Tax anticipation note for $3280 was ordered, including $1200 for the Water Department.

Thanksgiving Services.

It looked very much like snow, Thursday morning, but that did not prevent a large number from attending service at the M. E. Church, the main room being filled, and many seated in the side room.

Pastors of the Methodist, Universalist, and Presbyterian Churches were present and took part.

The union choir, under the leadership of Prof. W. R. Seely (as he was fondly called by his pupils), rendered enjoyable selections. After a patriotic voluntary, reading of the President's proclamation, and a prayer, community singing was entered heartily into, old favorites being used.

Rev. W. H. Gardner used for his text Psalm 100,—"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving," etc. It was an excellent sermon, setting forth that this was an exceptional occasion and year, that we had been through most trying times, but our faith had kept strong. He dwelt on America's responsibilities; that its part in the war was one of unselfishness, to help the weak, and bring about freedom for all. The responsibilities of the Christian Church was referred to, and the many reasons for thanksgiving called to mind. In closing, the speaker cited this thought of chief importance,—"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you."

The offering taken for the New Jersey Children's Home Society amounted to $37.

A large congregation gathered at St. Mark's at 10:30, said to have been the largest in the history of the Parish. The choir, though somewhat depleted by sickness and absence of members, rendered the Thanksgiving Te Deum and such a great service and hymns very heartily and well.

Hammonton Hotel's outbuildings and barn, wash house, garage and wagon shed, took fire about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, and only quick work on the part of the firemen saved the hotel, barn, a large gasoline tank in the rear, and neighboring buildings from destruction. P. J. Heck, the general proprietor, was badly burned and cut while leaping through the window of the barn when his escape was cut off.

Mrs. Isabella Cunningham has just received several very interesting letters from her daughter, Miss Clara, who is in a hospital near Paris. The hospital consists of five different units. Mrs. Clara's work is in the infant unit, and her duty will be instructing the French girls to care for babies in the American way. In time the hospital is to be made a teaching center with Red Cross nurses and workers aid.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1918
Owing to the congested train service, this week's local papers are out a day late.
There are several very badly broken spots in the cement walks, in the business district, which should be attended to. In the first place, they are dangerous, then they fill with water and cause wet feet, and, lastly, they lessen the value of the property. Really, all Bellevue walks should be uniform, in quality and width.
People are seen every day, going from store to store, with suspicious looking packages under their arms.
The Thank-giving spirit bobbed up again at Monday night's meeting of the P. O. S. of A. As a result, quite a number of families were made happy at their annual dinner. We do not doubt that others did similar praiseworthy acts.
The Town needs a watchman at the lock-up, to see that prisoners are not burned, locked in their cells. They had a man engaged, but he evidently secured a more lucrative position.
The coal situation in Hammonton begins to look serious. We are not getting our quota of this necessary article; and Mayor Boyer is to be commended for taking matters in hand to get our yards supplied.
Other towns seem to have enough.
School sessions remind one of Mr. Finnegan, "On again, off again."
Mr. Harley's motion that Council attend Thank-giving service was all right, though it might have proven embarrassing to some.
At last, many of the long-looked-for Christmas labels arrived this week, from the boys overseas.
At 11:01 next Thursday night, Hammonton will be a dry town.
Speak-easies, wine cellars, and boot-leggers will of course do business;
but they will get their desserts, sooner or later.
Parents and friends of our boys overseas are anxiously scanning the published casualty lists each day, fearing the finding of a familiar name.
[It may be several weeks before the complete list has appeared.] In print.
Someone asked whether the Militia Reserve (or Home Guard) would be required, now that war is over. Sure, for a year or two at least.
And besides, the exercise is doing the fellows good.

Word was received from overseas

hoping for a speedy recovery and

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Presbyterian Church, will hold a sale in the Civic Club Building on Friday afternoon and evening, and Saturday afternoon, Dec. 6th and 7th. Saturday evening, a supper will be given in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.
There would have been a bad
fire at Town Hall, last Sunday evening, had it not been accidentally discovered by the timely arrival of one of the local police.
Evidently one of the prisoners had secreted matches on his person and probably lighted a cigarette. A blanket fire was pushed outside,
and a large sphere on the floor was burned; and it looked as tho' the fellows would be done to a brown,
and the town minus a city hall.

Sugar Allotment Increased.
The U. S. Food Administration
announces that beginning December 1st the sugar allotment will be increased to four pounds per person per month. The allotment to public eating places will also be increased to four pounds per 100 meals served. This increase will be effective in the December sugar certificates which will be sent out from the Newark office to public eating places and grocers December 1st.
It is also announced that quarterly sugar statements are no longer required to be held, as all allotment issues are to be based on the statements now on file in the Newark office. The restrictions on the us-and sale of powdered or confectionery sugar has been removed.
The use of wheat flour substitutes has been discontinued and bakers are no longer required to file bakers' weekly reports. Grocers may sell wheat flour without substitutes, may display flour for sale and both bakers and grocers
are permitted to have a 60-day supply of flour on hand or in transit.

