TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS,
DISORDERED LIVER,
and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructations of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

HE FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.
"I have had Dyspepsia, with Constipation, two years, and have tried ten different kinds of pills, and TUTT'S are the first that have done me any good. They have cleaned me out nicely. My appetite is splendid, food digests readily, and I now have natural passages. I feel like a new man." W. D. EDWARDS, Palmyra, O. Sold everywhere, 25c. Office, 44 Murray St., N.Y.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times: "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure every thing?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe iron. It is the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the best, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by one the first symptoms of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firm, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In some the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for her child. Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

$2.50 Did It.

The persons named below had spent thousands of dollars in the aggregate to get relief from Rheumatism, but all in vain until they tried the RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE, which costs two dollars and fifty cents. They say it cured them completely, and that they have since had no return of Rheumatic trouble.

We publish a little pamphlet (sent free to any address) giving their testimony just as they gave it to us; but if you have any doubts about the matter, write any of these Believed Rheumatics, and get an expression from them:

All wanting the best quality of Lehigh Coal can find it at Scullin's coal yard on Egg Harbor road, near Bernshouser's steam mill. Coal will all be dumped from the cars into the yard, and will be sold in five ton lots at the same rate as car-load lots from other yards. Having a good plank floor to shovel from, instead of the inconvenience of shoveling from the cars, is really worth ten cents a ton to every purchaser.

All coal will be sold strictly for cash on delivery.

Newspaper Decisions.
ANY person who takes a paper regularly
from the office—whether directed to his name or not—must pay for the paper subscribed for.
It is responsible for the payment.
The person who has the paper delivered must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.
The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the postoffice receiving and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

The American yacht "Mayflower"
beat the English yacht "Galatea," last Saturday, in a forty mile race, coming in near thirty minutes ahead. This was the second race, the Mayflower winning both.
The Maine Republicans made a clean sweep in Maine last Monday, electing their candidate for Governor by 12,000 or 14,000 plurality, re-electing the Republican Congressmen, and securing about three-fourths of the Legislature.
The result is enough to please anybody
but a Democrat.

The Republican State Convention to nominates a candidate for Governor will be held on Tuesday, the 5th of October.
No one now ventures an opinion as to whom the convention will select as the standard bearer. The present indications are that the Democratic State Convention of the week before will have a stormy session, and Republicans will put themselves in a position to reap all the advantages that are possible from the Democratic struggle. It is still among the possibilities that Wm. Walter Flaherty may be the choice of the convention. No one can tell whom the Democrats will put on the ticket, and the Republicans will await the developments of the Democrats before they make their own nomination.

Dr. Graw asks this question in the Temperance Gazette: "What good will come from electing a small number of good men when it is understood they cannot help Prohibition, and if they did their party would kick them out?"
Dr. Graw knew when he put that question that the Republicans of South Jersey have not only sent men to both Houses of the Legislature who have supported a proposition to submit the question of local option to a vote of the people, but so far from kicking these men out of the party, have re-nominated and re-elected them. It is this fact that has kept the prohibition vote down and led to its falling off. The people who are not for temperance for profit know that what we say is true, and it is because they have voted for Republicans that the vote for local option has been steady-ly increasing in the Legislature.

During the fire, some weeks ago,
a "celluloid" machine was taken from Dr. Wans' dental office, and deposited with other goods on the west side of the street. Some carried the machine away, evidently. Now, as it is of no possible use to any one but the owner,
it should be returned at once. Bring it to this office if you prefer.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Shoo-fly! you're a nuisance.
We expect to publish the school
"roll of honor" next week.

Miss Bowdoin has already a large class in instrumental music.

Mrs. T. D. Drown returned from Maine this week, after a long and enjoyable visit.

Mrs. R. A. Galbraith will spend a few weeks with relatives in northern Pennsylvania.

C. H. Wilson and family moved to Williamstown on Monday, their household goods going in wagons.

Miss Cora Newton has bought the stock and good-will of Tomlin &
Smith's millinery and furnishing-goods store.

Smokers, remember that Fiedler's is headquarters for everything in the tobacco line. His own make of cigars is good enough for any smoker.

S. E. Brown & Co. have greatly improved their store by the addition of a window on the south side, and a general re-arrangement of the stock.

