HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1915

No. 34

Civic Club library will be open this evening.

Alex. Wetherbee's condition is reported to be improving, at St. Agnes' Hospital.

Rev. A. W. Anderson, a former pastor here, will occupy the Baptist pulpit to-morrow.

Louis I. Repetto, Esq., of Atlantic City, is enjoying Hammonton air for a few weeks.

Little Ha-Ha Council went to Tuckerton yesterday, for a picnic, — a great truck load of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thomas tender thanks to friends for kind words and deeds during their recent bereavement.

Hammonton Fire Companies have invitations to participate in Egg Harbor City's carnival, on Thursday, Sept. 16th.

Chas. Davenport was awarded the contract to alter First Road school house, — adding two rooms to the already roomy structure.

Miss Helen Loane occupies the desk in the Littlefield Ice and Coal Company office while Miss Edith Leonard is enjoying a vacation.

Friends will be glad to hear that John W. Roller was so much better on Wednesday that he was out in the hospital yard, smoking a cigar.

E. T. Batchelor could take the prize raising tomatoes. He has two on display that weigh a total of three pounds three ounces, — the larger one balancing one and three quarter pounds.

Shaumunkin Tribe expect to go to Egg Harbor on Saturday, Sept. 18th, and enter the parade in the evening. There will be many more go with them in carriages, jitneys, on trains and cycles.

Gibson B. Thomas, brother of Robert E. Thomas, himself well known here, died in Philadelphia on Monday last, aged sixty years. His remains were brought to Hammonton, and buried in Greenmount Cemetery on Wednesday.

A CARD. We wish to thank the many friends for their words and acts of sympathy; also for their manifestations of regard for our loved one in the sending of beautiful flowers.

F. C. DUDLEY and PARENTS,
A. H. SIMONS and FAMILY.

Rev. Wm. Evererd, a minister of the Anglican Church, is expected to visit Hammonton in September. He has traveled extensively, spent some years in the far East, notably in Egypt. It is possible he may give a lecture while here, taking as his topic, "Curious Religions of Egyptian Nations." His travels and studies qualify him to give an instructive talk.

Un-Claimed Letters.

The following letters remained unclaimed for in the Hammonton Post Office on Wednesday, August 18, 1915:

Mr. C. C. Curran Mrs. Angelina Hernandez
Frank (Harboe) (box 100) Cecilia Manina
Mr. Harry J. Nullook Mrs. Mary Bittler

Persons calling for any of the above will please state that it has been advertised.

LOUIS J. LANGHAM, P. M.

Another Serious Accident.

Monday night, about ten o'clock, Abraham Sorden and Thomas Mott were on their way home. When crossing at County Road and Vine Street, Mr. Sorden was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. Bonham, of the firm Burke & Bonham, Twelfth Street road contractors. He was knocked down, and the car passed over him. The driver stopped and took the injured man to Dr. Bitler, who found three ribs fractured on one side, two on the other, one lung punctured, chest and one arm bruised, and a bad cut on the back of his head. After treatment he was taken home, and is said to be "doing well" for one so battered up.

No one blames Mr. Bonham, as he was running leisurely, the pedestrians stepping out in front of the car so quickly that he had no time to stop.

Mott was evidently knocked clear of the car, and did not have to wait for assistance.

Thimble-see, next Friday, 28th, at three o'clock, at the Civic Club room.

Peter T. Ranere's "American" automobile was burned, on Tuesday morning, on Third Street near Cemetery Avenue, caused, probably, by a leakage of gasoline. Mr. R. was on his way to the city when he discovered the blaze in the front of the car, which he soon extinguished with sand. A few minutes later the tank, evidently, blazed up, and before the downtown fire company could get there it had nearly burned itself out. Two tanks of chemicals were used by the firemen. The car had been lately overhauled, having been on fire before.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Baptist Church, Sunday, Aug. 22. Rev. A. W. Anderson, a former pastor, is expected to preach, both morning and evening. 11:45 a.m., Bible School. 6:45 p.m., V. P. S. C. E. prayer and testimony service.

All-Soul's Church—Universalist. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. No evening service.

St. Mark's Church. Twelfth Sunday after Trinity. Morning Prayer and Holy Communion, 7:00; Morning Prayer and Litany, 10:30. Sunday School at 11:45; Evening Prayer, 7:30.

St. Bartholomew's Day (Aug. 24). Morning Prayer and Holy Communion, 7:00; Evening Prayer at 4:30.

Presbyterian Church, for August. Morning worship at 10:30. Bible Study, Sabbath School, and Men's Bible Class, at noon. Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p.m. Thursday evening prayer service at 7:45.

Town Council Meeting.

All members, except Mr. Tell were present at Wednesday evening's adjourned meeting.

