

South Jersey Republican

Hoyle & Son, Publishers.

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

VOL. 39

HAMMONTON, N. J., OCTOBER 5, 1901.

NO. 40

At Geo. Elvins Store.

We sell

Maccaroni

Flour

Stone Jars

Lard

Avena

Fruit Jars

Jar Rubbers

Geo. Elvins.

John Prash, Jr.,

Furnishing

Undertaker and Embalmer

Twelfth St., between railroads.

Hammonton, N. J.

All arrangements for burials made and carefully executed.

Wm. A. HOOD & SON

FURNISHING

Undertakers

Funeral Directors

All business in their line promptly and carefully attended to.

Embalming a Specialty

Office and Residence,
208 Peach Street,
Phone 1-6 Hammonton.

JOS. I. TAYLOR

House, Sign, Carriage PAINTER

Dealer in Paints, Oils, and Varnishes.

I have a large stock of

John T. French's
Pure Oil Paints,

which I guarantee to be the best paint ever sold.

Second and Pleasant Streets,

HAMMONTON.

W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Yes; this is an old story. Nevertheless, it is just as new as when the words were first written. We see sad evidences of these truths every day.

"Man is the masterpiece of God's handiwork," and may be of a good family, educated, and intelligent, and with natural abilities calculated to make him everything that is good and noble. But as he thrown into the busy walks of life he commences to take "a friendly glass" now and then, and boasting says he "can take it or let it alone." Alas! for human blindness. In time he wakes up to the awful realization that he is being mocked, and that he is under the raging influence of "strong drink." His boasted strength and wisdom are but as vapor.

Where is the remedy for this evil?
PRESS SUPP.

Young People's Societies.

This space is devoted to the interests of the Young People's Societies of the various Churches. Special items of interest, and announcements are solicited.

Y. P. S. C. E.,—Presbyterian Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 6:30.
Topic, "This grace also." 2 Cor.
8: 7-9. (Giving.) Leader, Miss Cora Burgess. Business meeting next Tuesday evening.

Y. P. S. C. E.,—Baptist Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 6:15.
Topic, "This grace also." 2 Cor. 8:
7-9. Leader, Miss Grace Bernshouse.

Jr. C. E., Sunday afternoon, at 3:00:
Topic, "Cheerfulness." Prov. 17:
22; John 14: 1. Leader, Dollie
Birdsall.

Epworth League,—M. E. Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 6:30.
Topic, "This grace also." 2 Cor. 8:
7-9. Leader, Robert Steel

Junior League on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Y. P. C. U.,—Universalist Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 6:30.
Topic, "Rally of Seniors and Juniors:
'Altogether.'" Rom. 4: 5; 1 Cor.
12: 12-20.

A cordial invitation is extended to all
to attend these meetings.

Church Notices.

Topics in the various Churches tomorrow will be as follows:

M. E. Church,—Rev. F. L. Javett.
Pastor, 10:30 A.M., "Looking at things not seen." Psalm 138. 7:15 P.M., "The rich fool."

Presbyterian Church,—Rev. W. K.
McKinney, Pastor, 10:30 A.M., "Servants of Christ." 7:15 P.M., "Seek and live."
Communion at morning service. Benevolent offering for Home Missions.

Baptist Church,—Rev. H. F. Loomis.
Pastor, 10:30 A.M., "Jesus in the Treasury." Communion at morning service.
7:15 P.M., "The Saviour's conquest."
Monthly business meeting at the close of prayer meeting, Thursday evening.

Universalist Church,—Rev. R. T.
Polk, Pastor, 10:30 A.M., "How all things work together for good." Annual State Convention next Wednesday and Thursday.

THE SINGER

Sewing Machines

On Easy Payments

Liberal Discount for Cash

Old machines taken in exchange.

A full line of supplies on hand.

At Henson's News Room.

R. J. DRAKE, Agent.

State C. E. Convention.

The annual convention of Christian Endeavor workers of New Jersey will be held in the Central Baptist Church in Trenton, next Thursday, Oct. 10th.
The programme committee has secured some of the best speakers. The following is part of the programme:

Morning session at 9:30, when the State Secretary, Miss Stephens, and the State Treasurer, Rev. T. E. Davis, will present annual reports. The annual sermon by the President, Rev.
A. W. Spooner. Rev. H. B. McCauley will conduct an open parliament on
"Bible Study." Address on "The Endeavor and his Bible," by Rev.
Dr. Carson, of Brooklyn.

In the afternoon, an address on Junior Work by Rev. George C. Horter, of Camden. Conference on "Colored Work," conducted by Mrs. Florence Randolph, of Jersey City. Report on state fresh air work, by Arthur N.
Pierson, of Plainfield. Open parliament on "Missionary Methods," led by Miss L. B. Allen, of Elizabeth.
Address by Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt, of Philadelphia.

Rev. Dr. James I. Vance will make the principal evening address. The convention will close with a consecration service, led by Rev. Luther R.
Dyott, of Brooklyn.

Delegates from a distance wishing to remain in Trenton over night may communicate with Joseph B. Hottel, 33 East State Street, chairman of the entertainment committee. This committee will also meet delegates at the stations.

Base-Ball.

The "All Collegiates" proved strong opponents, last Saturday, played a fast game, and allowed the home club but one lonely run, — and that in the fifth inning. It was a peculiar game, too, the visitors scoring all their five runs in the fourth.

