The Eternal Home.

Alone! to land alone upon that shore!
With no sight that we have seen before.

Things of a different hue,
And sounds all strange and new;
No forms of earth our fancies to arrange,
But to begin alone that mighty change!

Alone! to land upon that shore!
Knowing so well we can return no more;
No voice or face of friend,
None with us to attend.

Our disembarking on that awful strand,
But to arrive alone in such a land!
Alone! No! God hath been there long before,
Eternally hath waited on that shore,
For us who were to come
To our eternal home;

Oh! is he not the life-long friend we know,
More privately than any friend below?
Alone, the God we trust is on that shore;
The Faithful One whom we have trusted more
In trials and in woes,
Than we have trusted those
On whom we leaned most in our earthly strife;
Oh, we shall trust Him more in that new life.

So not alone we land upon the shore;
'Twill be as though we had been there before;
We shall meet more we know
Than we can meet below.
And find our rest like some returning dove;
Our home at once with the Eternal love.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6, 1879.

The Democrats complain, with truth if not with justice, that the Republican officials are all the time making political capital for their party. This is true for the very good reason that the administration of the Government's affairs is so efficient, and honest and just. Thus, while the revenue to be collected and disbursed is enormous, the percentage of expense for doing it was never so small as now, and the stealing and defalcation are nothing as compared to what they were under the old Democratic administration. Thus, again, while there never was a time when so much money had to be paid out for pensions, the claims are promptly audited and paid, and there can be no complaint of delay in any worthy case. But some figures have lately been published at the Treasury Department which amply demonstrate more than anything else, the amount of internal revenue collected during the year just passed was $113,561,000, an increase of $2,462,984 over the year previous, and yet the cost of collection was $728,434 less than in the previous year. Now observe the difference in the cost of collecting this revenue in Republican and Democratic States, as well as the difference in the business capacity and means to support the Government in these two classes of States. The contrasts in the following table will explain themselves, and they might be extended to the whole of each section with equal emphasis:

| State          | Revenue '78 | Cost of Col. |
|----------------|-------------|--------------|
| Connecticut    | $570,000   | $30,000     |
| Alabama        | 129,000     | 29,000       |
| Nebraska       | 577,000     | 15,000       |
| South Carolina | 108,000     | 39,000       |
| Maine          | 506,000     | 17,000       |
| Mississippi    | 88,000      | 20,000       |

The cost of collecting the Revenue in Kentucky was fourteen times what it was in New York, although the amount was not half as much. It should also be added that the feature still more disgusting in Southern collections is that many lives of officers were sacrificed.—These facts are calculated to make political capital for Republicans, but nevertheless they are official, and I don't see how the Democrats can prevent them.

Democrats who have been boasting have begun to be cautious relative to the Fall elections. They are very ingenious at figures, and can cipher victory out of defeat, but this year is almost too much for them. The Republicans carry off the State officers in California and Maine and have a handsome plurality, yet these cipherers declare they were beaten, because the other parties, could they pool their votes, would have a majority. The form of Democratic prediction as to Ohio and New York now is that Republicans will not have a majority of votes. As the Republicans are satisfied with obtaining the substantial results of the elections they are willing to leave the rest to the opposition.

Secretary Sherman protests that Gen. Grant never had a truer friend than he is, and this is true. He supported Gen. Grant through his administration, and Gen. Grant supports him and President Hayes in their Southern as well as their financial policy. By the way, it is probable that Gen. Grant will make his winter home in Washington. He likes the people here and they like him.

Secretary Sherman and Commissioner Raum have information that Ohio will go Republican by 30,000 majority, and the news is equally cheering from New York. As to Pennsylvania and Massachusetts they are assured to us, and so is the "Solid North" in fact.

The Bureau of Education has issued a very important work on the benefit of education to labor, which ought to have a wide reading. The Bureau is doing an admirable work.

MAXWELL.

He Leaves us!

Mr. Editor:
After fifteen years of a life spent in the county of Atlantic, and most of these years in the town of Hammonton, E. D. Redman, Esq., our fellow-townsmen, is about to leave us. He is moved to this, not that he is tired of the good people of Atlantic county, and especially those of Hammonton, where he has resided so long, and among whom he cherishes the belief he has many near and dear friends; but the precariousness of his health is such, that he is compelled to seek a change of climate, hence his departure for the fascinating and far off West.