ADVICE TO "FLU" CONVALESCENTS

SPAIN AND ENGLAND REPORT INCREASE IN TUBERCULOSIS AFTER INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC.

U. S. Public Health Service Warns Public Against Tuberculosis. One Million Cases Tuberculosis in United States—Each a Source of Danger.

Influenza Convalescents Should Have Lungs Examined—Colds Which Hang On Often Beginning of Tuberculosis. No Cause for Alarm If Tuberculosis is Recognized Early—Patent Medicines Not to Be Trusted.

*****
* Beware tuberculosis after influenza. No need to worry if you take precautions in time. *
* Don't diagnose your own condition. Have your doctor examine your lungs several times at monthly intervals. Build up your strength with right living, good food and plenty of fresh air. *
* Don't waste money on patent medicines advertised to cure tuberculosis. *
* Become a fresh-air crank and enjoy life. *

Washington, D. C. (Special).—According to a report made to the United States Public Health Service, the epidemic of influenza in Spain has already caused an increase in the prevalence and deaths from pulmonary tuberculosis. A similar association between influenza and tuberculosis was recently made by Sir Arthur Newsholme, the chief medical officer of the English public health service, in his analysis of the tuberculosis death rate in England.

In order that the people of the United States may profit by the experience of other countries the Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the United States Public Health Service has just issued a warning emphasizing the need of special precautions at the present time. "Experience seems to indicate," says the Surgeon General, "that persons whose resistance has been weakened by an attack of influenza are peculiarly susceptible to tuberculosis. With millions of its people recently affected with influenza this country now offers conditions favoring the spread of tuberculosis."

One Million Consumptives in the United States.

"Then you consider this a serious menace?" was asked. "In my opinion it is, though I hasten to add it is distinctly one against which the people can guard. So far as one can estimate there are at present about one million cases of tuberculosis in the United States. There is unfortunately no complete census available to show exactly the number of tuberculous persons in each state despite the fact that most of the states have made the disease reportable. In New York city, where reporting has been in force for many years, over 35,000 cases of tuberculosis are registered with the Department of Health. Those familiar with the situation believe that the addition of unrecognized and unreported cases would make the number nearer 50,000. The very careful health survey conducted during the past two years in Framingham, Mass., revealed 200 cases of tuberculosis in a population of approximately 15,000. If these proportions hold true for the United States as a whole they would indicate that about one in every hundred persons is tuberculous. Each of these constitutes a source of danger to be guarded against."

What to Do.

In his statement to the public Surgeon General Blue points out how those who have had influenza should protect themselves against tuberculosis. "All who have recovered from influenza," says the Surgeon General, "should have their lungs carefully examined by a competent physician. In fact, it is desirable to have several examinations made a month apart. Such examinations cannot be made through the clothing nor can they be carried out in two or three minutes. If the lungs are found to be free from tuberculosis even, effort should be made to keep them so. This can be done by right living, good food and plenty of fresh air."

Danger Signs.

The Surgeon General warned especially against certain danger signs, such as "decline" and "colds" which hang on.

These, he explained, were often the beginning of tuberculosis. "If you do not get well promptly, if your cold seems to hang on or your health and strength decline, remember that these are often the early signs of tuberculosis. Place yourself at once under the care of a competent physician. Tuberculosis is curable in the early stages. Patent Medicines Dangerous in Tuberculosis.

"Above all do not trust in the misleading statements of unscrupulous patent medicine makers. There is no specific medicine for the cure of tuberculosis. The money spent on such medicines is thrown away; it should be spent instead for good food and decent living."

We manufactured these goods prior to the present advance in price of material and labor and are selling them much less in price than we can manufacture them to-day and because of this these goods are being sold rapidly.

Call at our yards in Pleasantville or Camden and make your selection. We are equipped with every labor-saving device to letter and erect them promptly. We have the electric crane, surface cutter, polishing mill, pneumatic tools, plug drills, etc., and can manufacture most anything you want in special work, as we also have a large supply of rough stock on hand for this purpose.

Call and purchase now. Orders are coming in so fast we expect to have all we can handle this year by Nov. 1st and the sooner you call the better display you will have to select from.

The government has placed the monumental business on the non-essential list and if they force our mechanics to change to essential work manufacturers of monuments will have to close their plants until after the war. This will mean goods in our line cannot be secured until the war at any price and conditions will be such that for many years thereafter the price must be in advance of present prices, therefore, it is to your interest to purchase immediately.
