Vol. 54

HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1916

No. 47

Dr. Cunningham was out in his car yesterday.

Mrs. C. D. Loveland returned to her Hammonton home.

Good cold weather supper for 30 cents, at Civic Club Fair.

Volunteer Fire Company will meet next Monday evening.

H. C. Leonard's residence is being touched up by the painters.

Twenty-six bunnies were bagged by four of the Myers-Krimmel crowd.

Irvin I. Hearing has added a fine line of sporting goods in his hardware store.

Farmers' and Merchants' Building Association meeting Tuesday evening next.

Hammonton is now free of all contagious diseases,—the first time since July 1st.

The Presbyterian ladies will continue their sale to-day, in the old post-office room.

The Sheriff's sale of the Imhoff property was adjourned one week, to Friday, the 24th.

Basket-Ball game this evening, at Egg Harbor, between their team and one from Hammonton.

A band of gypsies were in town on Thursday, but knew enough to keep out of sight of the officers.

The conduits for telephone wires are strung along on Egg Harbor Road, ready for burial when excavations are made.

See the Summer Girl Minstrels at Civic Club Fair, in Union Hall, on Tuesday and Wednesday next, Nov. 21st and 22nd.

The first snow of the season fell on Wednesday, the 15th. It did not amount to much, but made quite a showing in the air.

Mrs. Alfa White has a receipt for $2.32 for the white plague sufferers. She will have the Red Cross stamps for sale after to-day.

All kinds of pretty and useful things for Christmas, at Civic Club fair, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Nov. 21st and 22nd, in Union Hall.

Every child of school age must be enrolled by Monday next. All delinquents will be reported to Judge Shinn, at May's Landing, for judicial action.

Prof. G. Herbert Rogers, Principal of Haddon Heights schools, came down yesterday to witness the foot-ball game between his pupils and our High School team.

Mrs. Ella Gale, grandmother of H. C. Driscoll, our local Adams Express agent, died on Wednesday last, at Tuckerton. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll will attend the funeral, to-day.

A mask social will be given by Little Ha-Ha Council on Monday evening, 27th, in Red Men's Hall. Admission, ten cents. Prizes will be awarded for best dress, and the most comic.

Edw. V. Hoyt, of Worcester, Mass., quotes coal at ten dollars per ton, flour at twelve dollars, and eggs at seventy-two cents. These are considerably higher than Hammonton prices.

The P. O. S. of A. had a large number present at their open meeting, Wednesday evening, including several state officers. There were several interesting addresses, a social time, and refreshments.

The Pollyanna Club will give an entertainment entitled "The First Day in a Country School," on Tuesday evening, 28th, in the parlor of the M. E. Church. Admission by bag or ten cents.

Mrs. Mable Pettibone, widow of an ex-Mayor of Flint, Mich., sister of Mr. A. J. Rider, died Tuesday last. Mrs. Rider and daughter went to attend the funeral. Sympathy is extended to the family, who seem to be having a sad series of misfortunes.

Governor Fielder has offered a reward of two hundred and fifty dollars for the arrest of each of the ten persons known to have taken part in the Rider hold-up and murder, Oct. 5th. Hand-bills with names and details are being circulated.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1916

Did you know that a "drop-letter" now requires a two-cent stamp, since the carriers began their service? This will make considerable difference to business men in sending out bills and statements. The publishers of the Republican must now pay postage on every copy that is mailed to subscribers in town, whether they live on a carrier's route or not? This item means many dollars per year to us. Possibly the new service may prove to be desirable, but, as we said long ago, it must be paid for, and is costing more than we anticipated.

For shame! The only entirely "wet" states in the Union to-day are Nevada, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Five states voted "dry" at the recent election. Twenty three states now have total prohibition; thirteen have local option with less than fifty per cent without saloons; eight states local option with more than fifty per cent dry.

We are told that we were wrong in saying, in last week's issue, "as per agreement between pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist Churches, two years ago, union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Universalist Church this year."

Gummers should keep off from grounds in close proximity to dwellings. There is considerable complaint about trespassing,—not only because of damage to property, but of danger of personal injury.

Quite an improvement has been made in some of the street lights by trimming off low-hanging branches.

You can still Save $175

ON A HUDSON SUPER-SIX

We have still have a few cars due us on this year's Hudson output. Some are open models, some enclosed, some convertible. And all like coming models, save in possible minor refinements. These are the best Hudson Super-Sixes to be sold at the present prices.

The Hudson Factory is now sending us the last of this year's allotment. That means the last cars built from materials contracted a year ago.

Then starts a new production, built from the same grade of materials, but enormously advanced in cost. To maintain Hudson standards, the same car hereafter must cost $175 more.

Our customers can save that $175 while our present allotment lasts.

No New Models.

The new production starting December 1st, does not involve new models. There will be no changes, unless such out-of-pocket refinements as frequently occur.