Mr. George Taylor, Sr., showed us a twig containing fourteen great-ripe
blackberries, and says that he has them
now in all stages, down to blossoms.

Mr. T. J. Smith and family have returned from Maine. Mr. Smith has bought a farm in Steuben, Maine, and it is said that he intends to spend the heated term there, each year.

Dr. Yarrington started for Erie, Penna., on Tuesday. He was feeling sad at leaving his old home, but hoping for a more comfortable life during the few years yet remaining to him.

Mr. Edgar T. Thompson, of New Haven, Conn., spent this week in Ham-monton. He owns twenty acres on Fairview avenue, which he now offers for sale. Mr. T. and Mr. Whitney surveyed the tract yesterday.

Messrs. Ira Somers and E. C.
Shaner have "assumed control and management" of the Argo's Landing Record. We don't know the gentlemen, but wish them success. They are in a position to build up a first-rate
business.

We had occasion to visit the Hammonton cranberry meadows, last Wednesday, and found a busy scene
just begun—over one hundred men, women, and children gathering the delicious fruit. The crop is abundant, though the berries have not assumed
their rich red color, which makes them
so tempting.

Why don't property owners cut those miserable rag-weeds that have become so much of a nuisance? The pollen from them seems to fill the air at this season, and being inhaled, causes and aggravates disease. Cut the crop of weeds.

Mrs. Henry Stieckel died on last Friday night, of consumption. This is a peculiarly sad case, five little ones left motherless, the youngest (twin boys) but eight weeks old.

P. S.—Since the above was in type,
the twin babies have both died—on Wednesday night, the other on Thursday night. The little bodies will be placed in one casket and to-day be laid beside their mother, in Philadelphia.

The Hammonton schools opened on Monday last, with a full quota of pupils. In the Central, the Principal, W. B. Matthews, enrolled 48 in the High School; Grammar Department,
Miss Minnie Colwell, 43; Intermediate,
Miss Nellie G. Fogg, 45. In the last named department there are sittings
for eighty-four little ones; how do you suppose ninety-five are accommodated?

Middle Road, Miss Clara Caviler, 31;
Lake, Miss Flora Potter, 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Attkin returned on Tuesday evening from their August 24th day. They started Tuesday,
August 21st, and drove to Tuckerton, Bench Haven, and on down along the shore, at their leisure, to Atlantic City, where they spent a week, after which they drove through Hammonton to Philadelphia, spending several days in and about the Parks, Wissahickon, etc., and returned home. They declare this the most enjoyable trip they ever took,
—independent of railroad time-cards,
conductors, or baggage-men.

Mrs. B. Warrington was in town
this week.

Notice the change in J.T. French's
advertisement, next week.

Mr. Francis is building a large poultry house on his premises.

Smone's new oven is in full blast,
and turns out many good things to eat.

For some season, our Court correspondent failed to connect this week.

Will L. Black has transferred the Sheridan Freesay property to Henry M.
Phillips.

Frank N. Thomas is about to build a house on his lot, corner of Second and Orchard Streets.

Among real estate transfers in Hammonton, we see: N. Putnam Fogg to John Crump, $2,000.

J. R. Maloney and W. R. Tilton were Hammonton's representatives on the Grand Jury this week.

Mr. E. N. Neal, of Kirkwood, it is rumored, contemplates building, soon,
on his property in this town.

James Watson has returned to Hammonton and resumed his position as assistant at the C. & A. station.

A. W. Cochran and family will spend a month or more with friends in Bath and South Putney, N. Y.

Printers are usually very much averse to "pi," but for the kind of pie made by baker Grubb we acknowledge a decided liking. Try 'em.

A 54-inch Star bicycle will be traded for one of a smaller size by a gentleman in Pennsylvania. Information can be secured of P. H. Jacob.

Members of the Young Folks' Literary and Social Club are requested to meet at Small's Hall on Saturday evening, Sept. 25th, at eight o'clock.

At St. Mark's Church, Thirtieth
Sunday after Trinity, Sept. 19th, 1886.
Liturgy and Celebration Holy Communion
at 10:30 A. M. Sunday School, 3:00 P. M.

If our patrons keep crowding us
as hard as they have lately, with job-work of all kinds, we shall be compelled to take on more help. But don't stop on that account; we can find all the help necessary.

