my expense. Paint one-half or any surface with Hammonton Paint, and the other half with any known Paint. If the Hammonton does not cover as much surface, and wear as long, under the same conditions, I will pay for all the paint used.

JOHN T. FRENCH, Hammonton Paint Works, Hammonton, N. J. Send for sample card or Colors.

A WORD TO THE SICK. Mental Suffering can cure where medical aid is an absolute failure. Distance is no hindrance to the Healer's power to heal. For terms, address or call on Mrs. J. D. Fairchild, Mental Healer and Teacher, Hammonton, N. J. (Five hours, 2 to 4 o'clock P.M.)

HARNESS. A full assortment of hand and machine made,—for work or driving. Trunks, Valises, Whips, Riding Saddles, Nets, etc. L. W. GOOLEY, Hammonton, N. J.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

Papers and magazines of all kinds, in any language, furnished at reduced rates by the Editor of the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Call and get our figures for anything of the kind wanted, whether literary, religious, trade, or any other sort of periodical.

Press the Button, It Opens and Lights. The Magic Self-lighting Pocket Lamp. No top, no chimney, no glass, no fuel, no smoke, no smell, no noise, no flickering, no dimming, no danger, no expense, no trouble, no worry, no pain, no suffering, no death, no hell, no heaven, no nothing.

Biggs & Elvins, Dealers in all kinds of Bicycles & Tricycles. Quadrant, Broncho, Victor, Michigan, Strong, and other "Favorites" for sale at Philadelphia prices.

A limited number of Bicycles to be sold in piers, at most-reduced rates. N. B. These living machines are held responsible for breakage.

Miss E. Marryatt, Teacher of The Piano and Organ. Pupils advanced rapidly and thoroughly by my method. Particular attention given to the position of the hand, fingering, etc. Privilege practice. Terms moderate. Hammonton and its vicinity.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, AUG. 9, 1890.

There is still some hope of a moderate crop of grapes.

Mr. G. Heide has been appointed post-master of South Atlantic City.

Mrs. C. F. Crowell and little daughter are visiting in Atlantic City.

Miss Kate Dixon, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Hammonton.

Masters—Harry—Davison and Tom—Cline are glorying in Atlantic City.

Mr. Mack and family have removed from Columbus, Ohio, to Hammonton.

Born, on Saturday, August 2nd, 1890, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duer, a daughter.

Hon. George Elvins and brother John went to Atlantic yesterday, for a short rest.

Potatoes promise a fine yield in this vicinity,—so say all of whom we have inquired.

Mertie J. is fairly dying with laughter over "St. Klegg and his Pard," an army story.

Ahem! how about those new cross-walks? We haven't seen them yet: have you?

Mrs. Theo. B. Brown has spent several weeks at Delaware Water Gap, with her daughter.

Squire Pressy will take a short vacation, and spend it in that popular place of resort—Maine.

Mr. William Lehman, for seven years past in the United States Navy, is visiting his brother Frantz.

S. E. Brown & Co. have a contract for ten or more driving wells for the Winslow Glass Company.

A syndicate (backed by the Reading Company, it is said) will build a $750,000 hotel at Atlantic City.

Mr. J. S. Patterson has the prettiest, lightest, and most costly row-boat on the Lake,—a recent purchase.

Frank E. Roberts' advertisement will be changed next week. The copy reached us too late for this issue.

Ocean Wile, the English dule, is expected at Atlantic City soon. He will find plenty of wild company.

Our Russell Post will probably be well represented at the G. A. R. encampment in Boston, next week.

Rev. James H. Baird, D. D., occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday, preaching very acceptably.

Mrs. A. W. Cochran is entertaining her mother and her cousin, Mr. H. Norris, from western New York.

We spent over fourteen hours in Atlantic City, Wednesday, and did not see a copy of their local dailies offered for sale.

Mr. D. H. Road is travelling for the Chase Nurseries. Mrs. Road will spend some weeks with relatives in Bay City, Mich.

The election officers under the new State law will probably be appointed by the County Board at their meeting on Tuesday next.

Easter Sweet's subject, to-morrow morning, will be "The Geology of the Bible,"—the seventh of his series on the folly of infidelity.

Mr. Carpenter returned home on Monday, manifestly much improved in health. He enjoyed his stay among the Catskill Mountains.

