Is the Board of Education Legal?

ED. REPUBLICAN:

Noticing the allusions in your last issue regarding the legality of the Board of Education, I ask leave to attempt an explanation of the reports which have been circulated relating to the matter.

A case came before the Supreme Court, from Vineland, the decision, briefly expressed, being that only "male citizens" possessed the right to vote. The case was then taken to the Court of Errors and Appeals, which will, no doubt, affirm the decision.

Although newspapers are supposed to disseminate information, yet the Board of Education can only receive instruction and orders from the State Superintendent of Schools, through the County Superintendent. The Board is still recognized by both of those officials, and whether legal or not it cannot turn over school property to any other parties unless so instructed. The present Board was elected in accordance with law as explained by the State Superintendent, and when occasion arises to conform to new laws, or decisions of the Courts, he will no doubt enforce all requirements.

The present Board is the only legal body, and must hold over until a new Board is appointed or elected. Indeed, if such was not the case our schools would close, and disorder prevail, as no persons would have charge of school property, salaries could not be paid, contracts for books, repairs, etc., would be void, and even taxes ordered collected by the District Clerk could not be secured.

Women have voted for several years. If their votes render elections void, then our bonds are illegal, our school house can be seized, salaries paid out in the past must be refunded, and teachers now doing duty have no right to perform service.

The "excitement" grew out of the refusal of the People's Bank to honor an order of the Board which was endorsed by the Town Collector. As the Board does no business with the Bank, orders are drawn on the Collector, who is "still doing business at the old stand," and paying all orders presented. He is not losing any sleep over the legality of the Board.

The Directors of the People's Bank may have their own reasons for declining to honor an order endorsed by the Collector, but they stepped aside of their duties in rendering a "decision." Fortunately, while banks can do some things not agreeable to others, they cannot make laws, and the decision just rendered by our excellent bank directors will no doubt be "reversed" by a higher body.

When the Board is declared illegal by proper authority, and is notified to hand over the school property to its successors, it will be found that laws are based on common sense, and all acts of the present Board will be legal—not even questioned—and a new board will be elected by a meeting called by the present District Clerk, which, it is hoped, will not entangle the new one as to its "legality." Until the County Supt. notifies the present Board that it is illegal, I fear that it will continue to perform its illegal (?) acts. In fact, if the members gave up their work (it is supposed that they cannot resign, if illegal), they would all be liable to be arrested and sent to jail for abandoning school property and violating their obligations.

I have not corresponded with the State Superintendent. The Board labors under the supposition that he fully understands the situation, and will instruct the members should necessity arise. In the meantime the Town Collector will pay all orders on behalf of the Town, despite the "decision" of the Bank Directors. P. H. JACOBS.

The Republican gain in five states was as follows: New York, 77,740; Pennsylvania, 57,157; Indiana, 31,017; Minnesota, 22,678; Wisconsin, 15,977. It certainly wasn't the stay-at-home Democrats who defeated their party in those states.

The Weather:

Special Forecast for New Jersey.

Lower temperature, heavy frosts, and high thin winds, are predicted for South Jersey, especially in the vicinity of Hammonton. Vessel owners, landlords, farmers, business and professional people would do well to make immediate provision for cold wave, purchasing stoves, ranges, and heaters from S. E. Brown & Co., whose goods are known to be the best of their class. All stations in territory described will continue to display cold wave signal till further orders.

A. D. V. R., Supt.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

A CAT'S WONDERFUL RISE

Clinging to the axle on an Express Train... Cat has shown wonderful powers of coming unscathed out of perilous positions...

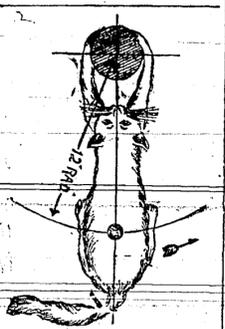

DIAGRAM SHOWING THE CENTER OF GRAVITY OF THE CAT

and the more they discussed it the greater was their astonishment. Finally a Manchester engineer determined to figure out just what that cat's work had been...