The tax duplicate is now in the Collector's hands. The notices will not be distributed until about October 1st;
but if any one desires to relieve his mind
of the whole subject for another year, he can call at the Collector's office at any time and pay.

If you would furnish your children
a Christmas present to which every month in the year will add new pleasure, send for Our Little Ones and the Nursery, with its delightful pictures and stories, full of good times and funny times. Russell Publishing Co., 30 Broadfield St., Boston.

A free exhibition, under the auspices of the Poultry Association, will be given by Mr. Wigmore, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, Sept. 22nd, at 1:30 P. M., at the poultry house of Major Jordan, near Dr. Edw. North's residence. The operation will be performed and explained
to all.

The following pupils have passed the required examination, and been admitted to the High School:

From Main Road School—
Nellie Tudor, Mina Conkey,
Leona Adams, Myra Patten.

From Middle Road School—
Zimmie Roberts.

Over eighty books circulate every week from the Hammonton public library.
The reading-room, which is free to all,
contains over one hundred different papers, and are all first-class, including the dailies and weeklies of New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago, with Texas, Florida, California, Canada, England, etc., represented. Agriculture, fruit, horses,
cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, politics,
temperance, labor, arts, and general information, may be read without charge.
There is no reading-room in the country,
unless in a very large city, that contains
so large or varied assortment of first-class literary journals. Drop in and take a look. Free!

On Tuesday afternoon, on his way home, Alex. Attkin left his mare, "Lady Attkin," in Haddonfield. Wednesday morning he received a telegram that she strayed during the night and could not be found. Mr. Attkin took the next train and found that the Lady had been locked into a box stall which was not booked.

During the night she had evidently pushed the door open and walked away.
She could be tracked but a short distance.
The description given on the bill is as follows: A bay mare, 15 hands and one inch high, black mane and tail, off hind foot white, white saddle marks almost around the body, star in forehead, in walking twists her rear hind foot. Send information to George H. Hopkins, Had-

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Laziness travels so slowly that even poverty can easily catch and keep pace with it.

The man lives the longest that wisely divides the occupation of life between brain and muscle.

If you would not have affliction visit you again at once, to the lesson which it teaches.

Nothing is more common than to be contented with a mediocre, quiet career; a passionate hatred does so far less.

To enjoy a thing exclusively is commonly to exclude yourself from the true enjoyment of it.

In matters of conscience, first thoughts are the best; in matters of preference last thoughts.

Character properly embraces three distinct classes of elements: principles, sentiments and habits.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision; and yield with gracelessness or oppose with firmness.

When the world has once got hold of a lie, it is astonishing how hard it is to get it out of the world.

Complain not of your trials—they are given to you as educational, they are elevating. All is for the best.

Genuine benevolence is like a turkey on a spit before a fire. It keeps going round and round and doing good.

It is one of the serious facts of life that a woman married a rich man and yet get a very poor husband.

Happiness closely resembles a very popular disease—one bright day with a day of chill and fever on either side.

The best atonement for evil deeds is to get about the performance of worthy ones.

Man is in friendship what woman is in love, and the reverse, namely, more covetous of the object than of the feeling.

He that telleth thee that thou art always wrong may be deceived; but he that saith thou art always right is surely a liar.

We pass our lives in fresco. The soft and tulle plaster of the monument hardens under every stroke of the brush into eternal rock.

Had I a dozen sons, each in my love I should rather have eleven or none, than to have one who voluntarily surrenders out of action.

Fear and laziness can accept beliefs, only trust and courage will question them. To reject a preconceived opinion demands a consecrated mind.

Great efforts from great motives is the best definition of a happy life. The easiest labor is a burden to him who has no motive for performing it.

No being more void of care and respect than all his intervals of labor; but make him free, give him rights and interests to guard, and he becomes thoughtful and diligent.

I must pray to God that somebody else may do whatever I leave undone; but I shall not have any right to that prayer, unless I do my duty whenever I see it.

Be not afraid of the storm, for it is the rain that makes the earth fertile and the fields of the world the most fruitful.

The essential idea in consecration is separation unto God; and just as God called upon all those who were really on his side to separate themselves from those who were not.

Dr. Kane, finding a flower under the Humboldt glacier, was more affected by it because it grew beneath the lip and had been a witness to the most gorgeous garden bloom.