None more than the people of Hammonton will regret the absence of E. D. Redman. He has lived among them long, and they know him well, and the good people of Atlantic, as a whole, have claimed him as their property, politically at least, and when called on by his fellow citizens, he has, in every instance, been honored with their suffrages and confiding trust; and in every position he has thus occupied, the people of Atlantic county have found him wanting in nothing—very duty imposed upon him by the varied positions he has occupied, has been discharged with fidelity, and honest intelligence and with impartial kindness to all; and receiving at the end of his official term the plaudits of his fellow citizens, "Well done, good and faithful servant." That this record is not only highly creditable but absolutely true in all its essentials, we present a short synopsis of his life and services from the year 1861 to the year 1879.

Mr. E. D. Redman, at the call of the nation, called in April, 1861, as a private in the 4th Maine Regiment, then organizing in Belfast, State of Maine, and soon thereafter started for the seat of war and met the enemy, then threatening the Capitol of the Nation, and gave them battle at Bull Run, where he was severely wounded and disabled. But so soon as he recovered he rejoined his regiment, and continued in active service battling for our nation's life. In 1863 he was promoted to First Lieutenant of his company, for gallantry, and thus continued to fight on, exposing life and health in the great and glorious army of the Potomac for three long years, when he was mustered out, having served well and faithfully the term for which he had enlisted.

In the year 1864 E. D. Redman made his first modest appearance in the town of Hammonton. A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic was established here in 1869, and Mr. Redman was elected its first Post Commander.

In 1871 he was elected Sheriff of Atlantic county, for three years, and in 1874 he was elected the Chosen Freeholder, defeating the Hon. R. J. Bymes, and positively declining a re-nomination for the same office. In this same year the N. B. Taylor Lodge of A. F. A. M. was organized in Hammonton, and he was elected for two years its successor, its W. M.

In 1879 he was again elected Chosen Freeholder, defeating Mr. E. R. Sprout. In connection herewith we must allow the Record, of May's Landing, to have its part in—"Hammonton appears to be very fortunate in the selection of her representatives in the Board of Freeholders, for ex-Sheriff Redman, who was elected in place of Mr. Sprout, has the experience, having been on the Board before, and the capacity to at once make the ruling spirit of the Board. Again we say Hammonton is to be congratulated on her happy selection."

Since the running of the Narrow Gauge Railway, Mr. Redman has, as we all well know, been their attentive and polite station agent, giving, as we are assured, entire satisfaction to the managers of this company, who express their regret at losing so faithful a servant. Indeed, ourselves are proud and surprised that any one man has so flattering and true a record. But our long known friend is about to bid us all farewell, having in view, mainly, the security of his health, without which life is but a weighty, cumbersome burden. We can but wish him and his good kind lady, wife and companion, the divine protection of Almighty God and that they both may enjoy health, peace, prosperity and happiness, and that they may again return to Hammonton to receive the greetings of old and tried friends.

"So mote be."

Hammonton, Oct. 7th, 1879.

Work for Sunday Schools.

The committee of the London Sunday School Union renews an appeal for the setting apart, in all kinds, of two days of intercessory prayer. As the dawn of the century of Sunday Schools will lead to the review of the past, it must be, in the earnest desire of all teachers that the centenary year be one of rich spiritual blessing. Oct. 19th and 20th are the days designated, with suggestions that on Sunday, the 19th inst., ministers should preach special sermons on the occasion, and the session of the Sunday School should be partly given to devotional services; and besides teachers' meetings, each day, teachers should in a special manner on Monday morning, bring their scholars, one by one, in private prayer to God. Monday evening each congregation is to hold meetings with special reference to Sunday School interests. It is to be hoped that these suggestions will be carried out by pastors, teachers, and all. In my circular I could not give the order of exercises suggested above. Respectfully,
Jas. B. Waigut, Co. Sec.

[For the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN.]

Dr. Bowles:

In my remarks two weeks ago, on the ejection of Mr. Higginson from his old home, I omitted to mention one noble deed of their neighbors. It is this: On the day of the ejection, I walked to the scene of expected operations, and there I saw Daniel Wescott, John Lawrence and J. Hartshorn with their teams along the roadside, waiting to fulfill that noble duty, "Be kind to thy neighbors." I could not pass by those noble actions performed by them on that day, without giving them credit that is due them. I think they are entitled to a thousand blessings, and gentle reader, if you could have seen their faces as they were waiting to assist their neighbor, in need of their services, you would have been filled with gladness yourself, and when the ejection was completed to see how cheerful they went to work like good Samaritans, and moved the old man and all his furniture to his new home; and after everything was gathered in, their friends joined in singing two hymns, and one of the party arose and said that he hoped the present company would never be brought together under such circumstances again; but as that unpleasant scene was over now and they were safely under a roof, and

As here they may dwell, may content be their lot,
And friendship like ivy encircle their cot;
And may each rosy morn' dressed in mantle of peace,
Shed health o'er their cottage, and their blessings increase;
And may gay smiling plenty adorn the fair spot,
And may sorrow never enter the door of their cot.

