Stocks are now complete. There are Suits and Overcoats here for Men and Young Men,—tall men, short men, slim and stout men.

We will answer six important questions pertaining to the Clothes we offer for sale.

Is the Suit all wool?

—Yes, every garment that we sell for all wool is guaranteed to be all wool. Before the fabric was accepted by the manufacturer it was proved to be all wool by caustic soda test.

Will it Shrink or Pucker?

No; it can't. The woolen was shrunk by the original cold water process, the most thorough shrinking method known.

Will it Fade?

No. Nitric acid and two weeks exposure on the roof of the factory proved them to be color fast.

Men's and Young Men's Suits and Overcoats, made for us by A. B. Kirshbaum & Co., with all the above guarantees, $15, $16.50 and $18.

The Money Cost of War.

Expert economists estimate that the European war is costing anywhere from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 a day. Taking the smaller figure, that would mean a cost of $7,500,000,000 by December 31st. Such a sum, if it had to be paid in cash, would take all the money in the world. But it will not be paid in cash; it will remain a debt under which the people of the fighting powers must stagger for centuries to come. People whose grandfathers are not yet born will be taxed to pay for this war. England has not begun to pay the principal of its debt contracted during the war against Napoleon, which ended one hundred years ago,—it has had all it could do at the beginning of this war. If it were not for the power of governments to tax unborn generations of men, there would be very few wars. While the governments are losing money at this terrific rate, as much more is lost directly by the people through the stoppage of labor and commerce.—Current Events.

We believe our Hammondton citizens who own automobiles appreciate the work of the firemen, and would be glad to give them a lift; and here is their opportunity. On the occasion of the companies going to Haddonfield, Saturday, October 24th, they will require transportation—about eighteen of them,—and the idea has been given out that this would be a good opportunity to help the firemen and, at the same time, advertise Hammondton. Let the local Automobile Club, or as many of them as possible, take the day off, starting at noon, with a good supply of "Hammondton" pennants, and enter the parade. Our Band has been engaged by the firemen, and will go about twenty strong. The two garage companies will meet again next Wednesday evening, and the committee would like to report many cars going up.

On Wednesday afternoon, three young ladies were walking along Twelfth Street, when they heard the report of a gun not far away, in the woods, and a bullet of thirty-eight calibre dropped on the sidewalk near their feet. We have the leaden missile, and it is large enough to fell an ox. It might have caused the death of one of the trio had it reached them with force. The careless use of fire-arms is too common; and weapons carrying so large a bullet should not be in the possession of any one in a town. We should like to see the party who fired this loaded up where no bullet could reach him. The law provides severe punishment for the offense.

We cannot help but sympathize with one of our citizens who keeps a horse-ship handy and gives chase to boys who persist in mutilating his chestnut trees. It is admitted that any one may gather the fallen nuts outside of the property line; but some of the boys are not satisfied and use stones and clubs to dislodge the fruit, thus breaking many small limbs which are needed to produce nuts next year. Be reasonable, fellows; take what comes to you, but don't trespass upon any man's premises or mutilate his trees.

Council acted wisely, we believe, in not voting to issue a license which was granted to Chas. Denberg, for Hotel Royal, last April, but never paid for. The hotel has been sold, and Mr. Denberg no longer resides there. The house will have to be run without a bar until next May, or remain closed.

Notwithstanding all that has been said, in print and otherwise, in view of the need of experienced men in the conduct of Town affairs, the most thoughtful Hammondton citizens deem it unwise to make any change in Town Council this year, and will so vote.

Red raspberries are still delighting the eyes and tickling the palates of Hammondton people. Yes, and a few days ago Mr. Fowler handed us a cluster of strawberries in all stages of development, from a tiny green tip to a full grown ripe one.

People are asking what is to be done on Halloween. All we know is that plans are being laid for a gay time. A call will be issued, we are told, for a meeting, at which time lots of fun will be planned.

Town Council Meeting.

A special session was held on Wednesday evening, to consider the subject of transfer of Haddonfield (Raleigh in the Pine) license to Mr. Purchase.

After a discussion by all who wished, and the law-booked into it was read unanimously that the license granted to Mr. Denberg last May be declared null and void. Mr. Purchase was notified that he could get his application in before April 1st. Matthew Jefferson acted as attorney for the new applicant. At the request of Volunteer Fire Company No. 1, the sum of thirty-two dollars was voted to pay for the car or auto fare of the Band, also the hauling of ladder truck, to Haddonfield, on the 24th. Other matters, including sewer rates, etc., were discussed.

A Pleasant Gathering.

A Birthday Party, in honor of Mrs. E. S. Packard, a long-time resident of Hammondton, was held in the Universalist Church on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Packard was one of the charter members of this church, and with Mrs. Lizzie Bassett and others, assisted Mrs. Julia Pressey to form the Sunday School, fifty years ago. She has been identified with the work of the Church and Sunday School ever since that time. Many representative people of the town, members of the Universalist Church and other Churches, gathered to honor her on this birthday. The pulpit, organ and platform were tastefully decorated with dahlias and roses.

