Yes; we Advertise

Because it is Popular!

Yet it pays to let you know about our goods. Still, our best advertisements are the goods themselves. This is shown by the packages sold of our Uncolored Japan, Carlton's, Oolong, Formosa, and English Breakfast Tea.

Also, our best quality of Java, Laguira, Maracato, and Rio Coffee, and customers calling again to remark, that is splendid tea! elegant coffee! so fresh, etc. Yes, coffee ground to order, while you wait.

What is said of our tea and coffee is echoed in regard to our Pork, Lard, Hams, Shoulders, and Bacon. Our Butter is hard to find better, and our Cheese, why, we always keep "full cream."

We have a good line of Dry Goods and Notions, Confectionery, Tobacco and Cigars. Land Lime and Canada Ashes in car load lots, at lowest rates possible. We expect to do a large business in Coal this year. So send in your orders. Call and see us; try our goods, and like others say, how cheap for cash.

The Republican.

Entered as second class matter. JAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J. SATURDAY, OCT. 29, 1887.

Lovers of fair play should vote the Republican ticket. The "grand old party" desires a clear opportunity to complete its work, as outlined in the following:

We, as Republicans, deprecate any dishonest methods in conducting elections, for to perpetuate a ree government we must have an honest vote and a fair count, and every right must be secured to every citizen, including the right to vote and to have that vote counted. Until such rights are firmly established, the work of the original and sturdiest Republican parties remains incomplete.

Some have asked why this has not been done in years gone-by. We reply, because a "solid South" was opposed, it, and so many good men in the North went off into the pursuit of the only other desirable object, that is, the only party desiring to enforce honesty in elections has been unable to fully accomplish it. Prospects are brightening now. The South is dividing; as manufacturing interests are being developed, and general education increasing, the opportunities for election frauds diminish, and the dawn of a better day approaches. Do your part toward it, by adhering to the Republican party.

Dr. M. M. Walker has recently sold one hundred acres of land, near Elwood, to Mrs. Calton, of Bucks Co., Pa., whose son expects to improve it. He also sold twenty acres at Ancora, to Conrad Waldvogel. Before snow flies, the doctor expects to have a peach orchard of over four thousand trees, at Ancora.

The Sunday School Association had a very pleasant session Wednesday at Linwood. Two speakers failed to appear, but the time was fully occupied. The following are among the officers elected:

Pres.—Rev. C. K. Fleming. Sec'y & Treas.—W. R. Tilton. Rec. Sec.—A. B. Endicott. The next Convention will be held at May's Landing.

Council meeting to-night. One more week for "gens." Election day, one week from next Tuesday, October 8th.

The Board of Freeholders will meet on Tuesday next. See the bargains offered by John A. Saxton, on this page.

Mr. Bradford Small has lost one of his handsome gray horses. Capt. Somerby returned, Saturday night, from a trip "out west."

Mrs. Thomas Harrell has been seriously ill for two weeks or more. Mr. Albertson had in his wagon, this week, some of the finest oysters we ever ate.

Prof. W. B. Matthews has been confined to his house by illness, part of this week. Mr. J. S. Thayer, contractor and builder, has established an office at 312 Market St., Camden.

Five overcoats are going like hot cakes on a frosty morning, at Fruit Growers' Union Store. O. E. Moore has a new wagon, a real beauty, large, strong, and shapely, made by Alex. Aitken.

Some of the Hammonton boys have been out deer hunting, but we have seen no venison in town. There was no fish sport on the Lake, Wednesday. At least ten wild ducks were shot that afternoon.

The Camden & Atlantic station building has been re-painted, inside and out, brightening things up. Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Valentine reached home last Saturday, having spent several weeks in New England.

Carl M. Cook expects to start, Monday, for a short visit with parents and friends in Pennsylvania and New York State. Miss L. M. Cook started for her Pennsylvania home, Wednesday, by the way of Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Wickham and little boy are visiting in Pittsburgh, Penna., where she will doubtless find many changes since her last visit, twenty-five years ago. I have two parlor stoves, nearly new, for sale cheap.

Mrs. M. S. HOFFMAN, Thirteenth St., Hammonton. The New Jersey Baptist State Convention met in Haddonfield on Tuesday and Wednesday. Pastor Ogden was delegate from Hammonton Church.