May their honest endeavors be crowned with success;
May they ever live happy and never witness distress.

On this neat bumble's roof may these blessings descend,
Is a wish free from guile, 'tis the wish of their friends.

The old man and his kind helpmate were taken by kind friends for the night, and covered for until the following morning, and the rest of the friends returned to their homes, feeling blessed for the good they had done for their neighbors in fulfilling the requirements of the golden rule. May they ever be blessed and over be prompted by such noble motives, for I am sure they will be rewarded.

Yours Truly,
E. DARWIN.

The Republican

E. E. Bowles M. D., Editor & Prop.
W. C. Dole, Associate Editor.

AMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1879.

The Republican Convention.

A Convention of the Republican Delegates of Atlantic County will be held in Egan's Hall, Egg Harbor City on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1879.

Nearly all the Democratic papers in Tennessee are opposed to Mr. Tilden.

The President will not return to Washington until the middle of the month, if being his intention to cast a vote for the Republican ticket in Ohio next Tuesday.

Mr. Whitecar, the editor of the Camden County Courier, was very seriously injured on Thursday evening while getting out of the down mail at Haddonfield. He jumped from the train while it was yet in motion, and his feet slipping from under him, he fell between the platform of the station and the wheels of the moving train so that one leg was cut off and his head badly bruised.

The Smoky City seems to have been caught by the boom, and wages are going up with a rush. The American Manufacturer says: "So many manufacturing firms in Pittsburgh have voluntarily advanced the wages of their employes, within the past two weeks that it would be unwise to read them in detail, hence we do not give them. The advances have been from ten to twelve per cent."

The people in the state of Connecticut took occasion, at the town elections which took place on Monday, to express by a popular vote in favor of the Republican ticket the disgust they feel for the policy of the Democracy. Good for them. Everything now goes to indicate a general waking up all over the country, which can hardly fail to result in Republican victories in payment for Democratic excesses.

We have received No. 1, Vol. 1 of the Egg Harbor Review, published in Egg Harbor City. The expressed intention of the editor of this journal is to call attention to the advantages in soil and climate toward a location for settlement on the Egg Harbor tract, and it expresses the belief that it is only necessary for the nature of this section to become more widely known to secure a more extensive immigration into it.

Our troubles with the Indians clearly indicate that, in order to have any kind of peace and safety on the frontier, strict and stern measures must at once be adopted to suppress all present troubles and obviate the possibility of future difficulty in that direction. It is true that after much delay and great loss of life, the U. S. troops have gotten a little the advantage, and it now remains for the War Department to so act as to bring about a speedy end to this semi-aggressive warfare and conduct the future dealings with the Indians on a square and honorable platform.

We copy the following from the Tallahassee, Florida, Floridian: Commenting upon Chancellor Carroll's report upon the burning of Columbia, the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier says that one cannot wonder at the anxiety of Gen. Sherman to shift from his own shoulders the responsibility for the awful crime, and to fasten it, if possible, upon another. But he cannot escape the place he must fill in American history, as the merciless warrior who fought women and children with the torch.

Gen. Sherman will fill a place in American history as high and as noble as Wallace or Bruce do in Scotch history, and as Marion and Sumpter do in American history, while the names of Jeff Davis, the arch traitor and chief of the most damnable and baseless rebellion that ever disgraced any country or time, and the horde of minions like the butchers Chalmers, Hood, Forest and Dr. Blackburn, who backed by Jeff Davis and his so-called government, attempted to spread direful plagues on the cities of the North, and to end, as a gift from English admirers, a suit of clothes to President Lincoln, infected by foul disease, will be executed by all good people. Then Gen. Sherman never burned Columbia, and if he had it would have been justifiable, and the only pity about the whole matter is, that South Carolina, people and all, had not been annihilated. She is the posthouse of everything that is vile, rotten and disgusting, morally, physically and politically.

The Southerners made great preparation for the celebration on Thursday, to commemorate the event of Sergeant Jasper's gallant, but unsuccessful attempt to rescue Savannah from the British, during the revolutionary struggle. United States troops were to be in attendance, with regiments of state troops, of several southern states, and those instrumental in getting it up announced that it would be the grandest military display that had ever taken place in that city. Their memory must be short, for it was not and could not be a ragged patch to the military display in that city Dec. 21, 1864, when Gen. Sherman took military possession at the end of his famous march through Georgia.

