Hammonton's Nursing Service.
The Red Cross nursing service has been inaugurated in Hammonton, under the Auspices of the Atlantic City Chapter and the Hammonton Branch of the American Red Cross.

Miss Mary W. Cottrell has received the appointment as nurse, and has already a number of cases. This nursing service is an extension of the Red Cross County Service, which has been in operation since September, 1919, in the Pleasantville District.

The Red Cross depends upon enrollment of a large number of members to obtain funds to carry on this Community Work. It is hoped that the fifth annual roll-call in Hammonton will bring in as many members as were enrolled during the War.

The members of the local Red Cross nursing committee are:

Mrs. A. J. Rider, Chairman, Dr. Chas. Cunningham, Dr. G. M. Crowell, Dr. F. C. Burt, Dr. J. C. Bidler, Dr. A. Rapolito, Rev. Chas. O. Mudge, James W. Cottrell, Mrs. S. Crowley Loveland, Mrs. H. O. Halloween's Success

The parade this year was without question the best ever. No one had a chance or thought of mischief. Everyone was on the street, either to see or contribute to the good time. Bellevue was a fairyland, with fantastic dress and actions, illuminated by colored lamps overhead.

To mention each deserving group, individual, or float, would take too many columns of reading matter, but they were splendidly gotten up, representing originality as well as investment.

The committee had a difficult task in deciding who were entitled to the prizes offered; but they did, to the satisfaction of all.

The winners, and the prizes, follow:

Most in line, $10, Hammonton High School.

Best appearing organization, $10, F. A. Funston Post, American Legion.

Armistice Day

F. A. Funston Post, 186, will attend the services in the Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m.

In the evening there will be a general jubilation at 8 p. m. Tin cans, horns, bells and whistles, all making noise like that three years ago. Meeting place, School Park. All welcome.

The Legion Post, assisted by the Auxillary, will run a dance in Victor Hall, starting at 8.30. Souvenirs, good music, a good time for all. Coffee and doughnuts made by women of the Auxillary.

Admission will be charged—but small considering the good time promised.

Hammonton is planning for one of the greatest religious services in the history of the city.

The ministers have arranged for a service in the First Presbyterian Church, Friday morning, Armistice Day, November 11th, at 11 o'clock.

It is, also, to pray for reduction of armaments that the fearful burden of taxation may be reduced and that peace may reign throughout the whole world. It is possible.

The Community Service will be recognized by all the prominent men of our town. The Board of Education will close the public school for all day; and business houses it is hoped will close for the hour of the service that their clerks may be able to attend. Rev. Chas. W. Coit, Rector of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, will deliver the religious address or sermon and William Gaspen will lead the large choir.

The patriotic orders of the town will attend in a body. It will be a great day.

C. B. Smith, District Manager of the Delaware and Atlantic Telephone Company, has been transferred to the Wilkeson District, and is succeeded by W. W. Brittain.

Come One! Come all! To the Civic Club Hall, Friday and Saturday, November 11th and 12th.

Things for the kiddies and Mother, too, Things for Christmas and plenty of goo.

We are Standing by Our Guns

There seems to be a general idea that the only way for a store to get business these days is to quote the cheapest possible prices, quality has to be lowered to do it. It is all wrong.

We are selling goods low priced, but we shall not make it lower priced by selling inferior quality. We are making prices lower by cutting our profits, not by cutting quality.

change nothing in his home, but her clever white fingers had changed everything. There was order, and there was charming tidiness and cheer, there were flowers in bowls, and books set straight, and there was just a different little angle to things and deck and chairs and tables that made the cabin a home at last. She wanted to see for a path's end had laughed at her fervor. "Do give me a whole carload of bricks for Christmas, Peter!" She wanted to see for a path's end had laughed at her fervor. "We'll come over to San Francisco soon, and you'll see the new hotel. Alix promised when they were seated on the upper deck, with the blue waters of the bay flowing softly past them. WHEN WEARY WILLIE SCORED

Uncle Isaac Was Just a Little Bit Too Emphatic in His Verdict Concerning God.

Secretary Lawson Purdy of the Charity Organization society said at a dinner in New York:

"Professional beggars are a self-righteous crowd. What I mean is that they regard their trade the same as you and I regard honest work. One winter afternoon I came on a beggar woman I knew of old. She was begging in a bitter wind on a corner, and three little children in calico rags strolled at her side.

