HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1916

No. 43

Regular meeting of Town Council next Wednesday evening.

Lino Rubba and Thos. Skinner, Jr., are students at Pierce College.

Mrs. M. B. Sutton spent part of the week with Hammonton friends.

Mr. S. E. Cook, of Newark, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles A. Leonard.

Frederick Hoefler has entered the Dental Department, University of Pennsylvania.

The condition of Mrs. Wm. O. Hoyt is slightly improved over last week's report, though she is still in a semi-conscious condition, and unable to move.

A later report states that Mrs. Hoyt is sinking.

As it will take some time to install the large pipe organ in the Presbyterian Church, visitors are welcome to call and see how pipe organs are built.

Frank Dudley, Thomas Lockart and David Adams will be our first mail carriers, when the delivery is inaugurated. Quite a number of young men took the examination, last Saturday.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the Universalist Church this year. Rev. W. J. Cusworth will preach. We have not seen the President's proclamation, but he will doubtless fix the date.

Mr. Rider and daughter were reported, yesterday, to be improving nicely, especially the latter, who is moving about on crutches. Both are longing for home, which they hope to see next week. Mr. Rigby is rapidly recovering.

The Hallowe'en Association desire to meet all local organizations next Tuesday evening, at the Firemen's Hall, to arrange details for the big celebration. They also request all patriotic citizens to send at least one dollar toward necessary expenses.

All who are interested in Bible study are cordially invited to Civic Club Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 23rd, at 7.30. R. W. Webster, an instructor from the Philadelphia School of the Bible, is giving a series of lessons on the book of Romans. Avail yourself of this opportunity.

The winners of the contest run by D. S. Bellamy, jeweler, are as follows: First prize, chest of silver, No. 279, W. B. Johnson; second, a cut glass vase, No. 209, Miss Paulin; third, silver bread tray, No. 316, I. I. Hearing. Winners can have their prizes by calling at the store.

The annual meeting of Hammonton Branch of Needlework Guild will be held next Thursday afternoon, Oct. 26th, in Odd Fellows Hall. The garments contributed for orphanages, hospitals and poor families, will be on exhibition, an address by a children's worker in Pennsylvania, and usual business. Every member is expected to be there.

Mr. George Moody showed us, on Tuesday last, an old-fashioned powder-horn, such as were in use a hundred years ago. It was made from a small steer's horn, with the larger end filled with wood, neatly fitted, the small end to be stopped with a plug. This horn was used by Mr. Moody's great-grandfather at the battle of Lexington, and by his grandfather in the war of 1812. It is highly prized, and handed from one generation to another.

Lawyer Dean Stanley Renwick on Wednesday recovered a judgment for Wilson S. Turner, in the Atlantic County Common Pleas, before Judge C. C. Shinn, for the amount of a garage bill which Frank D'Agostino contracted and declined to pay. He claimed that because the garage man had sold the car he should not be required to pay anything for the repairs, and sought to recover $500 damages for loss of the car. Turner contended that D'Agostino had abandoned the car, and he sold it for junk. The Court believed the garage man and his witnesses, and judgment was entered accordingly. The defendant was represented by Attorneys Cronceker and Garrison & Voorhees.

Mrs. Eva North was in town yesterday.

Two fine bucks were brought down by the Skinner crowd, on Wednesday. They were on display at Turner's, and photographed.

The series of Sunday night talks in All Souls' Church, on "The Moral Issues of the Political Campaign," include the following dates and speakers: to-morrow night, Hon. Emerson Richards, Atlantic City, for the Republicans; John S. Ware, of Bridgeton, former deputy State Treasurer, for the Democrats; Rev. Dr. John D. Long, of New York, for Socialists. The speaker last Sunday night was Mr. Edward W. Kester, of Williamstown, State Field Secretary for Prohibitionists.

State of New Jersey
Atlantic County, ss.

Personally appeared before me, George E. Strouse, a Notary Public for the State of New Jersey, Howard M. Holland, who being duly sworn according to law, deposeth and saith that he has been a resident of Hammonton, New Jersey, for thirty-one years, and in all that time there has never anything happened to cause me to think that I had an enemy; but since May, 1916, my life has been threatened, I have been blackmailed, intimidated and insulted. I have positive proof to the above statement, which I can produce at any time.

HOWARD M. HOLLAND.

Those huge dead limbs on the lower Bellevue Avenue shade trees, should be removed. During Thursday's storm, a branch about twelve feet long crashed to the pavement in front of Palace Theatre, and might have injured anyone, had it struck them.

That Gulf storm struck Hammonton on Wednesday,—the rain arriving on Thursday,—torments of it, at times.

Don't forget: see that you are registered on the 31st.

When the clouds rolled by, yesterday, the thermometer registered away up in the seventies.

PORTLAND CEMENT

Cement and Roofing

That Will Last

It's cheaper in the end to buy the best of each. High-grade cement is indispensable for all kinds of construction.

Long-wearing, repair-proof roofing is just as necessary.

We have strong Portland cement and fire-resisting, durable

RU-BER-OID

Pronounced "RU" as in RUBY

ROOFING

COSTS MORE - WEARS LONGER

RU-BER-OID is the best roofing you can buy. It stops regular repair troubles which take time and cost you money. It is a permanent protection. Cheap prepared roofing—whose good looks and waterproofing are only on the surface—soon crack, rust, or rot, making constant repairs necessary.

The attractiveness and durability of RU-BER-OID are built-in, under the direction of expert chemists, and have not varied in 23 years.

We sell the genuine, which has the "Ru-ber-oid Man" (shown above) on every roll. Before you start to build or make repairs, let us

quote prices on roofing and cement.