It is Important

That every Republican in Atlantic County should do his whole duty this fall. It is true that only an Assemblyman is to be elected, yet we must see to it that he be a good Republican. Though it is of little importance, it is of the greatest importance to the country that our next Legislature should be strongly Republican. We have a United States Senator to elect, and he should—must be, a Republican. This is the most important in view of the displacement of the Southern Democracy in the last two sessions of Congress. Their aim is to "get even with the North," as they say, for the loss of their slaves and other property, in their rebellious war. They made the attack and got worsted, and they suffered from the natural results of their folly and barbarity as they deserved, only not half enough. Now they are making gigantic efforts to obtain control of the whole government as they have already of both houses of Congress. This must be prevented, and the power they already have must be taken from them. Then let every Republican, and every other man who is opposed to being taxed to remunerate rebels, take up the war cry for this campaign, "million's of war, but not one mill for tribute!" for any such purpose, and to prevent it to all in his power, by vote and otherwise, by helping to make our Legislature strong on the side of the Union, justice and liberty; by working for and voting for a Republican Assemblyman in Atlantic county.

Political Scraps. There was about 25,000 majority in Connecticut, against the Constitutional Amendments. The Republicans have made almost a clean sweep in the towns and cities for municipal officers. If Mr. Curtis don't let up on Cornell, he will come to be known as Old Scratch, Jonathan.

Whispering "Hush-hush" is very mild in whispering "Hush-hush" to the ears of Tilden, and as he hasn't much else to say, the enthusiasm isn't conspicuous. The bar-mule-usher hero doesn't want to be election inspector. A man can't reasonably be expected to sit up by his own sick bed-side; for the indications are that Samny will become an invalid on that occasion.

Colorado joins, with a "laudable" voice, in the swelling chorus of "Republican victory and Republican gains." The New York Tribune unfeelingly remarks that Wendell Phillips is misled by the small, in stating that the Democratic party is dead. The Chicago Tribune sarcastically remarks that the Southern game laws permit the killing of Republicans any time previous to the fall elections.

On Tuesday next Ohio will show forth her colors, and a stiff Republican majority is confidently expected by our party men, and much feared by the Democracy.

E. E. BOWLES M. D., Editor & Prop.
W. C. DOWD, Associate Editor.
HAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1879.

The Republican Convention.
A Convention of the Republican Delegates of Atlantic County will be held in Ertell's Hall in Egg Harbor City on

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1879.
At 10 p. m. The Union, town and township of the county are entitled to send one delegate for every 25

Republican votes and one for every fraction of 25 over 25 votes cast for Congress at the last general election.

Attest: Town, 2, Atlantic City, 15, Breen Vista, 3, Egg Harbor City, 5, Egg Harbor Township, 11, Gateway Township, 5, Hamilton Township, 5, Hammonton Town, 5, Middle Township, 3, Westwood Township, 3.

Chairman of last Convention, May's Landing, Oct. 10, 1879.

Nearly all the Democratic papers in Tennessee are opposed to Mr. Tilden.

The President will not return to Washington until the middle of the month, if being his intention to cast a vote for the Republican ticket in Ohio next Tuesday.

Mr. Whitecar, the editor of the Camden County Courier, was very seriously injured on Thursday evening while getting out of the down mail at Haddonfield. He jumped from the train while it was yet in motion, and his feet slipping from under him, he fell between the platform of the station and the wheels of the moving train so that one leg was cut off and his head badly bruised. We learn that one eye had to be immediately amputated and that his situation is somewhat precarious.

Mr. Whitecar has our sincerest sympathy in his most unfortunate accident.

The Smoky City seems to have been caught by the boom, and wages are going up with a rush. The American Manufacturer says: "So many manufacturing firms in Pittsburg have voluntarily advanced the wages of their employes, within the past two weeks that it would be unwise to read them in detail, hence we do not give them. The advances have been from ten to twelve per cent."

The people in the state of Connecticut took occasion, at the town elections which took place on Monday, to express by a popular vote in favor of the Republican ticket the disgust they feel for the policy of the Democracy. Good for them. Everything now goes to indicate a general waking up all over the country, which can hardly fail to result in Republican victories in payment for Democratic excesses.

We have received No. 1, Vol. 1 of the Egg Harbor Review, published in Egg Harbor City. The expressed intention of the editor of this journal is to call attention to the advantages in soil and climate toward a location for settlement on the Egg Harbor tract, and it expresses the belief that it is only necessary for the nature of this section to become more widely known to secure a more extensive immigration into it.

