ELVINS & ROBERTS

Just opened,—another barrel of those Irish Mackerel, which we think are a little ahead of any previous lot, being large, (weighing from one to one and one-half pounds each) bright and fat, just the thing for breakfast this hot weather, the price, too, is an object. While the wholesale market has advanced $1 to $1.50 per barrel, we still hold the price down to old figures, viz, 10c. per pound.

Baby Mixed Cakes.

This is another new Cake, and a good one, too. Remember, fresh new goods. We think them equal to many other varieties that command a much higher price. We quote at 9c.

Pretzels.

Owing to the ever increasing demand for this class of Cakes, we have been induced to purchase in larger quantities than formerly. Consequently, we are able to name an extremely low price, viz: 12c. per pound, which, if you remember is 4 cts. below the regular price. We warrant them to be equal to the higher priced goods in every way.

Nic-Nacs.

These are also very popular, especially with the little folks and to make it interesting we make the price 6c. per pound which is just one-half value.

Granulated Sugar.

Sugar seems to be a bone of contention just now, altho' the schedule seems to be fixed at this writing, we keep the price of Granulated steady at 5c., although by consulting the papers you will say "not much money in that." But what of that? There is lots of "glory." We hear that some are asking 5½c.

Don't forget us when you need Store Wood. As mentioned last week, we have a large stock of 1st class, which we deliver free of charge, $1.50 per rank (one-fourth cord).

Peerless Coffee Cakes and Ginger Snaps are certainly leaders. Jobbers are talking higher prices for theirs, but for the present we hold the price at 5c. per pound. Quality never better.

How about Fruit Jars? It may be you have forgotten the extremely low figure we made on Jars some weeks since. We simply wish to remind you that those prices still hold, viz:

Large Mouthed Pints, - - - 48 c. per dozen,
 " " Quarts, - - - 55 c. " "
 " " Gallon, - - - 80 c. " "

These are not seconds, as many would suppose, but A1 in every particular.

Tin Fruit Cans are also a little off in price this season. We quote to start them, 40 c. per dozen, Wax Strings, 5 cents per dozen extra.

Pickles, in quart self-sealing jars is the latest addition to stock. These goods are put up in very attractive style, and have this advantage over many others, in that you can use the jar for other purposes when the pickles are out. And another advantage—you get a full quart of pickles and the jar for about what the pickles would cost if bought by the dozen. Try a jar the next time you want anything of the kind. We think you will be pleased with them. 25 cents.

While prices of Feed have experienced a sharp advance within a few days, you will find our prices as low as the lowest for anything in the line.

Flour has also advanced somewhat, but we hold prices down to old figures for the present. We quote—

Best Spring Wheat, $4.50
 Best Winter Wheat, $4.50
 Good Family Flour, $3.50

New Salt Hay is now in, and was never finer in quality. We have also a little choice Mixed Fresh Hay, of last year's crop still in stock.

Let us have your orders.

The days are growing shorter.

A fine rain last Sunday, lasting nearly all day. More of it on Monday. A drizzling shower on Wednesday evening.

One man went so far as to buy a "plug" hat and pair of black gloves in which to attend Wm. Rutherford's funeral. Now he wants to sell them to Mr. Rutherford.

Miss Masson, of Baltimore, from the Vanderbilt Conservatory of Music, New York, is visiting Miss Kate Wilson. She is charming our people by her ability as a vocalist.

Mrs. Merritt Hall, of Camden, spent a week or more with Hammonton relatives and friends, and was well pleased with the improvements noted since her last visit.

There will be a party on Mr. Cottrell's lawn, Central Avenue, on Saturday evening, August 25th. Conducted by St. Mark's Parish Guild. Please bear it in mind.

Alonzo B. Davis will move his house from Vine Street near Second to the central lot on Second St. between Grape and Cherry Streets. Mr. Starvant is doing the work.

Universal Church to-morrow: morning subject, "Doing and Knowing;" evening, "David and the King's Armor." Miss Masson of Baltimore will sing at the morning service.

As Ex-Speaker Reed intimated the other day the approaching Congressional campaign is going to be a picnic for the Republicans, with all the refreshments furnished by the other party.