The important items for which they held the meeting were the passage of two ordinances, first reading, — authorizing repairing and resurfacing of Bellevue Ave., up to Third Street, and one requiring the installation of gas, water, and sewerage along the line of said improvements, — both passing by unanimous vote.

Highway Committee was authorized to have a section of Egg Harbor Road curb, at Vine Street, raised, so that the County can raise the street and drain that corner.

Check was received from Burke & Bonham, Twelfth Street contractors, for $202.40, for gravel used from Town pit.

Agreed, that the Solicitor notify those who have not yet made connection with the sewer, to do so.

Attention was called to wash-outs at various points, — Pleasant Street and Reading Railroad, on Hammonton Avenue, and stopped-up drain on Maple Street.

Other matters were discussed, which will be ripe for action next Wednesday evening.

Adjourned at ten-thirty.

Notice to Peach Growers.

No other class of farmers in the county are more progressive than the peach growers, and it is hard to find growers who take any more care in their grading and packing. However, there are always a few points not quite as clear as they might be; therefore, to assist the growers especially in the packing and shipping of peaches, a new bulletin on this subject is being issued at the present time, which will cover a great many phases of the packing question, and it will also deal with the shipping.

This bulletin is being issued from the Experiment Station, but it will not be ready for distribution in the regular manner for at least two weeks; however, I have arranged to secure a few copies in advance. If the growers who are interested in this bulletin will send a card to me, a copy will be forwarded to them. HILWOOD DOUGLASS, County Farm Demonstrator, May's Landing, N. J.

Famous Winter Resort

Because Florida is the most famous winter resort in America, it is not in the world. It is still thought of in these latitudes merely as a land of the wealthy tourists, the idlers, the playboys of winter golf, the opulent caterer of big fish, the wearied seaman of revived health.

It is unfortunate, so sensitive to cold in temperate regions it can only be grown in hot houses. There its growth is so rapid that it has been known to spring from the ground and attain a height of twenty feet in less than six weeks.

The Historic City Gates of St. Augustine, Florida

As the sergeant was bawling out the recruits, switching the list of feet as the war recruits endeavored to obey the word of command, he found to his astonishment that one recruit of feet—more noticeable on account of their extra large size—never turned.

Without taking his eyes off these feet the sergeant bawled out, "About turn!" He could see that all the feet except those that were watched turned in obedience. Rushing up to the owner, a little fellow, he asked him for the shoulder, shouting: "Why don't you turn with the rest?"

"Why, I did," replied the trembling recruit, "but they never moved." "It's the boots they gave me, sir," said the poor fellow. "They're so large that when I turn my feet turns in them."

Among the many extraordinary customs of the Chinese is that of hanging yearns together in groups of twelves, called "chies," and hanging each year of the series after some animal. Thus, the first year of a new cycle is the year of the Rat, the second the year of the Ox, the third the year of the Tiger, etc.

Wilm and woolly, his little eyes glancing defiantly at the judge, whom he had seen on many previous occasions, Bill Stog stood in the dock. He was wearing a local celebrity's Bill, and was famed for the frizziness he displayed in the "management" of the dock.

A REPLY TO THE PLAINT OF THE FISHMIST.

There was a trace of bitterness in a complaint issued the other day. A woman who has traveled rather far and very well on her life road and who has gathered to herself quite a measure of success, financially and otherwise, reflectively remarked:

"But what great difference does it make? When you die, there is always some one waiting round the door to take your life and give it to you. It is, you drop out with scarcely a ripple. The sun shines and the rain falls the same as ever, and the world moves on, untroubled and untroubled by your successor. And even the few tears are soon wiped away. I tell you, it makes a woman feel sort of small and unimportant, right in her own little circle."

And what could the listener do but agree? Because that over has been the way of the world since ever was. Add doubtless it is well that it should.

But before she turned away she remembered that there was a man who reminded her friend, that folk managed to win their way to the very places they desired most of all, were the worst kind of failure. The rest is left to the future.

Most of us, quite likely, never will travel very far, and we expect to drop out without any commotion, but though our place may be quite obscure we would not like to think that if folk had their way they would not claim the same success right now. For that is but natural.

When we grasp this full meaning, that it is not a matter of degree, but a matter of fact, we shall be able to see that we were royally well once, but which would shut us door in our face if we went knocking against it.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

There is a certain police court of an ancient town built near the ship-building yards, and proceedings in the court are frequently interrupted by the half and half shouting industry.

On a recent occasion the court was a constable to go and take the manager of the yards if he couldn't get a better man for his job. The manager was out of sight, but he ordered anything better adapted than the light, strong, elastic bamboo, while most junks carry a homony of the same material, ingeniously made, and quite as good as cork in most of its qualities.