The score.
Hammonton.....
	R	H	O	A	E
Angelow, c.....	1	1	8	1	0
Sealey, 2b.....	0	1	4	3	0
J. Jefferson, 3b.....	0	2	1	3	1
P. Jefferson, p.....	0	2	1	1	0
Conley, of.....	0	1	0	0	0
Cordery, rf.....	0	1	0	0	0
Herbert, lb.....	0	1	9	0	0
Heiser, lf.....	0	0	1	1	0
Anderson, ss.....	0	2	1	3	2
1 10 27 12 3

All Collegiates.....
	R	H	O	A	E
Bennor 2b.....	1	1	3	3	0
Bosham, lb.....	0	2	9	0	0
Griffith, ss.....	0	0	3	3	0
Gibley, c.....	0	0	7	0	0
Ochs, 3b.....	1	1	3	0	0
Willels, rf.....	0	0	2	0	0
Tracy, of.....	1	1	0	0	0
Rival, lf.....	1	2	0	0	0
Bombers, p.....	1	1	1	0	0
6 8 27 0 0

Hammonton.....
	0	0	0	1	0
All Collegiates.....	0	0	0	0	0
0 0 0 1 0 0 0.1

Hammonton.....
	0	1	2	3	0
All Collegiates.....	0	2	5	1	0
0 2 5 1 0 0 0.8

Runs earned, Hammonton 1, A. C. S.
Two base hits, Bosham, Tracy, J. Jeff.
Fumbles, Anderson 3
Wild throws, J. Jeff.
Sacred hits, Angelow
Left on bases, Ham 9, A. C. S.
Struck out, Conley 2, Anderson, Heiser,
Herbert, Bosham 2, Griffith, Willels 3,
Bombers
Stolen bases, Angelow, J. Jeff, P. Jeff.
Bennor, Bosham
Double plays, Sealey to Herbert, Heiser to Sealey, Bennor to Ochs
Base on balls, J. Jeff, Bosham, Gibley,
Griffith
First base on errors, A. C. S.
Wild pitches, Bombers
Passed balls, Gibley
Time, 1h, 25 m. Umpire, Caldwell

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Thomas O. Elvins, Administrator of Frederick Mealey, Sr., deceased, by direction of the Surrogate of the County of Atlantic, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Frederick Mealey, Sr., to bring in their debts and claims against the estate of the said deceased, under oath, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred of any action therefor against the said Administrator.

Dated August 30th, A.D. 1901.

THOMAS O. ELVINS,

Administrator.

Chas. Cunningham, M.D.

Physician and Surgeon.

W. Second St., Hammonton.

Office Hours, 7:30 to 10:30 A.M.

1:00 to 3:00 and 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Town Council Meeting.

Regular meeting on Saturday evening,
Sept. 28th. All members present.

Highway Committee reported that LaRosa will repair Egg Harbor Road where plowed into by him. Also, that they had inspected said road, from Thirteenth Street to Rosedale, as directed, and find it in fair condition; do not favor the expenditure of any money
there, this year.

Same committee stated that certain citizens refused to repair their sidewalks as required by the new ordinance, claiming that Council could not enforce their orders, because the Commissioners had not made surveys and filed the map required by the ordinance. Committee had consulted the Solicitor, and his written opinion seems to support the claim thus made.

A petition received, asking that Third Street be gravelled, from Fairview to Walnut Street. Referred.

Bills ordered paid:

Geo. Bernshouse, Overseer Poor.....	$10 00
J. W. Lyinger, burying horse.....	2 00
J. L. O'Donnell, salary Clerk.....	10 21
A. H. Miller, Janitor.....	50
Robert Miller, Night Marshal.....	16 00
E. H. Chandler, Solicitor.....	25 00
E. W. Strickland, Assessor.....	154 00
Hoyle & Son, printing.....	6 75
W. L. Black, supplies.....	1 10
Geo. Elvins, supplies.....	5 24
Mrs. Bethell, allowance.....	12 00
Mrs. McClelland, care of poor.....	20 00
J. C. Johnson, goods to poor.....	11 55
E. Stockwell, ".....	13 50
John Keyser, dog catcher.....	1 00
Electric Light Co.....	77 56
Highway bills—
W. L. Black, supplies.....	13 28
W. H. Bernshouse, lumber.....	69 05
Guilano Jacobs.....	23 25
J. B. Mart.....	9 80
E. A. Joslyn.....	89 45
Geo. Bernshouse.....	10 25
Richard O'Neill.....	0 00
Jas. Van Schoick.....	0 00
J. E. Watkins, gravel.....	1 80—231 88
6902 27

Freeholder Jackson stated that the County intends to build a gravel road
Pleasant Mills to Hammonton, and that if the Town would volunteer to supply the gravel necessary, the County would no doubt continue the work up Central Avenue to Bellevue Ave. On motion, Council voted to furnish the gravel, as suggested.

Mr. Batchelor stated that Messrs.
Skinner & Son had called upon him, desiring to know whether the Town (or citizens) will provide a suitable building for their business. After some discussion Council invited all interested people to meet at Council Room on Thursday evening, Oct. 10th, to consider the matter.

Mrs. Anna Phillips' request for aid from the poor fund was brought up and discussed, and referred to the Overseer of the Poor, for investigation. (The Overseer has since granted Mrs. Phillips two dollars per week.)

A Night of Terror.

"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Mach-len, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she began to get better, and she is now entirely cured her. This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat and lung diseases. Only 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Crowell's drug store.

Josh Westhafer, of Leagotown, Ind., is a poor man, but he says that he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this balm for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains, and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Crowell.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

John H. Chandler, administrator of William
D. Arlitt, deceased, by direction of the Surrogate of the County of Atla. hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said William D.
Arlitt to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the estate of the said deceased, under oath, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred of any action therefor against said administrator.

Dated July 24th, 1901.

JOHN H. CHANDLER, Administrator.