M. E. Church to-morrow: morning subject, "Samson's seven locks;" evening, No. 5 of illustrated talks on Pilgrim's Progress, subject, "Hill of Difficulty, on the way to the Celestial City."

Mrs. H. J. Zelley, wife of a former pastor of the M. E. Church, died on Tuesday, at their home in Moorestown, after prolonged illness. Funeral Friday afternoon, in the M. E. Church, Mount Holly.

J. Wesley Buzby owns a hog that has lately shed its skin, as a snake does, the whole thick hide, hair and all. The hog is not sick, has missed but one meal, yet there lays the old skin, and a new one has formed, with hair growing on one side, the other as bare as a bald head. Did you ever see the like?

I have caught several parties stealing my fruit. Parents take warning, and do all in your power to keep your children out of bad company and bad habits. Think how you will feel if your boy is sent to prison for stealing. It is time to make an example, so don't expect any mercy.

A FRUIT GROWER.
 [The writer of the above has suffered beyond endurance from losses of fruit, and proposes to make an example of certain ones. Others have cause for complaint in the same line. Parents should take more interest in the whereabouts of their boys. This hint should be sufficient.]

A white hired man at the Winslow Junction Hotel shot and killed the colored cook last Sunday. The woman was washing dishes when the man entered the kitchen door, took deliberate aim and sent the contents of a gun into the back of her head,—almost instantly killing her. When the landlord and others rushed in to ascertain the cause of the shot, she was leaning on her elbows in the sink, a gaping wound in her head. The murderer took it very quietly, saying: "I shot her; send for an officer to arrest me," and waited about the house until a messenger went to Elm, and Constable Sweet arrived. No cause for the act is known, as the two were very friendly, but jealousy is reported. The prisoner awaits trial in the Camden jail. The woman's remains were taken to Maryland by undertaker Jewitt, on Thursday. Two Hammontonians were at the Hotel when the shooting occurred, having taken refuge there during the storm.

During June and July there was an enormous amount of raw sugar imported into this country,—more than twice as much as in corresponding months of last year. This means an enormous profit for the Trust. They have imported this sugar free of duty, and will sell it to the people as if a tariff of forty per cent ad valorem had been levied on it, as provided for in the Gorman tariff bill, just passed.

What did Senator Gorman mean when he referred in open session of the Senate to his journey through filth and mire for Cleveland's sake in 1884?

Among the novel features at Atlantic City last week was the Coxey army taking a salt water bath.

[Entered as second class matter.]
SATURDAY, AUG. 18, 1894.

On Monday the House of Representatives accepted the Senate tariff bill without a single change, and formally passed that measure by a vote of 182 to 105. It was an unconditional surrender on the part of the House, and a humiliating defeat for the administration. After all their high sounding protestations of fidelity to the Wilson bill, and notwithstanding the utterance of the President that to abandon that bill for the Senate substitute would mean "partly petty and partly dishonor," the Democrats of the House have stultified themselves by eating their own words, and have condemned the bulk of their party to a steady diet of crow. It is said that the President will allow the bill to become a law without his signature, and that he contemplates signing with the bill a memorandum stating why he withholds his signature. Just what he expects to gain by such a course does not appear. If he thinks that by filing an individual protest against the hot-potch tariff bill he will escape any of the responsibility that attaches thereto, he deceives himself. It lies in his power to defeat the infamous measure by vetoing it, and if he refuses to exercise that power on him will rest the responsibility. Mr. Wilson is bitterly disappointed at the way things have taken and makes no effort to disguise his feelings. He states that under the bill as adopted the Sugar Trust will make a profit of from twenty-five to forty million dollars during the next twelve months, and fears that this will have a bad effect on the people. Mr. Bourke Cockran is entirely out of patience with his party, and was bold enough to assert on the floor of the House that it was "the most discreditable page in the history of the American government." Nobody will take issue with him on that point. As for Speaker Crisp, he swallowed himself completely. He had stood right alongside the President in his demand for free raw material and yet was the prime mover in securing the adoption of the Senate bill. The most childlike move on the part of the House was the attempt made to delude the people of the country by subsequently rushing through separate bills making coal, iron, sugar and barbed wire free of duty. This was a simple case of bluff, for the majority knew perfectly well that there was no chance of getting those bills through the Senate. So far as the bill for free sugar is concerned it was arrant hypocrisy, for even the President wants sugar taxed, and no administration Democrat has the remotest idea of making that product free. The Democratic party ought to be proud of its representatives at the National Capital, — they have achieved the distinction of making the worst mess on record.