So the car you get now is the same car—at least practically—as the car which will then cost $175 more.

Our purpose here, therefore, is not to close out a model. Nor is it to sell overstock. We have none.

It is to get for our customers as many as possible of the current-production cars.

OUTLOOK brass. In a rather dubious frame of mind and with inward repulsion, I hastened to one of the large shops.

"What is new in desk fittings?" the buyer echoed after me. "If you will come back in three or four days, I shall be glad to show you our new stock which is not yet unpacked." My glance was meanwhile traveling over the row of show cases, each one filled with desk sets. The buyer noted my inquiring glances. "These are not new—they are last season's stock."

When the allotted number of days had expired, I again approached the buyer, and he very kindly piloted me through a labyrinth of new desk fittings. There were sets in sparkling silver and sets in sumner leather; some in exquisite enamel over precious metal and some in Colonial cretонец. And there were sets in brass—not only the plain everyday brass, but brass glorified and modified and accented until it bore no resemblance to its name. There were Colonial sets and Empire sets and Jacobean sets, and all my mind was in a maze at the actual number of styles.

Just what kind of a desk set to get depends mainly upon where one keeps the desk. Not every woman keeps her desk in her bedroom—a great many keep it in the living-room, or in the library. If the home boasts of such a room, the set that is appropriate and is good taste in the bedroom would be highly incongruous anywhere, the surroundings of a living-room.

Let us take up the set for use in a living-room first. A brass set is here bronze finished relieved by gifts of burnished gold—or it is only lightly brassy on the turned-over edges. The effect is positively beautiful. Can't you just imagine this set in a room where the furnishings are hewn leather and oak?

Another set, which upon first glance one mistakes for leather, is of natural which upon being subjected to an acid process achieves a finish not unlike that of leather. This finish is warranted to wear indefinitely. A band of old gold gives just the required touch of color. There is a set in the old Romanesque finish, which for all the world is just like copper in a correlative state. This finish is very popular and is used to good effect in rooms furnished in mission. Mission is the term applied to a dull, dark green finish. There is a whole something in these two last named sets that subconsciously causes one to conjure up a picture of long past centuries and ancient ruins.

A first Empire set in hand-tooled mahogany leather with gold ornamentation next attracts the attention. This set possesses a dignity all its own, and one involuntarily associates it with a high-ceilinged book-lined library. One of the features of this set is the appearance of an stationary holder. This is shown open in the illustration, but the closing is effected by means of a latch. The name net also comes in oak and green leather.

DRAININGS and grace of line are the chief characteristics of the sets for use in milder's sanctuary. But the environments would have to be almost exuberantly luxurious to form a fitting background for some of the exquisite solid silver sets, or for those containing in delicate blue or sea-shell pink edged with gold. "Exquisite" is the only word that will adequately describe these sets. Despite the delicate coloring, the cretонец set illustrated is very practical on account of a covering of silver which can be removed and can be cleaned with a damp cloth. Various designs, either rural or studied, can be gotten in this style. Especially pretty, although not new as black, are those sets in which the cretонец is on tan striped with tiny lines of black.

For the room that boasts Colonial furnishings, the Colonial sets of these sets have quaint and charming pictures of Colonial days covered with the lacings. Other accessories for the well-appointed desk are shown in the illustrations. One is a silver pen and pencil: the holder which is quite an improvement on the style of yesteryear. A calendar and clock combined, also in sterling silver combining beauty and utility, and does the library set, which consists of a pair of shears and a reading glass, one set of which can be used as a paper cutter. The shears and reading glass both fit compactly into a shield.

The whole is a series of suggestions, not necessary, which, although not necessary, are an improvement on the desk of a very useful, is a masterpiece book holder. Something that will appeal to every woman who has trouble in spelling and insists in placing the "w" before the "a," is a spelling pad. This is a set of cards, the first of which contains the spelling, not the definition, of those words that are most frequently used.

As we concluded our round of inspection I was fully convinced that there were no more sets to be seen. To the taste, and, incidentally, every purse can be suited.

What the sign of the REGAL BIG BOOT means to you

YOU who want good shoes—
your size, your idea of style, your kind of leather, a comfortable last, a shoe that looks good,
and is as good as it looks—the sign of the Regal Big Boot means your kind of shoe and your kind of shoe store.

The Regal folks make stylish, dependable shoes. They have to, with their two million wearers in all the towns and great fashion centers of America—with their place of leadership to maintain in the good-will of the American people.

When you see a Regal Shoe think of the great institution that is back of it. It is good to know that somebody is making shoes not merely to sell—but for you, the wearer, to enjoy.

Come into the store. The shoes are here in a wide range of sizes, models and leathers—shoes for every occasion. The salesmen know the facts and will tell them to you.
Get your pair—the kind you were looking for.