Mr. D. L. Potter spent several days with Hammonton friends, leaving on Wednesday. He and his family are well pleased with their Virginia farm and home.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, AUG. 9, 1890.

There is still some hope of a moderate crop of grapes.

Mr. G. Heide has been appointed post-master of South Atlantic City.

Mrs. C. F. Crowell and little daughter are visiting in Atlantic City.

Miss Kate Dixon, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Hammonton.

Masters—Harry—Davison and Tom—Cline are glorying in Atlantic City.

Mr. Mack and family have removed from Columbus, Ohio, to Hammonton.

Born, on Saturday, August 2nd, 1890, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duer, a daughter.

Hon. George Elvins and brother John went to Atlantic yesterday, for a short rest.

Potatoes promise a fine yield in this vicinity,—so say all of whom we have inquired.

Mertie J. is fairly dying with laughter over "St. Klegg and his Pard," an army story.

Ahem! how about those new cross-walks? We haven't seen them yet: have you?

Mrs. Theo. B. Brown has spent several weeks at Delaware Water Gap, with her daughter.

Squire Pressy will take a short vacation, and spend it in that popular place of resort—Maine.

Mr. William Lehman, for seven years past in the United States Navy, is visiting his brother Frantz.

S. E. Brown & Co. have a contract for ten or more driving wells for the Winslow Glass Company.

A syndicate (backed by the Reading Company, it is said) will build a $750,000 hotel at Atlantic City.

Mr. J. S. Patterson has the prettiest, lightest, and most costly row-boat on the Lake,—a recent purchase.

Frank E. Roberts' advertisement will be changed next week. The copy reached us too late for this issue.

Ocean Wile, the English dule, is expected at Atlantic City soon. He will find plenty of wild company.

Our Russell Post will probably be well represented at the G. A. R. encampment in Boston, next week.

Rev. James H. Baird, D. D., occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday, preaching very acceptably.

Mrs. A. W. Cochran is entertaining her mother and her cousin, Mr. H. Norris, from western New York.

We spent over fourteen hours in Atlantic City, Wednesday, and did not see a copy of their local dailies offered for sale.

Mr. D. H. Road is travelling for the Chase Nurseries. Mrs. Road will spend some weeks with relatives in Bay City, Mich.

The election officers under the new State law will probably be appointed by the County Board at their meeting on Tuesday next.

Easter Sweet's subject, to-morrow morning, will be "The Geology of the Bible,"—the seventh of his series on the folly of infidelity.

Mr. Carpenter returned home on Monday, manifestly much improved in health. He enjoyed his stay among the Catskill Mountains.

Mr. D. L. Potter spent several days with Hammonton friends, leaving on Wednesday. He and his family are well pleased with their Virginia farm and home.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, AUG.

JOHN ATKINSON,
Tailor,
Has opened a shop in Rutherford's Block
Hammonton.
Garments made in the best manner.
Scouring and Repairing promptly done.
Rates reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case.

Read the Republican.

FREE OUR NEW FREE
Solid Gold Watch
Worth $100.00. Real Gold
Watch in the world. Perfect timekeeper. Warranted every
SOLID GOLD hunting case.
Both ladies and gents sizes, with works and cases of equal value. ONE PERSON IN each locality can secure one of these watches together with our valuable line of Household
Samples. These samples, as well as the watch, are free. All the work you need do is to show what we send you to those who call—your friends and neighbors and those about you—that always result in valuable trade for you, which holds for years when once started, and thus we are really as we pay all express, freight, etc. After you know all, if you would like to go to work for us, you can earn from $20 to $40 per week on your own territory.
Harrison & Co., Box 512, Portland, Maine.

The Weekly Press.
PHILADELPHIA.
One Year for One Dollar.