The Home Town Paper

SOME folks make the mistake of thinking of the home town newspaper as a thing, a contrivance of ink and paper, constituting not a great quantity of either, when compared with big city papers. But the home town newspaper is not a thing, it is a service, just the same as is the telephone. And just as the $15 or $16 a year which we pay for the telephone service seems not too much, so is the $2 or $3, which at most is charged for the home town paper, trifling, compared with the real service which the paper, itself an institution, renders to all the other institutions of the community.

THURSDAY:—Marie Prevost,—"Moonlight Valley."

Episode Seventeen, "Diamond Queen."

FRIDAY Special:—All Star Cast, — "Snowblind."

An appealing drama of the Canadian north-west, in which beautiful snow scenery, with snow laden trees and snow-capped mountains form the background. The story deals of a fugitive from justice who has sought shelter and safety in the mountain fastnesses. The breaking down of a wagon in which a theatrical troupe were travelling and one member of the troupe becoming snowblind weaves a story of beautiful texture, and brings love when only fear once reigned. There are no suggestive situations. The picture is fit for every member of the family.

Comedy, "Sweet Bye-and-Bye."

Admission 20c.

SATURDAY: Wm. S. Hart, "O'Malley of The Mounted."

Wm. S. Hart as a mounted policeman of the Canadian force is sent out across the border to get his man, who is accused of murder. In order to do this, Wm. S. Hart has to rob a bank on his own account, and here is where the thrills begin to develop. It is fast and full of action, from start to finish.

Clyde Cook Comedy, "The Toreador."

Eagle Theatre To-Night.

Thomas Meighan, — "Conquest of Canaan."

Chester Comedy, "The Green Horn."

NEXT SATURDAY:—Tom. Moore, "Modern Heaven."

An entertaining comedy dealing with a young Irishman who emigrates to America. He becomes a fireman and invents a way by which the firemen when the fire signal is given instead of walking down stairs slide down a pole. A wealthy man exploits the invention, and all goes well until he meets "the girl," then things begin to happen, and you are given time to catch your breath between shrieks. It is one hundred per cent and absolutely clean.

Chester Comedy, "Reckless Set."

WEAVER PIANOS

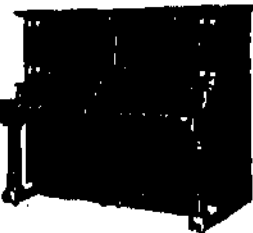

JOY, sorrow, hope, fear—the whole scale of human emotions seems to be bound up in the Weaver Piano. Whether it be the grand theme of one of the world's greatest composers, or the plaintive melody of the simple folk song, it finds ready expression in the Weaver's responsive tone and exquisite harmony.

It is this simple, pure, tone-quality that makes the Weaver so much desired by professional musicians and music lovers. It is this same quality of tone that has endeared it to thousands of American homes.

We have the Weaver on our floors and will be glad to have you compare it with any piano made.

A FEW MONTHS' RECORD OF HARRY L. MURPHY

CONVICTED on December 14, 1918, and fined $100 and costs by the Peace Judge E. Strouse, on the charge of having venison in his possession illegally.

CONVICTED during May, 1919, term of Court, and sentenced by Judge Robert Ingersoll, on the charge of hunting dogs out of season, and fined $100 and costs.

PLEADED GUILTY, December 22, 1918, in the United States Court at Trenton, on the charge of selling liquor to soldiers, commonly known as "boot-legging."

Murphy, elected a Chosen Freeholder, and a Justice of the Peace, by the voters of Hammonton, should, instead of violating the law, set an example of law observance to the young men of the community. Such conduct as Murphy's and the election of such men to public office, has a baneful effect on the coming generation.

Announcement

The undersigned is a candidate for the office of Chosen Freeholder and seeks your support on the following platform:

If elected, I will work for a careful and economical expenditure of all County monies.

I will use my best efforts to give the Town of Hammonton an active representation in all matters coming before the Board for action.

I will seek to reduce the cost of road building in Atlantic County so that roads can be built in our County as cheap, proportionately, as are built in all other sections of the State, having due regard to the standard of quality.

I believe that I am better able to represent the interests of Hammonton on the Board than is Mr. Murphy, and for these reasons ask you to vote for

William B. Phillips
for Chosen Freeholder.