Our troubles with the Indians clearly indicate that, in order to have any kind of peace and safety on the frontier, strict and stern measures must at once be adopted to suppress all present troubles and obviate the possibility of future difficulty in that direction. It is true that after much delay and great loss of life, the U. S. troops have gotten a little the advantage, and it now remains for the War Department to so act as to bring about a speedy end to this semi-aggressive warfare and conduct the future dealings with the Indians on a square and honorable platform.

We copy the following from the Tallahassee, Florida, Floridian: Commenting upon Chancellor Carroll's report upon the burning of Columbia, the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier says that one cannot wonder at the anxiety of Gen. Sherman to shift from his own shoulders the responsibility for the awful crime, and to fasten it, if possible, upon another. But he cannot escape the place he must fill in American history, as the merciless warrior who fought women and children with the torch.

Gen. Sherman will fill a place in American history as high and as noble as Wallace or Bruce do in Scotch history, and as Marston and Sumpter do in American history, while the names of Jeff Davis, the arch traitor and chief of the most damnable and causeless rebellion that ever disgraced any country or time, and the horde of minions like the butchers Chalmers, Hood, Forest and Dr. Blackburn, who backed by Jeff Davis and his so-called government, attempted to spread direful plagues on the cities of the North, and to end, as a gift from English admirers, a suit of clothes to President Lincoln, infected by foul disease, will be execrated by all good people. Then Gen. Sherman never burned Columbia, and if he had it would have been justifiable, and the only pity about the whole matter is, that South Carolina, people and all, had not been annihilated. She is the posthouse of everything that is vile, rotten and disgusting, morally, physically and politically.

The Southerners made great preparation for the celebration on Thursday, to commemorate the event of Sergeant Jasper's gallant, but unsuccessful attempt to rescue Savannah from the British, during the revolutionary struggle. United States troops were to be in attendance, with regiments of state troops, of several southern states, and those instrumental in getting it up announced that it would be the grandest military display that had ever taken place in that city. Their memory must be short, for it was not and could not be a ragged patch to the military display in that city Dec. 21, 1864, when Gen. Sherman took military possession at the end of his famous march through Georgia.

It is Important That every Republican in Atlantic county should do his whole duty this fall. It is true that only an Assemblyman is to be elected, yet we must see to it that he be a good Republican. Though it is of little importance, it is of the greatest importance to the country that our next Legislature should be strongly Republican. We have a United States Senator to elect, and he should—must be, a Republican. This is the more important in view of the displacement of the Southern Democracy in the last two sessions of Congress. Their aim is to "get even with the North," as they say, for the loss of their slaves and other property, in their rebellious war. They made the attack and got worsted, and they suffered from the natural results of their folly and barbarity as they deserved, only not half enough. Now they are making gigantic efforts to obtain control of the whole government, as they have already of both houses of Congress. This must be prevented, and the power they already have must be taken from them. Then let every Republican, and every other man who is opposed to being taxed to remunerate rebels, take up the war cry for this campaign, "million's of dollars, but not one mill for tribute!" for any such purpose, and to prevent it to all in his power, by vote and otherwise, by helping to make our Legislature strong on the side of the Union, justice and liberty; by working for and voting for a Republican Assemblyman in Atlantic county.

Political Scorpions. There was about 25,000 majority in Connecticut, against the Constitutional Amendments. The Republicans have made almost a clean sweep in the towns and cities for municipal officers.

If Mr. Curtis don't let up on Cornell, he will come to be known as Old Scratch, Junction.

On the stump Hendricks is very mild in whispering "Ho-rum!" for fear of helping Tilden, and as he hasn't much else to say, the enthusiasm isn't conspicuous.

The bar-mule-usher hero doesn't want to be election inspector. A man can't reasonably be expected to sit up by his own sick bed-side; for the indications are that Samny will become an invalid on that occasion.

Colorado joins, with a "laudable" voice, in the swelling chorus of "Republican victory and Republican gains."

The New York Tribune unfeelingly remarks that Wendell Phillips is misled by the small, in stating that the Democratic party is dead.

The Chicago Tribune sarcastically remarks that the Southern game laws permit the killing of Republicans any number of times previous to the fall elections.

On Tuesday next Ohio will show forth her colors, and a stiff Republican majority is confidently expected by our party men, and much feared by the Democracy.

Fire Insurance Company,

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, ofering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. The proportion of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usually had, nothing can be offered more favorable to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insured on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty-five cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one third of the lowest rates charged by stock companies; on such risks—the other two thirds taken by stock companies being a profit accruing to stockholders, or consumed in expenses of the companies.
The guarantee fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five percent only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would yet be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home. No assessment having ever been made, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than
One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars

The Losses by Lightning.
Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per year to each member, are paid without extra charge, and extended so as to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.
