TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headaches, falling after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructations of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt, removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

HE FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.
"I have had Dyspepsia, with Constipation, two years, and have tried ten different kinds of pills, and TUTT'S are the first that have done me any good. They have cleaned me out nicely. My appetite is splendid, food digests readily, and I now have natural passages. I feel like a new man."

BY JINGO.

"Three little maids from school" were they, trying to play horse and driver out on the side walk; and as I passed by the smallest, a chubby little creature, was objecting to the shortness of the worsted rein. "We can't play horse," said she, "there's only one string." "Oh," said her elder, and philosophical companion, "play it's two strings." I smiled as I walked on, but the answer lingered in my mind, and I couldn't help thinking of the many children of larger growth who are frequently having to "play it's two strings." They are those of a fixed income, and a restricted one, at that, who can never have the satisfaction of seeing things correspond. Thus, if the table boasts a new set of china, the linen is worn and darned, or the glassware cracked and mismatched. If a new carpet covers the floor, the furniture is faded and shabby, or vice versa. Or, if the outside glistens in all the glory of a new coat of paint, the curtains and shades must do duty another year. So with personal adornments and the question of wardrobe. It is only when the new boots come to half-soleing that it is possible to get a new hat, and that will be nearly worn out before a new dress or coat can be procured; so that there never seems to come a time when it is possible to start out in new attire from top to toe, it seldom occurs but once in a person's life and that when first born. There's always the necessity for playing "it's two strings." Happy are those who are philosophical and imaginative enough to follow this juvenile recipe. But, alas! how many more there are who can't "make believe" a cent's worth.

The capture of a sneak-thief such as Clark is an important one and worthy of reward, but I doubt if the two young men who risked their lives, and so faithfully served the town have received so much as "thank you" from others than the owners of the house in which the scoundrel was detected. The presentation of a well filled purse or an entertainment given for their benefit is now the proper thing and the town can well afford it. The Town Council is at fault for the detection of the thief long ago. All honor to the boys who caught him! Now let the people show their appreciation.

There is no bigger or more aggravating chestnut extant than the term "chestnuts," nor is there a more blatant nuisance than the chestnut gong. The chestnut idea is being so run into the ground, and with such persistent energy that when it is buried out of sight, beyond hope of resurrection, praises will ascend from the entire be-chestnuted human race on this continent.

A scarcity of snake stories this year gives the Prohibitionists great encouragement.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc. It HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, increases Appetite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. DR. G. H. BREKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action equal to all other forms of iron. In weakness, or low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
DR. W. N. WATERBURY, Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

GENUINE MERIT

IS SURE TO WIN.

We believe the RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE has real, genuine merit. It is this faith which has led us to put our money into it so liberally. We have put more into it than money—money could not buy the fair name we have gained by twenty years of honorable business dealing right here on Market St., Philadelphia, and yet so great is our faith in the Russian Rheumatism Cure that we are willing to stake our reputation on it as a safe, speedy and permanent cure for all Rheumatism, why suffer one day longer than is necessary. Could we offer any better guaranty of good faith? Others besides ourselves have tested its merits, and add their hearty and unequivocal endorsement. We send to all who ask it a pamphlet containing much of such testimony. And yet if you have Rheumatism, why suffer one day longer than is necessary. It costs only $2.50 to be cured, and while you are making up your mind to try it you might be made well. The

Entered as second class matter. HAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J. SATURDAY, OCT. 9, 1886.

OUR TICKET.

For Governor, BENJAMIN F. HOWEY. For Congressman, JAMES BUCHANAN.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican County Convention of Atlantic County will be held at Eriell's Hall, Egg Harbor City, on Saturday, October 16th.

At 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for State Senator, Assemblyman, and one Coroner for three years.

The following is the number of delegates to which each City, Township, and Ward is entitled:

Asbeston 4, South Atlantic 3, Atlantic-1st ward 11, Buena Vista 4, Atlantic-2nd ward 11, Egg Harbor Twp 6, Egg Harbor City 4, Gateway 6, Hamilton 5, Hammonton 6, Mattitikon 3, Weymouth 3.