The Weekly Press
For 1890 will be as much better than The Weekly Press for 1889 as we can make it. With every issue during the new year it will be
An Eighty Column Paper.
Each of the fifty-two numbers will contain ten pages—eighty columns—with the total for the year of 520 pages, or 1820 columns. Thus it will be "as big as a book," as the saying is.
A Paper of Quality.
Not only will it be as big as a book, but it will be a paper of quality as well as of quantity. It will contain the pick of everything good.
A Paper of Variety.
The idea is that The Weekly Press shall be both clean and wide-awake. It will discuss all subjects of public interest and importance. The writers on its list include: Julia Ward Howe, E. Lynn Linton, Prof. N. S. Silliman, Louis Pasteur, William Black, Edmund Gosse, Edgar W. Nye, Olo P. Read, and, indeed, almost every popular writer of note in this country and quite a number of distinguished writers abroad. In fiction, an attraction of the year will be "Escher," by H. Rider Haggard; another serial story, already engaged, will be "Come Forth," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps.
A Farmer's Paper.
The best conducted Agricultural Paper in America.
A Woman's Paper.
The "Women's Page" of The Weekly Press alone is worth the subscription price. Its illustrations are attracting attention everywhere.
A Children's Paper.
The Special Department for Children is now addressed to the school children and school teachers of America. Let the children join the Rainbow Club just started. Let them compete for the prizes—all bright, wholesome, instructive books.

Important Clubbing Arrangement.
By special arrangement with all the leading weekly and monthly periodicals of America, subscriptions are taken for any one or more of these journals in connection with The Weekly Press, at such low rates as virtually make our great family paper FREE to the subscriber for our year.

Terms of the Press.
By mail, postage free in the U. S. and Canada.
Daily (except Sunday), one year, $6.00
Daily (except Sunday), one month, .75
Daily (including Sunday), one month, .75
Sunday, one year, 2.00
Sunday, one month, .25
Weekly Press, one year, 1.00
Drafts, Checks, and all other remittances should be made payable to the order of
The Press Company, Limited,
PUBLISHERS.

Read the Republican.

A VOICE
from this, there is a Bishop HENRY C. POTTER, "Bural Reinforcement of City Population."
GEO. W. CABLE on "Some Strange Legislation in the South."
MARSHALL P. WILDER, "Humor of England and America."
HENRY W. GRADY, of the Atlanta Constitution, "Chance for Capital in the New South."
I. C. RUSSELL, United States Geological Survey, "High as Peaks of the United States."
W. M. GROSVENOR, "Gold and Silver as Money."
L. E. QUIGG, "What is Left of our Public Lands."
EMILY HUNTINGTON, "Household Science."
ERNEST WHITNEY, "Peculiarities of American Pronunciation."
Prof. WILLIAM PEPPER, Professor of University of Pennsylvania, "A College Education good for all; what is it for those who cannot get it."
Y. H. REAGAN, "Slayer of 430 B. A. A."
Other contributors will be announced hereafter. The articles will cost many thousands of dollars, and appear in The Tribune only.

FREE
One of the BEST TELEPHONES in the world. Our telephones are unexcelled, and to introduce our telephones to every PERSON in each locality, we have sent out one of our telephones free. Only those who write us at once can make sure of the chance. All you have to do is return to show our goods to those who call your neighbors and those around you. The beginning of this advertisement shows the small and the large. The following cut gives the appearance of it reduced to about the fifth part of its bulk. It is a grand, double street telephone, as large as a baby to carry. We will also show you how you can make from $5 to $10 a day at least, from the start, with our experience. Write to us for our circulars. We pay all express charges.
Address: H. HALLETT & CO., Box 500, PORTLAND, MAINE.

DR. LOBB
After all others fail
CONSULT
227 N. 12th St., below Callowhill, Phila., Pa.
Specialty: experience in all Special diseases. Personal attention to every case. Advice by early indications. Call or write. Advice by early indications. Hours: 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., and 7 to 10 evenings. Send 10c stamp for Book.

J. MURDOCH,
MANUFACTURER OF
SHOES.
Ladies' Men's and Children's
Shoes made to order.

Boys' Shoes a Specialty.
Repairing Neatly Done.

A good stock of shoes of all kinds always on hand.
First floor—Small's Block,
Hammonton. : : N. J.

$500
Sample Copy Prize!

We will send the Philadelphia Weekly Press
as a sample subscription
4 weeks for 10 c.
And will pay Five Hundred Dollars in Cash to the person sending us the largest number of these subscriptions before the first of September, 1890.

To any reader of the South
Jersey Republican
Who will send us 25 Sample Copy Subscriptions, at 10 Cents each, we'll send
The Weekly Press and South Jersey Republican, Both Free For One Year,
And register your name in competition for the $500 Prize. With each additional club of 25, a year's subscription to both papers will be sent free to any address the sender may name in the United States or Canada; but in all cases the order for the yearly subscription must accompany the club order.
You can send your first club now, and additional ones at any time before the first of September, 1890. Address
THE PRESS CO., Limited,
Philadelphia, Pa.