Rooms 26 and 27 Real Estate and Law Bldg.,
Atlantic City, N. J.

What would you think

If you saw a man sitting on the bank of the Lake, watching some fishermen with a drag net, catching all the fish, and after they had left he would take a cork line out of his pocket, put a worm on the hook, cast it into the water,
then expect to catch a string of fish.

That is precisely what some of our
Hammonton merchants are doing.
They sit in their stores, see some wide-awake neighbor, by a liberal use of PRINTERS' INK, catch all the customers in the neighborhood, then complain because they don't sell their goods.

MORAL

When you are sick, go and see your doctor; when business is sick, call on your printer. Take a dose each week, and thus prevent business depression.

We make no charge for advice.

HOYT & SON.

Specialists in Paper and Ink,
HAMMONTON.

Lyford Beverage Notary Public

for New Jersey,
tenders his services.
Pension vouchers executed.
Hammonton, N. J.

Herbert G. Henson

ALL THE

DAILY PAPERS

AND

PERIODICALS.

Stationery & Confectionery.

Complete stock of Standard Patterns.

A. H. Phillips Co.

Fire Insurance.

—MONEY—

FOR Mortgage Loans.

Correspondence Solicited.

1815 Atlantic Avenue,
Atlantic City, N. J.

IF

you are looking for

Wagons, Surreys,

Buggies,

Spring Wagons,

and Road Carts,

new or second-hand, call at

F. A. Lehman's Shop

new or second-hand, call at

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

F. A. Lehman's Shop

The Strength of a Giant.

The Prudential has a giant's strength, but it does not use it like a giant. It dispenses its benefits with a liberal hand, and never contests a just claim, often paying more than the sum assured.

THE Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

Home Office, Newark, N.J.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President.
LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-Pres.
EDUAR D. WARD, Sec. & Com.
FORREST F. DRYDEN, Sec'y.

GEO. S. TRUNCER, Asst. Supt., Williamstown, N. J.

Established 1846.

ESTEY REMOVAL

It is with much satisfaction that we announce the removal of our Organ and Piano Warerooms to new commodious and attractive quarters adjoining the new Keith Theatre Building, 1118 Chestnut Street.

where we earnestly solicit a continuance of the generous patronage accorded us during the past fifty-five years.

The name ESTEY on an Organ or Piano is a positive guarantee that life long satisfaction will result.

Grand and Upright Pianos

ESTEY ORGAN and PIANO WAREROOMS
D. E. WOOLLEY, Manager
1118 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.
100 Organs—$10, $15, $25 and upwards—Great Bargains

Oil Stoves

Repaired by WILLIAM BAKER,
No. 25 Third Street,
Hammoncton.

Dr. H. G. BLACK
Veterinary Surgeon
1212 Atlantic Avenue
ATLANTIC CITY

Will answer telephone calls anywhere in the County.

We will try to fill every order satisfactorily.

A. Heinicke
General Blacksmith
Horse Shoer
Wheelwright
Wagon Building
of all kinds.
Satisfaction given to everybody.

Shop on the County Road.

Chas. Woodnutt
JUSTICE of the PEACE
(Judge of the Peace)
Commissioner of Deeds
Insurance & Real Estate Agt.
Office at residence, 405 Bellevue Ave.

Sold by All Newsdealers

MUSIC

Published Monthly to all lovers of music and music of the world. It is the most complete and authoritative source of information for the pianist, the singer, the composer, the critic, the collector, the student, the teacher, the amateur, the professional, the enthusiast, the connoisseur, the collector, the student, the teacher, the amateur, the professional, the enthusiast, the connoisseur.

At Baker's MARKET.

Rump Steak, 18 cents.
Sirloin, 20 cents.
Fresh Sausage, 14 c.

Closed on Sunday
after October 1st.

The Republican.
(Entered as second class mail matter.)
SATURDAY, OCT. 5, 1901
Republican Ticket.
For Governor of New Jersey,
FRANKLIN J. MURPHY,
Of Trenton.

Republican County Convention.

A Convention of delegates representing the Republican voters of the several election districts of Atlantic County, to place in nomination a candidate for Senator, a candidate for the General Assembly, and a candidate for Coroner, to be voted for at the next general election, is hereby called to meet at Ertell's Hall, in the City of Egg Harbor City, on

Saturday, Oct. 12, 1901,
at 11 o'clock a. m. The delegate representation to which these several cities, towns, townships, and boroughs are entitled, in the convention, as fixed by Rule No. 8 adopted by the convention of 1900, is as follows:

Absecon	4
Atlantic City	10
First ward	10
Second ward	10
Third ward	10
Fourth ward	10
Brigantine	1
First ward	1
Second ward	1
Buena Vista Township	5
Egg Harbor City	7
Egg Harbor Township	7
Gateway Township	1
Hamilton Township	3
First ward	3
Second ward	3
Third ward	3
Fourth ward	3
Fifth ward	3
Sixth ward	3
Seventh ward	3
Eighth ward	3
Ninth ward	3
Tenth ward	3
Eleventh ward	3
Twelfth ward	3
Thirteenth ward	3
Fourteenth ward	3
Fifteenth ward	3
Sixteenth ward	3
Seventeenth ward	3
Eighteenth ward	3
Nineteenth ward	3
Twentieth ward	3
Twenty-first ward	3
Twenty-second ward	3
Twenty-third ward	3
Twenty-fourth ward	3
Twenty-fifth ward	3
Twenty-sixth ward	3
Twenty-seventh ward	3
Twenty-eighth ward	3
Twenty-ninth ward	3
Thirtieth ward	3
Thirty-first ward	3
Thirty-second ward	3
Thirty-third ward	3
Thirty-fourth ward	3
Thirty-fifth ward	3
Thirty-sixth ward	3
Thirty-seventh ward	3
Thirty-eighth ward	3
Thirty-ninth ward	3
Fortieth ward	3
Forty-first ward	3
Forty-second ward	3
Forty-third ward	3
Forty-fourth ward	3
Forty-fifth ward	3
Forty-sixth ward	3
Forty-seventh ward	3
Forty-eighth ward	3
Forty-ninth ward	3
Fiftieth ward	3
Fifty-first ward	3
Fifty-second ward	3
Fifty-third ward	3
Fifty-fourth ward	3
Fifty-fifth ward	3
Fifty-sixth ward	3
Fifty-seventh ward	3
Fifty-eighth ward	3
Fifty-ninth ward	3
Sixtieth ward	3
Sixty-first ward	3
Sixty-second ward	3
Sixty-third ward	3
Sixty-fourth ward	3
Sixty-fifth ward	3
Sixty-sixth ward	3
Sixty-seventh ward	3
Sixty-eighth ward	3
Sixty-ninth ward	3
Seventieth ward	3
Seventy-first ward	3
Seventy-second ward	3
Seventy-third ward	3
Seventy-fourth ward	3
Seventy-fifth ward	3
Seventy-sixth ward	3
Seventy-seventh ward	3
Seventy-eighth ward	3
Seventy-ninth ward	3
Eightieth ward	3
Eighty-first ward	3
Eighty-second ward	3
Eighty-third ward	3
Eighty-fourth ward	3
Eighty-fifth ward	3
Eighty-sixth ward	3
Eighty-seventh ward	3
Eighty-eighth ward	3
Eighty-ninth ward	3
Ninetieth ward	3
Ninety-first ward	3
Ninety-second ward	3
Ninety-third ward	3
Ninety-fourth ward	3
Ninety-fifth ward	3
Ninety-sixth ward	3
Ninety-seventh ward	3
Ninety-eighth ward	3
Ninety-ninth ward	3
One hundredth ward	3

EDWARD S. LEE, Chairman.
Attest: E. C. SHANER, Sec'y.

McKinley Islands.

A suggestion has been made that Congress change the name of our Philippine Islands, and give them the name of our late lamented President. All things considered, this would be peculiarly appropriate, and be a more enduring monument to Mr. McKinley than any shaft or structure that money could buy or architect design.

Through the wise leadership of President McKinley, these islands became the property of the United States. The present name is too suggestive of their past history, and a more distinctly American name would better accord with their new government.

It is said that President Roosevelt has spoken approvingly of the proposition, and will recommend the change in his first message to Congress, next December. We should be glad to vote in favor of the "McKinley Islands."

List of uncollected letters in the Hammoncton Post Office on Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, 1901:

Ed. Jenkins	1
Russell Johnson	1
Theresa Johnson	1
Gio. Polidoro	1
Giovanni Piro	1
Vincenzo Piro	1
Giuseppe Piro	1

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

Every school has room for improvement.

It's peculiar that the product of the still makes men noisy.

A Shocking Calumny
"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. K. Kellott, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Kidney Pills quickly cured him. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Guaranteed, 25 cents. Sold by Grocers."

Some Sharp Talk.

Do you shave yourself? We are agents for
THE GRIFFON RAZORS
Every one guaranteed. Prices, $1 to $2.50.

Also have a nice line of
POCKET KNIVES and SCISSORS of the best quality.

Special attention given to the examination of Eyes, either day or evening

ROBERT STEEL, Jeweler,
Graduate Optician.

"Dodgers,"—all sizes,
Printed promptly at the REPUBLICAN office.

Just the thing you want,
for this weather,—our
Boiled Corned Beef and Ham,
—the best in town, at
McINTYRE'S Market,
309 Bellevue Ave.

Pickling and Preserving
TIME IS HERE.

We can give you the purest
Spices—whole or ground.
Also pure Cider Vinegar,—at lowest prices.

We have half-pound packages of Spices, with enclosed recipe for Chow Chow or Bordeaux Sauce, very handy, 10 c.

Fruit Jars, Jelly Glasses,
Jar Lids and Rubbers.

At Rainier's.

The only printing house
in Hammoncton is
The South Jersey Republican Office.

We are well equipped for all sorts of printing,
know how to do it, charge fair prices,
and finish work just when promised.

CHICKENS!

Did you say CHICKENS
Having bought the entire stock of a Poultry Farm,
we are better prepared than ever before to fill orders.
Old, 14 cents per pound. Spring, 18 cents.
Fine Print Butter, 28 c. a pound.

At ECKHARDT'S.

The Republican.
SATURDAY, OCT. 5, 1901
Mail Time
Mails will close at the Hammoncton Post Office as follows:

—LEAVE—
DOWN	UP
9:10 A.M.	7:10 A.M.
5:35 P.M.	12:20 P.M.
	3:55
—ARRIVE—
5:55 A.M.	7:25 A.M.
4:22	4:10 P.M.
6:48 P.M.

Republican Town Census.

A census of the Republican voters of Hammoncton will be held on Wednesday Eve'g, Oct. 9th,
at 8 o'clock, in Firemen's Hall, for the purpose of electing nine delegates to the County Convention to be held in Egg Harbor City on Saturday, Oct. 12. T. C. ELVINS, Co. Ex. Com.

