No. 39

W. H. Gardiner has purchased a fine Brockway truck.

J. M. Lear, of Ocean City, greeted friends here on Friday.

Primary Election next Tuesday, from seven in the morning to nine in the evening.

Dr. Cunningham is having his office entrance put under cover, by Carpenter Gray.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Waas are enjoying two weeks stay at The Strand, Atlantic City.

John C. Anderson and family have removed to Atlantic City. Friends here will miss them.

Dr. Pollard will beat Dr. Crowell's office, Sunday, September 25th, from 10:30 a. m. to 2:00 p. m.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Clifford Small, on Sunday, September 18th.

The American Legion would like the gift or loan of a typewriter, if anyone has an old one they are not using.

Edward Waples and sister, Miss Frances, have taken up their studies at Swarthmore. This is Edward's last year.

Mulford Abbott, of Glasboro, and formerly a well-known resident of Nesco, died suddenly on Sunday, September 18th.

To Miss Lillian Boyle is extended the sympathy of her friends, during the severe illness of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boyle.

A bog fire, which endangered neighboring fields and outbuildings on Middle Road, called out both fire companies on Tuesday afternoon.

The Chamber of Commerce and Hammonton Regular base-ball teams are asked to meet at the Hammonton Caudy Kitchen this evening at nine o'clock, as the guests of Manager Tombras.

F. A. Runston Post of the American Legion, and the Women's Auxillary, desire to thank the people of Hammonton whose co-operation helped so much toward the success of the Mess Line Supper and Block Dance.

Committee Chairman.

Mrs. Samuel Moore, who with her husband, sons and daughters, were esteemed residents at Rosedale for many years, died on Wednesday morning, September 21st, after long illness. A husband and six children survive her, Thomas, Jacob, Samuel and William Moore, and Mrs. Mary Berry and Mrs. Horton Jones. Friends and relatives are invited to attend the funeral this afternoon at 2:30 at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Berry, on Washington Street.

Street Widening.

The plan to widen Twelfth Street, from Railroad Avenue to the Reading Railway, is progressing nicely. Not a single purchaser of the lots on the Twelfth Street side of the former Verrier property has voiced a protest to the plan, while a number have already given full assent thereto.

Thos. B. Delker, who is handling the project, is in touch with the Reading Railway officials, in an endeavor to have the project carried to a full fruition by the building of a new station along side of the north bound tracks. The officials are loath to do this at the present time, but have given assurances of probable early action in moving the present waiting room to a point that will be in better harmony with "Station Boulevard," a likely name for the widened thoroughfare, and will likely improve structure.

The block will be known as "Station Square," a title significant of its location, and having quite a metropolitan sound. A mighty good move to make, when one considers that thirty feet will be added to the width of the street.

Six feet eight inches was the height of a patron in a business place, one day this week.

Every organization and citizen in town is urged to assist in every way possible in the Columbus Day celebration, and be represented at the meeting in Messina Hall on Sunday afternoon.

The Block Dance.

One of the most practical demonstrations of what can be done in the way of arousing a community spirit was pulled off on Tuesday evening by the American Legion. The space on Bellevue from Central Ave. to Third Street was roped off, cement flushed clean, and brightly lighted overhead.

From six to eight o'clock, people patronized the music call table, which all proclaimed as "just right."

Then from eight to twelve crowds clear over the curbs, witnessed the dancing and enjoyed the inimitable Jazz Band selections. At times there was scarce room to move about; but the order was most excellent.

It is hoped that the Legion will continue to bring out the community feeling, for this was a good starter.

Parent-Teacher Meeting.

A most enjoyable evening was spent by the members of the Parent-Teacher Association and their friends, at the reception given them in the class room of the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening.

After a short business meeting, Supervisor N. C. Holdridge gave a very convincing talk on the need of better facilities in the schools, citing the number of pupils on half time and overcrowding of class rooms.

Supervisor Holdridge's talk was followed by a most enjoyable musical, under the direction of Mr. William Galpin. Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Spathers, Mrs. Budd, Mrs. Clarke and Mr. Galpin, and received applause.

The selections by the chorus, composed of Mrs. William Parkhurst, Miss Frances Skinner, Mrs. Clarke, Miss Elsie Lyster, Mrs. Spathers, Mrs. Budd and Mrs. Geo. Beale, were equally as enjoyable.

Refreshments were served, and the parents and teachers spent a very pleasant hour becoming acquainted.

At the October meeting, which will be held on Tuesday, October 26th, at 3:45 p. m., Mrs. C. H. Griebel, of the State College, New Brunswick, will speak on "The Dress and Manners of Our School Girls." Mrs. Griebel is a most interesting talker and a large attendance is urged.