Some simple struggling grace in the heart of one far removed from divine influences may be dearer to God than a whole harvest of virtues in the life of one more favored in heaven.

Total abstinence has had a fair trial upon individuals and communities. It has never failed yet in keeping men sober, in keeping their purses fuller, their breaths sweeter, their consciences purer, and their homes happier.

Enthusiasm, avarice, and appetite have striven to pass near the spot on a dark night, when the storm-clouds are at war with one another.

The Indian spring, however, still remains, and the cold water, which is so good for the skin, is still there.

The grace we have to-day is seldom if ever enough for to-morrow. We therefore need a constant increase.

Freedom of the body is constantly needed by the healthy of civilization and is a great thing for a saint to gain one victory.

That shows him that, by God's grace, he can overcome. But David's slaying the lion and the bear did not make him victorious over Goliath. It was God gave him the victory in each case.

It is in his nature, first the blade, then the stalk, then the full corn in the ear.

The life of the infant, when it is wanting, then there is wanting an essential accompaniment of salvation. Shall one continue for years in spiritual bondage, never showing any advance, and still reckon himself saved?

The essential idea in consecration is separation unto God; and just as God called upon all those who were really on his side to separate themselves from those who were not.

Dr. Kane, finding a flower under the Humboldt glacier, was more affected by it because it grew beneath the lip and had been a witness to the most gorgeous garden bloom.

Some simple struggling grace in the heart of one far removed from divine influences may be dearer to God than a whole harvest of virtues in the life of one more favored in heaven.

Total abstinence has had a fair trial upon individuals and communities. It has never failed yet in keeping men sober, in keeping their purses fuller, their breaths sweeter, their consciences purer, and their homes happier.

Enthusiasm, avarice, and appetite have striven to pass near the spot on a dark night, when the storm-clouds are at war with one another.

The Indian spring, however, still remains, and the cold water, which is so good for the skin, is still there.

The grace we have to-day is seldom if ever enough for to-morrow. We therefore need a constant increase.

Freedom of the body is constantly needed by the healthy of civilization and is a great thing for a saint to gain one victory.

That shows him that, by God's grace, he can overcome. But David's slaying the lion and the bear did not make him victorious over Goliath. It was God gave him the victory in each case.

It is in his nature, first the blade, then the stalk, then the full corn in the ear.

The life of the infant, when it is wanting, then there is wanting an essential accompaniment of salvation. Shall one continue for years in spiritual bondage, never showing any advance, and still reckon himself saved?

HORSE NOTES.

Ed West, the light-weight jockey, has engaged to ride for E. J. Baldwin, in 1897.

Nothing is more common than to be contented with a mediocre, quiet career; a passionate hatred does so far less.

To enjoy a thing exclusively is commonly to exclude yourself from the true enjoyment of it.

In matters of conscience, first thoughts are the best; in matters of preference last thoughts.

Character properly embraces three distinct classes of elements: principles, sentiments and habits.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision; and yield with gracelessness or oppose with firmness.

When the world has once got hold of a lie, it is astonishing how hard it is to get it out of the world.

Complain not of your trials—they are given to you as educational, they are elevating. All is for the best.

Genuine benevolence is like a turkey on a spit before a fire. It keeps going round and round and doing good.

It is one of the serious facts of life that a woman married a rich man and yet get a very poor husband.

Happiness closely resembles a very popular disease—one bright day with a day of chill and fever on either side.

The best atonement for evil deeds is to get about the performance of worthy ones.

Man is in friendship what woman is in love, and the reverse, namely, more covetous of the object than of the feeling.

He that telleth thee that thou art always wrong may be deceived; but he that saith thou art always right is surely a liar.

We pass our lives in fresco. The soft and tulle plaster of the monument hardens under every stroke of the brush into eternal rock.

Had I a dozen sons, each in my love I should rather have eleven or none, than to have one who voluntarily surrenders out of action.

Fear and laziness can accept beliefs, only trust and courage will question them. To reject a preconceived opinion demands a consecrated mind.

Great efforts from great motives is the best definition of a happy life. The easiest labor is a burden to him who has no motive for performing it.

No being more void of care and respect than all his intervals of labor; but make him free, give him rights and interests to guard, and he becomes thoughtful and diligent.

I must pray to God that somebody else may do whatever I leave undone; but I shall not have any right to that prayer, unless I do my duty whenever I see it.