The auditorium at Ocean Grove was formally dedicated last Thursday. After a prayer and a song, a sermon was delivered by Chaplain McCabe. He was followed by Dr. C. E. Maudeville, of Chicago, who delivered a lecture on "The Seven Churches of Asia." Chaplain McCabe related the bright side of life in Libby Prison during the war. The tariff on sugar, as fixed by the Democratic "reform" bill, is expected to yield an annual revenue of from forty five to fifty millions of dollars, every penny of which will be paid by the consumers of sugar throughout the country. This will be a real burden and one which has been shown as wholly unnecessary. The Democrats will find out before they are much older that they have made a colossal mistake in surrendering to the Sugar Trust.

The worst blow at the saloons so far is the internal revenue provision in the new Tariff bill making alcohol used in medicinal preparations free of tax. "Spiritus frumenti et aqua pura in quantum sufficit" is a medical preparation. Hereafter everybody will go to the drug stores for their whiskey and water or whiskey and apollinaris.

It is going to take a tremendous majority this year to win the distinction of being the banner Republican State. The Ocean City camp meeting will begin on August 20th and continue ten days. The Hunterdon County Peach Exchange is open for the season and some fine fruit is being shipped. It is estimated that the cranberry crop in New Jersey this year will not be more than half what it was last year. It is not the woman who fires up the quickest that makes the best match.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.
Capt. Crawford dropped in upon his family and friends this week, after a successful trip to Southern ports.
Rev. J. C. Killian and his friend Rev. F. G. Johnson spent part of the week with friends at Atlantic City.
It will take a lot of rain to bring the green back," said the farmer, looking sadly across his yellowed field of corn.
Mrs. Chas. Veale and infant daughter, of Vineland, spent a few days this week among Hamonton friends.
Dr. J. A. Waas will take his usual summer vacation, — leaving town next Saturday the 20th, to return Sept. 3rd.
Miss Louie Hamer, of Philadelphia, is visiting at Folsom, with the family of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Chalmers.
Courtright, the photographer, is making beautiful work. His crayons are made by his own hand. They are A No. 1.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will spend a week or so with Mr. L. G. Horn and at their old home in Lower Bank.
Leave your laundry work with A. H. Simons, at the news-room. Prices as low as any reliable house, and satisfaction guaranteed.
The Hamonton Cycle and Athletic Club will give a lawn party on Saturday, Sept. 1st, on C. S. Newcomb's lawn. All invited.
At the Baptist Church to-morrow morning subject, "Missions." Evening, "The superiority of the religion of Christ over all other things."

Mrs. W. C. Norwood, of Baltimore, (formerly Miss Ephreine Tilton) and her little son, spent a number of days this week with Hamonton friends.
COW FOR SALE.—One of the best and best bred cows of the county for sale. Inquire at the PUBLISHER'S office, or at the Editor's residence.
The postal facilities so long afforded residents in the upper part of town have been discontinued, and no one is pleased thereat. There are various reasons assigned for the move, but the truth is, Mr. Elvins stated the sum for which he would continue the service, but Postmaster French considered the amount too high, and declined to pay it. There are rumors of a new arrangement, which we hope will be made.
Remember the special school meeting next Saturday afternoon. The only question to be voted upon is the raising by tax $1900 or less to purchase text books for all pupils, as is required by the new law. The District Clerk believes that the holder of our school bonds will consent to the postponing of the payment of one bond for $1000 due next January, to lessen the burden of taxation this year. Would it be wise to accept this?

