Prophetic Punishment.

The "Magazine of American History" tells how General Scott taught temperance to his soldiers by an impressive object lesson. When cholera broke out in his camp at Rock Island, he gave various orders of a preventive nature, and then continued that the Commanding General, who has seen much of the disease, knows that it is intemperance which generates and spreads the calamity. He therefore peremptorily commands that every soldier or ranger who shall be found drunk or sensibly intoxicated after the publication of this order, be compelled, as soon as his strength will permit, to dig a grave at a suitable burial place, large enough for his own reception, as such grave cannot fail to be wanted for the drunken man himself, or some drunken companion. The order is given as well to serve for the punishment of drunkenness as to spare good and temperate men the labor of digging the graves for their worthless companions.

Fire Companies recommended Andrus E. Holman for Asst. Fire Chief. Later, ballot being taken, Mr. Holman was unanimously elected.

Fire Chief John Walther made written report of three fire alarms during the past month.

Robert McC. Miller tendered his resignation as Night Marshal which was accepted.

Messrs. John W. Myers and Chas. C. Combe each presented petitions signed by many citizens, asking that the applicant be chosen Night Marshal. Later, both gentlemen were nominated, and ballot being taken, J. W. Myers was declared elected.

Board of Appeals in cases of taxation made report of their work, showing abatement of $80.30. (This is said to be the smallest amount of reduction made by the Board for many years.)

An ordinance to limit the speed of automobiles to ten miles an hour within the town limits, was introduced, and passed first reading.

Collector Davis asked and received authority to sell a tract of land near Atelon, for unpaid taxes.

Mr. Batchelor introduced the old, old subject of a public water supply, showing danger caused by the present very limited facilities for extinguishing fires. Mr. DePuy followed with a statement that in our latest fire the loss would have been much less had we been able to supply two streams of water, —one in each story of the building. It was also stated that insurance companies are getting uneasy in regard to their risks in Hammonton. After considerable discussion, the Clerk was instructed to call a special town meeting on Monday evening, Dec. 10th, to discover whether a majority of voters favor paying a private corporation for water, or will bond the town and own the business themselves.

A adjourned.

Instruction is a teacher, but Example is an artist, and our emotions are the colors he mixes on the heart's palette.

Down trains leave Philadelphia at 7:00, 9:00 (exp.) a. m., 2:00 (exp.) 4:00 (exp.), 5:15, 6:30, 7:15 (exp.); Sunday, 8:00, 9:00 (exp.) a. m., 5:00 p. m.

Kindness, tact, and discretion are the three elements to refined conversation. They are more substantial than brilliancy or wit, and therefore much more desirable.

A Communication.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Crowell.

A Shocking Calamity

"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellert, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Arnica Balm quickly cured him. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25 cents. Sold by Crowell."

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was entirely cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malarial, kills disease germs, and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50 c. at Crowell's Pharmacy.

The Water Question.

Quickly following the REPUBLICAN's suggestion, comes the Town Council's call for a Special Town Meeting, to consider—whether Hammonton shall have a water-works plant, but how shall it be secured?

As a fact, Council has the legal right to grant a franchise to a private corporation, and to contract for hydrants for extinguishing fires; but, very properly, the members, being themselves tax-payers, are not willing to take such a radical step without consulting the people at large, though the Town would be bound by their action, and be compelled to pay the bills.

So far as we have heard opinions expressed, they were unanimously in favor of bonding the Town for a sufficient amount to erect a water-plant, and running it for the public good. Other towns have found this plan profitable, and Hammonton has no dishonest officials to pocket any of the income. Indeed, this little town has never yet had a public scandal, not one official since its incorporation, thirty-five years ago, charged with appropriating public funds to his own use, or receiving a bribe for favors desired.

Another feature of the water business—it would show enterprise, and constitute an excellent advertisement for the Town, which would circulate widely among the sort of people we want here,—thinking people, who are attracted to a community that is growing, developing. That class of people usually help a town, not only numerically, but socially and financially.

Some people have great fear of debt. It is a burden, under some circumstances; but we can name dozens of men who would never have owned a dollar's worth of anything had they not begun by getting into debt. And we can point to one debt-burdened city whose population has doubled, and its property valuation vastly increased since and because of the improvements made with borrowed money.

Josh Westhafer, of Longwood, Ind., is a poor man, but he says that he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle. It saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this salve for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains, and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Crowell.

Mr. John Green, well-known as an almost helpless cripple from paralysis, died on Tuesday morning last, Dec. 3rd, at his home in Hammonton, aged 34 years. Funeral services on Thursday; burial at his former home, Pleasant Mills. A wife and three small children survive him.

An interesting experiment is being made by the Ladies' Home Journal. Each month the readers of this magazine are asked to answer some question concerning the contents or conduct of the publication; and in order to make it worth while to answer, cash prizes are given to those who write the best letters, be they of praise or criticism. The idea was first put forth in the September issue, and thousands of persons, in all parts of the world,—even in Turkey,—sent in their opinions as to the best feature of that number. The October question as to the best popular article brought a similar response.

Aside from giving every reader not only a chance, but an invitation, to express opinions, with the inducement of a possible reward in cash, this plan enables the magazine to find out what is wanted by its wide constituency. It virtually gives the public a hand in the editing.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, druggist.