W. E. FARRELL, Chairman last Convention.

Political parties aiming for a supremacy should strengthen their lines by all proper means at their command.

There is no way in which a party can be invested with more life, vigor, and energy, than by a rotation in the offices at their command.

There are, however, men of all parties who, from personal interest after, being sufficiently honored by their constituents, are constantly thrusting themselves upon the people, to the injury of their party.

The expressed sentiment of the Republican party is directly opposed to successive terms of office, with certain few exceptional cases in the American Congress.

Custom has allowed in the two great parties, a second term to those who have filled a satisfactory term, thus being true in the highest office of the Nation; and when an attempt was made by the Republicans in the National Convention at Chicago, in 1880, to break into this custom by the nomination of General U. S. Grant, the most popular of Presidents, for a third term, he was most signally defeated; and every man knows that this attempt caused the Republican party to disintegrate, and paved the way for the Democratic National success of 1884.

In our own state the Governor is not eligible to a second consecutive term; and such is also true of the sheriff's and some other offices.

The Republicans of this county have taken no heed or warning from the example of the National Convention of 1880, but nominated our State Senator for a third consecutive term. But how? and at what cost? For a second term he received a majority of about one thousand votes; for a third term he received a majority of about three hundred votes, after one of the fiercest political contests ever had in this county.

This election for a third term was accomplished at a cost to the Republican party of about seven hundred votes. Can the Republican party afford this? Yet, in the face of experience, friends of the present Senator are endeavoring to force him on the party for a fourth term, and this we believe against the wishes of the intelligence of the county who have the welfare of their party at heart, and would bury all personality and self interest for its success. It is believed by many that there would be a greater ratio of falling off in votes on the fourth term, than there was on the third; and it is a question in arithmetic as to how far in the minority the candidate would be. Democrats are secretly urging the renomination of the present senator, strong in the belief that should he be so re-nominated their control of this county is assured in the State Senate for three years at least.

The ability of the party is not wholly concentrated in any one man, there are many in this county who could serve with distinction in the State Senate. Let us, then, be assured of success in the nomination of a new man of intelligence, ability, honesty and integrity.

one who has untiring life and energy to rally the party to the support of Republican principles; and make the coming campaign a glorious and triumphant Republican success. Such a man is what the party now most needs, and he can be found in the person of Hon. Harry L. Shippe, of Atlantic City.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

They Caught Him.

As is well known to most of our citizens, there has been a series of petty burglaries in town, occurring at irregular intervals for two years or more. All these were strangely similar—nearly every one occurring in the evening, and while the occupants were at church or attending some social gathering. Circumstances soon pointed to one of our citizens, Richard Clark, but he was so well known, and his general conduct was so correct, that many of us refused to believe him guilty. Lately, however, the individual (some say there are two or three working together) became less cautious, and has several times been caught in very compromising situations. One evening lately this same Clark was noticed loitering around the premises occupied by Major Jordan and Mrs. Knight, and a watch was set. Last Saturday evening Messrs. Lincoln Jones and George Dodd were quietly posted in the Major's rooms, while both families and all the immediate neighbors were at Union Hall. Between nine and ten o'clock footsteps were heard outside. The watchers kept quiet, and were soon started by a resounding rap on the door. Receiving no response, the visitor unlocked the door, but found it hard to open, and passed on to the front door, which he unlocked and opened, entered and closed behind him. The watchers were in a dark room, and could see the intruder as he stood with bowed head, listening, then cautiously moved forward a few steps, listened, then proceeded to a back room. Jones quietly followed and grasped the burglar, who fought frantically in his endeavor to escape. Dodd rushed for a light, and finding his partner overmatched, attempted to use a policeman's club, but in the confusion struck Jones' arm and caused him to drop his revolver which was exploded by the fall. The struggle continued, from room to room, into the hall, until Clark refusing to surrender, and seeming likely to escape, Dodd used his heavy club so effectively that Clark gave up and begged for mercy. He was then taken inside and covered with a revolver while Dodd went out for help. Plenty of men responded, and Constable Bernhouse before Justice Atkinson, who gave him a hearing, and it being a non-bailable offence, committed him for trial at the December term of Court. The Constable delivered him to the Sheriff on Sunday morning.