JUST FRIENDS

GOOD-BYE, Jim, and may God guard you! With a final kiss, a sob, and another caress, Jim Madoe, private in the Fifth Massachusetts, said his farewell to the girl he loved, whom he had courted for nearly two years. They were to be married in a month.

As he passed out of her house a man quickly scampers away. Jim Madoe, happy in his thought of the girl he loved, did not notice the man who slipped into the room. He was Tom Jordan, who had been listening at the door, listening to the words of love being breathed by these two young people.

We have all seen the beautiful lacquered work boxes and jars of bamboo, and in Durmah these take the place of earthenware very largely. They are made of bamboo, and are very beautiful.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

There is a certain police court of an ancient town built near the ship-building yards, and proceedings in the court are frequently interrupted by the half and half shouting industry.

On a recent occasion the court was a constable to go and take the manager of the yards if he couldn't get a better man for his job. The manager was out of sight, but he ordered anything better adapted than the light, strong, elastic bamboo, while most junks carry a homony of the same material, ingeniously made, and quite as good as cork in most of its qualities.

The Hammonont Paint

Is the very best paint ever used in Hammonont.

There are scores of buildings in town covered with this paint, which look well after eight or ten years of wear.

The Hammonont Paint is sold in less than other first-class paint. It has no equal, as it works well, covers well, and wears well.

No vacancy for Justice of the Peace this year.

Carlton Godfrey for Governor.

By accepting the enthusiastic endorsement of Atlantic County Republicans, Mr. Godfrey has formally announced his willingness to accept the Republican nomination. He is Speaker of the New Jersey State Assembly, and has made a reputation for efficiency in that position. Lawyer, banker, public servant, he has distinctly honored his profession.

With Speaker Godfrey most prominently mentioned for the Governorship, and Mr. Edge for the U. S. Senate, Atlantic County has an unequalled opportunity for powerful influence in the councils of the State. Rarely have we had two local men so prominent as to bring such honor upon all South Jersey.

Carlton Godfrey is to be congratulated upon his decision. Certain of support of a multitude of loyal friends, he should have small difficulty in capturing the Republican nomination. Atlantic City Review.

New Game Laws.

We have a copy of the 1915 Fish and Game Laws, which may be consulted by whoever wishes. There are several changes which are worth while noting. Reed bird season is open from Sept. 1 to Oct. 31. Marsh hen (or mud hen) Sept. 1 to Nov. 30. Deer—buck and does over one year old,—the last three Wednesdays of October and first Wednesday of November. The booklet contains the new alien law, which is not aimed at any particular nationality, but favors American born, or those owning property to the value of two thousand dollars or more,—making them responsible men.

It will pay those who like to indulge in sport to acquaint themselves with the new laws and regulations.

One of the worst cloud-bursts in our history struck Hammonont on Sunday afternoon, and lasted about an hour at its worst. Streets were flooded, many cellars partly filled, base-hall Park turned into a lake, autos stranded on account of the depth of water, and huge wash-outs caused. At the Reading's Pleasant Street crossing, two feet of mud was washed onto the tracks, and a hole left several feet deep, large enough to drive a team into. New gravel had been laid on Egg Harbor Road, in patches, and the resulting mire caused autos and motorcycles to skid, overturn, and perform all sorts of acrobatic stunts; but no one was seriously injured.

Treatment for Fire Blight.

Mr. Hutchins, from the Department of Agriculture, spent some time with the County Demonstrator, inspecting blight infected orchards, and outlining a plan for fruit growers to follow who have trees affected with the blight, and the care to be given them in the future.

There are many names given to this disease, such as "Fire Blight," "Blowdown Blight," "Twig Blight," and a number of others, but "Fire Blight" is the name most commonly used. It appears on the apple, pear and quince, and is transferred from one to the other.

I hardly think it necessary to describe this disease, only to say that it is bacterial, for after the outbreak this spring, every one has at least seen the dying back of the tips; and in many cases the limb would die back for two feet.

The bacteria that cause the damage can only be seen with a microscope, but multiply and spread very rapidly, especially if weather is hot and dry, such as we had in the spring; and then, with plenty of rain, they will cause much damage, which is carried from tree to tree by insects of various kinds, and by birds which gather in their claws.

After the winter is past and the growing season begins, from the old cankers on the trees there comes a sticky substance. For the control of this disease, after many experiments have been tried, the following is recommended:

Destroy all sources of infection by cutting out all cankers and cutting off all blighted twigs, well back into the live wood. Disinfect the cut with mercury bichloride, which can be purchased at most drug stores,—one part to 1000 parts of water, or one tablet to one pint of water. The solution can be carried in a bottle, or if any one has a large orchard, carry it in a wooden pail, and apply with a sponge. Every tree should be inspected, and treated as described above,—not only this season, but it is well to follow these directions every year. A good plan is to make a regular inspection of all your trees, once each week, or at least twice a month.