An informal program was then rendered, consisting of "A Bright Day—Song," Rosetti—Burleigh, sung by Miss Ruth Gardner; "A Quilting Bee in Our Village," read by Miss A. W. Brewster. The "Festivity," sung by Mr. C. F. Osgood; "Bury My Lavender," sung by Miss Elsie Laver. Dr. Gardner offered congratulations to Mrs. Packard, and presented her with a beautiful brooch in behalf of the friends who had gathered. The program was concluded by singing "God be with you till we meet again." A novel feature of the evening was the presence of a birthday cake made and skillfully decorated by Mrs. Packard, bearing the date "1834-1914." At the end of the program, Mrs. Packard offered refreshments to her guests, when they found that the birthday cake tasted as good as it looked.

The bulletin board on the Central Avenue corner of the Universalist Church lot, will display, from time to time, the scientific facts in regard to the effect of alcohol on the individual and in society. These facts and statistics have been taken from the great International Congress on Hygiene, held in Washington two years ago, when physicians and scientists met from thirty-three nations.

The committee in charge of the Harvest Home so successfully held in the Baptist Church last Sunday evening, desire to express their gratitude to those who aided. The Harvest Home was a most successful affair, and the committee would like to report many cars going up.

Residents of Camden County Want the Trolley.

From C. L. Holton, of Atco. Committees representing the Boards of Trade of Hammondton, Chesilhurst, Atco, Gibbstown, and Berlin, all in Camden or Atlantic Counties, met on Tuesday evening of last week, at the residence of Mr. J. E. Winters, Atco, to do everything possible in the way of an organized movement to have the trolley extended from Haddonfield to Hammondton.

The Public Service Corporation of New Jersey control and operate practically all of the trolley systems in the state, and are spending large sums of money in improving and extending their lines in North Jersey, while they are neglecting the residents of South Jersey. It seems too bad that the Public Utilities Commission is not empowered to insist upon this large Corporation furnishing adequate service where the population warrants it, even though the returns on the money invested may not be so large at the start.

The trolley line operated by the Corporation from Camden to Clementon is earning large dividends at the present time, while the probabilities are that the earnings did not more than cover the interest on the investment at the start. Four or five years ago, the Corporation advised the public that the limited franchise law kept them from making extensions. This law has been modified, so that it is now practically satisfactory to the Corporation, and all that the residents of South Jersey can do is to petition the Public Service Commission that they are spending all their money in North Jersey.

At the meeting referred to above, an organized organization was formed to keep the trolley proposition alive, and, at the same time, to start a movement to obtain from property owners their consent to donate property for a suitable private right of way. It was the consensus of the meeting that property owners were at the present time ready to be most liberal, permitting the Corporation to go through their property. Each year it will be more difficult to obtain a suitable right of way owing to the increased building in this section. The Associated Committee formed is made up of three members from each of the Boards of Trade, C. C. Holton, of Atco, being Chairman. The meeting hopes to stir up a sufficient interest in the community to make the Public Service sit up and take notice.

Grand Jury Recommendations.

The Grand Jury concluded its labors, on Thursday, by the presentation of recommendations to the Board of Freeholders and other County officials.

The first was that, in view of the number of cases of tuberculosis, and the danger of its spread, immediate attention be given to the matter; that expert care be given to the sufferers, and safeguards be provided against the spread of this dread disease. Also, that one or more nurses should be employed to visit patients and give instruction as to their care.

Another resolution affirmed the need of a new Grand Jury room,—the one now used being inadequate as to size and frightful as to ventilation. They recommended that the one-story rear be raised to two stories, and the added room be fitted up.

The third presentation endorsed the "safety first" slogan, and recommended that the present traffic regulations in Atlantic City be more rigidly enforced, particularly at street corners,—and that roller skating be eliminated from streets in the center of the city.

That literature be provided by the County, and distributed, impressing upon parents and teachers the necessity of children using greater care when on the streets,—in crossing,—and constant watchfulness. The habit of carrying children on the front of bicycles was condemned, and a more rigid enforcement of regulations concerning bicycle riding throughout the county was urged.

Columbus Day.

Next Monday will see many people in town—perhaps not so many as the 16th of July—but no less enthusiastic. The program, as set forth by the Columbus Society and Beneficial Society, is as follows:

- 8:00 a.m.—Grand opening by firing of 12 bombs, and parade by band.
 - 2:30 p.m.—Parade of the two Societies, with Roselli Band and Hammonton Band.
 - 5:00 p.m.—Speeches at park by orators in both English and Italian.
 - 7:30 p.m.—Third annual ball, in Park Hall, Music by Jacobs' orchestra.
 - 8:00 p.m.—Magnificent display of fireworks by two competing companies.
- Floats will enter the parade, and compete for prizes.

Third Number of Lyceum Course

WEATHERWAX BROTHERS' QUARTET.

The Weatherwax Brothers' first public work was in the fall of '04 when they sang throughout northern Iowa in the notable McKinley campaign. They made such a hit everywhere that year that there was an immediate demand for them to do other public work. This quartet, in addition to vocal music, also appears in a trumpet quartet which always brings forth the admiration of those who love rich, heroic music. Trumpets are comparatively seldom used on the Lyceum platform, and it is a treat to hear them when well played. The trumpets which they use were made specially for this quartet.

As to their vocal work, all four brothers have fine voices and have had years of practice together, which has resulted in most excellent harmony. They have all been natural musicians from their infancy, and as some one has truly said, "Their voices have a decided family bond." A unique feature of this organization is that there are two readers in the company.