Supposing the wheels to be 3 feet 6 inches in diameter, and the distance from the terminus at St. Paul...

Then the engineer had recourse to a diagram of the cat slung to the axle to aid him in his further calculations...

Then the engineer then made a personal examination of the cat, taking exact measurements of her toenails, and, as a result of more calculations of a very fine nature, he found that...

President and Prefect

When Marshal MacMahon was President of the French Republic, he made a number of changes in certain positions...

The President had acquired in his army days the habit of rising early and brushing his own clothes...

The prefect, it happened, had been prevented from sleeping by the prospect of losing his place, and was awake at the time, trying to discover some means of keeping it...

"I have him," said the prefect to himself. He got his own clothes together, hunted up a brush put up his window...

"Well, well! Is that you, Mr. Prefect?" he said. "As you see, Mr. President!" said the prefect.

"You rise early, Mr. Prefect!" "As you see, Mr. President!" "Ah! and you have the same trick of brushing your own clothes, which is very singular..."

"Oh, I know him," he would say. "He is all right where he is, he's a fellow who gets up early in the morning and brushes his clothes."

"Man, Horse and Elephant." The author of "Travel and Adventure in Southeast Africa," Mr. E. C. Selous, had the great good fortune, one day, to come unexpectedly upon a herd of more than one hundred and fifty elephants...

He turned his horse and made for the rocks, but the stallion would not put out any pace, and I could tell from the screams that the elephant was rapidly gaining on me.

THE PHAROAH'S FACE

Eight hundred years ago the Nile was a magnificent river, the largest temple of the great Pharaohs...

At the larger temple, where practical work is in hand, four gigantic colossal pillars, hands of granite, stand across the desert sands...

At St. Louis the manager had occasion to leave the hotel for an hour and determined not to take any means of keeping it...

How do you suppose collisions are avoided between vessels in the night? asks a writer in Harper's Young People...

The American Consul abroad, except those located in the large commercial ports, are of limited advantage to the mass of American people...

Illustrating a Point. "You don't know how glad I am to see you here in this public work," said the rector, addressing the Children's Foreign Mission Society...

Two big boys on the front seat snickered, and an audible smile ran through the chief portions of the congregation...

An Obliging Waiter

The guests at an upper family hotel were annoyed recently by the manager, says the New York Times...

Something has happened in the old household that has not happened before. A favorite son, whom the world supposed would become a vagabond and callow fellow...

PITH AND POINT

A sea gull.—The land lubber. The neck of time.—A wrinkle. A peaceful solution.—Cramble ton.

A debating society.—A matrimonial alliance. Gosh without saying.—The cipher despatch.

On the dead quiet.—Jokes on Philadelphia.—World's Fair Puck. It is generally when he is sick about that a man looks up to his wife.

A man has to be a great success before he can be a back number.—Truth. Art is long; but it is not always long enough to make both ends meet.—Puck.

To miss the last car and not have the price of a couple is what tries men's souls.—Detroit Free Press. "What looks shall I use?" said the subway laborer to his foreman. "Oh, take your pick," was the easy reply.—Waif.

The tramp with his small bundle might get along much better if he did not have all his resources tied up.—Detroit News. "Yes, we sent Archie out West to grow up with the country," "And die?" "No; he went up with it,"—Kato Field's Washington.

The hammock doesn't look unlike a fishing-net. Hence its suitability, in a way, for a nice perch and an occasional snore.—Philadelphia Times. An amateur is a man who would make a greater success than any professional who ever lived, if he knew as much as he thinks he knows.—Puck.

"Have you found any way that we can get a bite to eat?" Second Tramp got up; the man I was just talking to closed his work.—Chicago Inter-Ocean. Unpretentious—"Hallo! I didn't know you were a bicyclist. How long have you been riding?" B. Ginner—"Bout two weeks, off and on."—Buffalo Courier.

