Short Tariff Sermons.

NO. XXXVI.

"We are handicapped by the general prosperity of the country."

That was the despairing comment of a prominent Democratic chieftain, upon the report of the Democratic Labor Commissioner of New York.

It reflects pretty accurately the sentiments of the Democratic managers generally. Their stock in trade is calamity. Prosperity is to them what Paris' green is to a potato bug—they shrivel, shrink and die by its touch.

Handicapped by prosperity! Yes, indeed, you are, Democrats; and here is a brief outline of the weights you must carry:

1. The report of the Bureau of Statistics, showing, instead of strangled commerce, a foreign trade for 1892 larger than ever before in our history; an export trade for the same year amounting for the first time to a billion dollars; an import trade more than half of which is absolutely free of duty, and a lower average Tariff rate than under the old law.

2. The report of the Senate Committee showing that the average price of 214 articles of general consumption has declined under the new Tariff 0.64 of 1 per cent. by one method of comparison, 1.8 per cent. by another, while in the same time agricultural products have advanced 18.23 per cent., and general wages have advanced 0.75 of 1 per cent.

3. The report of Labor Commissioner Peck, mentioned above, showing that in the great Empire State there was an increase in the amount of wages paid during the first year of the McKinley Tariff of $6,377,925 over the year before; that production increased $31,315,130, and the average yearly earnings of employes increased $23,111 in the same time, while 235,000 individual employes had their wages raised, and strikes were 1740 less numerous.

4. The report of the Democratic Superintendent of the Banking Department of New York State, showing that deposits in savings banks on July 1, 1892, had increased $86,882,516.35 over the deposits on January 1, 1889, while the number of depositors has increased from 1,362,852 to 1,536,133 in the same time.

Here are four weights, one for each leg of the Democratic mule, to hamper him in his hopeless race for the Presidential stakes. What a show the ridiculous beast is making of himself, to be sure.—American Economist.

Justice Atkinson says: "Tell my friend (?) 'D' not to lose any sleep on account of the finding of those two crate thieves, or any one else convicted of petty larceny. I am acting under what I consider trustworthy legal advice."

The above is from last week's Republican. What one "considers" trustworthy legal advice has no bearing whatever in the case. Here is the law as taken from the Revised Statutes of 1892, page 273. The "advice" there is mandatory and final:

"Every person accused of stealing any goods not exceeding $20 may be taken before two of the justices of the peace of the county where the offense was committed, who are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same, if the person accused consent thereto, etc. All papers to be sent before Clerks of Court within four days."

The proceedings lately enacted, calling out these remarks, can be made out as conspiracy pure and simple, for all engaged therein.

The naval veterans of the United States will hold a re-union at Baltimore September 15th to 19th inclusive, and for this occasion the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all points on its lines at one first class fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold and good going September 13th to 20th, valid for return until Oct. 10th inclusive, and will permit a stop off at Philadelphia and Harrisburg and at stations between Harrisburg and Baltimore.

Every time Tom Reed gives his alk sturidge a hitch the Democrats involuntarily dodge.

The best remedy in this world, says J. Roberts of Syracuse, N. Y. is Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attended by his, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

The Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic I ordered was for a young lady of my household, who was almost useless to herself and others, owing to nervous prostration, sleeplessness, weakness, &c., &c. PAINT! PAINT!
—THE—HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materia's known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33-cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hammonton Paint Works.

Misses Opportunity DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity. Narrowing distaste is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, foregone opportunities. Life is passing! Reach out, be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she pours out her riches; fall to do and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give, at least, a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person, of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beggars are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well as you will work, not too hard, but industriously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All it costs is your time, and your energy. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all facts, return mail. Address to Henry M. Hall, at care of H. M. Hall & Co., Box 820, Portland, Maine.

The TRIBUNE for 1892.

By Rowell G. Horr on the Tariff.

The Republican party, triumphant in 1891, where national issues were at stake, renewed, aggressive and energetic, the fight for 1892. The New York TRIBUNE, the ablest, most reliable, and best of all Republican papers, leads the way.