Columbus Day.

In a recent issue of your paper the writer noticed an invitation issued by the Sons of Columbus of Hammonton to all Patriotic, Fraternal and Military Organizations, to participate in the proposed observance of Columbus Day. This seemed rather unique, inasmuch as he found on inquiry that the Sons of Columbus is essentially an Italian American Society, and he found himself wondering why this was?

Why should we Americans leave the observance of this day to the Sons of Columbus alone? Has not our State declared it a holiday? Does not our histories give him credit as the first man to bring back useful data, even though the Norsemen were centuries in advance of him, of what benefit was their discoveries when they did not leave any records to enable the civilized world to further explore.

Take your histories in hand, compare the dates of Columbus Discovery, the resultant, Spanish exploration and settlement of this country, the date of England's first expedition of exploration by Sebastian Cabot and his son (2 other Italians) their first attempt at settlement and see if we Americans do not owe a great debt to Columbus. Let us remember the man by the work he has done, and honor him for his contributions to civilization.

Let us show we are true exponents of real live Americanism by making October 12th, 1921, a memorable day. At least, display "Old Glory" as an acknowledgment of our appreciation.

100% American.

The friendship made in a moment usually is of no moment.

Do you discriminate at the dining table—or are you thoughtless?

In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for "grown-ups" and Postum for children. But some parents do not discriminate. Coffee and tannin, the injurious contents of coffee and tea, seriously retard the development of the delicate nerve tissues in children.

Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are over-stimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous. Any doctor can tell you that this is a great evil and should be corrected.

Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious. In many cases the nervous system and allied bodily functions will become weakened. The surest way to avoid such possibilities is to quit coffee entirely and drink Postum instead. The change prevents you from getting sound, restful sleep.

Postum is the well-known, meal-time beverage. Like thousands of others you will like it because, in flavor, it is much like a high-grade coffee.

Do away with the distinction at the table. Serve delicious Postum, piping hot, to all the family. One week's trial will make it likely that you'll never return to tea and coffee.

OBJECTOR WOULD NOT LAST

Editor More Than Willing to Remove Cause for Prospective Father-in-Law's Ill Will.

The two lovers were talking over their troubles, particularly the parental objections offered to their marriage. "But," said the youth, "I can't for the life of me see why your father should place any obstacle in the way of our marriage."

"Well," explained the girl after some reflection, "I think it stands this way: Father, you know, is always boasting of his lineage. He is forever saying that his ancestors were gentlemen of leisure like himself, and that you have to work for a living."

"Well," continued the suitor, "tell him that I don't expect to after we are married."

The burden of a name. "Few great men's names even amount to much," said a man at the club the other evening. "I think the most striking reason for this I ever read of is contained in the fact that the second Duke of Wellington. Some one pointed to him: 'Cherry, of course—are easier for an early wedding.'"

"Ah," replied the duke, "if you had not so long under the shadow of a great tree you would have as good a colossus as I."—Boston Transcript.

Quite as Good. A farmer recently paid a visit to a neighbor, and as he passed along by the side of the fields he made a mental note of the fact that no scarecrows were visible.

Mothering the neighbor almost immediately he opened conversation as follows: "Good morning, Mr. Oates. I see you have no scarecrows in your fields. How do you manage to do without them?"

"Oh, well enough," was the instant reply. "You see, I don't need them, for I'm in the fields all day myself."

The Motive. Senator Hiram Johnson was discussing the various restrictions which it is proposed to put on immigration.

"To be sure," he said, "I am not in favor of the restriction of immigration, but I am in favor of the restriction of the number of immigrants who will be allowed to enter the country."

"Conditions in Europe since the war are so bad that practically everybody wants to come here," I said to an immigrant the other day.

"You immigrants all succeed remarkably in America. I wonder why it is?"

"It's because," the immigrant answered, "we know that, if we don't succeed, we will have to go back and live in our own land again."

Willing to Accommodate. "I see by the papers," said the convict to the warden, "that the prison is greatly overcrowded."

"Well," said the warden, "I was just going to say that if you've got a customer that really wants my cell I'll pick up and go on to make room for him."

Wm. S. Hart, — "The Whistle." Chester Comedy, "Ready to Serve."

NEXT SATURDAY: Wallace Reid, "Too Much Speed."

A romance of racetrack, love and business. Roaring with daredevil driven cars; tingling with rivalry, trickery, danger; strewing a thousand smiles on the road to happiness. A picture that starts the heart to thumping, and gives old Father Time the laugh.

Chester Comedy, "Hey Rube."
