A Great Responsibility.

The compounding of a Prescription is not a simple matter, to be done in haste.

We feel the responsibility for the patient quite as much as does the physician, and we see to it that the medicines are exactly what has been called for, and in exact quantities.

W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

Who can fully appreciate the misery existing in the drunkard's home? Pinched by hunger, nakedness and sorrow. The souls of its inmates sunk in the depths of despair.

Yet, who cares? Thanks be to God, a steadily increasing army of His children care. His spirit within them and active through them, bathed in compassion. It is weary centuries since intemperance began to be one of the sins of the world, but the promise of the Almighty still stands: "He shall save his people from their sins." Because the world is full of people who "care," have we faith and courage to go on in the name of the Mighty God?

[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, SEPT. 6, 1902.

For Congressman,
Hon. John J. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertson Oresawer, of Rossmore, N. J., were in town three days this week, on their wedding tour. If you see a person stop, brush off an object from his coat collar, and hurry past the particular tree under which he is passing, you will know that the long, black, yellow-striped worms are again visiting Hammoncton.

Copies of the daily papers from West Chester, Pa., contain accounts of base-ball games, in which they give unflattering praise to Brandywine's third baseman, James Jefferson. There is also a statement that "Jim" injured his arm, recently, while sliding to a base, and subsequent play so aggravated the wound that he was obliged to have medical treatment, with a possibility that he can play no more, this season.

President Roosevelt had a narrow escape from death, on Wednesday. With several others, he was in a trolley-coach, for a twenty mile ride among the Berkshire hills, in Mass., when a trolley car came rushing down grade, struck the coach, threw the occupants in all directions, killing two and wounding the others. The President's head was cut, besides a gash on his chin, causing pain, but not serious.

ADVERTISEMENTS in this size type for one half cent per word each insertion. No charges less than 10 cents. The Board of Education met on Tuesday evening and transacted routine business. At her own request Miss Dorphy was transferred to the Lake School, thus leaving the Middle Road School open to the new teacher, probably Miss Coogan. They also discussed the adoption of an elective course of study for the highest three grades, comprising, probably, the Classical, Scientific, Literary and Mercantile. Prof. Holdridge is to draw up the courses to be presented to the Board for adoption.

Frank Bragoo, of Philadelphia, a freight brakeman on the Reading R. R., had a serious accident, on Wednesday, at the Hammoncton station. While riding on top of a box car, which was going at a rapid rate, he struck the slackened wires, connecting the tower house and station, and was knocked about fifty feet, striking between the tracks. Dr. Cunningham was called and found both wrists broken and his elbow dislocated. There may also be internal injuries. A special train was sent down and the injured man taken to Cooper Hospital, Camden.

Owing to long continued dry weather, the gravel placed on Bellevue Avenue was quickly reduced to dust, and became a nuisance, penetrating stores and residences through every crack and crevice. W. C. Jones set a good example by wetting this dirt thoroughly, in front of his place, and passing teams packed it hard. Wednesday, a force-pump was procured, and, with many lengths of fire-hose, water was pumped from a public cistern, and the whole street, from the railroad to Third Street, was wet. As we hoped, nature took it up, and that night gave us rain enough to complete the good work. No dust to-day.

In answering advertisements, say "I saw it in the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN."

Local Taxes for 1902.

The County Board of Assessors met at May's Landing on Tuesday last, and we can now give our readers the correct figures on this year's taxes.

The property valuation of Hammoncton is as follows:

Real Estate	$22,000
Personal property	$7,750
Exemptions	$949,400
	$5,525
	$24,775

The various amounts to be raised by taxation are as follows, giving last year's figures for comparison:

	1902	1901
County Tax	$340.14	$297.18
State school tax	1450.55	1222.74
Highways	220.00	200.00
Foot	500.00	500.00
Town Purposes	21.84	21.84
Fire Dept.	300.00	300.00
Street Lights	1500.00	1500.00
Board of Health	40.00	40.00
District School tax	5075.40	5075.40
School Bond and Int.	1500.00	1500.00
Int. on Water Bonds	1200.00
	$17,242.52	$10,228.12
Deduct poll taxes	698.00
Total to be raised	$16,544.52

Making the usual allowances for mistakes and uncollectable taxes, etc., this amount will require a tax-rate of $2.16 on each $100 of valuation.

This is a pretty high rate; but the above figures show how the gross sum is made up. Nearly every item of appropriation is larger than last year, when the rate was $1.80. However, the rate is the same as for 1900.

Mr. C. Edgar Rosencrans, the chalk talk man, had a small but appreciative audience, Saturday night. His entertainment is a novelty, and Mr. Rosencrans interests everybody. The musical numbers were uncommonly fine, receiving enthusiastic encore.

A jolly crowd of rooters from Cape May Court House attended the game, on Monday, with our popular jeweler, Robt. Steel. The party included Dr. Dix, Dr. W. G. Hand, Messrs. L. T. Garretson, Luther Swain, Carlton Reeves, Robt. Warwick and William Steel.

MESSERS. WATKINS & NICHOLSON, of the Lakewood Greenhouses, are preparing for the winter business, such as Hyacinths, Tulips, Stems, Crocus, Lily, etc., for either pot or out-door culture.

Complaint has been made that some one is breaking the colored lenses on the Penna. R. R. signal poles in Hammoncton, and the Company has sent Officer Curtis here to look into the matter. Suppose a boy breaks one of these red lenses. One section of an express has just passed, and the red signal is to hold the second section until the first is beyond the next signal. But the red glass is broken, the second engine sees only a white (safety) light, and goes on at a sixty mile rate, possibly crashing into the first section, which has stopped for some reason. Who is to blame for the damage and loss of life? It may be fun to shoot at those shining marks; but the result may be disastrous.

Church Notices.

The eleven-man game, over and over again, to notice the disputes which "Our Babies" frequently raised, was even less satisfactory to watch than the other. Our boys should really have had the game, but every one of their seven errors was costly, and while there were more strike-outs than in the morning, the seven bases on balls off Dunn were also very unfortunate.