We share the whole community's sympathy for Mrs. Clark and her two bright, promising boys, whom we believe to have been entirely ignorant of the husband and father's misdeeds.

Some two months ago, a citizen was sent to jail for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. On his return he went to work, and for some time acted like a man, but again fell. Friends took him in hand, and seemed likely to get him straight, when (last Saturday) we heard he filled up again, went home, upset the table, and acted in such a manner that on Monday he was again forwarded to May's Landing. Now, our object in telling this is to give his subject information about the stuff he drank. He went to (a well-known citizen) on business, and was given several glasses of hard cider; then — and himself went over to see — (another well-known man), and had some wine; from there he went to an Italian's, where he drank more, and bought some to take home. Those men who furnished him the cider and wine ought to share his imprisonment, especially the first one. Both know what the effect would be, and they both deserve heavier punishment than their victim.

Rev. O. O. Ordway expects to start for Massachusetts on Monday next, to be gone nearly two weeks, and hopes that Mrs. Ordway will return with him. On Sunday, the 17th, Rev. Mr. Goodhall, from Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Penn., will preach in the Baptist Church.

Rev. J. C. Leup has a castor bean plant, by the side of his residence that has attained remarkable size. It measures ten feet in height, and spreads eight feet in width; its trunk, near the ground, is seven inches in circumference. The coloring of its foliage and blossoms is beautiful.

Mr. Wm. E. Bowen, of Philadelphia, has bought lots on East Third St., south side, corner of Maple St.

Mr. J. S. Thayer is figuring on a large building in Merchantville,—a fine dwelling-house with all the modern conveniences.

Don't trust our time-table this week; last Monday's change made it all wrong, and they haven't sent us the correct figures yet.

The hall at the Park will be opened to the public, for roller-skating and dancing, commencing Saturday, October 16th. Admission, 10 cents. Skates, 8 to 10; dancing 10 to 11 c. m.

Gustavus A. Bachmann, of Philadelphia, has just purchased, through Mr. Rutherford's agency, four lots of land on Pleasant Street, belonging to Mrs. Sarah A. Thatcher. He talks of erecting a factory thereon, but we have not learned of what kind.

Among those who responded to the watchman's call for help, Saturday night, was a man who, when asked to help secure the prisoner until an officer came, replied: "Oh, no, I don't want to be mixed up in the affair; I'm not going to May's Landing," and turned away. Two or three others were equally unwilling. It is good that all men were not of the same mind, or Hammonton would be a fine pasture for outlaws, with none to molest.

On Wednesday, Father Van Riel and a friend held the corner-stones of St. Joseph's Church, depositing therein, among other things, copies of the REVUE LOMAN and MIRROR, sample coins, and a history of the Society, making special mention of the lamented founder, Rev. Joseph Esser, of Judge Byrnes, who gave the land, of Mr. Bernhouse, builder, and of the principal contributors. The date for dedication has been fixed, St. Joseph's day, March 19th next.

Rev. R. W. J. Mowhinney was complimented, last Sunday evening, by a crowded house. The Baptists omitted their usual service, and many from other congregations made a farewell visit to the retiring pastor, whom all respect.

The text was Fair's declaration: "Ye are God's handiwork," the preacher's leading thought being that success in Church work is not dependent upon the pastor alone; the responsibility is shared by the Church officers, teachers, parents, and Christians of all stations.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Faith in immortality is the highest tribute that the world has paid to the world of life.

It is a miserable state of mind to have few things to desire, and many things to fear.

Seeing much, and suffering much, and studying much, are the three pillars of learning.

What is the use of spoiling the little good of life by remembering the comfort one has not.

Without courage there cannot be truth, and without truth there cannot be any other virtue.