Now, mark my words!" exclaimed the man who had written the article. "That's what I intend to do," replied the man with the blue pencil.—Boston Transcript. There are lots of people who mix their religion with business, but few who mix it with pleasure.—Chicago Inter-Ocean. "Do you suppose there is any danger of his illness running into quick consumption?" "Pooh, no; he's a messenger boy, don't you know?"—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"Big game was feeling pretty gay when he went to the club last night. How did he make out?" "He didn't make out at all; he had to put him out."—Detroit Free Press. Mr. Jones—"No, the fools are not all dead yet, madam." Mrs. Jones—"So you don't want to know, dear. I never did look well in black."—New York Recorder.

"Did you ever notice what odd eyes Jimmie has?" "Odd eyes? No, indeed. I thought he had the regulation number. Why doesn't he strike the Indianapolis Journal." Hungry Higgins—"If you had to work—just had to—what sort of job would you like best?" Weary Watkins—"Well, I think 'drivin' a load' o' hay over a new asphalt street would be a middlin' well."—Indianapolis Journal.

"I wish I had your talent and could do the work you do." "Yes; if we could all do all the good things we can do, and all the good things all the other fellows we know can do, what bright chaps we'd be, wouldn't we?"—Puck. General Worthy of Solonville. There was, not long since, says Life, a venerable and benevolent judge in Paris, who at the moment of passing sentence on a prisoner, consulted his associates on each side of him as to the proper penalty to be inflicted.

"What ought we to give this rascal, brother?" he said bending over to the one upon his right. "I should say three years." "Do you believe that, brother?" to the other on his left. "I should give him about four years." The Judge (with benevolence)—Believe not desiring to give you a long and severe term of imprisonment, as I should have done if left to myself, I have consulted my learned brothers, and I shall take their advice. Seven years!

Congressman Wilson lectured before a business college in Baltimore and the institution lost $500 by the venture.

President Cleveland might appropriately vary the monotony by writing his next message in red ink. The occasion seems to call for such an innovation.

Vermont has chosen red clover as her State flower.

Secretary Carlisle at present seems to be chief clerk of a department without a head.

We'll match Secretaries Carlisle and Gresham against the world for conspicuous and perfect failures as Cabinet officers.

The Japanese reply to the administration's remarkable offer to meddle in the dispute over Korea is a gentle intimation to Secretary Gresham and the President that they should speak when they are spoken to. However, the country can stand the humiliation which has been brought upon it by the blundering at Washington better than it could have afforded the more serious misadventures sure to result had the President and his Secretary actually been permitted to attempt to settle the war.

It is to Wall Street, and not Washington, that you must go if you wish to ascertain the financial intentions of this administration.

The cannon that was loaded to fire a salute for Democratic victories may be packed away with the pen that was sent Mr. Cleveland to be used in signing the Democratic tariff bill.

Mr. Cleveland will find the financial question quite as heavily charged with political dynamite as the tariff was.

Mr. Cleveland's second administration will be remembered for its bond issues, if for nothing else.

The principal source of trouble in all co-operative schemes is man's inherent disposition to get the big head.

One hundred millions borrowed in the course of nine months. Isn't that a financial record which ought to make every Democrat hide himself? And yet the country is told that Mr. Cleveland is ambitious of giving the country more lessons in finance.

Give the devil your eyes and he will soon have your hands and feet.

No man is good who has come to the conclusion that he is good enough.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from developing into pneumonia. This sure treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by druggists.

B. Albrici & Co.

Some weeks ago we published a list of machinery and tools required for a canning factory. Since then, a practical manager, from Bridgeton, has canvassed the town somewhat with a view to establishing such an industry here. He prepared the following list of requisites, declaring our former list "away off." Articles marked with a * might be dispensed with and the work done by hand, but that would necessitate the employment of several more men. The list is for a capacity of 500,000 cans per season, of tomatoes and various small fruits.