Be not afraid of the storm, for it is the rain that makes the earth fertile and the fields of the world the most fruitful.

PERLAN FRODO.

In an ancient legend, Perlan says that a rose tree blooms at the gates of Day, and once in each life, he is said to say, "Conceal the secret of this flower from the fairer."

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Smith's Tonic Syrup
 FOR THE CURE OF
FEVER and AGUE
 Or CHILLS and FEVER,
 AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.
 The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.
 BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Scrofulous affections.

Last week there was a wood sawing match for a wager in Millville between a white and colored man. The amount to be sawed was a quarter of a cord each, two cuts, and the caucasian won in 36 minutes, beating his opponent 12 minutes.

A hailstorm in Benton County, Ind., drove a hen from her nest in the grass and smashed the eggs. The hen went back as soon as the storm was over and began trying to hatch the hailstones that filled the nest. She didn't find out her mistake until her feet were very cold and her feathers very wet.

Farmers throughout South Jersey say that rabbits are plentiful this year, and that it is impossible to walk a half-mile in the early evening without seeing young rabbits playing in the road.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,

Modern Family Physician
 And Hygienic Guide.
 Specially prepared for family and individual use by three of Philadelphia's most noted medical men and sanitarians. A volume representing a vast expenditure of time and money, and embracing all diseases known to medical science, with their proper treatment by specialists of world-wide reputation. How to build, ventilate, light, heat, and drain houses; and physical culture, including a progressive course in Calisthenics and Swedish Light Gymnastics, are among the original features of this modern work. Every line and illustration, including superb colored lithographs never before equaled in this country, is new, and the book stands next to the Bible in value and importance in the home. Its hygienic teachings will, if followed, save any family seven-tenths of their doctor's bills. Bound in one magnificent volume of nearly 1200 pages and over 200 illustrations and never approached for completeness and practical value. Send stamp for highest endorsements from the leading papers in America, descriptive circulars and full particulars regarding agency. Canvassers capable of handling a heavy book of sterling merit and large and steady sale, will be given an opportunity unequalled for several years. Address

THE INDEPENDENT
 The Largest, the Ablest, the Best
Religious & Literary Weekly.
 The most influential religious organ in the States.—Spectator, London, Eng.
 The Independent is one of the best papers in the world. Its good points are many and striking. They have only to be stated to be appreciated; and for proof of our claims appeal may be taken to any of the fifty-two issues of the year. Any number will show that its contents are marked by ABILITY, VARIETY, and INTEREST.—The great thinkers, the great story-writers, the great poets, men of the highest reputation in all departments of human knowledge, make up its list of contributors. Religious philosophy, science, literature, travel, discovery, stories, and all conceivable topics are embraced in the contents, and every body, old or young, learned or unlearned, without regard to sex, employment, or condition, will find something of interest in every issue.
Comprehensiveness.—It is a religious, a literary, a philosophical, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial, and a political paper combined.
BREADTH, CANDOR, EARNESTNESS.—The Independent is tied to no denomination; it is the organ of no clique or party in State or Church. It is free to discuss all questions, and to speak its mind candidly. It is not swayed by fear or favor. It is a vigorous defender of the Evangelical faith; it preaches practical righteousness, earnestly supports all moral reforms. All its columns—the advertising as well as the reading—are free from everything of doubtful or objectionable character. No matter what a person's religion, politics, or profession may be, if he desires to keep up with the times, and know what the brightest minds are thinking of the ablest pens are writing about, and what the world at large is doing,—he should read the Independent.

 Complete Novels and Other Works, by Famous Authors, Almost Given Away!
 The following books are published in neat pamphlet form, from ten handsomely illustrated, and all are printed on good type upon good paper. They treat of a great variety of subjects, and we think no one can examine the list without being struck by the excellence of the books, and we think no one can examine the list without being struck by the excellence of the books, and we think no one can examine the list without being struck by the excellence of the books.
 1. The Widow Heddon Papers. This is the book which our grandmothers laughed till they cried, and our fathers read with a shudder. It will put you in the way of making more money at once than anything else in America. Both sexes of all ages can live at home and work in spare time, or all the time. Capital not required. We will start you. Immense pay for those who start at once. STINSON & CO., Portland, Maine.