Mr. F. P. Vandervoer, formerly of Hammonton, now residing in California, has paid his Hammonton friends a visit, after an absence of about eleven years. Beautiful! Aren't they cute? Just too lovely for anything! These are a few of the remarks that are daily made about these "Pettit" pictures at Page's. Only $1 per dozen.

At Stockwell's store you will find an attractive display of new millinery goods, — everything reasonable and in style, — hats, plumes, tips, wings, birds, ribbons, etc., etc. Call and see.

St. Mark's Church, twenty-first Sunday after Trinity, Oct. 30th. Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. Morning Prayer and Sermon at 10:30. Evening Prayer, 3:30 P. M. Sunday School, 2:30.

Some fellow thought he would pay the editor a visit, last Monday night, without invitation or previous notice, or ringing the door-bell; but, that tin roof made a good burglar alarm, a light was soon visible, and the miscreant dropped to the ground and disappeared without leaving his card. He ought to have entered, as a reception committee of one had been appointed, and was prepared to do his full duty. But please call earlier, next time, for it isn't quite agreeable to be wakened in that way.

Rev. Mr. Mason, pastor of the Winalow Church, was quite sick for two or three days.

The walk and open space in front of the Union Hall lots have been graded and graveled, this week. Mr. Rutherford had a window put in on the south-west side of his store, improving the interior greatly.

Miss Julia A. Drake has gone on a two months visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Wetherbee, of Hoboken, N. J. The United Labor party, of which a branch has been established here, is organized over the whole country, and gradually extending.

Mr. Thomas Phillips, and others, will speak before the United Labor party at Union Hall, this evening. All are invited. Ladies welcome. Many people have an idea that a clear day is necessary to secure a good picture. This is not the case, with the rapid process which Page uses. It makes no difference about the weather.

The Poultry Association will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening next, Nov. 1st, at the Town Hall, corner of Central Avenue and Vine Street. Don't forget it, but be there.

Members of the Fire Company are determined to have their building completed. During their spare hours, and evenings, they have labored the upper room, and slacked the time. It will be plastered in a few days, then fitted as a gymnasium, etc.

Harry English, representing Geo. W. Fischer, dealer in musical instruments, 1221 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, is now in town, repairing and tuning pianos and organs. Leave orders in P. O. box 154, or at the residence of Mrs. Thomas, Second and Vine Sts., Hammonton.

We believe that the following declaration is broad and comprehensive enough to justify every working man and anti-monopolist in voting a straight Republican ticket:

The Republican party favors all legislation that looks to the best interests of the farmer, the mechanic, and every class of laborers; and therefore is in favor of a tariff that shall fully protect home industry, and is unalterably opposed to the importation of labor under contract, and is further opposed to any legislation in the interest of capital, to the detriment of labor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carpenter celebrated their "golden wedding" on Monday last, — first by the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Minnie, to Mr. Charles Barnham, of Philadelphia, who took their departure on the afternoon train, for Washington. In the evening, a number of old friends and neighbors assembled at the house of the venerable couple, to enjoy with them the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The time was passed very pleasantly. Some old hymns were sung, and though the heads of most of the singers were silvered over with the frosts of many winters, the sweet tones were as full of music as though age had left no marks upon them. Rev. Mr. Randall, in a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, spoke of the wonderful age in which the host and hostess had lived, of their well-known religious life and character, and extended congratulations and wishes for future happiness and extension of life. Mr. Carpenter gave a brief statement of his experience in the fifty years he and his wife had lived in wedlock. A prayer was offered by Pastor Randall, followed by singing the doxology. At an early hour the friends departed, with the warmest congratulations and kindest wishes.

At an adjourned meeting of the Almshouse Committee of Atlantic Co., held on Friday, Oct. 7, 1887, the following were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has been accepted an all wise Providence to remove from our midst our colleague, Thomas M. Collins, late Steward of the Atlantic County Almshouse; and while we bow in humble submission to him who "doeth all things well," it seems fitting that we should at this time take appropriate official action regarding the demise of our esteemed associate. Therefore, be it Resolved, By the Almshouse Committee and Trustees of the Atlantic County Almshouse, in regular session assembled, that in the death of Thomas M. Collins, late Almshouse Steward, this Board has lost a valuable conductor, as individual a warm and generous friend, the community an exemplary citizen, and the people of this county an honest and efficient officer.