45 H. P. boiler.....	$500 to $600
12 H. P. engine.....	200
1 Stevenson gas filter.....	$75 to 115
* Cox capping machine.....	300
* Hydraulic gas machine & blower.....	400
* Cox tomato sealer.....	250
* Haines tapper and wiper.....	250
6 process kettles.....	120
Steam pump.....	135
35-gal. double copper kettle.....	210
8 four-wheeled trucks.....	40
Set crane iron.....	40
12 process baskets.....	120
Shafting, pulleys, agit bolts.....	200
Total for canning machinery.....	$2507

It pays well, our informant says, to manufacture the cans at home. For the 500,000 cans, the following machinery and tools would be required:

Foot press.....	$50
* Feed mill.....	25
20 inch square shears.....	25
* Fast gate solder and wiper.....	250
2 forming rolls.....	9
Two-pound dies, top and bottom.....	35
Three-pound dies, top and bottom.....	35
Cop die.....	15
* Rotary solder cutter.....	45
Steaming frames and cylinders.....	21
Fast gate solder and wiper.....	250
68 gallon oil-tank.....	20
Air pump.....	15
Pressure gauge.....	15
2 fire jacks.....	7
Solder kettle.....	7
Total for can shop.....	$506
For canning factory.....	$2507
15 per cent discount.....	$334
Total capital required.....	$2507

Of course this sum does not include buildings for the factory, can shop, and storage.

Experience shows that 525,000 cans will require 2,940,000 pounds (or 1330 tons) of tomatoes, for which the grower receives about six dollars per ton. We give an estimate of the amount of cash which such a factory would distribute among Hammonton people:

Tomatoes.....	$720
Cleaning tomatoes.....	250
Making cans.....	120
Total for stock and labor.....	$11,850

A counterfeit is always proclaiming at the top of its voice that there is a genuine.

Whenever the preacher takes a square aim at sin every hypocrite in the church begins to dodge.

The start toward the devil always begins with short steps.

The devil and the saloonkeeper are always pulling on the same rope.

There are people who are afraid to give their hearts altogether to the Lord for fear they will never again be allowed to have anything they want.

The people evidently take issue with the Democratic contention that "Protection is unconstitutional."

Have you secured seats for "Pinafore"?

Mrs. Lizzie Davey spent Sunday last in Bridgeton.

E. W. Strickland is to build a large dance hall at Winslow.

"No Trespass," notices for sale at this office, printed on cloth.

Frozen, thaw, min, and—that is the weather report for the week.

Reserved seats for "Pinafore" still on sale at Crowell's pharmacy.

The Schumacher's Graham flour sold at Black's is the best we ever ate.

Pinafore next Thursday (Thanksgiving), Friday, and Saturday evenings.

Now is the time to have your watch or clock repaired. We can do it now promptly.

Seventy-five feet—six bins—are to be added to W. H. Bernhouse's coal siding.

Money to establish a free reading room at May's Landing is being raised.

There will soon be two more new houses on Maple Street, weather permitting.

Born, on Friday, Nov. 23rd, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Johnson, a daughter.

D. Whitman Jacobs and mother arrived home from New York State, Thursday.

James R. Maloney, of Philadelphia, spent Thursday with his brother, William F.

HOUSE FOR SALE—seven rooms, heated, two-story, nicely finished. For terms inquire of Mrs. D. C. MOORE.

David McClure, of Dougherty's Tavern, captured sixty-two rabbits in two days.

Daniel Myers, Jr., has moved into Mrs. Z. U. Matthews' house, on Third Street.

Mrs. Rev. J. H. Elliott was welcomed by her husband's many friends, on Wednesday.

Will Faunce started yesterday for a ten days' gunning excursion to North Carolina.

Surrogate Bleyer was in town on Thursday, to prove the will of the late David Furbus.

Read what the District Clerk has to say about the legality of our Board of Education.

Children's meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon, in the Baptist Church. Children all invited.

MILBOURNE. When everything seems to go wrong, and you find it impossible to rest good results from the flour you are using, try Milbourne and be happy again. Milbourne Flour is for sale at Anderson's.