N. Y. Tribune for 1890.
NEW FEATURES.
A Brilliant Year Ahead.

During 1890 the New York Tribune will be greatly improved in quality, and made more lively, fresh and readable than ever before in its history. Among the special contributors during 1890 will be:
ANDREW CARNEGIE, "Principles of Business Success."
GAIL HAMILTON, "European Monarchs."
FERENCE V. POWDERLY, "Restriction of Immigration."
CHAUNCEY M. DEPLY, Senator JOHN J. INGALLS, Mrs. JOHN A. LOGAN, Rev. Dr. JOHN R. PENTON, and others, topics not announced.
ALBERT GRIFFIN, "Temperance among the Germans"—a new view.
JUDGE A. W. TOURGEE, "The Colored Race in America."
S. C. T. DODD, "The Advantages of Trusts."
"JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE," "The Small Salaries of Country Clergymen."
Senator WM. M. STEWART, of Nevada, "Unlimited Silver Coinage."
FRED S. TALMADGE, on "Men of the Revolution."
KATE FIELD, "Mormon Question."
ERASTUS WIMAN, "Success and Failure Among Business Men."
Rev. EDWARD EVERETT HALE, "The New England of To-Day."
Bishop HENRY C. POTTER, "Bural Reinforcement of City Population."
GEO. W. CABLE on "Some Strange Legislation in the South."
MARSHALL P. WILDER, "Humor of England and America."
HENRY W. GRADY, of the Atlanta Constitution, "Chance for Capital in the New South."
I. C. RUSSELL, United States Geological Survey, "High as Peaks of the United States."
W. M. GROSVENOR, "Gold and Silver as Money."
L. E. QUIGG, "What is Left of our Public Lands."
EMILY HUNTINGTON, "Household Science."
ERNEST WHITNEY, "Peculiarities of American Pronunciation."
Prof. WILLIAM PEPPER, Professor of University of Pennsylvania, "A College Education good for all; what is it for those who cannot get it."
Y. H. REAGAN, "Slayer of 430 B. A. A."
Other contributors will be announced hereafter. The articles will cost many thousands of dollars, and appear in The Tribune only.

Soldiers' Stories.
The Tribune will print, in addition to its regular G. A. R. and S. of V. page, a number of entertaining stories of Actual Experience in the War, not less than 25 in number, each a page of The Tribune in length, by privates and officers of the Union, of rank not higher than Captain. Veterans are invited to contribute to this series of stories. Every tale accepted will be paid for at regular newspaper rates. Prizes of $250, $150, and $100 will be paid for the best three. Manuscripts must be enclosed to "The Tribune, New York," and subscribed "Soldiers' Department."

Papers on Farming.
In addition to our regular and extremely able agricultural department (two pages a week), The Tribune will print a number of long and carefully prepared articles on particular branches of farming, written by practical experts. Farmers who want to make money out of their farms must read these special discussions in The Tribune.
Best Tribune Ever Seen
will be supplied to readers during the coming year. A large number of desirable and novel premiums are added to our list, and they are offered at terms which will enable our readers to obtain them practically at wholesale rates. Send 2 cent stamp for our 20 page catalogue.
Valuable Prizes.
One Hundred special prizes will be distributed on May 1, 1890, among the club agents who have, up to that date, sent in the largest 100 clubs of local weekly and semi-weekly subscribers. These will include a $1000 Piano, a $500 Cabinet Organ, a $150 Solitaire Diamond, a free Trip to New York with expenses there paid, etc., etc., being worth a total of $2,440. Prizes are fully described in our catalogue; send a 2 cent stamp for a copy.
Sample Copy of The Tribune free.
Subscription Rates.—Weekly, $1 a year. Semi-weekly, $2. New subscribers receive the paper until Jan. 1, 1890, free. Daily, $10 a year. Library of Tribune Extras, 12 numbers a year, $2.
THE TRIBUNE, New York.

The Republicans of North Dakota, at their recent State Convention, adopted a resolution against existing lotteries in other states, and in favor of an amendment to their own state constitution forever forbidding the chartering these institutions by North Dakota. All honor to the Republicans of one of the youngest of the sisterhood of States for their honest, straightforward and manly action.