LOTS FOR SALE. Three lots N. E. corner of 1st and First Streets, Hamonton, 50 x 100 feet each. A fine business site, next to the hardware store, Bellevue Ave., lot 30 x 91 feet. Buildings for sale. — Miss, sell before Fall. — Address: Mrs. M. COOK, 62 George St., Baltimore, Md.
James Jones, a colored boy, son of William Jones, was an inmate of the State Reform School at Jamesburg for several years. Some time ago he was released and took up his abode with his mother, at Salem. A few weeks ago he wrote to his father expressing a desire to come to Hamonton and live with him. The father sent him money to pay his fare, met him in Philadelphia, brought him home, clothed him, and boarded him until he found a job at Atkins' stable. The boy worked for a little while then was induced to leave with two white tramps, taking with him a valuable watch chain and canoe belonging to his father. The boy should be returned to the Reform School until of age.
Now for a trip to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove. The Odd Fellows of Vineland, Bridgeton and Hamonton will give an excursion to these popular resorts on Monday, Sept. 3rd, Labor Day. From all over the State members of the order will gather, and for the first time in history, a secret society has been given the freedom of Ocean Grove for the day. Further, the grand new auditorium, costing $25,000 — just completed — has been placed at the disposal of the Order, and Rev. Dr. Stokes will deliver the address of welcome. We should like to see a crowd of Hamontonians take this in. Fare from Vineland Junction, Two Dollars. Tickets for sale by members of the Lodge. More about it next week.

The Coxy Army

The Coxy Army have been here. They came into town on Monday, and proved to be a quiet inoffensive lot of men, though ragged and dirty looking, as tramps usually are. They paraded up the avenue, forty-six strong, headed by the famous Carl Brown and a "bum" — the whistle, tenor and base drum — large flying. They camped on the vacant lot west of Folsom's paint factory until Wednesday morning. Monday night, Brown addressed a large assemblage near the station for nearly three hours. Of course he said some good things, and more foolish ones; stated some unpleasant truths, more unfounded theories; but did not give us much idea as to how he proposed to accomplish his many desired reforms. He was rather a pleasant speaker, and skillful in crayon drawing, has an excellent memory, and amused his audience. They passed the hat a couple of times and raked in a goodly amount. On Tuesday evening another member of the army made an address, the matter of it indicating that the speaker was soured against all humanity. He is not Brown's equal by any means. Many were disappointed, expecting from rumors that the man was a gang of outlaws, beggars, and all that. We have yet to hear of any one case of disorderly conduct among them while here. — They are misguided, of course, but are having a whole summer's picnic — literally roughing it, but seemingly none the worse, physically. Carl Brown called upon us twice, and seems a hearty good humored enthusiast, full of his projects, hopeful of success.

D. B. HENRY, for the next two years will be in Hamonton, and will be in the city. People seeking glasses, or wishing to have their eyes scientifically examined, should call on him at the store of Mr. E. J. Wood, on Saturday of each week, or write him a postal card, and he will call at your house.

Per Perry's got money—he use 't smoke his pipe, nights an' rainy days, over at my place...

Defense of the Concho.

BY HARRIET J. WHITNEY.

WAS young Lee from the old trouble place that came...

for Perry's got money—he use 't smoke his pipe, nights an' rainy days, over at my place...

at her, 'bain' too dead beat by his eighth mile run 't raise his head, though he knew...

place over our heads an' drive us out, like rats from a shabby ship...

A LITTLE EDEN. Amid all the trouble which is at present worrying the landowners of the South...

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON. AUGUST 2, 1914. First Disciples of Jesus. LESSON TEXT...

MOONRISE. This golden moonlight, this gleam of light, through my window...

AN ABORIGIN. "Sally, you are a saint to help me out in this way. I had not known you were so kind-hearted..."

for Perry's got money—he use 't smoke his pipe, nights an' rainy days, over at my place...

at her, 'bain' too dead beat by his eighth mile run 't raise his head, though he knew...

It will be a long time before this country will vote for another dose of Democratic "tariff reform."

We cannot understand why a White Supremacy League has been organized in Louisiana. Is white supremacy in danger in that State?

There is one thing to be placed to the credit of the Democratic Senators,—they stay bought.

Senator Hill may never be nominated for the Presidency by the Democrats, but he will always have the satisfaction of looking back to the fun he had with the Democratic Senators at this session of Congress.

The Louisiana sugar planters were a little late in sending a delegation to Washington. The Sugar Trust had already bought everything in sight.