If this plan is followed, in a few years a large percentage of blight will be exterminated. All diseased twigs should be burned.

BLUWOOD DOUGLASS,
County Farm Demonstrator.

The sewerage assessment protest meeting, held last Saturday evening, was fairly well attended. The feeling was unanimous, that the second assessment, just made and reported, is not satisfactory; that there should be no burden placed upon the abutting property owners. When it was explained that the plan is to make this a self-paying investment, as the water system is, the vote was put and carried unanimously, that the protest committee be continued, that they employ an attorney and bring it to the attention of the Court at May's Landing, September 1st, that at both public meetings the voice of the people was that the entire cost of the sewer system should be paid by the Town, in bonds.

The Pleasant Street crossing over the Reading Railroad has been a dangerous one for many years, on account of steep grade approaches and frequent wash-outs. For this reason, nearly all traffic has taken to Orchard Street, leaving little reason for keeping the other open. We understand that the Reading officials wanted to close it up, several years ago, but the Town thought it unwise. Now our officials wish they would repeat their proposition. We have spent considerable money trying to keep it passable, but evidently nothing but a floor of rock or railroad ties will hold down the soil. We would advise that if the crossing is not absolutely needed for teams, that it be either cut out entirely, or an overhead foot-bridge be provided.

The People's Protest Committee will use money to pay expenses of a formal presentation of our case before the Court on September 1st. Every man who is dissatisfied with his assessment, for sewers ought to contribute to this fund. Send it to Dr. J. A. Waas or C. K. Nelson. Do it to-day.

The subject of public toilets is one which people are getting more and more interested in. To make it personal, where would you direct a stranger, should he (or she) inquire for such accommodation?

Remember: those who voted the Republican ticket at the last election cannot be signers of a "Democrat's petition" this year; and vice versa.

FORD, the UNIVERSAL CAR.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective Aug. 2, 1915:

Ford Runabout $380
Ford Touring Car $440
Ford Town Car $640

No expenditure included in this year's equipment, other than the car itself contained.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to August 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell retail 300 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915, we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September, and October, 1915.

SO-SHE LEFT THE TALK TO A YOUNG DOCTOR

So she left the talk to a young doctor who tried to speak encouragingly. "Sorry to tell you that you've lost your left arm, my child," said the doctor. "But you'll probably be there useful than ever. You're done for as regards the service, of course. You'll be sent home by the next boat. But back up. Hundreds are a lot worse than you."

DUMMY SUCREBS MAKE SMOKE

A school medical officer has made the interesting announcement that, in his experience, these school boys who are in the habit of sucking the end of their pens and pencils are almost always boys who, when babies, were kept constantly supplied with a dummy or comforter. The habit formed in infancy has not been broken in the school, and as far as he is able to ascertain, pen and pencil chewing boys usually turn into inveterate smokers at a very early age.

THE CERTAINTY OF BELIEF

"I know Him whom I have believed." When Paul wrote these words of certainty, manifesting his complete conviction in regard to his belief in Jesus Christ, he was not a young enthusiast lacking in knowledge and experience. He must have been at least 45 years old. He has been writing to Timothy: "I know Him whom I have believed."

A LITTLE HUMOROUS

A BAD SIGN

Husband—This dinner is miserably cooked. Wife—Horrors! The girl must be going to leave. A CORRECTED BILL. Householder—Did the master plumber make the corrections in his bill? I returned to him. Collector—Yes, sir, and he found an overcharge of two dollars. "Ah! Just as I said."

THE DYING DUCK

THE CERTAINTY OF BELIEF

DUCKS were reported to be plentiful down the bay. They had been seen in the water, and were very tame. A few weeks before, on the St. Johns River, on a similar hunt, had to contend with a great many water hyacinths, but nothing of the kind on the bay. The ducks were very tame, and were very tame. The ducks were very tame, and were very tame.

For Economy
The Westinghouse
Electric Iron.

If you pay the servant by the day, you will find it much cheaper to use the Westinghouse Electric Iron, because it saves time. No waiting for iron to heat—no delay of any kind—always at the right temperature.

Have you seen the new Iron with the heater that is guaranteed for seven years?

Ask for one on trial.

If you have an iron of obsolete type, or one that is not giving you satisfaction, bring it to our office, with a TWO DOLLAR note, and receive one of the new 1915 Irons in exchange.

WHEN driving a binder it's aggravating to have to stop because "the twine went wrong."

Sometimes the trouble is a bad spot in the twine—sometimes a tangled ball.

Such delays are the real price you pay for cheap twine.

PLYMOUTH TWINE

speeds up the work—cuts down the costs.

Plymouth is stronger and ties more bundles than any other brand. The quality never varies and the balls don't fall down.
If you want an easy and economical harvest, get your twine from us. And take our advice, order Plymouth EARLY.