The October "Echo" is out.
Grand Army Post-meeting this evening.
Don't trust our railroad time-tables, this week.
Notice the change of mail-time at head of this column.
Workingmen's Loan Association meeting next Monday evening.
The Board of Registration will begin their canvass next Tuesday.
Miss Minnie H. Newcomb is spending her October vacation at home.
CORN and FLOUR, RICE, Beans, Peas, etc., at private sale.
W. A. CRAWFORD and family have moved from Camden to Newburgh, New York.
Will Edgerton, of Elm, has a badly swollen hand, caused by the sting of a bee.
Base-ball game at 3:30 this afternoon. A strong visiting team is expected.
These brick-pits in this neighborhood mean new brick-curbings and pavements.
IF YOU TIME of breakfast food every morning, alternate with sliced wheat biscuits, it counts as JACKSON'S.
Andrus Holman was one of our Hammonctonians at the State Fair, on Wednesday.
The Board of Freeholders will meet in Memorial Hall, Atlantic City, next Wednesday.
Mr. George Foster, from New England, has been visiting his niece, Mrs. L. Beverage.
The Bank is extending its brick building and pavement to the northern line of its property.
125 CIGARETTES and a good Hamilton for 10 c. Apply to A. J. JACKSON.
The Old Palms have changed their hour for Lodge meeting to 7:30—Wednesday evening.
Hon. S. D. Hoffman has been re-appointed Superintendent of Schools for Atlantic County.
The Misses Minnie and Phoebe Newcomb spent a week with their brother-in-law, Brooklyn.
Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Beckley, of Vermont, visited their aunt, Mrs. J. S. Thayer, for a few days.
GOOD MACKEREL, 10 cents each. AL JACKSON'S.
Born, in Millwood, California, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laid, a son, on Sunday, Sept. 23rd, 1901.
How many noticed the peculiar combination of figures, in writing the date last Tuesday,—10-1-01.
Born, in Hammoncton, N. J., on Sunday, Sept. 22nd, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zantz, a daughter.
The Reading railroad trains now leave Hammoncton as follows: Up—at 6:07, 8:00 (express), 9:50, 10:53 (exp.), a. m.; 4:38, 6:00 (exp.), p. m. Down,—9:10 a. m.; 2:40 (exp.) 4:43 (exp.), 6:32, and 7:50 p. m.
ADVERTISEMENTS in this size type, one half cent per word for each insertion. No charge less than 10 words.
The Hammoncton delegation to the County Convention will probably present the name of Thomas C. Rivins for nomination for Assemblyman. He was an active Republican worker before he was old enough to vote, in every way well qualified for the position, in very popular in this section, and will be a credit to the county. We hope to see him nominated.
Runs with the A. H. Phillips Co., 2815 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

On the W. J. & S. Railroad, the up trains now leave Hammoncton station as follows: 6:00, 7:50, 9:50 (express), a. m.; 12:30 and 4:04 p. m. Down trains arrive at 9:17 a. m.; 12:05, 2:44 (exp.), 5:43, 7:50 p. m.

The Baraca Union are to hold religious meetings in the old Post-office building, every Sunday evening at 8:45, after church services have closed. The first of these meetings will be held on the 13th inst., and all will be for men only.

Mr. George A. Blake, of Woodbine, Cape May County, a teacher in the Agricultural School at that place, was in Hammoncton on Wednesday, on a tour of investigation, with a view of making a home here for himself and family, next Spring.

A HOUSE TO RENT, on Second Street, between 2nd and 3rd Sts., 2 rooms.

The Hammoncton Lyceum will hold its first meeting for the season on Monday evening, 14th inst. The subject for debate will be,—Resolved, That the constitutional rights of free speech and a free press should be modified by law, for the public safety.

A delegation of about thirty members of Shamunkin Tribe, No. 87, Iap. O. R. M., expect to visit Tonguwa Tribe, No. 210, of Philadelphia, on Saturday's Sleep, 12th Sun, Traveling Moon, C. S. D. 410 (next Saturday). All brothers who can do so are invited to go with us. C. of R.

Notice the change of time in the Sunday evening Church services. The regular preaching services in Presbyterian, Methodist, and Baptist Churches will hereafter begin at 7:15. Young People's meetings will begin at 6:30, except at the Baptist Church, which will be at 6:15. The bell will ring at 6:35 and 7:10.

STEREOSCOPIC SLIDES, over two dozen the new original photograph views, Cuba, Philippines, Klondike etc. The retail price is 10c. Will not sell for less. Apply at the Republican office.

Carl Thomas, a lad about ten years old, while riding on Bellevue with a number of other boys, Wednesday, in some unexplained manner came into collision with a wagon. His bicycle was badly damaged, the boy thrown to the ground, and one wagon wheel ran over his neck. Fortunately, the wagon was light, the ground not very hard, and Carl was not injured; but it certainly looked frightful.

We have heretofore spoken of the desirability of retaining in Hammoncton the cut glass factory of Skinner & Son. It is necessary that the firm should know, before long, whether the citizens will provide them a suitable building for their constantly growing business. A meeting is called for next Thursday evening, 10th inst., at eight o'clock, in the Council Room, to which all who are interested in the matter are invited. Don't forget about it, and then growl if Vineland's greater liberality secures the factory.

The fifty-ninth annual session of the New Jersey Universalist Convention will be held in Hammoncton next Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 9th and 10th. Wednesday eve., it will open with a brief praise service, followed by the Occasional Service by the Rev. H. R. Rao, of Newark. The State Y. P. C. U. from 9:15 A.M., and a devotional meeting at 11:45. Afternoon, at 2:00, will be devoted to business. In the eve., there will be a platform meeting, with the Rev. John Clarence Lee, D.D., of Philadelphia, as one of the speakers, and also either General Supt. Atwood or the Rev. William Gilbert (Unitarian), of Vineland.

That Night School.

It is intended to open the night school on Monday evening, Oct. 15th, at 7:00 o'clock, in the Central School building.