Resolved, That the sympathy of this Board is hereby extended to the widow and family of the deceased, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, published in the County papers, and spread upon the minutes of this Board.

L. CONOVER, Chairman. Attest A. W. INVINO, Clerk.

The subject of electric lights is being seriously considered by some of our business men; and it is possible that stores and factories will be illuminated by lighting, before Spring.

Letters of unclaimed letters remaining in the Post Office at Hammonton, N. J., Saturday, Oct. 29th, 1887: Mr. Henry Beetle. Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

CRUSA F. OSOOND, P. M. Our ballot-boxes, sixteen of them, arrived last week Thursday from Cincinnati, "C. O. D." $425-$400 for the boxes and $25 dollars express charges. Fortunately when the boxes were opened, nine were found to be broken, and consequently the committee of the board of Freeholders present refused to receive them.—Journal.

For Sale.—Store building lots, on the T. B. Tilton place, Bellevue Avenue, Hammonton, N. J., July 22, 1887. Wm. RUTHERFORD.

The Red Men held their first anniversary at Union Hall, Tuesday evening, and a special train brought up Pequot tribe of Atlantic City, in regalia. A merry time was the result, the hall being filled and everybody happy. The festivities did not end until nearly midnight. The Red Men adopted the wise plan of appointing a committee of young ladies to arrange the programme and provide refreshments for the large crowd expected, Miss Maud Jacobs being chairman, assisted by Misses Jessie Butherford, Jennie Whitmore, Nellie Montfort, Nettie Montfort, Lillie Andrews, Samaria Bernhouse, Florence Jacobs, and Lilla Ruby. Miss Marie Jacobs, who managed the entertainment of the Sons of Temperance, directed the operation of the refreshment department, and not a single mistake was made. Ice cream was plentiful, with cakes, sandwiches, fruit, and coffee.—Music, speeches, recitations, songs, and readings were given by the visiting Red Men, while the home talent well sustained itself, Misses Emma Bresser, Lilla Ruby, Florence Jacobs, Samaria Bernhouse, Lillie Jacobs, Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. McCrea, Messrs. Geishaker, Burgess, Haney, and others, being called up.—The entertainment and public reception cannot fail to greatly benefit the Tribe, which having over one hundred members, is rapidly increasing, its benevolent work and kind care of its sick members being well known to all.

MASS MEETING.

Mr. Thomas Phillips, late Workingmen's candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia, will deliver an address at Union Hall this (Saturday) evening, Oct. 29th. Ladies and citizens generally invited. Music. Come out in behalf of honest labor, and vote against monopoly, by supporting the "United Labor Ticket," for Assembly.—Charles Myrose. For Sheriff.—Lyford Beverage. For Surrogate.—P. H. Jacobs. For Coroner.—Daniel DuBoe.

In presenting to you a ticket for your support, the United Labor party has selected men well known as opponents of monopoly. Mr. Charles Myrose is an old opponent of both political parties, and has never been connected with either. Mr. Lyford Beverage has long been an active member of labor associations, and an independent voter. He was also a soldier of the late war.

Mr. P. H. Jacobs, also a Union soldier, never voted a Democratic or a Republican ticket in his life. It is the best ticket in the field,—all honest men, free from political corruption. EX. COMMITTEE.

Married.

BURNHAM—CARPENTER.—At the residence of the bride's parents, in Philadelphia, Pa., on Monday, Oct. 24th, 1887, by the Rev. E. K. Smith, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Lambertville, Mr. CHARLES BURNHAM, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss MINNIE CARPENTER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carpenter.

BENNETT—BAIRD.—At the parsonage of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Hammonton, on Saturday, Oct. 29th, 1887, by Rev. H. J. Zeller, Mr. JOHN S. BENNETT and Miss ELIZABETH BAIRD, both of Winalow, N. J.

LANE—WALKER.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Walker Road, near Hammonton, N. J., on Friday, October 29th, 1887, Mr. N. FRANKLIN LANE, of Winalow, N. J., and Miss NAOMI R. WALKER, daughter of Chas. and Sarah Walker. Ceremony according to the usual form of the Society. The newly-married couple received many valuable gifts from relatives and friends. They are residing at North-Long Branch.