During 1892, Rowell G. Horr, of Michigan, the witty orator, will continue in the Tribune his remarkable series of articles on the Tariff, Rectitude, Currency, and the Republic. These topics are all understandable; the Republican policy with regard to all of them is right, patriotic, and imprugible; but dust has been thrown in the people's eyes, and the all has been filled with fog, by lying and tricky Tariff Reformers. The Tribune prints none; no to give exclusively interesting articles every week, explaining these questions.

Mr. Horr begins at the beginning of every subject, and makes it so clear that every one can understand and do one can answer him. Ask any neighbor what he thinks of Mr. Horr's writings. He will tell you that they are genial, clear, entertaining and perfectly unanswerable. A specialty is made of answering all questions, asked in good faith, on the Tariff, on the Tariff, Rectitude, Currency, the Tariff, and the prospects of the Farmers' Alliance. The Tribune is the best national Republican paper to supplement your local paper during 1892.

How to Succeed in Life.

The Tribune will also continue the series of articles to Young Men and Women, penned by men who begin life themselves with few advantages, have nevertheless succeeded honorably and brilliantly. It will also reply to questions as to what young men and women should do to succeed in life, under the particular circumstances in which their lot in life is cast. The replies will be written under the direction of Mr. Horr, whose familiarity with American life and opportunities, and whose deep and cordial sympathy with all who are struggling under adverse circumstances, promise to make the replies practical and satisfactory.

Vital Topics of the Day.

Many special contributions will be printed, from men and women of distinguished reputation. Among the topics are:—Silver Coinage, the latest views; Proper Function of the Majority in Legislation, to include a paper each from a Democrat and a Republican, prominent in public life; Harmonious Tendencies of Trade; Agriculture of the United States; Millionaires of the United States; Free Postal Delivery in Rural Communities; Better Pay for Fourth Class Postmasters; Importance of the Nicaragua Canal; Village Improvement; Our German Fellow-Citizen in America;—and many others.

Agriculture.

In addition to the regular two pages week of how to run a farm and make it pay, there will be, during 1892, special papers on—Hot House Lamb; Model Farms; Tobacco Raising; Sugar Beets; Fancy High Priced Butter Making; Care of Bees; Market Gardening; Live Stock; a variety of other equally important branches of American farming.

For Old Soldiers.

For veterans of the war, there will be a page a week of war stories, answers to questions, news and gossip. Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer will supply an interesting column of news of the W. R. C. The Tribune's War Stories of the past year have never been surpassed for thrilling interest.

For Families.

Families will value the pages devoted to—Questions and Answers; Home-Old Decoration; Home Interests; Cooking; Knitting and Crochet; Young Folks, and the Fashions.

A great editorial page will be printed, and fiction, foreign letters, book reviews, travels, checkers and chess and fun abundantly supplied.

Premiums.

We need every cent now raised by the McKinley law for legitimate expenses. Would you, in the absence of a tin-plate Tariff, reimpose the heavy duties of the Mills bill on sugar?

Patriotic people, and Union veterans, do not forget that Mr. Cleveland vetoed more pension bills than did all his predecessors combined.

If a nation must buy in order to sell, why was the balance of trade in our favor more than $202,000,000 in the past year?

The ancient Germans, according to Tacitus, had a delicious drink made of honey. It was called "mead", and newly wedded couples drank it as a beverage, and set it before their friends for a month after the nuptial ceremonies had been performed. For this reason the period of four weeks following the marriage is called "the honeymoon" of the happy couple.

Elder Stewart, of the Mormon Church, stated at El Paso, Tex., that the Mexican Government has granted a concession of 100,000 acres, on which 500 mormon families will settle. It is intended to divide the land into farms and form a self-sustaining community. Polygamy will not be practiced by the colonists.

As the corn in Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas grows taller, Democratic Free-Trade calamity howlers' hopes grow shorter. "A killing frost" is their sole dependence now.

Peck took Mr. Cleveland's injunction to "tell the truth" a little too literally.