It will be free to all who desire to come. No restriction as to sex or age, excepting that pupils must be over 12 years old, and are not attending day school. The aim is to give those who are unable to go to school days, an opportunity to advance in the more useful and practical studies of the public school, such as arithmetic, spelling, book-keeping, writing, grammar, and geography.

If any one desires to take up other subjects than those mentioned, the opportunity to do so will be given, limited only by the requirements of classes in the school. No person need take all the subjects. If one desires to do special work in arithmetic, and that only, he will be permitted to do so. The same privilege in all other branches.

All who are desirous of attending such school will meet as requested above. Remember, the night school is free, and the work you do is adapted to your wants. It seems like a golden opportunity.—Come out, and prepare yourself for higher position and better salary.

N. C. HOLBROOK,
Supervising Principal.

ELWOOD NOTES.

Wednesday evening, a supper was given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, at the parsonage.

Mr. Robert S. Smith is having a vacation, a few days of which he spent in Elwood with his parents. He has now gone to Buffalo to spend a couple of weeks, accompanied by Mr. Charles Wagner, proprietor of Hotel Loraine, Atlantic City.

W. L. Stone and Harry Langham have left home for an indefinite time, expecting to spend about six weeks in Indiana, and the winter by traveling through the South.

Miss Jeanie Smith has returned home for the winter, after a busy season in Atlantic City.

Thursday evening, the C. E. Society took charge of the prayer meeting in the Presbyterian Church, the pastor having a sore throat.

Miss Grace Robinson has been spending several days with her brother, at Ancon.

Did you ever see a cat and a bird play together? J. F. Bozack has a tame crow and a white cat who are very good friends, and enjoy many a frolic. They also have several black cats, which are not on as good terms with the crow.

There is a family here who need help, needing almost everything. When they came here they had nothing but the clothes they wore, and now have little besides what neighbors have given them. Their name is Gardener. The little boy goes to school, the father works for Mr. Bozarth, the mother too ill to work. They are living in a house without any windows. Some one gave them a stove, but they need a table and underclothes, at once.

LOOK!

We have 16 first-class Bicycles,
with Fauber Hangers,
$22.50 each.

Call and see them.

A. L. PATTEN.

HAVE YOU PURCHASED the material for your new Fall suit? If not, call and see our new Dress Goods.

Our Black materials are especially attractive this year. Among them are Mohairs, Serges, Cashmeres, Cheviots, Flannels, Broadcloths, Granite Cloths, Whip Cords, and a very heavy rough goods suitable for Ladies' Walking Skirts, Jackets, and Boys' Suits. Prices from 15 cents to $1 25 a yard.

For Waists, our specialty is a French Flannel, at 50 cents a yard,—in red, garnet, light blue, pink, old rose, and a new and popular shade of green. These goods will wash and wear beautifully.

Besides these, we had a nice line of goods in tans, blues, grays, browns, greens, and mixed shades, at prices to suit all. We can also fit you out with Trimming Braid, Linings, Silks, etc.; and know that you cannot fail to be satisfied.

Fresh Buckwheat & Pancake Flour are on hand.

W. L. BLACK.

Have you seen our Furniture?

We can show you anything from a Rocking Chair to a whole Suite.

Our Puritan Oil Stoves
are giving satisfaction everywhere.

CALL AND SEE THEM.

H. McD. LITTLE.

Uncle Sam's Coffee!

From his own possessions,
Hawaii, Manila, Porto Rico,
has a flavor peculiarly its own.

It is very much like the best Mocha and Java,
but you would like it better.

Imported and roasted by Thos. Woods & Co., Boston.

For sale in Hammoncton by
M. L. Jackson & Son

LET US FIT

A Morrow
Coaster and Brake
ON YOUR BICYCLE.

It will add 25 per cent to the comforts of bicycling.
Ride 50 miles — Pedal only 35.

E. A. Cordery.

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

A DEPARTMENT FOR LITTLE BOYS AND GIRLS.

Something that will interest the juvenile members of every household. Quaint actions and bright sayings of happy children and cunning children.

Boys sometimes think they cannot afford to be mischievous and faithful to the little things. A story is told of a boy of the right stamp and what came of his faithfulness.

A few years ago a large firm in New York city advertised for a boy to look after the store. A young boy, looking like a queen, accompanied by a woman, who proved to be his aunt, in fear of faithless parents, by whom he had been abandoned. Looking at this wife, the advertiser said: "You take him; places all full. Besides he is too small."

"I know he is small," said the woman, "but he is willing and faithful."

There was thinking in the boy's eyes which made the merchant think again. A partner in the firm volunteered to remark that he did not see what they wanted with such a boy; he wasn't bigger than a piglet of child. But, after consideration, the boy was set to work.

Few days later, a call was made on the boys in the store for some one to stay all night. The prompt response of the little fellow contrasted with the reluctance of the others. In the middle of the night the merchant looked in to see if all was right in the store; and presently discovered this youthful protegee busy acting labels.

"What are you doing?" he said. "Old-foot-on-the-sock-again."

"I know you did not tell me so, but I thought I might as well be doing something." In the morning the cashier got orders to "double that boy's wages, for he is willing."

Only a few weeks elapsed before an show of wild beasts passed through the streets; and very naturally all hands to the store. The boy was the spectacle. A thief saw his opportunity, and entered at the rear door to seize something. In a twinkling found himself firmly clutched by the diminutive clerk, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: "You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay."

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.

Remembering Him.

"Oh, yes, perhaps I've made my call too long," he said. "I had said, 'No, no, it wasn't long at all.' It only seemed to be."

Philadelphia Press.

