January Clearance Sale at Bank Bros. Store

Begins Tuesday, January 3, and Ends Saturday, January 14, at 10 p. m.

Though many other announcements have reached you from us in the past, this one means more to you.

The time has come again when every remaining article of winter goods must go. Progressive merchandising methods demand it—our policy insists upon it. As a result of unseasonable weather our stocks are a great deal larger than they would be ordinary. Therefore more decisive action is necessary if we are to accomplish our clearance in the same length of time as those of other years. It means better choice and larger savings.

William Fairbanks. — "Go Get Him."

Al. St. John Comedy, "Fool Days."

Matinee at 4 o'clock, 17c, other shows 20c.

Program for Week of Jan. 2nd, 1922

MONDAY Jan. 2nd:—All Star Cast, "A Man's Home."

As big a picture as we know "A Man's Home" to be, we lay no claims to the sensational or spectacular for it. There are no big mob scenes, no spectacular bits of fakery, sensationism, no hair-raising episodes, no electrifying climaxes; instead "A man's home" is just a big, wholesome, all-absorbing picture of commonplace incidents that gets under one's amusement skin at the beginning and sweeps him through six reels of splendid dramatic situations in such a manner as to leave absolutely nothing desired. The picture comes to Hammon-ton direct from its release run of one week at the "Capitol," New York City.

And an appropriate comedy by Harold Lloyd.

Matinee at 4 o'clock 20c, all other shows 25c.

TUESDAY:—Viola Dana, — "Home Stuff."

Remember the days of chores and chickens, of straw-rides beneath the golden moons of youth? How fearfully clean, and starched, and prim your best girl looked at the church social? Well—"Home Stuff" is a story with such a setting and with such a star as Viola Dana—who can resist?

Comedy, "The Tip," and Fox News No. 22.

WEDNESDAY:—Alice Brady, — "Little Italy."

The gripping story of life in an Italian colony in America, an Old-world vendetta and a New-world romance.

Our Usual Clever Century Comedy.

THURSDAY:—Frank Mayo, — "Doctor Jim."

Episode No. 7, "Hurricane Hutch."

FRIDAY Special:—Betty Compson, "At the End of the World."

The story deals with the daughter of a gambling resort keeper in Shanghai, China, who has been taught to regard men as beasts, and to hold them at arm's length. She does so until the man she loves leaves her without leaving word, and in despair, mingled with disgust, she contracts an unhappy marriage. Then comes a divorce, and the scene shifts to a lighthouse on a lonely island, where scenes of tremendous dramatic interest transpire. Of course the ending is happy for all concerned, and you will partake of that feeling of happiness after having seen it.

Snub Pollard Comedy, and News No. 21.

Admission 20c.

SATURDAY:—Buck Jones, — "To a Finish."

A Western melo-drama with more than the usual amount of thrills even for Buck Jones. The story will hold you on the tip-toe of expectation from start to finish; and when it comes to the fight in the house perched upon the edge of the cliff with a precipice below, you will lose yourself to find yourself

Clyde Cook Comedy, "The Chauffeur."

Matinee 4 o'clock, 17c, thereafter, 20c.

Eagle Theatre.

MONDAY Special:—Shirley Mason, — "Queenie."

This is a charming picture with an abundance of human appeal—in fact some of the situations are so absorbingly human they make you feel as tho' you had been living close neighbors to this magnetic little star for moons and moons.

Sunshine Comedy, "Try and Get It."

Admission 20c.

SATURDAY: Sydney Chaplin, "King Queen Joker."

A riotous roar of unquenchable laughter, about a barber who tried to be a king. Thrill with close shaves and singing adventure. Guaranteed to massage away every line of care. Are you blue? Do you feel gloomy and glum? Then prescribe for yourself a seat at the Eagle Theatre next Saturday, when you may see a real joy picture. It is the "Ben Hur" of screen comedy.

Chester Comedy, "Peace and Quiet."

Admission 20c.

Special Prayer for the Healing of the Sick.

On the first Thursday afternoon of the New Year (Jan. 5th,) the Pastor of the Baptist Church will offer special prayer for the healing of the sick, from 2.00 to 2.30 o'clock, in the chapel. This will continue every Thursday afternoon at the time mentioned above, until further notice. Requests for prayer will be received by mail or from friends who are present at the services, and in both instances the name of the sick one must be given in full. Those who have any doubts in regard to prayer being answered and who are weak in faith, are cordially invited to be present. Requests for special prayer will be received from anyone, whether members of any church or not. The service will begin promptly at 2.00 o'clock and close promptly at 2.30. The Pastor wishes it to be distinctly understood that no laudatorial ideas in regard to Divine healing will be entertained, and in these services no human agency or methods except prayer, will be applied under any circumstances. Mr. Rook firmly believes that God has given intellect and ability to earthly physicians and nurses, and has called them into their work as strongly as He has called any pastor into the work of the Gospel ministry. Christ says in Matt. 9:12, "They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick." This passage might virtually be rendered, "They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick do need a physician." But prayer should be added to the efforts of these good men whom God has appointed to alleviate the sufferings of all mankind, and God's power and blessings should be asked upon their efforts. In other words, "God must be counted in," in order to make any earthly work effective.

These special prayer services have been suggested to Mr. Rook by wonderful answers to prayer, in his case and those of others, a number of which have occurred recently. She whole matter is simply summed up in the unconditional promise given in the word of God in James 5: 15. "The prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up." We are not asked by God to give our opinions upon this statement but to believe it. The great trouble in this age in which we live is that many people are getting entirely too smart to believe the grand old Bible, and the whole world is losing the blessing of healing, together with many others, as a consequence.

Mr. Rook will write short articles every week upon the same idea of Divine healing and the "Life of a simple faith." The first of these articles will appear in the Republican of January 14th, 1922.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Little Ha Ha Council, No. 27, D. of P., held on Monday, December 26th, 1921, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, the Great Spirit of the Universe having removed from our midst our sister, Past Pocatontas, Margaret Sutton.

Resolved, by Little Ha Ha Council, No. 27, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Great Spirit, we do not the less mourn for the sister who has been taken from us.

Resolved, that the heart-felt sympathy of this Council be extended to the family of our deceased sister, in their affliction, and I

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on the records of the Council, a copy sent to the family of our deceased sister, and to the Hamonton newspaper.