Last Saturday, Senator Plum offered a resolution recommending Congress to take some action for the removal of the remains of Gen. Grant to the Potomac. Senator Edmunds requested that the resolution be acted on at once.

The reports announcing that the Democrats carried the state election in Alabama on Monday add that "the negroes remained away from the polls"—thus unconsciously implying a clear case of cause and effect. The drop-a-Republican-ballot-in-the-box-and-get-a-Democratic-bullet-in-your-body system has no charms for the Alabama negro.

Happy Hoosiers.
Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware-merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50 cts. a bottle, at Geo. Elvins' store."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Allen Brown Endicott,
Counselor-at-Law,
Real Estate and Law Building,
ATLANTIC CITY. : N. J.

Valley Avenue Egg Farm
Eggs for Hatching, from selected stock carefully mated. R. C. E. Leghorns a specialty.
W. H. H. Bradbury,
Hammonton, N. J.

Star Bone Fertilizer
Is what delights farmers,
And I have several other kinds.
About 90 good Berry Crates to sell at a bargain.
A good line of
Dry Goods, Groceries, Feed, Hardware, etc.
WILL M. GALBRAITH,
Elm Grocer.
P. S.—I have a good Farm Horse for sale,—$50.

Sweeping Price Reductions

Preferring to carry Uncle Sam's Dollars to a big stock, we have inaugurated a Great June Sale.
Sweeping Price Reductions!
A rare chance to get Fine Clothing far below regular prices.
A. C. YATES & Co.
6th and Chestnut Sts., (Ledger Building), 11th and Chestnut Streets.

M. L. Jackson Sells

All Vegetables in their Season.

His Wagons run through the Town and Vicinity

Camden and Atlantic Railroad.
Saturday, June 28, 1890.
DOWN TRAINS.

STATIONS.	Mail a.m.	At. A. p.m.	Acco. p.m.	Exp. p.m.	Exp. p.m.	S. Exp. a.m.	Su. Ac. a.m.	S. Exp. a.m.	Su. Ac. p.m.
Philadelphia	4 45	8 00	4 20	5 00	4 10	8 30	8 00	7 30	4 00
Camden	4 55	8 10	4 32	5 10	4 20	8 40	8 12	7 40	4 10
Haddonfield	5 05	8 20	4 42	5 20	4 30	8 50	8 22	7 50	4 20
Berlin	5 15	8 30	4 52	5 30	4 40	9 00	8 32	8 00	4 30
Ato	5 25	8 40	5 02	5 40	4 50	9 10	8 42	8 10	4 40
Waterford	5 35	8 50	5 12	5 50	5 00	9 20	8 52	8 20	4 50
Winslow	5 45	9 00	5 22	6 00	5 10	9 30	9 02	8 30	5 00
Hammonton	5 55	9 10	5 32	6 10	5 20	9 40	9 12	8 40	5 10
Da Costa	6 05	9 20	5 42	6 20	5 30	9 50	9 22	8 50	5 20
Elwood	6 15	9 30	5 52	6 30	5 40	10 00	9 32	9 00	5 30
Egg Harbor City	6 25	9 40	6 02	6 40	5 50	10 10	9 42	9 10	5 40
Absecon	6 35	9 50	6 12	6 50	6 00	10 20	9 52	9 20	5 50
Atlantic City	6 45	10 00	6 22	7 00	6 10	10 30	10 02	9 30	6 00

UP TRAINS.