EMANCIPATED SERFS.

Contrast Between Former and Present Conditions in Russia.

Prince Kravtchin, a Russian nobleman whose detestation of despotism has exiled him from his native land, tells in the Atlantic this story to show what the abolition of serfdom meant for the peasants:

One evening our village priest, an middle-aged peasant, Anton Savchuk, reading a book of psalms. He was reading a psalm of which each verse began with the word "Rejoice."

"What are you reading?" he was asked.

"Well, father, I will tell you," he replied. "Fourteen years ago the prince came here. It was in the winter. I had just returned home, almost frozen. A snow-storm was raging. I had just begun undressing when we heard a knock at the window. It was the elder, who was shouting: 'What are you reading?'

"We all to the prince; he wants you." "We all—my wife and our children—were thunderstruck. What may be wanted from you? My wife began to weep. I signed myself with the cross and went. The prince was standing in the snow. He asked me to cross the bridge."

"Well, it ended all right. The old prince was taking his afternoon stroll, and when he woke up—he asked me to know what I was doing."

"Come to-morrow to repair the plaster in that room." So I went home quite happy, and when I came to that bridge I found my wife standing there. She had stood there all the time, with the baby in her arms, at the snow-storm, waiting for me."

"What has happened, Savchuk?" she asked.

"Well, I said, 'no harm; he only asked me to make some repairs.'"

"That was, father, under the old prince. And now, the young prince came here the other day. I went to see him, and found him in the garden at the tea-table, in the shadow of the house; you, father, sat with him, and the elder—the elder—with his mayoral chain upon his breast. 'Will you have tea, Savchuk?' he asked me. 'Take a chair,' 'Peter Grigoriev,' he said to the old one—'give us one more chair!'

"And Peter Grigoriev? you know what a terror he is to him who he was the manager of the old prince's household, and after a struggle, was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked why he stayed behind to watch when all other boys work, he replied: 'You told me never to leave the store when others were absent; and I thought I'd stay.'"

Orders were given to give him more. "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful."

To-day that boy is a member of the firm—Presbyterian banner.

The Hardest Candy.

The most popular and the most ancient of bon-bons are sugar plums, pastilles and burnt almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date back from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was certain Julius Draculus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has brought so much damage to our teeth for twenty centuries, in the year 117 B. C., according to the New York Herald. These bon-bons, called draculi, after their inventor (draculus in French) remained the exclusive property of the family of Fabius, but at the birth or marriage of one of that family a great distribution of draculi took place, as a sign of good-will. He made them in many of the nobility of Europe. The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protégé of the Medici. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV., of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bon-bons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and strange to say, they were perfection from the beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, vanilla, heliotrope and carnation. Burnt almonds are purely of French origin, owing their invention to the great confectioner, a certain French chef, the day Marshal Dupleix in India, who had already invented a toothsome delicacy, and was in need of resources. He searched, he reflected, he combined, and finally he conceived a delicious bon-bon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of the inventor, Pastilla. This is the history of the invention of bon-bons, for all others are merely combinations or developments of these three: the sugar plum, the pastille and the burnt almond.</

THE SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN

The only newspaper printed in Hammonton $1.25 a year, post-paid $1.00 in the county.

Printing

Well equipped for in all branches— Pamphlets, Business Cards, Posters, Dodgers, Bill-Heads, Statements, Letter-heads, Note-heads, Envelopes

Reasonable

prices charged; always. We will not do cheap work, and can't afford to do good work for nothing

Promptness

a specialty. If we cannot do your work when you want it done we'll tell you so, and finish it when we promise to

The Tribune

New York, the weekly edition, and the Republican, for $1.25 A pile of good reading for a little money

The Press

Philadelphia, weekly, and the Republican, a year for $1.25

Address, call or phone us—

HOYT & SON,

100-8 Bellevue Ave., Hammonton.

A Communication.
Mr. Editor:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my life got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagwell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Crowell.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
P. Sheridan Prosser, Executor of Jason St. John, deceased, by direction of the Surrogate of the County of Atlantic, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Jason St. John to bring in their debts, demands, and claims against the estate of the said deceased, under oath, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred of any action therefor against the said Executor.
Dated September 5th, 1901.
P. SHERIDAN PROSSER, Executor.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, issued out of the New Jersey Court of Chancery, will be sold at public vendue, on Saturday, Oct. 12th, 1901
at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the hotel of Louis Kuchin, corner of Atlantic and South-Carolina Avenues, in the City of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, all that certain lot or tract of land and premises, situate, lying, and being in the Town of Hammonton, County of Atlantic, and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at point on the southeasterly side of Orchard St., one hundred and forty-four feet from the southerly corner of Orchard Street and Second or Fay Street; thence extending (1) southwesterly along the line of Orchard Street twenty-seven feet to a point on corner of lot formerly owned by Thomas Pasco; thence (2) south-easterly along the line of said Pasco lot and lot formerly owned by one Geo. W. Fay one hundred and thirty-four feet to a point on said Fay lot; thence (3) northeasterly on a line parallel to Orchard Street and along the line of lot of one G. W. Prosser twenty-seven feet to a point; thence (4) northeasterly on a line parallel with second course one hundred and thirty-four feet to place of beginning.
Being a part of the same lot of land that Walter C. Horton and wife and W. Oscar Eorton and wife, by deed dated July 1st, 1876, recorded in the Clerk's office at May's Landing, New Jersey, in Book N. 54 of Deeds, page 282, etc., granted and conveyed unto the said Eliza Nestor in fee.
Seized as the property of Eliza Nestor et al, and taken in execution at the suit of Hammonton Loan and Building Association, and to be sold by SMITH E. JOHNSON, Sheriff.
Dated September 14th, 1901.
HENRY F. STOCKWELL, Solicitor.
Pr. fee, $2.00

HARNESSES.
A full assortment of hand and machine-made,—for work or driving.