Pure imagination, of which the loveliest emblem, seems always to gain vigor and grace by the tempest it encounters and in contrary winds to show the brightest plumage.

Judge not thy neighbor. Thou shalt not calumniate. Thou shalt not excite quarrels by repeating the words of others. Indulge not in idle, or in weak not words which are of no purpose, but harm.

A resolution that is communicated is no longer in thy power; thy intentions now become the playing of chance; he who would have stream command faithfully carried out must take man by surprise.

Love is lowliness; on the wedding ring sparkles no jewel. Fancy and artifice are the enemies of the true, the destroying angel, who flies scorching, like a dumb beetle lighting, over all a blossoms of youth.

We cannot approach beauty. Its nature is like opal; it is a gem that hovers and evanesces. Herein it resembles the most excellent things, which all have this rainbow character, defying all attempts at appropriation and retention.

That every day has its pains and sorrows is universally experienced, and almost universally confessed; but let us not attend only to mournful truths; if we look impartially about us we shall find that every day has likewise its pleasures and its joys.

The observing angel knows how sure the color of the trout is to conform in shade with the color of the stream or pond which it inhabits. Not less sure are the mind and habits of an individual to receive color from the daily associations with the individual.

Faith is the life of science. In some form it always precedes. Every revival of literature in the world, every new interest in philosophy, every notable achievement of the sciences, can be traced to something that may be called a revival of religion.

Friend, have you ever dedicated 10 minutes of your time to a consideration of your destiny? Days to your ledger, hours to your amusements; years to your commercial engagements; would it not be wise to reserve some moments for your soul's outlook beyond the grave?

The tiniest bits of opinion sown in the minds of children in private life afterward issue forth to the world and become its opinions, its manners, its gatherings, out of nurseries and those who hold the leading strings of children may even exercise a greater power than those who wield the reins of government.

There is always a presumption that a pure-hearted man will be a right-minded man; and it is delightful to see such one stand before a jury as a witness, and dart on his ingenuities a clear ray of conscience that scatters them like mist. The divine light of a good mind is too much for the "hydraulic" of the world.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding. No talent, no self-denial, no genius, no character are required to set up in the grumbling business. But those who are moved by a large sense of duty have little time for murmuring or complaint.

To the Christian who really believes in the agency of God in the smallest events of life, confidence in his love, and makes his sympathy his refuge, the thousand minute cares and perplexities of life become each one a fine afflicting bond between him and his God.

Circumstance is the occasion of vice, but no more. The seed is in the heart, and the soil has not been found in which it will refuse to grow. There are people who will "break out," as the expressive saying is, anywhere, and in any circumstances. If the tree be good, the fruit will be good; but if the tree be bad, no amount of cultivation will produce good fruit.

You can get on with a man of hasty temper by keeping out of his way when he is ruffled. His mania may be dangerous to you, but it is not to be feared. He is friendly to you, but he is not to be friendly. But a sudden man had better be left alone. He was taken ill when he was born and he won't get over it here.

Never be discouraged because good things go on slowly, and never fall daily to do that good which lies next to you. Do it in a hurry, but be diligent. Enter into the same view of it. God can afford to wait; why cannot we, since we have him to fall back upon. Let patience have her perfect work, and bring forth her copious fruits.

Happiness has many torments appropriate and peculiar to itself, which so often overcloud it to its owner that it is not recognized for that it is till the phase of it has passed away forever. And certainly this is one of the compensations for downright calamity, for a large measure of the worst worries packing, and people will sleep under a heavy load who pass weary vigils under the prick of small apprehensions.

The Old Brocade.

The Forresters had arranged for a ball among their neighbors and friends to welcome the son and heir from his travels. Of course Mrs. Lowell and her daughter, Hortense received their cards.

A Long Good-Bye.

The day was heavy with wind and rain, when last we said good-bye, when I and my love shall meet again and there will be a cloudless sky.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

Smith's Tonic Syrup

FEVER and AGUE

Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Nervous affections.