Captain Grover is expecting his son, from New Mexico, to spend the Winter with him.

Our numerous schools throughout the town are in a flourishing condition. Free text-books are a success.

Harrison D. Rutherford enjoyed his sixteenth birthday, on Thursday. He received a number of gifts.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., for Tuesday next, will be postponed on account of revival services.

Mrs. Rhyland E. Salisbury and daughter started for Boston on Thursday. Miss Salisbury will enter the Emerson College.

PROGRAMME FOR SUNDAY.

7:00 A. M. Sunrise prayer-meeting in the Presbyterian Church; led by Mr. Butts.

10:30. Union service in the Methodist Church. Preaching by Mr. Elliott; subject, "And Peter."

12:00 M. Sunday Schools in their respective churches.

3:00 P. M. Service especially for young people, in Methodist Church. An address by Mr. Elliott, on "Amusements."

Owing to a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes, Mrs. ... may be unable to sing the part of Hebe in "Pinafore." In which case Miss Lucy Hood will assume the role.

The union evangelistic meetings are in full tide of prosperity. On Sunday morning in the Methodist Church; at three o'clock and seven o'clock in the same place. Monday and Tuesday afternoons in the Baptist Church; evenings in Methodist. Wednesday was "Rally Day." Prayer meeting at nine o'clock, in more than a score of homes—by invitation. At ten o'clock sermon in the Presbyterian Church, by the Evangelist; meetings for workers at three o'clock, in Presbyterian; evening as usual. Rev. John H. Elliott, the Evangelist, is one of the most unaffected, earnest of men, presents the "old, old story" of redemption in a quiet, persuasive manner that seems irresistible. His sermons are models of simple straightforwardness, which not only attract but convince. Mr. B. Frank Butts, the associate, at once won the esteem of his great choir by his manner and ability as a chorister, and the respect of all for his earnest personal work among the unconverted. The singing is not the least attractive feature of the meetings. At this writing, the results of the effort are yet to be developed, but many have expressed a desire to lead a Christian life, and a determination to do so.

LESSON ANALYSIS. I. Foes of Jesus. Their Charges: He hath Bezobab, and, By the prince of the devils casteth he out devils (22).

By the prince of the devils casteth he out devils (Matt. 9: 34).

He hath Bezobab, and, By the prince of the devils casteth he out devils (Luke 11: 15).

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation (Luke 11: 17).

Jesus answered, I have not a devil (John 8: 32).

How can Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself (Matt. 12: 26).

Satan hath risen up against himself (John 8: 32).

Whoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit shall never be forgiven (Matt. 12: 31).

He and his brethren stood without (Matt. 12: 44).

The Son of Man, and brother of James and Joseph (Mark 6: 3).

He, and his mother, and his brethren (John 7: 12).

With... Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren (Acts 1: 14).

Higher Kinship Suggested: Who is my mother and my brethren? (John 8: 33).

There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother (Prov. 18: 24).

My father and my mother have forsaken me, but the Lord will take me up (Ps. 27: 10).

Heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ (Rom. 8: 17).

I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb (Rev. 21: 9).

A Spiritual Kinship Defined: Whoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother and sister, and mother (35).

Whoever shall do the will of my Father, ... is my brother (Matt. 12: 50).

My mother and my brethren are these which hear, ... and do (Luke 8: 21).

Ye all are one man in Christ Jesus (Gal. 3: 28).

Grow up... into him, which is the head (Eph. 4: 15).

GIVE THE YOUNG people a practical education by sending them to the SPENCERIAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND, 1207 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. One term will do more good than three in any other kind of school. Catalogue and Commencement proceedings on application.

A lie is the meanest thing the devil ever turned loose among men.

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the first symptoms, and treatment is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. In a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the rough cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

Palmer's Shorthand College, Betz Building, Philadelphia, assists its graduates in securing remunerative employment. Many of the private secretaries and amanuenses of prominent business men in Philadelphia, obtained their knowledge at this institution.