Trunks, Valises, Whips, Riding Saddles, Nets, etc.

L. W. COGLEY,
Hammonton, N. J.

JOS. H. GARTON,
Justice of the Peace,
Hammonton, N. J.
Office at Residence, Middle Road.

O. A. CAMPBELL H. SCULL
O. A. Campbell & Co.,
Real Estate & Insurance.
Money to loan on mortgage. Parties having houses to rent, or properties for sale or exchange, will do well to call, or write us.
Office, 100 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

Keyser Bros.,
House, Sign,

AND
Ornamental Painters

Graining, Glazing, Kalsomining and Paper Hanging.

Hammonton, N. J.

How about that little

BILL

?

HOYT & SON.

That we sent you—

In it paid yet?

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

HOYT & SON.

Stood Death Off.
E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was entirely cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs, and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50 c., at Crowell's Pharmacy.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, drugist.

Confectionery

Only the choicest.

Bread & Cakes

Always the best

J. B. SMALL,

Cor. Second and Bellevue,
Hammonton.

Eli H. Chandler.

Attorney & Counselor

At Law,
Arlitz Building, Hammonton,
Rooms 25-27 Real Est. & Law Bld'g,
Atlantic City.
Official Town Attorney,
In Hammonton every Friday
Practice in all Courts of the State.

Money for first mortgage loans

W. H. Bernshouse

Insurance Agent

Notary Public,
Commissioner of Deeds,

Office, 101 Railroad Ave.
Hammonton.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE

BANKS' BUSINESS COLLEGE 925 Chestnut St. Philadelphia

POSITIONS GUARANTEED
1200 STUDENTS LAST YEAR
You will be interested in our $5.00 DEFERRED TUITION DEBENTURES

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handwritten notes sent free. Patent secured for securing patents. Patents taken through Hunt & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year in advance. Sold by newsdealers.

MUNN & CO 381 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 422 F St., Washington, D. C.

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

Better than a Piano, Organ, or Music Box, for it sings and talks as well as plays, and don't cost as much. It reproduces the music of any instrument—band or orchestra—tells stories and sings—the old familiar hymns as well as the popular songs—it is always ready. See that Mr. Edison's signature is on every machine. Catalogues of all dealers, or NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 135 Fifth Ave., New York.

THE REPUBLICAN OFFICE

Is well equipped for any kind of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING

These time-tables are not correct

WEST JERSEY & SEASHORE R. R.

Schedule in effect June 28, 1901 Subject to change.

DOWN TRAINS.												UP TRAINS.
Sun.	Sun.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Sun.	Sun.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.
P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.
4:30	5:00	5:30	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30
Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City

* Stops only on notice to conductor or agent, or on signal.
J. B. HUTCHINSON, Gen'l Manager. J. R. WOOD, Gen'l Pass'g Agent.

Atlantic City R. R.

Saturday, June 29, 1901 Subject to change.

DOWN TRAINS.												UP TRAINS.
Sun.	Sun.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Sun.	Sun.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.	Acc.
P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.
5:00	5:30	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30
Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City

* Sunday night express up leaves Atlantic 6:30, Egg Harbor 6:52, Hammonton 7:06, reaching Phila. 10:50.
Another Sunday night express up leaves Atlantic 9:20, Egg Harbor 9:42, Hammonton 10:06, reaching Phila. 10:50.
Weekday morning down express leaves Phila. 10:15, Winslow 11:21, Hammonton 11:29, Egg Harbor 11:42, reaching Atlantic 12:05.
Morning accom. up leaves Atlantic 5:25, Pleasantville 5:35, Egg Harbor 5:51, Elwood 6:02, Hammonton 6:12, Winslow 6:18, Phila. 7:25.
Morning express up leaves Atlantic 11:00, Hammonton 11:30, and Phila. 12:15.
Afternoon down train leaves Phila. 3:00, Hammonton 3:41, Egg Harbor 3:51, Atlantic 4:16.
Night accommodation down, leaving Phila. at 8:00, reaching Hammonton 9:16.
W. G. BESLER, Gen. Sup't. EDSON J. WEEKS, Gen. Passenger Agent

Philadelphia Weekly Press

and the South Jersey Republican

(two papers each week), for $1.25 a year to any address in this county, or $1.50 outside.

The Electric Light, Heat & Power Co.

of Hammonton.

Rates can be had on application.

The People's National Family Newspaper.

New	Published Monday, Wednesday and Friday, is in reality a fine, fresh, every-other-day daily, giving the latest news on the day of issue, and covering news of the other two. It contains all important foreign and domestic news which appears in the Daily Tribune of the same date, also domestic and foreign correspondence, short stories, elegant half-tone illustrations, humorous items, important information, fashion notes, agricultural matters, and comprehensive and reliable financial and market reports.	New	Published Thursday, and known for nearly sixty years in every part of the United States as a National Family Newspaper of the highest class, for farmers and villagers. It contains all the most important general news of the Daily Tribune up to hour of going to press, an agricultural department of the highest order, has entertaining reading for every member of the family old and young, market reports which are accepted as authority by farmers and country merchants, and is clean, up to date, interesting and instructive.
York	Regular subscription price, $1.00 per year. We furnish it with the Republican for $2 per year.	York	Regular subscription price, $1.00 per year. We furnish it with the Republican for $1.25 per year.
Tri-weekly		Weekly
Tribune		Tribune

Send all orders to the "Republican," Hammonton, N. J.