STATIONS.	Exp. a.m.	At. A. a.m.	Exp. a.m.	Exp. p.m.	Acco. p.m.	Su. Ac. a.m.	S. Ac. p.m.	Sunday Exp. p.m.	Exp. p.m.
Philadelphia	8 00	9 00	9 10	7 30	5 20	9 35	7 30	9 35	11 20
Camden	7 55	8 55	9 02	7 22	5 15	9 27	7 13	9 48	11 12
Haddonfield	7 50	8 50	8 57	7 17	5 10	9 18	7 08	9 39	11 04
Berlin	7 45	8 45	8 52	7 12	5 05	9 09	6 59	9 30	10 56
Ato	7 40	8 40	8 47	7 07	5 00	9 00	6 50	9 21	10 48
Waterford	7 35	8 35	8 42	7 02	4 55	8 51	6 41	9 12	10 40
Winslow	7 30	8 30	8 37	6 57	4 50	8 42	6 32	9 03	10 32
Hammonton	7 25	8 25	8 32	6 52	4 45	8 33	6 23	8 54	10 24
Da Costa	7 20	8 20	8 27	6 47	4 40	8 24	6 14	8 45	10 16
Elwood	7 15	8 15	8 22	6 42	4 35	8 15	6 05	8 36	10 08
Egg Harbor City	7 10	8 10	8 17	6 37	4 30	8 06	5 55	8 27	10 00
Absecon	7 05	8 05	8 12	6 32	4 25	7 57	5 50	8 18	9 52
Atlantic City	6 40	7 40	7 45	6 00	3 00	7 30	4 55	7 00	9 50

Dr. J. A. Waas,
RESIDENT
DENTIST,
HAMMONTON, : : N. J.
Office Days,—Tuesday, Wednesday
Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
GAS ADMINISTERED—50 Cts.
No charge for extracting with gas, when teeth are ordered.

* Stops only to take on passengers for Atlantic City.
† Stops only on signal, to let off passengers.
‡ Stops only on signal, to take on passengers.
The Hammonton accommodation has not been changed—leaves Hammonton at 6:05 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Leaves Philadelphia at 10:40 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.
On Saturday night, the Ato Accommodation, leaving Philadelphia (Market Street) at 11:45, runs to Hammonton, arriving at 1:05, and runs back to Ato.

HUMPHREYS'
Dr. Humphreys' Specifics are scientifically and carefully prepared prescriptions used for many years in private practice with success, and for over thirty years used by the people. Every single Specific is a special cure for the disease named. These Specifics cure without dragging, purging or reducing the system, and are in fact not only the most sovereign remedies of the World.
LIST OF PRINCIPAL SORE CURES. PRICES.
1 Fever, Congestion, Inflammation... 25c
2 Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic... 25c
3 Crying Colic, or Teething of Infants... 25c
4 Diarrhea, of Children or Adults... 25c
5 Dysentery, Griping, Bilious Colic... 25c
6 Cholera Morbus, Vomiting... 25c
7 Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis... 25c
8 Neuralgia, Toothache, Faciache... 25c
9 Headaches, Sick Headache, Vertigo... 25c
10 Dyspepsia, Bilious Stomach... 25c
11 Suppressed or Painful Periods... 25c
12 Whites, too Profuse Periods... 25c
13 Croup, Cough, Difficult Breathing... 25c
14 Salt Rheum, Erysipelas... 25c
15 Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains... 25c
16 Fever and Ague, Chills, Malaria... 25c
17 Piles, Blind or Bleeding... 25c
18 Catarrhs, Indigestion, Colic in the Head... 25c
19 Whooping Cough, Violent Coughs... 25c
20 General Debility, Physical Weakness... 25c
21 Kidney Disease... 1.00
22 Nervous Debility, Colic in the Head... 25c
23 Urinary Weakness, Wetting Bed... 25c
24 Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation 1.00
Sold by Druggists, or sent postpaid on receipt of price. Dr. HUMPHREYS' MANUAL, (144 pages) richly bound in cloth and gold, mailed free. Humphreys' Medicine Co., 109 Fulton St., N. Y.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION
I believe PISO'S Cure for Consumption saved my life.—A. H. DOWELL, Editor Enquirer, Edenton, N. C., April 23, 1887.
PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION
The BEST Cough Medicine is PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION. Children take it without objection. By all druggists, 25c.

Magazines and Newspapers
Of all kinds, at
Club Rates,
at the Republican Office.

YANKEE KING ARTHUR'S COURT
This is the best...
AGENTS WANTED
To whom assignments of territory will be given.
THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS
to be given away as prizes to agents.
Send for circulars.
Chas. L. Hilditch, 3 East 4th St., New York.

The NEW SINGER VIBRATOR,
MADE BY THE
Singer Manufacturing Co.,
With lightning speed; has automatic tension, with thread releaser; self-threading and easy to change; uses all kinds of thread and silk; leaves short ends, and does not snarl.— This is emphatically
THE VEST MAKER'S MACHINE.
For sale by
FRANK BALDWIN, Hammonton, N. J.